The new advertisement of Brown, Osborne & Co. deserves your attention this week. Their buyers have returned from the markets and their new goods are arriving every day.

McCully Bros. have a new advertisement in another column, in which special attention is directed to the Success Weeder and Cultivator. The farmers should read what is said about it.

Next Sunday night in the Methodist Church Rev. W. R. Richardson will preach on the subject, "The Bible in the Commercial and Business World." We advise you to go and hear it.

An effort is being made to raise by private subscription a sum of money sufficient to buy a new and larger bell for the Court House tower. It is proposed to buy a bell weighing 1,500 or 2,000 pounds which could be heard for miles around the city. The old bell weighs about 350 or 400 pounds and is nearly worn out. Everybody should take pleasure in contributing to this fund.

The Sullivan Hardware Co. have an advertisement of the Crescent Bicycle in another column, which you should read carefully. This wheel is one of the best and they are selling lots of them.

On account of the State Prohibition Convention in Columbia on April 14th the Southern Railway has granted special rates. Round trip tickets will be sold on April 13th and 14th with final limit April 16th.

It is well to remember that horses and mules have a disposition to run away this time of the year, especially when the wind is blowing. Don't leave your team standing on the street without being hitched or held.

The Cotton Growers' Protective Association will meet in this city to-morrow at 11 o'clock a. m. All who feel interested in the Association are urged to attend. The warehouse subject will come before the meeting.

The fire bell has been transferred to its new quarters in the City Hall tower, and at 6 o'clock sharp to-morrow (Thursday) evening it will be tested. So, if you hear the fire alarm at that hour, pay no attention to it.

The City Hall is nearing completion. It has been suggested that the city fathers have a big reception as soon as they move into it and "set up" a big feast to the ladies and gentlemen of the city. What say you, city fathers?

One of the best farmers we know predicts that extraordinary crops will be made this year if seasons are fair. He bases his belief on the fact that lands have been broken up while dry and are in the best possible condition.

A young alligator is now on exhibition in one of the show windows of the Evans Pharmacy. It was captured on Cox's Creek, on Mr. G. F. McConnell's place, about three miles northeast of the city, a few days ago by a negro.

The call for a meeting of the old soldiers next Saturday at Cooks, for the purpose of organizing a Camp of United Confederate Veterans, is for 10 o'clock a. m. instead of 2 p. m. as first announced. The call is for all within reach of Cooks.

Mrs. Eliza A. Robinson died at the home of her son, T. C. Robinson, Esq., in Pickens, on Sunday, 6th inst., aged 86 years. Mrs. Robinson was formerly a resident of Anderson and has many friends here who will regret to hear of her death.

I wish to confer with the Women's literary, social or patriotic clubs of Anderson County on a matter of importance. Will all such societies notify me of their existence. Address Pres. Robert E. Lee, Chapter D. C., Anderson, S. C.

Mr. James E. Stevick, representing Osborne & Clinkscales, dealers in hardware, stoves and building supplies, Anderson, called on the Index this week. He and his firm have an extensive business in the up country.—Greenwood Index.

The doctors are still undecided as to the nature of the disease which has been an epidemic in some sections of the State. Some of them are of the opinion that it is really small pox while others declare that it is a severe form of chicken pox.

Capt. H. M. Prince, of Williamston, was in the city a few days ago and gave us an appreciated call. He now has a big railroad contract in Rowan County, N. C., and as soon as he finishes it he will go to Virginia, where he has another contract.

In another column you will find an advertisement of the bicycle emporium of W. D. Simpson & Co. and we ask you to read it. These gentlemen handle bicycles exclusively and it is a treat to visit their establishment. If you contemplate buying a wheel give them a call.

A number of our citizens went down to Due West last Friday to hear Hon. W. J. Bryan, the silver tongued orator of Nevada, and all of them were more than repaid for their trip. The crowd in attendance was as large as was expected, though our own town was not wanting.

Gen. John B. Gordon is to lecture in Greenville on the 24th inst., on "The First Days of the Confederacy." The Ladies' Memorial Association should get him to come to Anderson and deliver his lecture for the benefit of the monument fund. He would be greeted by a large audience.

Mr. H. C. Beattie, Receiver of the Blue Ridge Railroad, is in the city, and gave us a pleasant call this morning. The public is indebted to Mr. Beattie for that new train on the B. R. R. It is a great convenience, and we hope it will be sufficiently patronized to keep it on permanently.

For the meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention, Norfolk, Va., May 6-12 the Southern Railway has made a rate of one fare for the round trip from all points. Tickets dated May 2 to 6 inclusive, good fifteen days returning. This road offers the choice of two routes for the same price via Richmond or via Raleigh.

W. H. Carpenter, of this County, returned home last week from the West Point Military Academy, where he went to stand the regulation examination preparatory to entering that institution. He was recently awarded the appointment from the Third Congressional District, and will enter the Academy in June.

Capt. J. A. Sanders, section foreman on the Blue Ridge R. R., between Seneca and Cherry, was in Wallhalla last Friday, having come up on business. He has been in the service of this railroad for the past twenty-eight years, and has never worked below Pendleton Factory, except on special work. Mr. Sanders has by close economy managed to put something by for a "rainy day," and owns a nice little farm on Seneca River, which he is improving and building up. Notwithstanding the fact that he has been steadily employed for so long a time, and exposed to all kinds of weather, he is hale and hearty, and a jolly good fellow to meet with, and it is needless to add, stands high in the estimation of the railroad officials.—Oconee News.

Mr. C. M. Guest, an Anderson architect, contractor and builder, has been in town for a few days. He is looking out for a store in the building boom. Greenwood is now enjoying. Mr. Guest is an experienced man in his business and knows a good town when he sees it; therefore he is enthused over Greenwood.—Greenwood Index.

We are indebted to the publishers for a copy of the Washington (D. C.) Post Almanac and Encyclopedia for 1898. It is one of the most complete hand books appearing, and contains valuable information of the world collated in the most convenient form for ready reference. It is worthy a place in any library, and is worth more than the price. 25 cents a copy.

Mr. D. J. Carter, formerly with the Southern Newspaper Union, Charlotte, N. C., has accepted the position of advertising and circulation manager of the Southern Presbyterian, and will travel in the interest of that excellent religious journal. Mr. Carter has had long experience in Journalism, and the Southern Presbyterian has done more than well to secure his services.

One of our young farmers was courting his best girl recently, when the subject of farming came up and was discussed; the young man proceeded to tell his girl how many horses, hogs and sheep he possessed, etc. As soon as the young lady could be heard, she asked if his mother raised any poultry. "Oh, yes," said the young granter, "she planted two acres last year, but the darned chickens scratched 'em up."

Mr. John Gilliam died at his home on Factory Hill last Thursday, after a brief illness with pneumonia. The deceased was a native of Italy, but came to the United States before the war. He served through the war, first joining a Virginia Regiment and afterwards was transferred to the Louisiana "Tigers," where he had a relative. His remains were buried on Friday, a number of Confederate veterans escorting his body to the grave. A widow and several children survive him.

Mrs. Flora Gambrell, the beloved wife of Mr. W. A. Gambrell, died at her home near Honea Path on Wednesday night, 2nd inst., after a brief illness, and was buried at Shady Grove on Thursday. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Acker, of Toney Creek, and was married to Mr. Gambrell several years ago. She was a consistent member of Shady Grove and proved by her daily walk that her trust was in Him who ruleth all things. The sorrowing husband has the sympathies of his many friends in his sad affliction.

We call attention to the sacrifice sale in this issue announced by Miss Lizzie Williams, which commences on Monday next, March 21st, 1898. Miss Lizzie is well-known in this community for honesty, integrity and fair dealings. She is compelled to sell her stock of goods for the purpose of retiring from business on account of bad health, all of which accounts for the rare bargains she is offering. The sale is to continue for a short time only, hence, we suggest to those seeking rare bargains to call early before the most desirable goods are sold.

The Headquarters correspondent of the Millersburg (Ky.) Farmers' Friend says: "The surveyors of the Black Diamond R. R. have passed our little village, and while they did not follow a line we had all picked out, their's is a good one and will be entirely satisfactory to the citizens here and community, as it gives a much better place for the depot, being just a little north of M. E. Church and Jno. T. Turley's tobacco warehouse, and our little town can soon be extended to that point."

On the same subject the Bath County (Ky.) World says: "The Black Diamond corps of Civil Engineers and Surveyors, fifteen in number, passed through Carlisle last Saturday afternoon, and are now on the way southward via Bramlett, Sharpburg and Mt. Sterling; in fact, they have reached Bramlett, four miles north of this town. The tents are expected here to-day or to-morrow and will be pitched on W. S. Fant's farm near town, the surveyors to follow in a few days."

Beats the Klondike.

Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemorrhages; and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discoverer for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it, even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's New Discoverer for Consumption. Trial bottles free at Hill Orr Drug Co. Regular size 20 cts. and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative-Bromo Quinine Tablets. All Druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c. For sale by Evans Pharmacy.

FOR SALE—Two nice milk cows.
