Anderson County Mercantile Protective Association.

The organization of the Anderson County Mercantile Protective Association is now complete, and Manager R. M. Burriss is being kept busy securing reports on inquiries and preparing for distribution the monthly list of delinquent debtors handed in to him by subscribers.

This courageous and efficient officer informs us that he is receiving the hearty support of every business house in Anderson—all members of the organization; and that with such united support he feels confident that the Association will be as indispensable to Anderson County merchants as Dun's and Bradstreet's agencies are to the wholesale merchants abroad, especially so after the adjacent towns are enlisted as members. A committee on membership is now actively engaged in securing memberships from neighboring towns, and in a few weeks the Association hopes to have enrolled every merchant in the County.

The plan of the Association as outlined by Mr. Burriss is as follows: Each member of the Association is furnished with a stated number of inquiry blanks for use in requesting a report on a customer. One of these is filled out and given to the manager. When a report on Mr. A or B is wanted, the manager goes to the books of each subscriber, secures a transcription of the account of Mr. A or Mr. B, also examines the public records for encumbrances, &c., and reports back in detail such information to inquiring member, thus giving an accurate and authentic idea as to the promptness with which the party meets his obligations.

Each subscriber is also pledged to send in a monthly list of delinquent debtors who have persistently refused to make settlement or who have ignored all requests for a settlement. From these lists the manager makes up an alphabetical list—giving the name, amount and date due, and any remarks by contributing members, and furnishes each member a revised copy of same each month. The omission of a name from the list means that the account has been paid or satisfactorily adjusted, while its continuance thereon means that the account is still unpaid. Mr. Burriss requests that all members hand in their delinquent lists on or before March 1st in order that each member may have a full list of delinquents before the time trade opens actively.

Black Diamond Railroad Meeting.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of business men met in the City Hall Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock to devise ways and means of raising funds to make a survey of the Black Diamond Railroad from Anderson to Port Royal.

Port Royal, Beaufort, Bamberg, Greenwood, Hodges, Cokesbury, Abbeville, Due West, Pendleton, Seneca, West Union, Wallhalla and Westminster were all represented by able business men. Anderson was represented by Capt. P. K. McCully, J. J. Fretwell, B. F. Whitmer, J. D. Maxwell, F. G. Brown, J. G. Cunningham and John E. Breazeale.

On motion Capt. Perrin, of Abbeville, was made Chairman, and Hon. B. C. Dupree, of Greenwood, was appointed Secretary.

The Chairman, then called upon J. L. Tribble, Esq., who, with Capt. McCully and R. C. Strother, had called this meeting, to explain the object of the meeting.

This was done by Mr. Tribble in a brief and pointed manner, and in doing so he stated that this meeting had not been called to consider the advisability of building a railroad, for that question had already been settled, but that it was necessary to have a survey of the road made at once, as the financier in London was urging him to have the profiles and estimates forwarded at once, and, in connection with his remarks, read some letters from the Hon. T. C. Dickinson, in London, on the subject.

The delegates from the several towns and cities were then enrolled, and the chair declared the meeting ready for business. A number of gentlemen from the several towns were called upon, and every one expressed a deep interest in the road, and the money for the survey of the preliminary line was practically subscribed, with the understanding that it was to be paid to the treasurer of the Company by March 1st, at which time it is intended, as we understand, to commence the surveys. Mr. Tribble stated that every person or town subscribing to this fund, would receive preferred stock, which would be redeemed upon the building of the road by the promoters, and in this way if any town subscribing to the promoting fund failed to get the permanent location, that the money would not be lost, as their stock would be redeemed, under the plans of the promoters; and that all money paid in would be paid out only on vouchers issued by the engineers.

The meeting was pitched upon a business plane, and kept upon that line until it adjourned, and every one seemed well pleased and hopeful of the outlook.

We understand that the Board of Directors will take immediate steps to have the survey made, while Mr. Tribble, who has stood by this great railroad enterprise from its inception, says he is more hopeful than ever of its early completion. He says that there is a great deal of hard work yet before the promoters; that there are difficulties to overcome, and there is the greater necessity for every friend of the enterprise to stand shoulder to shoulder with united purpose and efforts until the road is complete from Columbus, Ohio, to the sea. He says the enterprise is gaining friends every day. People are looking upon the project now as "Boone's vision," and at no distant day Col. Boone will receive the just credit that is due him for reviving the great railway scheme of John C. Calhoun in the West. That Col. Boone, in the beginning, has given to the great statesman the credit of being the pioneer of this road, although it has been dead nearly 40 years. He has simply revived it under a new name, under which he proposes to complete it on a larger scale and in keeping with the age which eclipses all other ages of the world's history in industrial development. The great trouble is and has been to get this part of the country to realize the importance of this road to our commercial prosperity, and there has been too much of that despondent spirit of the "can't do it" sort among our people. He feels very much gratified that R. C. Strother, "Dick" Strother, has taken hold in this work. That everybody know "Dick" is a success in railroad building, as he has never yet thrown a shovelful of dirt on a railroad that failed of complete construction. The friends of the enterprise are to be congratulated in the fact that Mr. Strother is going to take an interest in this work, and the public may rest assured of the ultimate success of the "Black Diamond," the greatest railroad of the South.

Court Proceedings.

Court convened last Monday morning with Judge Townsend, of the Seventh Circuit, presiding. All the officers were in their places except Solicitor Ansel, who is detained in Columbia attending to his duties in the Engrossing Department of the Legislature. J. E. Boggs, Esq., of Pickens, is acting Solicitor for Mr. Ansel.

Judge Townsend, in his charge to the Grand Jury, fully instructed them as to their duties, and at its conclusion highly complimented Anderson County on its modern Court House, saying he had the best in the State.

The Grand Jury elected Col. L. E. Campbell its Foreman and immediately went to work on a number of bills that were handed out.

Up to this morning the following cases have been disposed of: Luther Pruitt. Violation of the dispensary law. Guilty. The prisoner not being present a sealed sentence was left for him.

J. M. Smith and W. H. Bryant. Forgery. Guilty. A fine of $40 and one year's imprisonment at hard labor.

Jeff. Sherman. Assault and battery of an high and aggravated nature and carrying concealed weapon. Guilty of simple assault. The prisoner being absent, a sealed sentence was left for him.

Jas. Marshall. Grand larceny. Guilty. Nine months' imprisonment at hard labor.

John Adams. Violation of the dispensary law. Guilty. The defendant's attorney gave notice of a motion for a new trial.

Ben White and Lizzie Thomas. Housebreaking and compound larceny. Plead guilty. The former was sentenced to nine months' imprisonment and the latter five months.

Berry Richardson and Samuel Elrod. Selling liquor. Plead guilty. Three months' imprisonment or a fine of $100 each.

Lum Harris, alias Lum McGee. Burglary. Not guilty.

James Miles. Burglary. Plead guilty. One year's imprisonment at hard labor. Ernest Day and Lucious Griffin. Burglary and petty larceny. Guilty. The prisoners' attorney gave notice of a motion for a new trial.

The Grand Jury is hard at work and will not finish its business before tomorrow or next day. About fifty bills of indictment have been referred to it. The criminal business will probably consume the entire week, as the docket is larger than usual.

St. Valentine Ball.

The most brilliant event of the season was that given by the Anderson Dancing Club Tuesday evening, the 14th, at Hotel Chiquola. Besides the guests from the city quite a number of visitors were present. The music, by the Fifth Massachusetts Regiment Band, was very fine. The dancing commenced at 9 o'clock and continued until 3 o'clock. During the evening dainty refreshments were served. The German was gracefully led by Mr. G. W. Evans. The following ladies were present, their costumes being given:

- Mrs. Bray, Boston, black and white satin.
Misses Calhoun, Abbeville, pink silk.
Mrs. Hamilton, Mass., pink satin, white overdress.
Miss Neimeyer, St. Louis, blue organdy.
Miss Bamberg, Bamberg, yellow brocaded satin.
Miss Lyles, Abbeville, white organdy over blue silk.
Miss Henry, Greenville, blue satin.
Miss Quarles, Abbeville, white organdy.
Miss Ferguson, Greenville, black satin.
Miss Hardin, Clensun, white organdy.
Miss von Borstel, black satin with cerise.
Miss Miller, white satin.
Miss Cashin, white organdy over blue taffeta, blue ribbons.
Miss Helen Cashin, pink brocaded silk, tinsel overdress.
Miss Orr, cream chiffon over silk.
Miss Hill, black silk.
Miss Crayton, cream silk, tinsel overdress.
Miss Lucy Brown, pink silk.
Miss Blackley, very handsome blue satin.
Miss D. Gilmer, street costume.
Mrs. S. M. Orr, black silk with chiffon.
Mrs. M. L. Bonham, black silk with white.
Mrs. J. M. Patrick, white satin.
Mrs. P. K. McCully, jr., black silk cerise ribbons.
Mrs. J. L. McGee, grey silk.
Mrs. A. G. Means, black velvet bodice, brocaded skirt.
Mrs. F. G. Brown, handsome street costume.

The gentlemen present were as follows: Capt. McDonald, Mass., Lieut. Hamilton, Mass., Major Chambers, N. J., Capt. Christie, N. J., Dr. Earle, Max South, N. J., Havne, Stone, Beatty, Joe Earle, Marshall Prevost, Greenville; Ed. Coleman, George Coleman, Seneca; Claude Douthitt, Aldrich, Lewis, Maxwell, Clemson; Reynolds, Williams, Greenwood; E. H. Smith, Virginia; Lieut. White, New Jersey; Dr. W. Avey, Harry Orr, George Evans, Belton Evans, T. S. Maxwell, F. B. Maxwell, J. L. Maxwell, F. W. Nardin, J. R. Cochran, C. C. Prevost, Stephen Prevost, J. Saylor, R. S. McCully, D. Taylor, Frank Hayes, Clarence Brock, Walter Brock, Hoyt King, Thett Parker, A. G. Means, F. G. Brown, J. M. Patrick, M. L. Bonham, P. K. McCully.

Townville Items.

Mr. Jesse Campbell, of near this place, the farmer that has bought a good place on a credit and paid for it, is very sick at this writing.

Dr. W. T. Hunt, of this place, fell from his buggy while in the act of getting out one of those cold days and got seriously hurt, spraining his right wrist and bruising his face frightfully, almost knocking some of his teeth out. He says he must have been frozen so badly that he lost the use of his limbs. He is getting along very well at present.

Miss Jessie Campbell, one of our country belles, is spending awhile with her uncle, Dr. S. G. Bruce, of this place.

Several of Mr. J. C. Spares' children are down with the chicken pox. It don't appear to be a dangerous disease but it makes a person powerful sick, especially after they eat something.

The cold wave that struck us last week was the coldest we have had here since 1845. The thermometer went 4 degrees below zero. We heard of no fatalities, except one of our cats froze to death. The snow was about six inches deep and stopped our mails for a few days, but the snow is all gone now and the mails are coming and going as usual, and everybody seems to be happy.

Rev. D. W. Hiott, who was called to supply the Baptist Church of this place, and who moved from Westminster to this place since Christmas, has resigned as pastor of the Townville Church. His reasons for so doing was that he said the Church was divided and that he had no pets and no bosses. Comments would be out of place and unnecessary.

Mr. F. M. Bruce, of this place, has been selected by the Commissioners of Oconee County to run the road machine. Mr. Bruce run the machine in Anderson County one year, and is well equipped for the work.

Mr. John Whitfield, of near this place, was the happy recipient of a lovely baby girl a few days ago.

The Legislature should pension the old soldier liberally, for he deserves it if anybody does. If he is crippled in the war let the State help him, and if he was killed let the State support his widow and children. If a railroad kills your son you promptly sue the railroad for one hundred thousand dollars. Then if the State puts her sons in war and gets them crippled and killed, surely a State will be as human as a railroad corporation. If she will not she had better quit posing as the guardian of the peoples' rights and liberties. Yes, we say again, pension the old soldier that deserves it. Mr. Ellerbe says the pension system is abused, therefore cut down the appropriations. Is a human being perfect? Was there ever a corporation perfect? Was there ever a Church perfect, taking it individually? Was there ever a perfect preacher except Christ? So you can consider that until you answer all these questions in the affirmative, that such an excuse in Mr. Ellerbe is without the least foundation. We hope that the Legislature will increase the pension appropriation. We have an old soldier in mind now—Mr. J. W. Ford, a shoemaker of this place, who is very feeble, and he fought through the Confederate war, ruined his health and now can barely live, but still they refuse him a pension. He has applied to the Oconee board for a pension, but he has never got it and he needs it and he deserves it.

The widow Hicks, who lives near here, is in very feeble health.

W. F. M. Fant, Esq., who has served as Magistrate for 22 years in the Forks, has resigned and the Governor has appointed Mr. John Cromer. Squire Fant served his County faithfully and honestly in the capacity of Magistrate, and the people generally regret to give him up. A severe wind storm visited our place last Thursday morning between 4 and 5 o'clock, unroofing and blowing down some tenant houses and blowing some large shade trees down. A good many of our citizens are attending Court this week in Anderson. Mr. D. L. Fant, our bicycle dealer, is sorely afflicted with boils. We don't know whether he is a second job or not, but he bears his affliction very patiently and quietly. Mrs. Lizzie Campbell, living near here, is seriously ill with neuralgia of the eyes. Mr. Willie McLeskey, living at Cross Roads, in Oconee County, came for Dr. W. T. Hunt to-day to attend a little boy of Mrs. Ables. A tree had fallen on him and they feared he was killed. OLD ROSIE DE BOW.

Provisions Will be Acceptable.

HICKORY FLAT, S. C., Feb. 18, 1899. Editors Intelligencer: In a communication from the Chairman of the Committee on Commissary having in charge the matter of entertainment of the Confederate Veterans who are to be in Charleston in May next, I am advised that provisions, such as meat, eggs, chickens, butter, flour, meal, potatoes, etc., will be as acceptable as money. This will enable many to contribute who would find it inconvenient to do so in money.

I confidently call upon all Confederate Camps and Daughters and Sons of the Confederacy and Veterans and patriots to assist in giving entertainment to many who will be there as the guests of the city and State, who wish to renew associations hallowed by the patriotism of 1860-5. No one is expected to give much. A popular subscription is desired. A little from many. A list of all contributions will be published in the County papers. Please notify Mr. J. C. Watkins, Anderson, S. C., or myself what you will give and about May 1st you will be informed where to deliver it. Respectfully, D. K. NORRIS, County Chairman.

Boleman News.

Mrs. Millie Herring, wife of Mr. Jesse Herring, of Reed Creek, Ga., died the 12th inst. of paralysis. She was about 70 years old. She was a daughter of the late Charles Whitworth. She was born and raised near Boleman, and spent the greater part of her life in this community. She had been a member of the Baptist Church for many years. She leaves a husband and five children to mourn her death. The bereaved family have the condolence of their many friends in this community.

Married, on Tuesday, Feb. 14th, 1899, at the residence of Mr. Ben Maret, by Rev. A. P. Maret, Mr. Furman Girard and Miss Jenevive Walters.

Miss Pauline Barton of near Boleman, has gone to Bowman, Ga., to attend the high school at that place.

Mr. Robert Harrison visited relatives near Poplar Springs, Ga., last week.

Mr. Earle Barton, of the Bruce's Ford section, was visiting in this section last Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Hettie Jolly and Miss Myrtie Barton visited relatives in Fair Play last Saturday.

Mr. John S. Cromer, the new magistrate for this Township (Fork) received his commission last week and is now ready to enter upon the duties of his office.

Mr. A. J. Harrison was quite sick with la grippe last week.

The storm of last Thursday morning did considerable damage in this section, blowing down out-buildings and up-rooting trees.

The recent cold spell of weather was the coldest ever experienced in this country. The thermometer registered eight degrees below zero.

We notice a considerable amount of cotton in the fields to be picked yet.

There was a musical entertainment given at Mr. Claude E. Maret's last Saturday night, Messrs. Anderson and Jeff Cromer, of Alpine, performing on the banjo and mandolin, which was highly appreciated by all those who were present.

If the weather is favorable there will be a large crop of spring oats sown in this section.

Rev. W. W. Leathers has resigned the pastorate of the Beaverton Baptist Church. His resignation has been accepted.

The health of this community is very good with the exception of a few cases of la grippe. SCRIBBLER.

Pendleton Items.

Mr. M. M. Hunter is sick and confined at home. We trust he will soon be alright and will be at his business again.

We take the liberty to correct the statement taken from the Abbeville paper last week in reference to the marriage of Rev. Mr. Singleton. He will not be married until Tuesday, the 28th.

Your correspondent will urge the meeting of the Pendleton Camp of old Veterans to meet on the second Saturday afternoon in March. All the veterans should attend.

Little John, son of Mr. J. H. Mounce, is right sick. All the other sick folks are better. TELL TALE.

No Cure—No Pay.

All Physicians of experience know the knife is a failure in the treatment of Cancerous diseases. Dr. F. A. Williams, of Laurens, S. C., will be at Williamston, March 15th to 20th and will cure, with medicine, all cases treated. Eradicate the disease locally and constitutionally and you are well to stay well. No pay until the patient is well. All Hemorrhoidal troubles quickly cured without the knife. 35-3

As the wind has not blown me away and I'm still kicking but not high, I will knock for admittance once more in your columns.

The ice is in the valley. The snow is on the hill. But our soul is in the sunshine and our heart is happy still.

The farmers have got the blues around here, as they haven't done anything toward another crop. But He who rules knows best.

Mr. Lev. Davis, about the oldest man in our community, is the father of a fine boy, and I tell you he is all smiles. Mr. John Williams has moved into our midst.

Messrs. Stevenson & George are having a time with their large engine. It seems to be very bad out of fix. I hope they will be successful.

Miss Othella Milam has a flourishing school at Oak Grove.

Miss Daisy Moore has been right sick. Ask Miss M. what she said when she gave the widower the cat?

Mrs. Webb has returned home and their charming daughters, Misses Julia and Maggie, have come to spend a week with their uncle.

Misses Dora and Lula McLees visited their sister, Mrs. Leonard Jackson. Mr. T. Davis, from Belton, was in our midst last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson gave a dance on the 17th inst. to their sisters and friends. In spite of the bad weather there was a large crowd. Everybody enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson know how to make their guests enjoy themselves. There will always be a green spot in our memory for their kindness shown us on that night. Mr. Joe Williams and his brother furnished the music, and it was grand, and, of course, the little girls in blue will remember them in many days to come.

Mr. Woodson Giles, of Townville, S. C., was sporting around in our burg Saturday night and Sunday. Give him room, boys.
