General Wheeler has been ordered to the Philippines. He was anxious to go there, and his friends are more than pleased that his wish has been gratified.

A strong effort is being made to reorganize the Alliance in South Carolina. In the future it is proposed to keep out all politicians. It is a great pity that this was not done years ago.

It is said that of the $20,000,000 she has received as a free gift from the United States, Spain will spend at least $10,000,000 in constructing a navy. If that is her intention, she might better have left the money in this country and ordered American ships instead.

The latest venture in journalism in South Carolina is the Clinton News, which made its appearance last week. S. Frank Parrott is the editor, and it is published by the Clinton Publishing Co. We extend the News the right hand of fellowship and wish it much success.

St. Louis started in to raise $5,000,000 for a world's fair and the task appeared to be a very difficult one. It was a large amount of money, but the subscription was promptly forthcoming and St. Louis is now preparing to surpass in 1903 all previous world's fairs in history.

Seventy-four cases of yellow fever are reported in the soldiers' hospital at Santiago. All attempts of the doctors to prevent its spread seem unavailing. This is an alarming state of affairs, for the danger of bringing the disease to the United States is of course many times greater than it was in the past.

Some of the Republican newspapers are beginning to realize that their party will find the administration's foreign policy a heavy load to carry next year. They are begging the president to call a halt in his imperialism, and some of them predict that if he does not do so he will be rebuked by the people at the first opportunity.

The Spartanburg Spartans truly remark: Because a life-long Democrat is not willing to subscribe to the platform of 1890 now and feels assured that the silver question has been settled for the present and advises that the old silver plank be split into kindling wood, there is no reason for calling him a traitor. The platform for 1890 is to be made. That is one that Democrats are expected to support. It is foolish to denounce men who believe that live issues and not dead ones should engage the public attention next year.

The press dispatches of the past ten days have been telling alarming stories of the heavy rains and the swollen rivers in portions of Texas. Several towns have been submerged, and it is estimated that fully 500 people have been drowned, and corn and cotton crops and bridges to the value of millions of dollars have been washed away. There are thousands of people at the point of starvation, and Gov. Sayres has issued a proclamation asking donations for their relief. The area affected is about as large as the State of South Carolina.

A society in New York has made an appeal which contains an appalling description of destitution in Cuba. This society has undertaken the raising of a Cuban orphan fund. In the call for contributions the statement is made that 50,000 children have lost one or both parents in the recent war. Mention is made of one town in which scarce an adult is left alive and where the younger children are being supported by the older ones by such work as they are able to get, which is usually very little. The sum needed to relieve these 50,000 parentless children is $1,000,000.

Ex-Gov. John Peter Richardson died very unexpectedly of heart disease in Columbia last Wednesday night. He had been in failing health for several years, and had left his plantation in Clarendon County to be near his physician in Columbia. He was elected Governor in 1886 and served two terms. He belonged to a family that has furnished five Governors to South Carolina, his father and great-grandfather being among the number. During the war he served his State gallantly on the staff of Gen. James Canty in the army of the West as division adjutant. He was a man of recognized ability and exalted character, pure in principle and motive and true in every relation of life. In public life he was faithful and fearless, true to his convictions even to the sacrifice of his personal interests. As a private citizen he was generous and kindhearted and a faithful friend. Above all he was a manly man, a golden-hearted gentleman.

The industrial outlook in the South was never before so fine. Almost every day we hear of some new cotton mill in the cotton-producing States. On August 1, 1899, there were in the South 220,000 spindles; last August there were 1,945,000 spindles, a gain of 1,725,000 spindles in eight years, over 100 per cent. More than fifty cotton mills are now under construction in the South. They will represent an investment of $11,000,000 and an addition of 700,000 spindles. Forty Southern cotton mills are enlarging their capacity and will add 400,000 new spindles to the number already in operation in the South. South Carolina leads in this work of improvement with 375,000 new spindles, and North Carolina comes second with 236,000. Most of the new Southern mills will make finer lines of goods than the average mill now operating in the South. Hosiery and knitting mills are increasing in number in this section rapidly, and a silk mill will soon be established in North Carolina.

State Missionary Conference of the M. E. Church, South.

The annual meeting of the "Methodist Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of South Carolina" convened in McCall, S. C., June 28, 1899, and closed July 2, 1899. McCall is a thriving manufacturing town, situated in the eastern part of Marlboro County, about ten miles to the east of Bonnettsville. It is a small town, but notwithstanding there were nearly one hundred delegates, including officers and quite a number of visitors from all parts of the State. McCall could have entertained handsomely as many more. The doors of every home were thrown open, all eager to accommodate—even more delegates than were assigned them. Owing to the untiring efforts of Mr. T. B. Gibson, arrangements were made with the officials of the Atlantic Coast Line to run a special train from Bennettsville, otherwise the delegation would have been forced to spend the night (both coming and going) in Bennettsville. Mrs. M. D. Wightman, of Charleston, presided in her usual graceful and dignified manner. The business meetings were held from 9.30 a. m. to 4 p. m., with recess at 12.30 for dinner, which was served on the Church grounds.

The State is divided into ten districts, each district having a corresponding secretary, and the work is entirely devoted to Foreign Missions. Marion District ranks first, this winning the proud place as "Banner District." Having raised more than $1200 this year a beautiful banner was presented to Marion District by Mr. Covington, of McCall.

Mrs. M. G. Goddard, Secretary of Greenville District, was unable to attend the meeting, owing to illness in her family. The Rev. R. E. Stackhouse preached the annual missionary sermon, which was full of encouragement to the Society and pleasing to all his hearers.

Greenville was selected as the place for the next meeting, and the following officers were elected: Mrs. M. D. Wightman, President; Mrs. E. S. Herbert, 1st Vice President; Mrs. W. L. Waite, 2nd Vice President; Mrs. J. W. Humbert, Corresponding Secretary; Miss I. D. Martin, Recording Secretary; Mrs. J. W. Green, Treasurer.

On Saturday afternoon a delightful reception was tendered the Conference, where dainty refreshments were served. On Saturday evening Mrs. T. B. Gibson's lovely home was thrown open to the delegates and young people of McCall. A delightful programme of music and recitations had been arranged and was enjoyed by all present.

Too much cannot be said of the hospitality of the good people of McCall, and many discussions were heard to express themselves of this being the very best meeting since the organization of the Society. On Sunday evening Mrs. Wightman delivered her annual address, which brought to a close a very profitable meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and the delegates left for home on Monday morning with renewed missionary zeal.

A DELEGATE.

A Meeting of Sons of Veterans of Williamston. WILLIAMSTON, S. C., July 10, 1899.

A meeting of Camp Jefferson Davis, No. 138, United Sons of Confederate Veterans, will be held in the old Methodist Church building in Williamston, S. C., on Monday evening, July 17th, at 8 o'clock. It is earnestly requested that every present member and every prospective member be on hand promptly. It is a duty, comrades and young men, which you owe, not so much to yourselves and the present, as to the actors in a glorious past, that you place on record in an official way the part played by your respective Veterans in a cause which grows brighter as time advances. And these records can be properly made only through our organization. If you are the son or the grandson of one who served under "the stars and bars," come out to the meeting, anyway. Any Confederate Veteran will be welcomed as a visitor. We hope to have an address from one of the old heroes, possibly several. WALTER W. BROWN, Com. B. F. RUSSELL, Adjutant.

Program of the Sunday School Union of Third Union District.

The Union will meet with the Townville Baptist Sunday School on the 5th Sunday of this month. The following program has been arranged for the occasion:

1st. Meet at 9.30 a. m., and devote thirty minutes to devotional meeting, conducted by E. J. Buchanan.

2nd. Organization of Union and reports of each school, 5 minutes each. 3rd. Addresses by Dr. R. F. Dwyer and E. P. Earle, each speaker to select his own subject, and limited to 20 minutes each. 4th. Mission sermon by Rev. J. J. Beck, with Rev. Wm. Brown as alternate.

Each school is earnestly requested to send at least two delegates. L. P. SMITH, Wm. Eskew, J. D. COMPTON, Committee.

JULY 25, 1899.

Excursion to Charleston, S. C.

At last we have secured a Train to Charleston, and the time is TUESDAY, JULY 25—leaving Piedmont at 8.30 a. m. and Anderson at 8.25 a. m. Returning leave Charleston at 6 p. m. Thursday, July 27th. This gives two whole days in the City. Now, all you people who want to take one of the finest trips on record here is your chance. The "Isle of Palms," with its many attractions, is drawing thousands to the seashore this Summer from the up-country. We have a letter from the General Manager of the Steamboat and Trolley Car Line stating that he is arranging special attraction for the people who go on this excursion. Make up your mind at once and notify us, so that we can arrange for your comfort. We will do all in our power to make this trip a pleasant one. You will never regret the small outlay of money. A sight of the Grand Old Ocean is worth all the money you invest in the trip.

Yours truly, L. P. SMITH & CO.

Townville Items.

We had a much needed season on last Saturday and the farmers are going to finish work now in about two weeks. Some may get done before that time.

The negroes had a barbecue here last Tuesday, and collected $41 for Church purposes. Mrs. M. B. Gaines has been visiting her parents for some time. She will return to Anderson some time next week.

Miss Marie Stevenson, one of Asbury's charming young ladies, spent last week with friends and relatives near here.

We learn that Rev. D. W. Hiott, pastor of the Townville Baptist Church, has been protracting a meeting at Seneca, S. C., and a great interest was manifested. Let the great work go on. The young folks are going to picnic at Maxwell's Bridge on Saturday, July 22nd. Come up, Mr. Editor, and be with us.

There are a few cases of fever in the surrounding community. With these exceptions the health of our section is good. Union Meeting will meet with the Baptist Church at this place on the 5th Sunday and Saturday before.

SCHOOL BOY.

Program of Woman's Mission Meeting.

The annual Woman's Mission Meeting, auxiliary to the Saluda Baptist Association, will meet with the new Prospect Baptist Church, August 2nd, 1899. 10 a. m.—Devotional exercises, conducted by Mrs. M. McGee. Enrollment of delegates. Address of Welcome, Miss Clayton Dean.

Response, Mrs. Zella Anderson. Report of delegates, also from leaders of children's work. "The object of our Meeting," Miss Jessie Edwards.

"How can we best reach the ladies of our Churches, who take no interest in woman's work?" Mrs. J. F. Singleton; Mrs. H. C. Wilson, Miss Crayton Robinson. Recess.

2 p. m.—"How to secure organizations of Woman's Missionary Societies in Churches that have none?" Mrs. C. O. Burriss, Mrs. John Pruitt, Miss Allie Majors.

Paper read by Miss Lena Campbell, "God's call to Southern Baptists." Address, by Rev. J. F. Singleton; alternate, Rev. O. J. Copeland. Each Society is earnestly requested to send delegates. Churches that have no Society will please send a representative. All ladies who are interested in Mission Work are cordially invited to attend. The secretaries will please send me their report at once, so I may be able to prepare my report.

Mrs. O. K. BREAZEALE, V. P.

While cursing his daughter for marrying against his wishes, a Texas man was stricken with death.

In some parts of Russia the only food for the people consist at present of acorns, leaves and the soft bark of trees.

TALK NO. 1. MY SPACE

This space will be devoted for a time to advertisements of my optical business. By special contract with the INTELLIGENCER I am to keep this position at all times. I shall change my advertisements each week and shall try to tell you in a brief and interesting manner why I believe it will be to your advantage to give me your patronage. I shall make only such statements in my advertisements as I would make in talking to you face to face, and shall always stand ready to prove the truth of everything I say. I propose by skillful work and honest methods to do an optical business in Anderson. I am already doing a good business in this line, and if your eyes bother you in any way I want you to feel at liberty to consult me at any time. If you need glasses I will furnish them, if you don't I will charge you nothing for the consultation. Respectfully, A. C. STRICKLAND. Office at my old stand, Masonic Temple, Strickland & King.

BUGGIES!

"NEW SOUTH" BUGGIES ring wedding bells. If you are a young man and want to win the pretty girl you love, and are afraid to tell her so, buy a New South Buggy and she will know what that means and say "yes." If you are single and want to remain so, buy a New South and stay single—the pride of the women and the envy of the men.

If you are old and want a comfortable buggy to soothe your troubles, buy a New South Buggy. It will make you happy and stay away from the shop. We want you to have one—or more. Just in—one hundred cases—

Georgia Home Made Harness. The quality is ahead of anything and the price beats the rest.

Yours to please, VANDIVER BROS. & MAJOR.

Program of W. M. U., No. 2.

The Woman's Missionary Union will meet with the Neal's Creek Union July 29 at 11 o'clock. Devotional exercises, conducted by Mrs. M. McGee. Recitation, Miss Russie Kay. Paper on Cuba as a mission field, by Miss Eva Stringer. Query, opened by Miss Lena Campbell: "How shall we interest our women in Missionary Work?" Miss ALLIE MAJOR, Chairman.

HELP US MOVE!

WE beg of you for help to move. This is no joke. We are in cold earnest and will prove it to you. Listen while we talk, and then take your turn at speaking.

We have again outgrown our pantaloons breeches, (as a Dutchman once said), and we must make dem some more big. Or to make it clear to you, the house in which we do business has become too small to conveniently accommodate our large and growing trade. Hence we have secured a larger and more desirable house on Granite Row. Now, we have not forgotten what a job it was four years ago to lug about nine thousand dollars of stuff up here from our little old place, though the back doors were almost touching. And how much more of a job will it be now for us to move over twenty-five thousand of Goods clear across the Public Square. We don't want to do it, and we ain't agoin' to do it. No, we are just going to make a grab-pile of it, and let our friends and enemies come in and carry it off for us. To give you an idea of our intentions in the matter—listen:

For every ten cents traded with us we will give you a help-move ticket. If you trade 50c. worth you get five help move tickets, and so on. These tickets entitle the holders to free grabs at the pile, or to all. Every little boy or girl who comes in and buys 25c. worth of Goods, or is with an older person who buys 25c. worth or more, we will give free one Hickory or Boxwood Top or a tiny Doll Baby—either black or white. Nor is this in trade for each ticket held. Nor is this a number of bills, amounting to over one dollar, between now and August 28th, we will give first choice of two German Yockell Clocks—greatly prized as an ornament souvenir. To the person trading the most bills, amounting to over 25c., we will give another Clock like above. Only one bill can be recorded in one day.

But, Minor, says some one, you can't afford it. Well, we admit as much, but we do it, anyhow. Now listen for prices to frighten competition. Oh, yes, they'll have to use a camphor bottle to keep up spirits now:

12c. and 15c. Suspenders cut to 10. Thin Bleaching cut to 2c. White Lawn cut to 2c. Combs, Brushes, Towels, Jewellery, etc., at prices which defy competition.

Remember, you get help-move tickets with all this. No wonder competition nches.

Good Glass Tumblers 13c. set. Goblets 25c. set. 10c. cream 25c. doz. Hen and Rabbit Butter Dishes 10c. Covered Honey Dishes 10c. Syrup Tans 8c, 10c, 15c. Aluminum Hair Pins 5c. doz. 21 kinds Hair Pins selected from Combs, Brushes, Towels, Jewellery, etc., at prices which defy competition.

12 lbs. good Soda for 25c. 3 boxes Shoe Nails for 5c. 25 good Envelopes for 1c. 24 sheets Paper for 1c. 12 kinds Chewing Gum at 1c, 2c, 4c, and 5c. a package.

Now let's wind up this tale with a quid of Cr-ek o Jack Tobacco, or a piece of Judge at 35c. or 26c. per lb. Or shall we wash it - it with a few bars of best Laundry Soap at 25c, or 4c, or 5c for big-knife bars.

In our Wholesale Department we make special prices to merchants everywhere. Yours always truly, C. S. MINOR and THE TEN CENT STORE Spot Cash does the work.
