NOTICE!

LEE'S MILL, ANDERSON DISTRICT,
January 20, 1868.
THE citizens of the surrounding country are respectfully informed that my

Wheat and Corn Mills

Are in successful operation. They are turning out a superior article, both of Meal and Flour. The usual toll of the country is charged, and customers will have their wants promptly attended to by a civil and attentive Miller. Thankful for the large patronage already bestowed, a continuance of the same is solicited.

ALSO,
That I am now putting up a complete set of machinery for the CLEANING OF RICE AND BARLEY. The Rice will be received in the straw or threshed. If brought in threshed out, a charge of twenty per cent. will be made for cleaning and assorting it, the Mill retaining the offal. The charge for threshing will be as usual for other grain.
Should any person wish to procure Seed Rice, I will furnish them a superior article at cost price, charging nothing for my services. The highest market price paid in cash or barter for Corn, Wheat, Kough Rice, Barley, or other grain.
