

over, the whole of the capital invested in manufactories in this State is exempted from State, county and municipal taxation for ten years.

The money benefit is not all. Cotton mills give employment to women and girls, for whom there is little other profitable occupation in Southern cities.

These views have been advocated for many years, and it is with no ordinary satisfaction that we find that two large cotton factories are now projected, one of them to be situated in Charleston.

WAGONS! WAGONS! WE have recently been made the Agents for the PIEDMONT WAGON COMPANY, and at this time have a large number of samples of their work.

THE FIRST PREMIUM over all Western made wagons at the North Carolina State fair at Raleigh last fall. These works are of the experience of years, three standard brands of wagons, but yours was decidedly the best on corn and cotton. I don't want anything better than this. I am greatly conscientious in saying that I believe it doubled the yield of corn on which I applied it. Very truly yours,
