A. G. MEANS,
Anderson's Popular Clothier,
Always Ahead.

I have just returned from the Northern markets, and can show the trading people of Anderson the finest line of

CLOTHING,
Gents' Furnishing Goods,
HATS AND SHOES,
Ever shown in Upper South Carolina.

Look at our Prince Albert Suits,
Look at our Cutaway Suits,
Look at our Square Cut Sack Suits,
Look at our Double-breast Square Cut Sack Suits,
Look at our Double-breast Round Cut Sack Suits.

IN OTHER WORDS,
ALL THE LATEST STYLES IN FALL CLOTHING,

Don't Forget Mason 350 Dollars—close to small and large.
Don't Forget Mason 500 Dollars—every part guaranteed.
Look at the least in Men and Boys—don't overlook the Fall and Winter line.

This is a large stock, and it must be sold. I have always done the Clothing business of Anderson and will continue.

By public demand, you will find no second suits, and we will be glad to sell you the largest stock in the city.

BARGAINS
IN CLOTHING!

Our Buyer while North succeeded in purchasing the entire Stock of a Clothing Manufacturer who is retiring from business, and we therefore offer to our friends and patrons:

A LARGE STOCK OF GOOD CLOTHING

To select from, and at

Prices Never Before Heard of in this Country.

We propose to be impartial as a WHOLESALE PRUDENT, and give our trade the benefit of our large stock. As long as the present crop continues, our orders will be filled.

UNDERBUY AND UNDERSELL.

Selling and buying for the "Immediate Success."

We sell away from the floor, and finally away from the market, and finally away from ourselves until they match the "magic-word." "Fixed."-
