LOCAL NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 22, 1893.

Oh, how we would like to see cotton go to ten cents a pound.

Call on us if you want good job printing done at the lowest living rates.

Mr. P. B. Langston, of Pelzer, spent a few hours in the city yesterday.

Anderson County has five students in Furman University at Greenville.

The public schools of Hall Township will open next Monday, 27th inst.

Anderson County is well represented at the Augusta Exposition this week.

Strong drink has caused many a good man's downfall. So have bananas skins.

Several cases of the grip are numbered among the patients of the city physicians.

The weather prophets seem to be correct, so far, in the prediction of a coming cold winter.

The South Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church convenes in Sumter on the 6th December.

A light snow fell in the Blue Ridge Mountains last Wednesday morning. We felt it down here.

It will be of interest to you to note what Taylor & Crayton say in their advertisement this week. Read it.

Cotton is quoted this morning as follows: Strict good middling, 7 1/2; good middling, 7 1/4; middling, 7.

Anderson County now has twenty-eight patients in the State Lunatic Asylum—eleven males and seventeen females.

Hog cholera is raging in some portions of the State. It is reported that the disease should not delay butchering at first opportunity.

Christmas will soon be here. So boys and girls had better be careful not to offend Old Santa Claus, or he may pass you by.

Remember that the banks will be closed and the cotton buyers will be off the market on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, 30th inst.

The Augusta Exposition is now in full blast, and as the F. R. & W. C. R. E. is very low, our people should not miss it.

Married, November 11, 1893, in Fork Township, near Tugaloo River, by Rev. T. C. Ligon, Mr. R. E. Mowley and Miss Ada Durbin.

Married, at Pelzer, on November 20, 1893, by P. B. Langston, Notary Public, Mr. Elijah Osborne and Miss Annie Grant, all of Anderson County.

The tracts of land which were advertised to be sold at Pelzer last Tuesday, have been sold at 10 o'clock, Thursday, 30th inst. See advertisement.

Mr. Wm. C. Miller, who has been spending a few weeks in Abbeville County, has returned to his home in this city.

Miss Lizzie Kenna, who has been in Columbia, visiting the family of Capt. W. B. Lawrence, left for Anderson County to visit the Exposition in Augusta.

Rev. Dr. Riley, of Pickens, filled his regular appointment at Midway Church last Sunday, and then came to the city and preached in the Presbyterian Church at night.

The Legislature meets in Columbia next Tuesday. We will endeavor to keep the Legislature readers posted on all matters of importance that will come before it.

A house and lot on East Boundary street and $1,000 (par value) of Alliance stock are offered for sale. See advertisement of J. W. Quattlebaum in another column.

Married, at the residence of Mr. M. H. Graham, on Tuesday, November 14, 1893, by J. M. Bryson, Notary Public, Mr. John P. B. Langston and Miss Sarah Langston, all of Anderson County.

Dean, Geer & Moore have a new advertisement in this paper, and we advise you to read it carefully. They have a big stock of general merchandise, and their prices will please you. Call on them.

We are indebted to Mr. W. A. Neal, Superintendent, for the annual report of the Board of Directors and Superintendent of the South Carolina Penitentiary for the fiscal year ending October 31, 1893.

Mr. John F. Bronson, who is representing the New York Life Insurance Company, is spending a few weeks in the city. Mr. Bronson is an intelligent, genial gentleman, and makes friends wherever he goes.

The folks are not crowding the County Treasurer to any considerable extent in their anxiety to pay taxes. You may rest assured there will be no extension this year, as the time for closing the books is fixed by law.

Brownlee & Vandiver will offer until Christmas some special bargains in every line of their goods, and they have a big stock to select from. Read their new advertisement, which will give you all necessary information.

The State Supreme Court will open its full session on Friday, 23rd inst., and the Eighth Circuit will not be called before Monday, January 15th, 1894. Applications for admission to practice law must be filed on or before December 31st.

Mr. Geo. F. King, of the Pendleton section, expects to move with his family to Texas in two or three weeks. Mr. King is an upright, well-to-do man. The party we regret to see him leave our County, we wish him much success in his new home.

Married, at 10:30 o'clock, this (Wednesday) morning, at the residence of Mr. A. L. Welch, by Rev. O. V. Bonner, of the West, Mr. John N. McMill of Donaldville, S. C., and Miss Ida F. Stone, of this city. The bride is the daughter of Mr. J. W. Stone, of the home of the groom.

The price of $5, offered by Messrs. Orr & Sloan to the person who would grow the largest turpin from seed purchased of them, has been awarded to Mr. John Thompson, an energetic farmer of the Waco section. His turpin weighed nine pounds and one ounce.

W. K. Sanborn has an advertisement in another column that will interest every reader of the Intelligencer. He offers his entire stock of stationery, blank books, pens, ink, pencils, Christmas and holiday cards, etc., at New York cost. Live him a call and secure bargains.

Last Thursday Judge Wallace, at Greenville, signed an order staying the execution of the death sentence of J. Mims Sullivan pending the appeal to the Supreme Court. As the appeal cannot be heard until next Spring, Mr. Sullivan will remain in the Anderson Jail.

J. K. Hood, Esq., returned to the city last Saturday, after having spent the previous ten days in West visiting his mother and family, who departed a few days ago for their new home in Barrow, Alaska. Hood is the head of a flourishing College there.

If you are hunting for a bargain in flour, we advise you to read J. A. Anderson's advertisement. These gentlemen also keep a fine stock of groceries, canned goods, confections, cigars, tobacco, etc., and they are selling at good and low prices. Building up a good trade, for which they feel grateful. Give them a trial.

The Hartwell (Ga.) Star says: "Prof. F. D. Don is the Principal of the High School at Fair Play, S. C., the fall session of which began on November 13th. Prof. Don has the reputation of being a fine teacher, and is a young gentleman of solid acquirements. The good people of Fair Play are to be congratulated upon securing his services."

The Das West correspondent of the Asheville (N. C.) Daily Citizen says: "Hon. R. P. Clinckenshel, of Moffattville, came down Saturday for a short visit to his friends here. He was accompanied by two little daughters, Misses Mary and Ophelia. Mr. Clinckenshel feels an interest in our schools. He visited the school here, and we hope to see his daughters here in a few days."

Mr. Thos. C. Watt, of the Roberts section, was in our office a few days ago, and informed us that he would be moving West, and will locate in Sevier County, Ark. Mr. Watt is one of Anderson County's best citizens, and we with his many friends regret to see him leave our County. He will carry with him our best wishes for health and success in his new home.

Mr. J. A. Brock's elegant new residence on McDuffie street is completed and will be occupied in a few days. It is perhaps one of the most substantial and convenient houses in the city. The architect is Mr. C. M. Guesz, who is one of Anderson's best builders and architects.

County Treasurer Payne has finished his office duty and will be closing his books on the 30th December. He says he will have to visit an average of four hundred residents a day from now until the closing day in order to accommodate all the taxpayers of the County. This is a heavy duty, and he will have to pay the penalty. Take our advice and get your receipts as soon as possible.

Mr. Wm. E. Cotnam, who lives in the Town of Creek, had the misfortune to have his dwelling house destroyed by fire last Friday night, being caused by a lamp overturning on the pile of household goods and about 2,000 pounds of seed cotton. The house was comparatively new, and the loss was a heavy one. Mr. Cotnam has no insurance. Mr. Cotnam is an energetic young farmer, and with his neighbors and friends will soon be on his feet again.

We know we express the wish of not only his own congregation but the wishes of our whole people, when we say that we regret to see Mr. Cotnam leave our County. He is a zealous pastor of the Methodist Church, and he has labored faithfully during the year, and now that his health is mending rapidly he will be in a better condition to do his duty. He is most highly esteemed by our people, and makes a friend of every acquaintance.

The Wallaba Courier, of last week, says: "Mrs. Edward Whitten and her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Smith, of Anderson County, paid us an appreciated call this (Thursday) morning. Mrs. Whitten is a sister of Mrs. D. L. Dulaney, and Mrs. Smith is a sister of Mr. H. D. Roebuck of this County. They are on a visit to their friends here, and we were pleased to meet them and renew the acquaintance of former years. Strong are the bonds of friendship when formed in the days of early youth."

Last Sunday morning Mr. Joseph Parker, of Hall Township, had the misfortune to lose his dwelling house by fire, caused by defective fire. Mr. Parker had just built it in the stove, got breakfast and had gone back in his bedroom to sit by the fire. Directly he heard a roaring noise, and as he entered the stove room he discovered the flames, which had already got a good start. The spread rapidly, and Mr. Parker saved only a portion of the contents of his house. He had a small insurance on the property. He expects to rebuild immediately.

Rev. A. T. Dunlap and wife, who are now temporarily residing in Spartanburg, have been spending a few days in the city, and on Sunday morning the former preached a most interesting sermon in the Methodist Church. Mr. Dunlap and family have been residing in California, but on account of the bad health of his little boy he has been forced to return to his native State, and it gives us pleasure to announce that the little boy's health is rapidly improving. Mr. Dunlap will join the South Carolina Conference at the approaching session and continue to work for his Church in this State. He has a host of old friends in Anderson, and all of us were delighted to greet him.

The Elberton (Ga.) Star, of the 17th inst., says: "On Friday, October 10, 1893, the office of the A. L. R. R. Equitable Building, a meeting of the stockholders of the G. & N. R. R. was held at 10 o'clock. The meeting was called by Mr. A. L. R. R. McAlpine Arnold and S. M. Pickett, of Elberton, were substituted for those of Hoke Smith and C. A. Collier, of Atlanta, as directors of the G. & N. R. R. This is a compliment and a high tribute to the worth and business ability of Messrs. Arnold and Pickett. Both of these gentlemen are well known in Elberton, and have the esteem and confidence of the community. Mr. Pickett is a native of Anderson County, and his many friends and relatives here will join us in extending him congratulations on his appointment as a director of the G. & N. R. R. His home has been transferred upon him."

Among the INTELLIGENCER'S many subscribers is a young lady, Miss N. J. Chambliss, who lives in the Roberts section, and who is one of our most successful farmers. She has a good farm and superintends it herself, and as a female farmer we doubt if she has her equal in South Carolina. Buy Wheelock High Grade Piano. It has many claims of superiority. In tone it is sweet, clear, musical, and has great breadth. The touch is light, responsive and elastic, and it is unsurpassed in point of finish and durability, while the price remains the lowest consistent with the best grade of workmanship. Large stock always on hand, and for sale on liberal terms at the C. A. Reed Music House.

The Enterprise Furniture Co. is loading up with a large stock of Furniture, and other necessary articles of house furnishings, to which the trade generally is invited to examine before buying.

A Wedding at Honea Path. The Broadmoor Church at Honea Path was the scene of a very beautiful marriage which occurred at 11 o'clock on the morning of the 18th inst. The church was prettily decorated with flowers, and the contracting parties were Mr. John F. Monroe and Miss Minnie L. Lattimer, of Honea Path.

The bride couple left immediately after the ceremony for Augusta and other cities and the attendants returned to the hospitable home of Mr. Lattimer where they partook of a splendid dinner, and spent the remainder of the happy day in social pleasure and merriment. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. M. L. Lattimer, of Honea Path, and the groom is one of the leading merchants of Honea Path and is a son of the late Captain A. J. Monroe, of Princeton.—Cor. Greenville News.

Townville Local. Mr. H. Simmons and family, living near this place, have moved to Grayson County, Texas. We regret very much to hear of their departure, but wish them all success in their new home. We hope the good people of Texas will appreciate his noble virtues as we have here.

Mrs. Ida F. Partridge, of Spartanburg, Ill., is an illustration of what women may do in horticulture, even starting with small means. Beginning about five years ago in a very small way, having only a window garden, she has gradually enlarged her business until now she has five large greenhouses. In one of these, not long ago, 900 roses were in bloom at once; in another, 10,000 plants. One is devoted to chrysanthemums, and these three flowers are Mrs. Partridge's specialty. She frequently ships to Chicago and sometimes even to California.
