THE ANDERSON DEMOCRACY.

From the report of the proceedings of the County Executive Committee of the Democratic party, it will be seen that the Anderson Democracy is again in moving column, and ready for the coming contest.

OUR PREFERENCE.

While the INTELLIGENCER will most cheerfully support any candidate who receives the nomination for Governor from the Democratic State Convention, we will indulge our preference to such an extent as to present the name of Hon. William H. Wallace, of Union, the Judge of the Seventh Circuit, as our first choice for the important office of Chief Magistrate of South Carolina.

"MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING."

Under the above caption the Abbeville Press and Banner has the following reply to the article of the INTELLIGENCER, in reference to its statement about certain gentlemen of Abbeville County who have traded in Anderson during the past season:

RESPECTFULLY,

M. B. MCGEE, Editor Press and Banner: Your notice in last week's paper of our dissatisfaction of Anderson's cotton market, &c., is untrue. Your informer has made a wide mistake. W. P. McGee did not trade in Anderson during the past season at all. We were well pleased and well paid; could have bought cotton at Donaldville on our return, hauled to Anderson, and made good wages.

THE STATE NOMINATION.

The discussion of the propriety of making the nomination for State officers in June has elicited great difference of opinion among our exchanges, and in some instances there has been extreme warmth, if not bitterness, in the expressions about the call.

vention has only made the call in such manner as to authorize a nomination of State officers at the same time. The Convention which meets in June will not suppress, and coming from the people, can carry out the wishes of the majority of the Democrats of South Carolina.

Our contemporary has worked himself into such a "buff" about this "matter unworthy of a moment's consideration," we are willing to hear a little more on the subject of the controversy, and, therefore, would respectfully ask the name of the "reliable and truthful man" who made the statement which it published, and the Messrs. McGee pronounce "untrue."

In conclusion, we submit that as we publish all of the Press and Banner's articles in reply to us, that paper cannot, if fairly disposed, refuse to publish the replies to its articles. We have no ill-will towards the Press and Banner, but then it must not make mistakes about our County or Town without expecting us to correct them; and when we do correct them, without in any way impugning the motives or censuring the intentions of our neighbor, he must not mount such a high horse of indignation without expecting us to criticize his entire performance.

INTEMPERANCE AND CRIME.

Of all the evils under which our people are now laboring, none is so destructive of peace, happiness and prosperity as the intemperate use of intoxicating drinks, and it is somewhat appalling to see how decidedly this evil is on the increase.

THE CHRONIC RUMORS OF INDEPENDENT TICKETS ARE AGAIN AFOAT.

The chronic rumors of independent tickets are again afloat. This is not to be wondered at, nor is it seriously to be dreaded. There are always a set of hungry office-seekers who only claim to public recognition is a desire to get some place for which they are morally unfit, or both. They are eternally fault-finding and seeking to break up organizations of good people, in order to give themselves an opportunity to get into some office where they can live upon the public, and prosecute more successfully their nefarious ends.

A STATE TICKET.

The Abbeville Medium in its last issue contains the following ticket for State officers:

- FOR GOVERNOR: Gen. M. W. Gary, of Edgefield. LEUTENANT-GOVERNOR: Col. Robert Aldrich, of Barnwell. SECRETARY OF STATE: Gen. John Bratton, of Fairfield. TREASURER: Hon. James C. Cot, of Chesterfield.

OUR WESTERN CONNECTION.

The News and Courier says: It is not by any means sure that the Air Line Railroad has secured the control of the Tennessee end of the Blue Ridge Railroad, and it is suggested that the acquisition of this property is not likely to give the Air Line Railroad the control it desires.

The distance from Knoxville to Maryville is about eighteen miles, and the route is open, with easy grades. Any company that controls the North Carolina, the Georgia and the South Carolina sections of the Blue Ridge route can, no doubt, obtain a charter from the Tennessee Legislature for a road to Knoxville when the line shall be completed.

She avoided the negro man who made the assault, and rushed out of the piazza crying for assistance, when the assailant disappeared. This is the third time this family of ladies has been attacked in this manner, each time by the same person, as he is mentioned by Mrs. Fretwell.
