

W. W. KEYS, LOCAL EDITOR.

BRIEF MENTION.

It is about time for another hot supper.

The Town Clock was shipped from Boston on the 5th inst.

Cotton is still declining. Good middling was worth 10 1/2 yesterday.

Mr. W. D. Brown has moved into his new residence on River street.

Court for Oconee county convened in Wallhalla on Monday morning.

Wild turkeys range within less than a mile of the public square of our town.

Mr. W. W. E. Kolland, of the Fork, sold fifteen bales of cotton in town on Tuesday.

None but Sabbath breakers go out to see the new street and railroad Sunday afternoons.

Miss Lala Neville, a charming and most excellent young lady from Wallhalla, is visiting relatives and friends in our town and county.

Messrs. J. P. Sullivan & Co. advertise two hundred barrels of flour in this issue. Their stock of groceries is always complete and is sold at short profits.

Appointments of the Y. M. C. A. for next Sunday: To conduct the afternoon meeting, Col. J. N. Brown; P. House committee, G. F. Tolly, W. B. Todd.

Miss Susie Mauldin, an estimable lady, died at the residence of Mr. James B. Carpenter, in Broadway township, on last Monday, after a lingering illness of consumption.

The dedication of the Catholic church has been postponed from the 29th inst. to the 30th of April, by which time it will be completed. Bishop Lynch, of Charleston, will conduct the dedication services.

Married, on the 5th inst., by W. F. M. Fant, Esq., Mr. Mack Cromer and Miss Ellen Hallock; also, by the same officer, on the 10th inst., Mr. Geo. Graham and Miss Carrie Simmons—both of Fork township.

The cry of scarcity of farm laborers comes from every quarter of the county, and low demand is to be supplied this year is an unsolved problem. An influx of immigrants next fall would remedy the defect another year.

The peach trees are blooming at least a month later this year than last, and every body thinks, therefore, that we will have plenty of fruit. We hope so, but the fruit was not killed last year until the 23d day of April nor the year before until the 4th day of April.

Mr. A. M. Duffie, a promising young lawyer from Chester, has located at this place for the practice of his profession, and has formed a partnership with Maj. S. P. Denny, of Wallhalla. He is also associated with J. S. Duffie & Co., of Washington, D. C. See advertisements.

Dr. Joseph O. Wilhite, youngest son of Dr. F. A. Wilhite, graduated in medicine last week at the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, and returned home on Monday prepared to enter upon the practice of his profession. Joe is full of energy and gives promise of future usefulness.

An order went into effect on the Columbia and Greenville Railroad and its branches on the 15th inst. prohibiting all freight trains from transporting passengers. We understand this is caused by the liability to accidents on freight trains. It will be particularly hard on the commercial pilgrims, who do a great deal of their traveling on freight trains.

Among the visiting lawyers in Anderson during our recent Court were Col. J. S. Cotman, Capt. W. H. Parker, Mr. T. P. Cotman, Mr. D. H. McGill and Mr. E. A. Graydon, of Abbeville; Col. J. L. Orr, Col. W. H. Perry, Capt. G. G. Walls, Maj. J. H. Whitner and Judge T. H. Cooke, of Wallhalla; Maj. S. P. Denny and Col. J. J. Norton, of Wallhalla.

We print on our first page this week an abstract of the laws of this State relating to the public roads and bridges, which was carefully prepared for the County Commissioners of Oconee county and reproduced in our columns at the request of the Clerk of our own Board. It should be carefully read by all our citizens, and the paper carefully laid away for future reference.

A correspondent of the Wallhalla Courier, writing from Townville, in this county, says: "Messrs. Farmer & Bro. and Mr. McCasley, mercantile firms at this place, have decided to transfer their business shortly, the former to Anderson C. H. and the latter to Seneca City." Such men as the Messrs. Farmer will always be cordially welcomed by all classes of our citizens.

After a two weeks' session the Circuit Court for this county adjourned on last Friday evening. The work of the term was very heavy, and Judge Kershaw discharged great energy, ability and courtesy in disposing of it. His impartiality, coupled with his clear conception of the law, has won for him the admiration of our entire bar. The Judge left on Saturday morning for Wallhalla.

There will be a meeting of Associate Grange No. 1, P. of H., at Town Creek on next Saturday at 10 o'clock. Hon. B. F. Crayton will read an essay on Enslavement. Col. J. W. Norris, D. H. Russell, W. B. Watson, A. B. Bowden, Dr. J. G. Duckett and Wm. McWhorter will each read an essay on Cotton Culture. An interesting meeting is expected, and the public generally is invited to attend.

Miss Mary A. Robinson, daughter of Mrs. Eliza Robinson, of this place, died at the residence of her mother on last Saturday morning after an illness of two or three weeks. She was 51 years of age, and is mourned by a large circle of relatives in this and adjoining counties. The remains were interred in the Presbyterian graveyard on Sunday afternoon in the presence of a large concourse of friends, after funeral services by the pastor.

The Brown Brothers are opening out a large and excellent stock of general merchandise in the new store room east of the Masonic building, and desire the trading public to know of their whereabouts and that they are prepared to furnish goods of any quality and in any quantity at prices most reasonable. They are enterprising young men, and possess the superior business qualifications of prudence, sagacity, energy and industry. Their advertisement will appear next week.

The first installment of the $5,000 subscribed by the citizens of Bourdeau township, Abbeville county, to the capital stock of the Savannah Valley Railroad, has been paid over to Mr. W. S. Ligon, the Treasurer of the Company. The amount was $1,686, which is the largest sum yet paid by any township through which the road will pass. The remaining two-thirds of the subscription is secured by a strong bond, which provides for its payment in two equal annual installments. Bourdeau has done well.

Mr. J. P. Phillips, of Ninety-Six, and one of the most prosperous and successful merchants in the up-country, has recently been on a visit to Anderson, where he is well known and highly esteemed. He was formerly a citizen of our town, and his many friends here are watching his successful mercantile career with a great deal of interest and pleasure. He has never lost interest in Anderson, and in order to keep up with her affairs has been a constant reader of the INTELLIGENCER. May he live long and prosper.

The total number of delinquent taxpayers to the S. V. and A. & F. B. V. R. R. in the several townships in this county subscribing to the capital stock of the same is 1,803, apportioned among the townships as follows: Bolton 280, Williamston 169, Centerville 197, Dark Corner 98, Hall 76, Savannah 143, Varennes 178, Anderson 180. The whole number of taxpayers is about 2,800, and the above exhibit shows that in the aggregate a little over half the number have paid. The books of the town and county treasurers were closed on Thursday last, 10th inst., and at the expiration of the fifteen days allowed for taking up the penalty on unpaid amounts executions will be issued against all delinquents for twelfth.

The coal vein in this county, owned by Mr. P. A. Masters, on Seneca River, has been examined to some extent by Capt. A. C. Laughlin, representing the Department of Agriculture, but as it appears that there are two or more veins in close proximity to each other, a further investigation of the locality is necessary, on a larger scale, in order to find its true extent. Capt. Laughlin will make a further examination very soon, when a large quantity, if it proves valuable, will be excavated and taken to Columbia to be tested for gas, a former test having given very satisfactory results. The sample of the coal which we have seen, however, does not give promise of any very valuable results. It is too gritty, and appears to have very little combustible material in it. There is a possibility, however, that the quality will improve as the vein is followed below the surface.

In a note to the Southern Christian Advocate Rev. J. E. Carlisle, of this place, has this to say in reference to the prohibition movement now receiving attention in this county: "We need, and propose to have, reform in the license system in this town. We have six bar-rooms, well patronized and flourishing. Only strong measures will suffice. I think it a good plan to send up to the next session of the Legislature long petitions with the headings given by brother Lander; but this is not enough. Some pressure may be brought to bear on the Legislature, which will prevent the passage of such a law for the entire State, though I hope not. Failing to get that, why not try for it for individual counties and towns? This latter class are not numerous. Before three years pass over our heads opposition to this law will have passed away, all persons will cry out with one voice, 'It is good.' This law is very beneficial to the State; and especially is it beneficial to the lower section of Oconee.

In a private letter to Gen. W. V. Humphreys, Gen. M. W. Gary, of Edgefield, says that the grading of the Edgefield and Aiken Railroad will be completed in the course of three or four months, and that the Company is assured by the authorities of the South Carolina Railroad that within three months from the time the grading is completed they will have the trains running to Edgefield Court House. He also says that the people of Edgefield recognize the importance of making connection at the Greenwood and Augusta Road with the Savannah Valley Road, and that they propose to go to work at an early day to raise funds with which to continue the grading on all kinds of Machines at low prices.

A delicate child is more subject to worms than a healthy one, as in the economy of nature, one animal is made to subsist upon another, and the weaker goes down. At the first indication of worms administer Shiner's Indian Vermifuge, the infallible remedy.

SENECA, Ala., April 8, 1878. Mr. J. D. Goodwin, Agent—Dear Sir: I take pleasure in stating that I have used your Medicated Stock Feed on a very poor cow, with great success. She is now much better now, gives a great deal more milk, and is much superior. I therefore recommend this medicine to all who wish to improve their stock, cattle and horses, as it is truly what it is represented to be.

REUFALA, Ala., July, 1878. Mr. L. Shoemaker: I used one sack of your Stock Feed on my cow, with very satisfactory results. She had recently dropped her calf, and was in a poor condition, and by the use of your Stock Feed she was rapidly improved in flesh and milk. Sold by Wilhite & Wilhite, Anderson, S. C.

Sallie Spriggins, one of our rural sisters, had her picture taken the other day, and the likeness was wonderful to behold, but no remedy like Portaine, or Tabler's Vegetable Liver Powder, has ever been prepared. It will cure you. Price 50c. White's Cream White Vermifuge is the best worm killer. For sale by Wilhite & Wilhite, Druggists, Anderson, S. C.

The Abbeville Press and Banner says that "it has been reported that the Clyde Company, which bought the Greenville & Columbia Railroad, has in contemplation the building of the Atlantic and French Broad Valley Railroad," but does not vouch for the authenticity of the report, "having heard it in a general way." It is proposed, as our readers will remember, to extend this road from Belton by Honea Path, Donalds, Due West and Abbeville to the Greenwood and Augusta Road at near Trickett. We understand that the people of Abbeville county are somewhat divided on the question of voting a tax to help build the road through that county, and in order to settle the question petitions have been circulated in the different townships for signers, praying the County Commissioners to order an election on the question at an early day.

The Press and Banner favors building the road by taxation on the ground that all the citizens along the route will be equally benefited by the reduction in freights, the increased value of property, the business, social, religious and school advantages which will flow from it, and says that if it is attempted "to build it by private subscription the liberal man will be forced to give more than his quota to make up the deficiencies of the less liberal and progressive ones." "When the County Commissioners put the question before us, let us vote the tax and proceed to build the road," says our contemporary earnestly and enthusiastically. The building of the road through that section would certainly develop its resources and build up the town of Abbeville very considerably, and we shall watch the progress of the matter with great interest. As yet we have heard nothing of the circulation of a petition in Honea Path township asking for an election on the question, and in case the citizens do not there should remain lethargic we apprehend our Abbeville friends will be disappointed.

Rev. W. H. Strickland, in a letter to the Baptist Courier, gives the following information about the manufacture of commercial fertilizers, while writing about Port Royal, which we reprint for the edification of the general public: "We saw in the warehouse on the wharf 20,000 tons guano. It had been ground up in Dublin from the bone purchased at Charleston or Bull River, and brought back to be sold in the United States. Thus it had crossed the ocean twice. Capt. McFall called our attention to the old-fashioned honesty of these guano dealers. The phosphate all lay in one pile. It will be sacked, branded as of a dozen different kinds and qualities, with a different analysis stamped on each, professing to have been made in Baltimore or the 'Peaseco Phosphate Works,' or at Norfolk or somewhere else; and thus when a merchant orders 'Wharf Raw Bone,' it is sacked out of that pile; and 'Bihar' or 'Sea Fowl' or 'John Meriman,' &c., all from that same pile. The agent of 'Pacific' is eloquent over the special elements in that fertilizer for cotton, while the seller of 'Bang and Burger' is sure, from actual experience, that his is best suited to produce 'good lint.' &c. The honest old farmer, in August and September, meet and eat peaches and melons, and walk over their farms and discuss the relative merits of their different fertilizers, and little reek that all these different brands and analyses came from one bank at Port Royal, and was not manufactured in Baltimore or Charleston, but Dublin."

Fair Play Correspondence. It is seldom I have anything to write you from this place, and I have none now, but will send you a word or two on things in general.

The foremost thought among the people in this country is naturally about farming; but it can be said that cotton monopolizes more of the thought, time and lands of the farmers than any other farm product. This entire attention to one crop, and especially to cotton, is very detrimental to the true interests of the farmer. Diversified crops are what we need, and our farmers must have them to succeed. Last year's acreage in cotton was larger than that of the preceding year, and so will this year's acreage exceed last year's. I am speaking now especially of this immediate section, but still, I do not but that it would hold good if applied to the whole South. Corn, wheat, barley, oats and rye all grow well here, and can be raised profitably, though, notwithstanding this fact, our people buy their corn and flour from the Northwest. They are making less effort year by year to make home supplies of corn and wheat. This year's acreage of wheat is at least twenty-five per cent. less than last year's, and no doubt next fall the diminution will be as great as this year's has been over the last. The oat crop here is generally very small. Barley and rye you seldom ever see. This may look bad, but nevertheless I think, find it to be true. Guano is extensively used here.

Some of our people are highly elated at the passage of the stock or fence law for a portion of this county, and there are some pretty sour faces on the other side of the fence. This latter class are not numerous. Before three years pass over our heads opposition to this law will have passed away, all persons will cry out with one voice, "It is good." This law is very beneficial to the State; and especially is it beneficial to the lower section of Oconee.

For our part, I can say that, for sobriety, morality and children, it compares favorably with any town in the State. Our merchants are wide-awake and enterprising, and every thing known to us and Old Woman and Teetina is pre-eminently a success, and a blessing to mothers and children.

After trying Scientific Remedies without avail, and Physicians without relief, I gave your Teetina, and it acted like magic. I occasionally give a powder to keep my Child's gums soft.

The Washington Star says: "The gossips are putting the members of Ex-President Hayes's cabinet into any number of places, both at home and abroad. Ex-Secretary Goff, who went back to his district attorney's office in West Virginia, and Ex-Secretary Everts, who is president of the three American commissioners to the Paris monetary conference, are in truth the only members of Ex-President Hayes's cabinet who will be connected in any way with the public service under the new deal. Ex-Secretary Everts's family will remain here until the 1st of May, when they can occupy their house in New York, which was rented. The Washington house vacated by Mr. Everts will be taken by Senator Hill, of Colorado. Ex-Attorney-General Devens will spend the summer leisurely, and in the fall hang out his shingle in Boston. Ex-Secretary Schurz is going to settle in St. Louis, and devote much of his time to his newspaper interests there. Ex-Postmaster General McCandless is going back to Tennessee, where he has some property. He will look into politics down there. Ex-Secretary Ramsey will return to his home in Minnesota, where he has much property. He intends to look after his own business and give politics a wide berth. Ex-President Grant, who is to live here quietly. Ex-Vice-President Wheeler, who has gone to Florida for some weeks, will, after his return, pay a long visit to Europe.

Any Druggist will tell you what he knows about the merit of Shiner's Indian Vermifuge, the popular remedy.
