completed. BRIEF MENTION,

The time for paying taxes expires on the 30th inst. The Baptist State Convention convenes at Greenville to-day.

Rev. W. F. Pearson, of Due West, was in the city last Monday.

Mr. T. A. Archer and family, of this city, have moved to Easley. See what W. S. Ligon & Co. have to say in their new advertisement.

Cur old friend, W. C. Sherard, of Monterey, gave us a call last Saturday. Mr. J. M. Smith offers a desirable house and lot for sale. See advertisement.

Mr. A. B. Towers has just received a lot of fresh buckwheat, which is excellent. Try it.

The Plaindealer says Dr. M. C. Parker, of Honea Path, has gone on a visit to Florida. Be charitable. When a man's coat is threadbare it is an easy matter to pick a hole in it.

Mrs. L. P. Smith left on Tuesday for Florida, where she will spend some time with relatives. Mrs. J. E. Breazeale went to Walhalla last Friday to attend the bedside of her father, who is quite ill.

The Festival given by the ladies of the Baptist Church on Tuesday was a success financially and socially.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Haddon, of Due West, spent last Sunday in the city, on a visit to the latter's mother.

Hon. B. F. Crayton, of this city, has been re-elected a Vice-President of the State Agricultural Society. Farmers, don't bring your cotton to market on next Thursday, as all the stores will be closed on that day.

Mr. Wm. Pendle is furnishing his customers with some very fine beef and pork and excellent sausage. Try him.

The first drove of hogs for this season arrived in the city last week. They are selling at 6 cents per pound, gross.

Mr. J. S. Fowler has had a horse stolen from him, and offers a reward of $25 for the horse and thief. See advertisement. On Wednesday cotton was quoted in the city as follows: Middling, 81; good middling, 9; strict good middling, 9 to 91.

Mr. E. L. Clarke, of Newberry, S. C., spent last Saturday and Sunday in the city. Newberry seems to be treating him well

When in the city the survivors of Com-pany "F," 24th Regiment, should not neglect to call at this office and get a/copy of their roll. Miss May Capers and Miss Kittle Marshall, two of Greenville's most fascinating belies, spent Monday night in the city with friends.

Dr. Frierson's sermon, which we publish on the first page of the Intelligencer this week, should be read by every

From the reports in the papers the New Orleans Exposition, which opened on the floth inst, is an improvement on the Exposition of last Winter.

Married, on Sunday, 15th inst., in Beaverdam Church, by Rev. G. M. Rogers, Mr. B. E. Middleton and Miss L. M. Adkins, all of this County.

The schedule on the C. & G. R. R. has been changed so that the morning train reaches Anderson at 10.22 and the evening reaches Anderson at 10.22 and the evening train for Walhalla arrives at 4.47.

Our country friends should bear in mind that there will be no business transacted in Anderson on Thursday, 26th inst., which is Thanksgiving Day.

Our estimable friend, Mr. Silas Kay, has our thanks for some very large turnips.

Mr. Kay is an excellent farmer, and always has fine crops of everything.

The Harbor at Providence Camp Ground is offered for sale. Any person wishing to buy it should consult Messrs. J. T. Cook, T. C. Shearer or J. C. Winter.

The McCormick Advance says some of the timbers of the Little River trestle, on the Savannah Valley Railroad, were washed away by the freshet on the 7th

By request, Rev. J. S. Murray will de-liver an address on the subject of tem-perance at the Six-and-Twenty Church on the first Sunday in December next, at 3

We are under obligations to Mr. A. B. Towers for some very fine swc: pointoes. Mr. Towers is perhaps the most successful potato grower in the city. He is never without them.

Note the change in Sullivan & Bro's advertisement. Their stock of sportsmen's goods is very large, and it will repay any one to visit their store and see their display.

We are requested to state that the Rev. J. S. Murray will preach, by request, at the Lebanon Church on the first Sabbath in December next, at 11 o'clock a. m., on Thanksgiving Day will be more generally observed this year than any year since the war, especially in this State. In nearly every town business will be suspended during the entire day.

Sherman Smith, who is serving a lifeterm in the State Penitentiary from this County for arson, made an effort to escape from that institution last Thursday. He got outside, but was recaptured. Married, at the home of the bride, in Greenville, Ala., on the 16th inst., Mr. B. Gaillard Brown, of Charleston, formerly of this city, and Miss Ida Reeves. Accept our congratulations, Gaillard.

The fare from Anderson to Charleston during the Centennial Exhibition of the S. C. Agricultural Society will be $7.05. The tickets will be put on sale next Monday, and will be good for ten days.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet in their hall on next Tuesday afternoon, instead of the meeting which should have been held on last Tuesday. A full attendance is desired.

Thanksgiving Day being a National holiday, the National Bank will be closed that day, (next Thursday). Persons having papers maturing on that day should bear this in mind, and make their arrangements accordingly.

The members of St. Paul's Baptist Church will have a Festival for the benefit of their Church in the Good Samaritan Hall this (Thursday) evening. Good meals will be served at a reasonable price. The patronage of the white citizens is solited.

Miss Helen Reed, only daughter of Mr. C. A. Reed, all of this city. The couple left the city Thursday afternoon on a tour to several of the Northern cities.

pays nothing for his preaching cannot be greatly benefited by the preaching he hears. Too many men are sponging their way through the Church, but they can't not attempt to state who did the shooting, instead of the morning preceding it. In our article last week we did not attempt to state who did the shooting, sponge their way into Heaven."

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Anderson Farmer's and Mechanic's Fair Association met in the Court House guilty parties, whoever they may be. on Wednesday morning, and after paying all expenses, declared a division of assets, which will pay 150 25-100 per cent. on the original stock. The association retains its charter, and a new organization will Arthur, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Scott, of Brushy Creek Township, died on Friday, 13th inst., after a brief illness, from croup, aged 3 years. This makes the fourth child these parents have lost from croup. They have the sympathies of many friends in their bereavement.

Mr. J. J. Finley's gin house, in Hall Township, was burned on the morning of the 11th inst., just before daylight. Mr. Finley estimates his loss at about $1,000. He thinks it is the work of an incendiary. This makes the second time his gin house has been destroyed by fire in the last twelve months. The National Thanksgiving Day appointed by the President for Thursday, the 26th inst., will be observed by the good citizens of Williamston with appropriate service in the chapel of the Female College. The Rev. D. W. Hiott will deliver the sermon for the occasion, and other addresses and exercises will be had. A. S. Stephens, James M. Payne, J. J. Baker, W. A. Chapman, W. F. Barr,

Col. Trowbridge and his Band boys returned home Saturday night, feeling as happy as when they left. They furnished the music for the State Fair, and played continuously for about six hours every day. The boyz say they never had a better time nor were they ever better treated than in Columbia. It is a trip that they will not soon forget.

E. B. Donnald, who recently received the appointment for the Postmastership at Williamston, has taken charge of the Since the days of "rec tion," the place has been nominally occupied by Mrs. J. B. Herrick, who formerly resided in Williamston, although the duties of the position have been administered by Thomas Crymes, up to the time of the new appointment.

The ladies should not forget the recep-tion at the Sewing Machine Emporium of Mr. C. A. Reed, which takes place to-day. It will be very interesting, as an expert operator will be present, who will show ladies, and others who may be present, what can be done on a machine. Last week we gave Tuesday and Wednesday as the days when it should have been as the days, when it should have been Wednesday and Thursday.

The pastors of the various Churches in the city have arranged for a Thanksgiving service, to be he held in the Baptist Church on next Thursday, 26th inst., at 11 o'clock a. m. Rev. J. W. Wolling, of the Methodist Church, will preach the sermon. The merchants and business men generally of the city have agreed to close their respective places of business for the day. Everybody, therefore, should, go out and participate in the Thanksgiving service.

Bowen, there would be no citizens who would more promptly respond to a call to preserve the public tranquility and bring the perpetrators to punishment than we would. We condemn lawless-ness in any shape, and have no spmpathy with malefactors of any kind.

It is a notorious fact that W. J. Bowen has rendered himself so unpopular, not less by his political standing than by his unwontable and malicious slander against his neighbors, (of whom there are few who acknowledge themselves on good terms with him,) that it would be difficult to saddle any particular person with guilt

Col. Elias McGee, of Corner Township, cot. Enas McGee, of Corner Township, had his gin house, together with his gin, press, a two-horse wagon, about five bales of cotton, and the seed of thirty bales of cotton, destroyed by fire on the night of the 9th inst. The fire was discovered about 12 m., but it had made such a headway that it was impossible to save any-thing in the building. Several adjacent buildings were also consumed. Col. Mc-Gee attributes the burning to matches having been accidentally dropped in the

The dwelling house, together with all its contents, of Mr. R. R. Keaton, who resides near Ebenezer Church, in Martin Township, was destroyed by fire on last Thursday. Mr. Keaton and family were absent from home at the time, he being in this city selling some cotton. All of his outbuildings, except his corn crib, were also hunt. The cause of the fire is unalso burnt. The cause of the fire is un-known, though it is supposed to have been accidental. Mr. Keaton is a worthy, industrious young man, and the loss is quite a misfortune to him.

List Friday morning, between 4 and 5 o'clock, the large two-story dwelling house of Mr. H. O. Herrick, situated at the extreme ond of McDuffie street, just outside of the city limits, was entirely destroyed by fire. The members of the household were aroused just in time tesses from the household were time to escape from the burning building.
They saved only the clothing on their backs and a few pieces of furniture. The fire is supposed to have been accidental.
Mr. Herrick estimates his loss at about $3,700, on which there was insurance to the amount of $2,800.

Mr. Joseph B. Rogers died at his residence in Williamston, on Saturday last, after an illness of two weeks from Pneumonia, aged about fifty-five years. Mr. Rogers went to Texas when quite a youth, and returned with impaired health. He has been a merchant in Williamston for more than thirty years, and was an upright and highly respected gentleman.
During his business life he was eminently successful, and accumulated a handsome property. He was a man of generous and noble impulses, which made him many friends. His remains were interred in the Methodist Cemetery on Sunday, after appropriate funeral services, conducted by Rev. Samuel Lander, D. D., and attended by many relatives and friends of the deceased.

Cunningham & Fowler say they have never yet had one word of complaint from a purchaser. It is stylish, durable and easy running, and is sold at a low price. price.

We cheerfully give space to the com-munication of Messrs. Gray and Hillhouse this week. It is justice to Mr Bowen to say that before their article was Married, on Wednesday evening, 11th handed in he called at our office and informed us that we were mistaken in two by Rev. T. P. Bell, Mr. R. S. Ligon and particulars in the report of the shooting to several of the Northern cities.

The following timely and pointed truth is copied from an exchange: "A man who of warning, which should have been of warning, which should have been like the state of the several points." and we have no disposition to do more than unqualifiedly to condemn the shooting, and to insist that every effort shall be made to ferret out and punish the

MR. EDITOR: In your issue of 12th inst. was published in the local columns, under the heading of "A Dastardly Outrage," an account which has tended more or less to stigmatize our neighborhood and prejudice public opinion against two of its young men.

We are satisfied that your reporter has not been actuated by partisan motives.

The holiness meeting in the Methodist not been actuated by partisan motives, and one holines meeting in the Methodist obtained from a source antagonistic to the celebrated Eagle Shoe, manufactured at Fredericksburg, Va., and are obtained from a source antagonistic to the two gentlemen whose names are made to leather, or money refunded if they are appear so prominently. We, therefore, beg leave in the absence of the parties to show that the shield has another side. It is not our purpose to vindicate wrong and at the outset we submit that if we betified. The interest in the intention of the intention of to saddle any particular person with guilt in reference to the charge, and we, there-fore, beg that the public will suspend jndgment until further developments, which will appear after judicial investigation.

It is true there is no congeniality between W. J. Bowen and the two young men, but we are prepared to say that in no event would Wade Chamblee or Sam Hillhouse be guilty of a cowardly act. And now for a plain statement of facts:

This coffin that reference has been made to was found or said to have been found. to was found, or said to have been found, in his yard not far from 1st of last May, have been worse than child's play.

To sum this thing up, it is the opinion of the neighbors that the whole thing is a fabrication, and that W. J. Bowen is the perpetrator of the only crime which he alleges has been committed against himedge of a warrant having been issued against them. It has only a short time since that the whole points that the whole points against them. an evasion from arrest or of guilt. They left Anderson County without the knowlsince that the whole neighborhood was summoned at midnight to make an arrest of parties from Georgia who had sur-rounded Bowen's house to do him or his son some injury. Some escaped while others were placed under bond to keep the peace.

BLECKLEY. BROWN & FRETWELL

HIS business was founded over forty years ago, and has been in successful ope- anywhere ration ever since, with a steadily increasing volume of business, as our books show Our Senior, who guides her helm, is steering her through the breakers, and is ever on the lookout for her safety. The reason of this largely increased trade is easily explained in the fact that we ry to do business upon sound business principles. We buy only saleable merchandise, strictly for Cash, in large quantities, and original packages from first

We bought 100 SACKS RIO COFFEE for one-half cent per pound less than the same Coffee can he bought for in small lots. We offer for sale 50 BOXES TOBACCO at 35 cents per pound, worth 45c. We have sole control of LEVERING'S ROASTED COFFEES. Try a ound of it, and you will use it always.

We bought 500 Barrels of Flour before the rise.
