The policemen are having an easy time just now—nothing to do. This speaks well for Anderson.

The oat crop has been seriously injured all over the State. Our farmers, therefore, should plant more corn than usual.

Some of the farmers are planting corn. We hope every one in the County will make enough corn to do him next year.

The value of a good garden to a large family cannot be estimated. It should be half the living during the Summer months.

Another very large and appreciative audience greeted the Anderson Dramatic Association in Masonic Hall last Friday evening.

The gossamers are out of something to talk about. They are wondering now who will be the next couple in the city to get married.

Our Senior has planted his corn crop. Newspaper men, you know, have to eat corn bread for that and promise are all they live on.

The fire has been the chief topic of conversation for the past week. Nearly every man you meet has some incident to relate in regard to it.

There will be no services in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, as the pastor, Dr. Primmer, will preach at Midway Church on that day.

Mr. M. B. Arnstein, of the New York Cash Store, has returned from the North. He says he had a pleasant trip, and bought lots of goods.

The Court House building is being re-covered and otherwise improved. Anderson County needs a new Court House, and it should be built.

Married, at the residence of J. R. Lattimer, on March 5th, 1885, Mr. W. T. Lattimer, of Abbeville County, and Miss Janie Wilson, of Anderson, S. C.

There are two reasons why some people don't mind their own business. One is that they haven't any business, and the other is they haven't any mind.

Miss F. Erskine has opened out a millinery store at Pendleton. We bespeak for her a liberal patronage from the people of that section. See advertisement.

Miss Estelle Brown, of Anniston, Ala., an accomplished milliner, has taken charge of Mr. A. Lesser's millinery department. She arrived in the city last Tuesday.

The Honora Path Plaindealer says that Mr. John Wilson has tendered his resignation as Postmaster at that place, and that Mr. G. M. Greer has applied for the position.

Capt. Dwight, Chief Engineer of the Savannah Valley Railroad, was in the city last week. He reports the grading progressing rapidly, and says it will soon be completed.

Hon. D. F. Bradley, who, if it is understood, will succeed E. M. Brayton as Collector of Internal Revenue, is receiving scores of applications for the position of deputy, store-keepers, gaugers, &c.

Married, on the 17th inst., at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. A. S. Swanghine, by C. P. Rogers, Notary Public, Mr. John T. Burgess and Miss Ella Swanghine, all of this County.

Mr. A. Lesser comes to the front again with a big advertisement. His store presents a beautiful sight, and we advise our readers not to pass it by when making purchases. Read his advertisement carefully.

Miss Della Keys's advertisement appears in this paper. Our lady readers should be sure to read it. She is receiving her Spring millinery and notions, which she is offering at reasonable prices. Give her a call.

The Laurensville Herald, which was recently burnt out, has received its new outfit, and will make its appearance in its new suit this week. We hope the Herald will never have the misfortune to be burnt out again.

Married, on Sunday, March 22nd, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Harriet Simmons, by F. A. Daniels, Notary Public, Mr. B. F. Sanders, of Oconee County, and Miss Mollie Simmons, of Anderson County.

While out shopping, our lady readers should by all means call at Messrs. C. F. Jones & Co.'s, and see their pretty Spring goods, which are arriving every day. They sell the very best goods, and are satisfied with a very little profit.

Messrs. Sullivan & Bro. have moved their stock of goods to C. A. Reed's store-room, on Main street, near the railroad bridge, where they will remain until their new store-room is completed. Their customers should make a note of this.

Mr. J. A. Daniels makes an interesting announcement this week. Read what he says. He is going to give away another gold watch. His showcases have been recently refilled with a new lot of jewelry, which he is selling cheaper than ever before.

There will be no assessment of property for taxation by the Auditor this year. By a law enacted by the last Legislature there will be no "return" of property required this Spring, and no one need "give in" their property for taxation until January, 1886.

There will be a meeting of Sandy Springs Grange on Saturday, 4th of April, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing officers. A full attendance of the members is desired.

Editor Petty, of the Spartanburg Spartan, made a timely suggestion when he said the 4th of March should be set apart for returning all borrowed books to their proper owners. Let us have the list of April for such a work in Anderson.

Our old friend, D. A. Smith, of the Wallalla Courier, was in the city last Saturday, and, of course, called to see us. He looks as if Time was dealing gently with him. We were glad to see him, and regret that his stay in Anderson was so brief.

Miss Mary Robins died at the residence of Mr. W. J. Robins, in Garvin Township, on Friday, 13th inst., after an illness of two or three weeks, aged about 84 years. Her remains were interred at Trinity Methodist Church on the day following her death.

Mr. J. Pink Reed has something to say in another column. He is offering rare bargains in goods just now, and it will repay every one to visit his store. Persons indebted to the old firm of Reed & Moorhead will also find something of interest to them in the same advertisement.

Mr. John Hall, who resides in Oconee County, near Towalville, had a fine sorrel horse stolen from his stables last Friday night. Mr. Wm. James, keeper of Max-well's Bridge, who resides within a mile of Mr. Hall, also had one stolen from him the same night. There is no clue as to the thief.

It is astonishing how much better some people think they are than everybody else; but the day will come for the laughtiest when worms will devour his body as well as that of the humblest. The grave levels all ranks. The sexton never asks how much money is in the coffin.

To find out whether your oats are entirely killed or not, take hold of a bunch and pull. If it comes up easily and the roots look black, they are gone beyond redemption, but if they hold on pretty well there is a chance that the roots are not hurt and that they will come out—Exchange.

"Are you going to the Exposition, Mr. —" asked one gentleman of another the other day. "No, sir," he replied; "I intended going, but my wife and daughter have picked out new Spring bonnets, and by the time I pay for them I won't have money enough left to buy a chew of tobacco."

The last week of Lent, called Passion Week, begins on March 29th. On Easter Day (April 5th) the Holy Communion will be administered, and the offerings will be for the repairs of the Church.

Orders have been issued by the Post-office Department for the preparation of a new one cent newspaper postage stamp, which will be needed after July 1, because of the law passed at the recent session of Congress reducing the rate on newspapers. The stamp is to be similar in design to the present series of newspaper stamps ranging from two to ten cents.

A certain gentleman of this city, who recently visited New Orleans, met with a warm reception there. The landlady of his boarding house poured a hot cup of coffee down his back. It was an accident, of course, and the lady made no apologies. The gentleman told her it didn't hurt, but since his return home he has been using every known remedy for a burn.

The McCormick correspondent of the Abbeville Medium says: "The railroad boom has struck us broadside. The whole town and surrounding country are alive to the importance of the extension of the Savannah Valley Railroad to Aiken. Since the Savannah Valley Railroad is to be completed to this point by next Fall we hope to push the work to Aiken in a few months."

It will repay any person who is desirous of purchasing Spring goods to visit Mr. W. A. Chapman's store, where everything in the dry goods line can be purchased at remarkably low prices. Mr. Chapman is an experienced merchant, and handles nothing but the very best goods. Every article he sells is just what he represents it. Look out for his new advertisement next week.

Recently we have noticed a number of dogs on the streets without a collar. If we mistake not, there is a city ordinance requiring every owner of a dog to procure a collar and tag, with a number thereon, from the City Clerk, and all dogs found roaming around without this collar are to be killed by the policemen. This law should be enforced, as it would rid the city of a number of worthless curs.

List of letters remaining in the Post-office for the week ending March 25: T. W. Bowling, Kirksy Blasington, S. Franklin Brown, Pink Black, Jessie Conner, Joe Dimery, Will Donaldson, Jno. F. Ellison, R. A. Huskerson, Bill Holland, R. M. Meadlock, Burnett Norris, Wash McDowell, Clark Patterson, Miss Eliza Redmond, Ellison Ritt, Mrs. Caroline Roberson, Anthony Rucker, Baylis Williams.

Mr. L. P. Smith will leave Anderson next Wednesday with another excursion party for the Exposition, going through in a special car via the Atlanta & New Orleans Short Line. Persons contemplating going should notify Mr. Smith at once, and if sleeping car accommodations are desired, berths will be secured in advance. The probability is that the party will be a large one, and a pleasant trip is in store for those who go.

Margaret Mavorick, an old colored woman residing at Pendleton, was burned to death last Friday morning about 3 p. m. The old woman lived alone in a cabin, and it is not known how she caught fire. Directly across the street from where she lives stands a church. About the hour named some person was passing along the street and saw her under the church with what he supposed, a fire. As she had been for a long time in a demented condition, it was feared that she would burn the building. The Town Marshal, who was at once notified of her condition, went to where she was, and found her barely alive, with her clothing nearly burned off of her person. It is supposed that she caught fire in her house and then ran across the street and crawled under the church. Coroner Nancy held an inquest over the remains on Friday, when a verdict in accordance with the above facts was rendered by the jury.

Limbe.—One car load of best limo just received by C. A. Reed, who expects to keep a full supply on hand hereafter.

Every one should visit C. F. Jones & Co.'s store. It is full to overflowing with beautiful goods, and they sell as low as any house in the up country.

For nice Hats, Shirts, Cottonades and Cassimeres, cheap, go to C. F. Jones & Co.

A Serious Affray. On last Thursday evening at about 7 o'clock a serious difficulty occurred in Jail street, near the rear of Mr. John O'Donnell's saloon, in which P. Haughey received five dangerous wounds in the head—four inflicted with a piece of marble, 6 by 12 inches, and one with a knife, the latter reaching from behind the ear across the temple, severing two arteries in its course. He was also slightly cut on the left arm. Haughey says that he with James Moore and William Kennedy were in O'Donnell's saloon, and had taken a drink or two, when James Moore bantered the crowd for a wrestle. He accepted, and Moore, Kennedy and some others he did not know went into the street, and when ready for the wrestle he saw several persons, and attempted to ward off the blows, until the parties were separated from him. But until he went to the light did he discover that he was cut. He states that he had no difficulty with any person. The parties who wounded Haughey are said to be James Moore, Thomas Moore and William Kennedy, and their reasons for the attack upon him cannot be ascertained, as they have either left the County or secreted themselves since the occurrence. Warrants were taken for them the next morning, but the officers have so far been unable to find them.

The foregoing is the version of this unfortunate difficulty current upon the streets, though we are informed that the friends of these young men claim that at the proper time they will show a different state of facts entirely. In the meantime, it is fair to all the parties concerned, that public opinion should await the full development of the affair before deciding the merits of the difficulty.

The occurrence is generally regretted, and is attributed to over indulgence in liquor. Mr. Haughey, whose wounds were dressed by Drs. S. M. Orr and J. O. Whitte, is doing very well, and is now supposed to be out of danger.

A Disgruntled Republican. WASHINGTON, March 13.—The Senate, in executive session, confirmed the nomination of Jas. S. Miller to be Commissioner of Internal Revenue, vice Evans, removed. Mr. Evans said to-day that it was not true, as was asserted in the executive session of the Senate yesterday, that he had expressed to Secretary Manning a willingness to resign.

"As a matter of fact," said Evans, "I not only have not resigned, nor have I ever had a word of conversation on the subject with either the President or Secretary Manning, on the subject."

Evans has written a letter to the Secretary of the Treasury in regard to the matter, of which the following is a copy: Hon. Daniel Manning, Secretary of the Treasury: Sir—I have received your letter of this date, in which you state that by direction of the President I am informed that my "resignation" as Commissioner of Internal Revenue "is accepted," to take effect upon the qualification of my successor.

I was hardly prepared to receive such a letter to-day, in view of the fact that I had not resigned, and especially as my information that my successor was nominated to the Senate yesterday. I thought I had proper that I should take this occasion to state that while I have never resigned nor ever had a proper opportunity to talk to you upon the subject, still it has been my fixed purpose to resign at an early day, in no event later than the close of the fiscal year, my second in office, and I thought I had probably a fair right to assume the existence of apparent cause for believing that there was too great a disposition to avoid hasty removals, to make it necessary for me to speak of it, in all, in the hurry of earlier days of the administration. I was no thought or desire to embarrass anybody, and not supposing that I was doing so.

Very respectfully, WALTER EVANS, Commissioner.

The James' bank building, six stories, in Atlanta, was destroyed by fire last night, at about 2 o'clock, involving a loss of many thousands of dollars. One man was burned to death and two others probably fatally injured. Several families made very narrow escapes.

Beware of Mercury and Potash. Mercury is a most destructive to human health. Life that was once healthy and happy, is often ruined by the use of this poisonous substance. So said a distinguished writer many years ago, and it is as true to-day as then. The poor victim of this disease is dragged to the grave, and to cure the malady, and then dozed with Iodides to cure him of the Mercurial Poisoning; but instead of any relief, the doctor's dose has done but to make him a cripple, and the other ruins his digestive organs. Mercury and Potash are dangerous even when administered by directions and under the eye of a good physician, and when put up in nostrums, often by incompetent persons, are apt to produce evil consequences. Be careful of these poisonous mixtures or you may regret it. Swift's Specific is entirely a vegetable preparation, and should not be confounded with the various preparations, many of which are "Succus Aterans," etc., all of which either contain Mercury and Potash, or are composed of old remedies which have long since been discarded as worthless in the treatment of Blood Diseases, and none of them contain a single article which enters into the composition of Swift's Specific. There is nothing in the world like it. Be sure to get the genuine.

Inflammatory Rheumatism. I have been afflicted for nearly fourteen years with the severest form of inflammatory rheumatism. For a large portion of the time was confined to bed, and suffered the most excruciating pain. My legs badly swollen. My case was thought incurable by the physicians and I have often hoped that death would ensue and relieve me of pain. Last month I secured, at the suggestion of a friend, one dozen bottles of Swift's Specific and after using about six bottles I am entirely free from pain. My joints are becoming more supple and the swelling gone. I am ready to answer any inquiries as to the facts in the case. Call at A. K. April 1st, 1885.

For several months Sims, who acquired notoriety by ill treating his wife in Aiken County, has been living at Highlands, Macon County, North Carolina, and since his last trouble with his wife, has, by the help of an unprincipled lawyer, kept the community in which he lived in a continued state of disturbance. He has encouraged the illicit whiskey business to such a degree that the United States revenue officers were obliged to take matters in hand.
