In their new advertisement J. H. Weil & Co. quote prices in all their departments.

If you need a hat, it will do you good to read the new advertisement of B. O. Evans & Co.

The cotton is about all open, but it is not all picked and will not be for another month.

For the past few weeks the supply of butter has not been equal to the demand in the city.

County Treasurer Brown is now ready to receive your taxes. Don't put off paying too long.

The cool, bracing weather has brought our heavy clothing and made everybody feel good.

Mrs. W. L. Roidley, of Rock Hill, S. C., is in the city visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Whitner.

The oil mills in the city have gone to work in earnest, and there is big demand for cotton seed.

Lieut. J. H. Grant, of Co. C, 1st Regiment S. C. V., has been spending a few days in the city.

C. F. Jones & Co. have an immense stock of clothing, and their new advertisement will tell you all about it.

Brown, Osborne & Co. are in position to supply the public with boots and shoes. See their new advertisement.

Persons indebted to J. S. Fowler should read his advertisement in another column and heed what he says.

Persons indebted to the Anderson Water, Light & Power Co. should read the notice of the Co. in another column.

Mr. J. C. Oulla, of Abbeville County, was in the city Monday. He gave us a call and subscribed for the INTELLIGENCER.

The police made sixteen arrests last Saturday night, and as a consequence Mayor Hood had a busy Court on Monday morning.

All the troops of the First Regiment must be in Columbia on or before next Friday, or be recorded as deserters and forfeit their pay.

Mr. L. L. Hatcher, representing the Sullivan Hardware Co., is at Piedmont this week putting in machinery for the oil mill at that place.

Mr. J. O. Walker, of Charlotte, N. C., has been on a short visit to Mr. Marcus Burris and family. He returned to Charlotte Monday.

County Treasurer Brown will finish his trip through the County to-day, and from now on will be in his office every day to receive your taxes.

Miss Eloise Duckett, of this city, has been elected Treasurer of the missionary society of the Greenville Female College, of which she is a pupil.

Miss Eva Wakefield, one of Anderson County's most charming young ladies, is the guest of Miss Azalee Hendon.—Elberton (Ga.) Tribune.

Married, on Wednesday, Oct. 14th, 1898, at the residence of the bride, by Rev. H. B. Fant, Mr. Wm. T. Latimer to Miss Lizzie Byrum, all of this County.

Rev. J. V. Black will preach at Concord Church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The friends of the congregation are cordially invited to attend the service.

The examination of teachers for the public schools took place last Friday. There were 27 white applicants and 11 negroes. Fifteen of the white applicants are females.

Our young friend, Fred F. Martin, of Rock Mills Township, is now clerking for his uncle, J. C. Osborne, in this city, and will be pleased to serve his friends at any time.

Wm. H. Thacker, who resigned as second hand in spinning at Anderson Cotton Mills on account of poor health, is engaging in the mercantile business at Spartanburg, S. C.

A tenant house on the plantation of Mr. W. Q. Hammond was destroyed by fire last Wednesday night. The house was occupied by a Mr. Webb, and nothing was saved from it.

Married, on Thursday evening, October 20, 1898, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Lawrence Kay, by Rev. J. J. Beck, Mr. W. P. McClelland and Miss Nora Kay, all of Anderson County.

The United States Circuit Court will convene in Columbia on November 28th. The following jurors have been drawn to serve from Anderson County: G. W. Anderson, Joseph B. McGee and J. C. Shirley.

Quite a number of our citizens are in Charleston enjoying the festivities of Gala Week. Charleston is a grand old city and full of as clever and hospitable people as can be found anywhere in the world.

Missionary Rally Day will be observed by the Sunday School of the First Methodist Church next Sunday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock. An interesting program has been arranged for the occasion, and all are invited to be present.

Two valuable tracts of land—the V. H. Brezale place and the J. E. Griffin place—near the town of Belton, will be sold at public outcry by the Judge of Probate on Wednesday in November. See advertisement.

The ladies of the Baptist Church will serve dinner in Mrs. People's store-room, on Brick Range, next Tuesday, November 1st. There will be all sorts of delicacies, cakes and cream. We bespeak for the ladies a liberal patronage.

Mr. J. Walter Cox, a native of Belton but one of Pelzer's most popular young merchants, and Miss Jessie H. Sanders are to be married at the home of the bride, in Chester, S. C., this afternoon. The bride taught in the Belton High School last session.

The Greenwood Journal says that a negro, who gave his name as Albert Young, and who answers exactly to the description of an escaped convict from Anderson County by the same name, has been arrested in that town for stealing cotton seed and carrying a concealed weapon.

The Anderson Lumber Co. has been awarded the contract for the erection of a large and handsome dwelling house for Mr. Jas. P. Gossett and a cottage for Mr. J. H. James in Williamston, and also a large dwelling for Mr. J. A. Jolly in Hopewell Township.

Miss Clara Shaw, third daughter of Mr. J. L. O. Shaw, died at the home of her parents, in Savannah Township, yesterday morning, and the remains were buried in the Mountain Creek Churchyard this morning. She was about 15 years of age, and had been afflicted nearly all her life.

The Hotel Chiquola is making a decided improvement in the office, lobby, and toilet room. The old floors are being replaced by marble tiling with creole trimmings. The work is being done by Mr. Peter Dillard, an expert of Atlanta, Ga. The marble will be laid in Portland cement, and it will be a week, probably, before the floors are ready for use.

A small house, in which were stored about 1,000 pounds of seed cotton, on the place of Bony Cummings, an industrious and worthy negro, who lives on the Greenville road, near the city limits, was burnt last Thursday morning, and that afternoon fire broke out in his dwelling house, consuming nearly all of his household furniture. It was the work of an incendiary.

Mr. Jas. B. Moore and bride arrived here from Anderson Tuesday night, the 11th inst., and a hearty welcome awaited them within the hospitable gates of the "Dear Old Town on the Hill." An elegant reception was tendered them Friday night by Capt. and Mrs. W. W. Moore, which was shared in by a large number of friends and relatives.—Barnwell Sentinel.

Mr. G. G. Rucker, from Anderson, S. C., was a visitor to Elberton this week. He has culled from his father's conversation a number of personal experiences and bright sayings of the immortal Bob Toombs, and will publish a selection of them in the next few weeks. Mr. Rucker wields a facile pen, and under his preparation, the repartee of the South's fiery chieftain will sparkle with a brilliant lustre.—Elberton (Ga.) Tribune.

The C. & W. C. R. R. will run a special train from McCormick to Anderson on Saturday, November 5th, the day of Foropagh & Sells Bros. Circus. The train will leave McCormick at 7 a. m., and arrive in Anderson at 10 o'clock. On the return trip it will leave Anderson at 6:30 p. m. When we went to press last Wednesday, the case of Fleming against Brock, suit for damages, was being tried. It consumed the entire day, and on Thursday morning the jury rendered a verdict for $300, in favor of the plaintiff. This being the last jury case the jury was discharged. A few cases were heard on the equity side of the Court Thursday and Friday and orders taken, and on Friday afternoon Court adjourned.

The "London Gaiety Girls" gave a good performance Friday night, and it was well patronized by the mail members of society. There were no ladies in the audience. Contrary to the expectations of many, the performance was very much more modest than is usually found in shows of a like character. There was nothing said, nor suggested by innuendo, which could be objected to. The objections, if any, were confined to the manner of costume. Shapely limbs were considerably in evidence. The entire program was very entertaining, the encores were numerous and the spectators appeared to be well pleased with the "London Gaiety Girls."

The Salisbury Daily Sun, of the 20th inst., says: "At the annual Convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy in Washington our cultured and accomplished townsman, Mrs. William H. Overman, was elected a delegate to go to Hot Springs, Ark., to represent five of the Chapters of the N. C. Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at the Convention to be held there November 9th. This bespeaks charming representation for the dear old North State. Mrs. Overman was elected Secretary for the N. C. Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at the Convention." Mrs. Overman (nee Miss Flora Keith) is a native of Anderson, and will ably represent her Division in the Convention at Hot Springs.

Capt. "Billie" Smith, the widely known conductor on the C. & G. division of the Southern Railway, who has been railroading for the past forty years, denies the report that he is going to retire from the service. His health having improved lately, he has given up the notion of retiring, which will be a source of pleasure to everybody who knows him. Like Captain Billie, His good humor and wit always provide an element of pleasure to a trip over the C. & G. The Captain says he celebrated his fortieth anniversary of service by pulling the bell cord, purchasing the tickets and calling out "Belton, not Pelzer" as usual.—Greenville News.

On next Friday evening, 28th inst., Prof. W. W. Woodson will deliver a lecture in the Court House under the auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy and the Memorial Association. His subject is "The Old Army of Northern Virginia, or the men that followed Lee." Prof. Woodson comes to us with high testimonials and every individual in Anderson is earnestly requested to attend. You will not only be benefited and entertained yourself, but your will thereby contribute to the beautifying of our town by the erection of a handsome monument in our streets and the testifying of our love and veneration for our own dead soldiers. Rev. John T. McBryde, of Donalds, writes us as follows about the lecture: "He expects to do his famous lectures on the Army of Northern Virginia, and having fought during the entire war as a most gallant soldier, he knows what to talk about and what to talk. I have heard many such lectures and I have never heard one to be compared with Prof. Woodson's. You will run no risk in urging one and all to improve the opportunity of hearing one of the finest lectures I have ever heard. I hope that every parent will see to it that their little ones hear this most delightfully entertaining story of the Army of Virginia."

Last Wednesday evening Lafayette Day was observed by the Cadets of the Patrick Military Institute. The program was exceedingly interesting and was highly enjoyed by the audience. Delightful music was furnished by Mrs. J. M. Patrick on the piano and D. Silverman with his violin. The subjects of the speeches were as follows: "The American Citizen"—Cadet S. Wolf; "Liberty: The Nurse of Great Men"—Lewis Smith; "Monuments; What they Tell Us"—Cadet E. H. Nardin; "The Revolutionary War; its bearing on the Life of Lafayette"—Cadet Jas. Aldrich Wyman; "Lafayette the Warrior"—G. B. Timmerman; "Lafayette as a Citizen of France"—Cadet A. L. Haskell; "Lafayette the Philanthropist"—Cadet T. R. Hamlin.

Mr. J. B. Watson died suddenly at his home at Clemson College last Saturday afternoon. He was chief marshal at Clemson. His remains were carried to Greenville and interred on Sunday. The Greenville News, in speaking of the deceased, says: "Mr. Watson was the body guard for President Jefferson Davis at the Confederate Executive Mansion at Richmond, was serving on that duty at the time Miss Winnie Davis was born and was regarded as part of the President's family. He was chosen for the place because of his remarkable courage and devotion. He was a native of Abbeville County, having been born there in 1844. He went out with Orr's Regiment of Rifles and at the battle of Gettysburg's Hill was hit eight times. While he was struggling to the rear a soldier fell near him, dropping his gun. Mr. Watson picked up the weapon and returned to the battle line and continued to fight until a ninth ball disabled him. This won him the confidential position of special body guard to the President."

Yellow Jaundice Cured. Suffering humanity should be supplied with every means possible for its relief. It is with pleasure we publish the following: "This is to certify that I was a terrible sufferer from Yellow Jaundice for over six months and was treated by some of the best physicians in our city and all to no avail. Dr. Bell, our druggist, recommended Electric Bitters, and after taking two bottles, I was entirely cured. I now take great pleasure in recommending them to any person suffering from this terrible malady. I am gratefully yours, M. A. Hogarty, Lexington, Ky." Sold by Hill-Orr Drug Co.

NOTICE

AT THE

NEW SHOE STORE

THERE are three attractions about our Shoes for Young Ladies

- 1. The New Style. 2. The Latest Improvement. 3. The Faultless Fit.

Girls are too sensible nowadays to squeeze their feet. Their hand may bear squeezing, but their feet no—not this year.

We can't change the size of your feet, but we can select a Shoe so well suited that your foot will present an appearance of elegance and give the impression of daintiness. We hate that word dainty, but you know what we mean. 1. Graceful. 2. Pretty. 3. Lady-like.

Our customers tell us that we have the prettiest line of Shoes in Anderson, and we don't think there is any doubt about it in the least.

Yours for Solid Leather Shoes,

COBB & CRAYTON,

Under Masonic Temple, the Yates Shoe Co.'s Old Stand.

Plows and Harrows.

The Hancock Rotary Disc Plow

Breaks any land, plows two to three acres per day, cuts twelve to fourteen inches wide, and four to twelve inches deep, pulverizes the ground, and does a work no other Plow can do.

Truitt, the great Georgia farmer, says:

"The Hancock is the best Plow of the Nineteenth Century—the cheapest Plow on the market. Where land is broken with it one-third more Corn, Cotton, or other crops, can be produced with one-half the quantity of manure."

We show the Hancock at work and sell it on a broad, absolute guarantee.

OUR HARROWS LEAD!

This is a partial list:

- Wiard Spading Harrow, Acme Harrow, Disc Harrows, McLean Smoothers, &c.

All labor saving, money-making implements.
