

Special DECEMBER SALE.

We intend to make the present month an unusually attractive one to the trading public. Every department in our Mammoth Store is replete with all the

Novelties and Necessaries

Of the Winter Season, and we will offer EXTRAORDINARY BARGAINS in every line in order to still further increase our business and reduce our stock. It will be to your interest to—

Visit our Store Every day this Month.

And see the many tempting bargains offered. Beginning to-day—

Wednesday, December 1st,

We shall inaugurate our—

SECOND SPECIAL SALE,

And shall CUT PRICES on all—

DRESS GOODS,

TRIMMINGS,

LININGS,

SILKS,

MILLINERY,

CAPES,

JACKETS,

SKIRTS,

CARPETS,

RUGS,

MATTINGS,

LACE, CHENILLE and

TAPESTRY CURTAINS,

CLOTHING, OVERCOATS,

BLANKETS, QUILTS,

COMFORTS, SHOES, &c.,

And, in fact, everything in the Dry Goods line. Our effort shall be to give—

Better Goods for Less Money, or more Goods for the Same Money than any other House.

No House in this section is better prepared to supply you with new, desirable Goods at Cut Prices than we are. Doing a considerable Wholesale Business, and buying direct from Manufacturers, and in original packages, and for the Cash, we are in position to sell you Goods much cheaper than many of our competitors. It requires no thought or study on your part to convince you of the superior merits of our Store. A glance through our Stock will prove to you that all we claim is true. There is not a better shopping place in South Carolina, certainly none in Anderson. We shall not name—

THE THOUSANDS OF BARGAINS

In store for the economical purchasing public. Prices made now that may never be known again. Do not miss this chance. During the month of December a rare opportunity is yours for purchasing Dry Goods, Millinery, Clothing, Shoes, &c., at ridiculous figures.

Remember that this Special Sale is open until the night of December 31, 1897, but don't wait until the best things are gone, but come at once.

We are determined to sell Goods during the month of December CHEAPER than others.

Yours truly,

Brown, Osborne & Co. Wholesale and Retail Dealers in General Merchandise.

LOCAL NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 8, 1897.

THE COTTON MARKET.

Corrected by Brown, Osborne & Co. Strict good Middling Cotton 5 7/16. Good Middling Cotton 5 5/16. Strict Middling Cotton 5 3/16. Middling Cotton 5 1/16. Stained Cotton 4 1/2 to 4 3/4.

Bad colds are quite prevalent now. Remember, you have only about three more weeks in which to pay your taxes.

Old 1897 is now on the home stretch with only a few more feet until its race is run.

E. M. Rucker, Jr. and family, of Washington, D. C., are in the city visiting relatives.

Mrs. W. J. Stribling, of Wallhalla, was in the city last week shopping and visiting friends.

Rev. Geo. T. Baker will preach at Hope-well Church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Joe McCully, of Charleston, is in the city visiting his mother and other relatives.

J. H. Grant, Esq., will leave in a few days for Sioux City, Iowa, on professional business.

Mrs. Jeffards, of Orangeburg, is in the city visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Richardson.

Rev. W. B. Hawkins will preach in the Second Baptist Church, this city, next Sunday night.

Mr. W. W. Martin, of Greenville, was in Anderson last Friday and gave us an appreciated call.

Mr. H. G. Pinckney is now clerking for L. E. Seel, and will be pleased to serve his friends at any time.

Mrs. Julian Fant, of the C. & W. C. R. R., has been spending a few days in the city visiting his parents.

The Evans Pharmacy have a fine remedy for rough skin, chapped hands, etc. Read their new advertisement.

Our young friend, T. W. McCauley, of Townville, has come down to assist in the store of C. S. Minor for a few weeks.

Mrs. Neel Presley, of Septon, left yesterday for Greenwood, where he will spend a few weeks visiting relatives.

Rev. R. C. Ligon will preach at Deans next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend the service.

Miss Sarah Power has gone to Charleston to visit friends, and from there she will go to Albany, Ga., to spend a few weeks.

Read carefully the new advertisement of John T. Burris this week. He has a big stock of Christmas goods, and is offering them cheap.

The young men of Honea Path have organized a young men's prayer meeting which meets at the Baptist church every Monday night.

The new advertisement of D. C. Brown & Son, will interest you. They quote prices on goods that you need, and it will pay you to go and see them.

Before you purchase your Christmas goods, consult the advertisements in the INTELLIGENCER, and you will know where to go and get what you want.

We want to whisper in the ears of the little boys and girls that Old Santa Claus is now abroad and that they had better be on their good behavior.

Rev. J. Walter Dixon, of Columbia, will preach at Smith Chapel, Townville Circuit, on the third Sunday inst., at the usual hour for holding services.

The November number of The Carolinian, the South Carolina College magazine, has been received. It is full of interesting matter, and well gotten up.

Married, on Monday, December 6, 1897, by Rev. J. F. Herron, and at his residence, Mr. W. A. McConnell and Miss Cora Moore, both of Anderson County.

There is no improvement yet in the price of cotton. If we judge by the receipts at the ports we are almost obliged to believe that a large crop has been made.

Mr. S. A. Hutchinson, of Elberton, Ga., who spent a few days in this County last week visiting his son, was in the city last Saturday and gave us a pleasant call.

Go to Charleston next week and participate in the Gala Week and we venture you will have a most enjoyable time. The railroad fare for the round trip is very low.

Married, on Wednesday, December 1, 1897, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. L. S. Enkaw, near Denver, by Rev. M. McGee, Dr. Robt. Day and Miss Kate Eskew.

The Chiquola Dancing Club will hold its annual Christmas ball on Monday evening, 27th inst. Bearden's Band, of Augusta, will furnish the music for the occasion.

Chiquola Lodge Knights of Pythias will hold a special meeting next Friday evening in memory of their late brother, Dr. John C. Whitfield. All the members are urged to attend.

Dr. Mercer, the specialist, of Greenville, will arrive in the city next Tuesday to spend a few days. Read his advertisement in another column, and, if you are afflicted, give him a call.

Mr. W. P. Snelgrove, our clever and efficient County Supervisor, has been appointed a Vice President of the Good Roads Association of South Carolina by the Executive Committee.

Pay your debts. Establish the reputation of being a debt payer and your standing in the community will be improved, and you will earn the approval of your conscience, which is better.

The annual meeting of the Board of County Commissioners will be held on the first Tuesday in January. If you have a claim against the County present it at that meeting. See advertisement.

Married, on Wednesday, December 1, 1897, at the residence of the bride's father, J. H. Hutchinson, Esq., by Rev. M. McGee, Mr. Clarence Burris and Miss Wingo Hutchinson, all of Anderson County.

Mr. J. A. Ellison, postmaster at Williamston, has been removed and Mr. B. F. Russell appointed to succeed him. Mr. Ellison was an efficient and accommodating officer, but his politics were against him.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. McAdams, of Athens, Ga., have been visiting relatives in this County during the past week. Mr. McAdams was in the city Monday and was a welcome visitor to the Intelligencer's sanctum.

Housekeepers would do well to lay in their supply of raisins and other fruits necessary to making cakes at once as the price on some has recently advanced and will continue to do so until the Christmas season is over.

The great closing out sale at the Alliance Store continues, as will be seen by reading the new advertisement of R. B. Hill, the manager, in another column. He announces that each day some articles are sold lower, and bargains are being secured by his customers. He wants you to come and see his goods and learn the prices, and you should do so at once, for he may sell out in half an hour.

The Board of Trustees of Varnhues Township requests us to announce that they will meet in the office of the County Superintendent of Education, this city, on Thursday, 23rd inst., for the purpose of settling school claims.

It is reported that there are over one hundred cases of small pox in Atlanta and the Board of Health has resorted to compulsory vaccination. There is danger of its spreading, and our people should be on the look-out.

Last Monday Rev. G. M. Rogers exhibited to the city some very fine specimens of sugar beets of his own production. He says they can be very successfully grown in this County, and says they cannot be excelled as a food for stock.

We used to know a young girl whose name was Mary. When she grew up and went to college she dropped the r from her name and was My. About a year ago she got married and now she has dropped the y and they call her Ma.

Agent Keys, of the Southern Express Company, is now occupying his new quarters in the building just erected by Miss Lizzie Williams, on West Benson street. The office is a commodious one and is handsomely finished and fitted up.

Mr. Job Mauldin died at his home near Pickens, C. H., on Tuesday, November 30th, aged 58 years. He was one of Pickens County's best and most popular citizens, and had served four terms as Sheriff of the County. A widow and nine children survive him.

Dr. John L. Woodside died at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. E. A. Williams, in Pelzer, last Wednesday, after an illness of two months. He was about the sixty years of age, and had lived the greater portion of his life in the Woodville section of Greenville County.

Slesday in December always attracts a large crowd to the city, and last Monday no exception to the custom. Good order prevailed and everybody seemed cheerful and in good humor. The tract of land sold by the Probate Judge brought fancy prices, as usual.

Gov. Ellerbe has appointed Hon. J. Belton Watson, of this County, one of the delegates from the Third Congressional District to the cotton growers' convention, which meets in Atlanta next Tuesday, and also to the Lane convention, which meets in Memphis on the 20th inst.

D. C. Ellis, who has been in this County for several years, leaves for Anderson County this week, much to the regret of his many friends here. He and his excellent family made many friends here, who wish for them a continuance of the same and prosperity in their new home.—Pickens Herald.

C. F. Jones & Co's. change of advertisement is to be noted in this paper. They want to call your attention to their stock of holiday novelties in handkerchiefs, art linens, table covers, cravats, collars, cuffs and numerous other articles that will make useful Christmas presents. Look out for their "ad." next week, and in the meantime go to see them.

A correspondent of the Anderson INTELLIGENCER signs himself or herself "Nobody's Darling." "It" must be a girl. If she would but come to Newberry she'd pretty soon be somebody's darling, for we have some boys here who are fond of girls as soon as they set foot on Newberry's soil. No town of its size can beat this for darlings.—Newberry Observer.

Four women and one man were lodged in jail here last Friday evening charged with receiving stolen goods. Some of the goods were identified by L. A. T. H. Brook, of Honea Path, S. C. whose store was burglarized the preceding Tuesday, and some of them were identified by C. S. Minor, of this city, as his property. The parties arrested are Laura Washington, Lou Simmon, Alice Bozeman, Annie Jones and Will Jones, all colored. There were also arrested a man connected with the burglary, and an effort is being made to arrest them.

Adelson Brooks and Grady Reynolds, who murdered M. C. Hunt, brother of Dr. — Hunt, of Townville, will be hanged on Friday, 17th inst., at Jefferson, Ga. The crime was committed last February in Jackson County, Ga. Mr. Hunt was murdered and robbed. The two criminals were tried and found guilty. Brooks appealed to the Supreme Court, but the decision of the lower Court was sustained, therefore Grady Reynolds, sentenced Brooks and Reynolds, his partner in crime, and both will be hanged to eternity from the same scaffold on the 17th inst.

The many friends in Greenville of Dr. John M. Manly will be interested in the information that the distinguished young professor is spending the winter in Anderson with the family of his father, Dr. Chas. Manly. Prof. Manly who holds the chair of English in Brown University, Providence, R. I., has been given a year's vacation by that celebrated institution and he will spend it in literary work. His book already published has attracted favorable notice from the students of Shakespeare, and a bright literary career seems to lie before him.—Greenville Mountaineer.

The Hartwell (Ga.) Sun of last week says: "Mr. W. H. Boleman, one of the best men in Hartwell, died on Thursday morning, December 2, 1897, at 5 o'clock, and was buried in the Hartwell cemetery Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The funeral services being conducted by Rev. C. A. Jamison. Mr. Boleman was a consistent member of the Methodist Church and lived his life above reproach. No man was more highly respected. He was 77 years of age, and leaves a wife and a large circle of relatives to cherish his precious memory." The deceased is the father of our efficient County Auditor, Mr. G. N. C. Boleman.

The West African Wilderness, a branch of The Missing Link or Disorganized Order of Goats" was organized in this city last Wednesday night with the following officers: Big Gorilla, E. W. Taylor; Baboon, W. R. Hubbard; 1st Monk, A. M. Sharpe; 2nd Monk, F. M. Murphy; Bugle-bearer, J. K. Hood; Old Gorilla, W. H. Harrison; Darlin', M. M. Matison. A special meeting will be held to night for the purpose of initiating a number of members. The membership of the organization is confined to members of secret orders. This branch starts off well, and will no doubt soon have a large membership.

The Lowndesville correspondent of the Abbeville Press and Banner says: "Senator L. H. McCalla had the misfortune to be dark Wednesday evening. It was perhaps the most costly and well arranged building of the kind in the County. He carried insurance, but nothing like its value. It was worth about $30,000. It was perhaps 100 bushels of corn, a quantity of cotton seed, hay, 10,000 feet of lumber stored in the building, etc. It was with great difficulty that 80,000 pounds of seed cotton were saved. An interesting program has been arranged for their entertainment, as will be seen by reading the advertisement of the committee of the Gala Week Association in another column. The Southern Railway offers reasonable rates to all desirous of visiting Charleston at this time. Tickets will be put on sale on the 13th, 16th, 17th and 18th, limited for return pass until the 20th inst., inclusive, at the rate of one fare ($2.10) for the round trip. On the 14th and 16th tickets will be sold, limited for return passage until the 18th inclusive, at the rate of $5.10 for the round trip. The fare from all the points along the road is the same in proportion.

Lard Cans! Lard Cans! Three gallon can 20¢ Four gallon can 25¢ Six gallon can 30¢ Eight gallon can 35¢. Don't forget to call and see old Santa Claus in our window. Toys of all kinds. Jno. T. Burris. 21-3

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All Druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25¢. For sale by Evans Pharmacy.

J. P. Donahoe & Son will have some fine Tennessee hogs on this market on Thursday, 16th inst., and will sell them very cheap. 24-1.

Butler & Lyeth's Dining Room is growing more popular every day. We fed over 100 people Saturday. Butler & Lyeth, Manager.

FOR SALE—60 pair Skates, good condition. Cheap. Address, Louis B. Houston, Greenville, S. C.

A place where the most modest lady can go unattended by gentleman is Lyeth's Dining Room. Nothing but the best of order served. W. L. Lyeth, Manager.

Try our all Pork Sausage, cassid or uncassid, scientifically seasoned and ground by electricity. If you try them once you will have none other. Butler & Lyeth.

NOTICE—All parties owing me for Groceries and Accounts are respectfully requested to call in and settle, as I need the money before Xmas. Respectfully, John T. Burris.

Wanted!—25 Razor Back Hogs. The kind that can out-run a nigger. Butler & Lyeth.

We buy Raw Hides and pay the cold cash for same. Butler & Lyeth.

Think! The Oliver Chilled Plow Works, of South Bend, Ind., sell six times as many Turning Plows as any other manufacturer in the world. Why? Because the Oliver Chilled Plows are the best in the world, and the world's best people want them. W. L. Lyeth, Manager, are prepared to prove it.

Wanted!—1,000 dozen Eggs. Sell them now, as the market will be flooded Christmas and down will go the price. Butler & Lyeth.

Reflect! Why is it the Sullivan Hardware Co. stand 16 to 1 in relation to their competition in the Plow business? Because the Sullivan's sell the Oliver Chilled Plow—the greatest Plows on the Globe.

Wanted!—Ten regular Boarders. Table will be supplied with the very best the Christmas goods now, and be sure to give Mr. Burris a call and see his stock.

Old Santa Claus has made his headquarters at the store of John T. Burris where a large and most beautiful display of Dolls, Toys, etc., is being made. Prices on everything are very low, and you will be agreeably surprised by inspecting the goods how many children you can make happy for so little money. Select your Christmas goods now, and be sure to give Mr. Burris a call and see his stock.

The Oliver Plows sell themselves, and Sullivan Hardware Co. only have to toll them out.

All who are indebted to Archer & Osborne will please call and settle with us at once, as we have their accounts.

Osborne & Clinkscale have just received a lot of Jardineres. Call and see them.

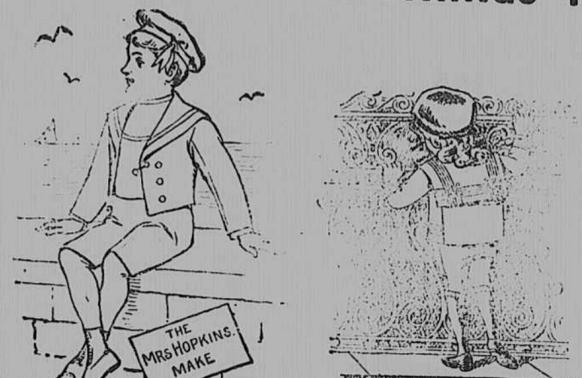

Ask yourself why so many small fry factories try to imitate the Oliver Chilled Plow? Don't you know they would only attempt to copy the best. Sullivan Hardware Co. sell the genuine.

Did you ever think five minutes where was the best place to buy

STOP and THINK Before you Turn Your Dollar Loose.

Did you ever think five minutes where was the best place to buy

YOUR CLOTHING, YOUR SHOES, YOUR HATS, YOUR FURNISHINGS?

Did it not occur to you that

Hall & Milford's

Was the place, and, of course, you would like to know why? Think over it a while and see if you can't figure it out why they can sell you at a smaller margin. We respectfully ask you to call and inspect the best line of—

BOYS' and CHILDREN'S SCHOOL SUITS

Ever shown in Anderson. Junior Suits, Reefer Suits, Middy Three-Piece Suits, Double Breasted Suits. All made with Double Seats, Double Knees, Riveted Buttons and Patent Waistbands, and warranted not to rip.

You can't afford to buy your boy a Suit without first seeing the famous Mrs. Jane Hopkins' make of Boys' and Children's Suits and Pants. Seeing is believing. Come and inspect. Very truly yours to please,

HALL & MILFORD

What a Harvest

For the

LADIES OF ANDERSON CO.

U. E. SEYBT

IS SHOWING THE

PRETTIEST LINE OF MILLINERY.

That has ever been shown in Anderson.

MRS. IDA PERCIVAL CRAYTON is again in charge of our—

Millinery Department.

Where she will be pleased to sell you a New Hat, but if you intend having your old Hat trimmed over, don't fail to bring it to her, as she will fix you up the prettiest Hat you have ever worn.

And don't forget that U. E. SEYBT has a well-assorted Stock in every department, which he is offering far below his competitors. For good, honest Goods and honest dealings always call on—

U. E. SEYBT.