A Correction. Editor Enquirer: Having been advised that the impression prevails with some of the churches composing the York Baptist Association that the first of the proposed Mission Rallies agreed upon at the recent session of the association at Rock Hill, is to be held with the Clover Baptist church on November 28 and 29, I desire to correct the impression and to state that the first meeting will be held with Clover church on January 30-31, 1904, and due notice of the same will be given through the columns of this Enquirer. QUICK DEALING.

If you are anxious to dispose of property at its market value, remember a broker's talented auctioneer can give you more money, more pleasant and speedy relief than the sheriff's. Always take your medicine in the mildest form possible. I will advertise your property extensively, real estate or personal, and an abundance of thoroughly capable bidders will be willing to accept market values for. At auction is the best method to realize full value and quick results. An auctioneer who knows his business thoroughly can make property bring a great deal more. I always aim for the best talent that the sale will justify. Remember I am not confined to local buyers, as I
