

Some New Things!

FOR

The Goersaway

AND

The Home Stayers

The public is doubtless tired of Clearance Sales, &c. Therefore for a change. We invite your attention to a few items for the Fall and Winter that will come in well, in some instances, for immediate use. We have just opened up an early shipment of—

Fall and Winter Dress Goods,

Pretty, stylish and nobby, and especially adapted for—

TRAVELING COSTUMES

And for—

Mountain or Seashore Resorts.

We wish also to call your attention to our line of—

LADIES' FINE SHOES,

Made expressly for us for Fall and Winter. The most up-to-date Shoes to be found anywhere. The newest Toes and Lasts. Ask to be shown the "Dewey" Toe, the latest fad among the women. Also, "Regina Shoe," the greatest $3.00 Shoe for ladies on the market to-day. Comes in all the new styles. We have also received our Fall stock of—

MEN'S FINE SHOES.

We have the correct things in Ladies' and Men's Fine Footwear, and those seeking dependable footwear cannot afford to give us the go-by.

Now, if you contemplate going away or staying at home and need a—

TRUNK OR TRAVELING BAG,

Of any kind, don't fail to see ours before buying. We are showing a more complete line than formerly, and might properly be termed the Traveling Outfitters of Anderson.

A WORD TO HOUSEKEEPERS.

It may appear a little unseasonable, this hot weather, to talk to you about—

CARPETS AND ART SQUARES,

But we have just opened up the largest and prettiest line of Wool Ingrain Carpets that we have ever shown, and at the most reasonable prices. Also, a magnificent assortment of Art Squares, all sizes, and the latest and most artistic patterns. We have bought Fifty Art Squares to begin the season with, and nearly all are different colors or patterns. If you would like to make your selection before they are picked over, now would be a good time.

We are agents for the Gaffney Carpet Manufacturing Co., Gaffney, S. C. We will show you the prettiest patterns and the greatest values in Ingrain Carpets and Art Squares, and demonstrate the fact that SOUTH CAROLINA can compete successfully in the manufacture of Carpets, &c.

We still have a nice assortment MATTINGS, RUGS, &c.

We have called to your especial notice—

FALL and WINTER DRESS GOODS,

NEW SHOES, for Men and Women,

TRUNKS and TRAVELING BAGS,

CARPETS, ART SQUARES, &c.,

But would not have you forget our general lines and the constant arrival of New Goods.

MERCHANTS

Will remember our Wholesale Department.

Yours truly,

Brown, Osborne & Co.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in General Merchandise.

Our young friend, Henry W. Todd, of Columbia, is in the city visiting his mother.

To-morrow will be the 13th anniversary of the earthquake that visited this country.

Mr. J. S. Land, of Columbia, who is an old Anderson boy, was in the city last week.

Mrs. W. W. White went up to Pickens last week to spend a few days with her parents.

Mr. Raymond C. Mattison has changed base and is now manager of the Brown Stationary Co.

Mrs. E. E. Williamson and children, of Union, are in the city visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. J. W. Spearman has gone to Harris Lithia Springs to spend a few days with her mother.

Mr. J. T. Harris, proprietor of Harris Lithia Springs, was in Anderson last Friday and gave us a call.

The stores will cease closing at 6:30 p. m. next Friday, and the salesmen are ready for the fall business.

Two Mormon elders are perambulating Anderson County. The people should not countenance them.

Mr. C. C. Prevost, of Chattanooga, Tenn., arrived in the city last week to spend a few days with his mother.

Miss Hattie Zimmerman, of Westminster, is spending a few days in the city with her friend, Miss Lucy Murphy.

Miss Carrie Pearman, who has been spending the past four months in Montana visiting her sister, has returned home.

That cool spell in August was a long time getting here, but it has finally arrived, and brought with it a good season of rain.

Last year Anderson County had nineteen students in Winthrop College, which was more than any other County in the State had.

Mr. J. A. Elliott, of this city, has recently obtained a valuable patent for improvements in combined harrows and cultivators.

Messrs. J. H. Weil & Co.'s buyer is now in the Eastern markets buying fall and winter goods, which are coming in by every train.

Three valuable tracts of land near Clemson College and Pendleton are offered for sale by W. W. Simons and others. See advertisement.

The pulpit of the First Baptist Church will be filled next Sunday by Dr. G. B. Moore, of Greenville, and on the second Sunday by Dr. A. J. S. Thomas, of the same place.

Mr. A. L. Smith will deliver his lecture, "Lights and Shadows," at Belton next Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

The Robert E. Lee Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy will meet next Monday afternoon, at 5:30 o'clock, at the home of Miss Lois Watson. All the members are urged to attend.

Col. L. J. Bristow, editor of the Darlingtonian, Darlington, spent last Friday in the city on his way to Tallulah Falls, and was a welcome visitor to our sanctum.

By reference to an advertisement in another column, it will be seen that it has been determined to increase the capital stock of the Belton cotton mill to $200,000.

Honea Path is making an effort to build a cotton mill. Her citizens could not do a better thing. We would like to see a cotton mill in every town in the County.

Next Monday is Salesday, and the registration books will be open. Young men, if you have reached your majority, go and get your certificate so you can vote next year.

Mr. C. F. Jones is in the Eastern markets buying an immense stock of goods for the fall and winter trade. His firm is still offering bargains, as will be seen by their advertisement.

Carlisle Bros. have changed base, and are now located at the southwest corner of Brick Range, in the Peoples block. Their friends and customers should bear this in mind.

Another yarn mill is now being projected in Anderson, with a capital stock of $50,000. It will also include a knitting mill for the manufacture of hosiery. Let the good work go on.

Married, on Sunday, August 27, 1899, by Magistrate J. P. Anderson, and at his residence, Mr. Thomas Pritchard, of Hart County, Ga., and Miss Edna Landers of Anderson County, S. C.

Gov. McSweeney has announced his staff appointments. Among the aide-de-camp, with the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel, is our young townsman, Mr. G. C. Sullivan. We salute thee, Col. Sullivan.

Mr. A. Evans Browne, of Denver, who has been seriously ill for some time, is able to be out again, and visited the city last Monday. We sincerely hope he will soon be restored to his usual health.

Cotton is opening with unexampled rapidity. Many fields are white already and harvest. Heavy marketing early in the season will bolster up Neil's guesswork and ruin prices. Hold your cotton, farmers.

The Honea Path military company has been mustered into the State militia. The captain is W. A. Hadden, and his lieutenants are J. H. Shaw and W. F. Kay. There are 58 enlisted men in this company.

On the first page of the INTELLIGENCER this week, Messrs. Wilhite & Wilhite have a large advertisement that will interest every mother who has a baby, and we advise every one of them to read it carefully.

Frank McFall, recently with Wilhite & Wilhite, has accepted a position in the drug store of his brother, J. Clarence McFall, at Danville, Va. Frank is a fine boy, and his many friends regret to have him go.

Vandiver Bros. have a new advertisement, to which your attention is directed. These gentlemen have moved into the handsome building just east of the Masonic Temple, where they will be more than pleased to welcome their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brock, accompanied by their little daughter, left on Monday for Cleveland, Ohio, where Mr. Brock goes to attend the American Bankers' Convention. They will visit other points of interest during their absence.

Hon. Joseph A. McCullough, of Greenville, has accepted an invitation from the Great Camp, Woodmen of the World, at Pelzer, to deliver the address at the unveiling of the monument of H. P. Collins on Sunday afternoon, September 3rd.

Anderson County should have a fine exhibit at the State Fair in Columbia next November. Send at once to Secretary Holloway, Pomaria, S. C., for a premium list, and begin your preparations to capture some of the liberal premiums offered in the various departments.

Brown, Osborne & Co.'s advertisement for this week came in too late for publication, but they want it distinctly understood that they are still headquarters for bagging and ties of any description. Also headquarters when you wish to secure the best price for your cotton.

Mrs. T. S. Crayton has gone to the Eastern markets to buy a stock of millinery goods, and when she returns will open a millinery establishment on her own account in the rear portion of Cobb & Crayton's shoe store in the Masonic Temple. Mrs. Crayton is an expert milliner, and will no doubt be liberally patronized.

At the end of every summer hunters have to be reminded that the game season does not open until the 1st of November and that until then it is unlawful to shoot, kill or trap partridges or other game birds. This unlawful hunting has already begun in various parts of the County, and the young partridges are being killed out to a shameless extent.

The municipal campaign is on in Spartanburg. Among the four candidates for Alderman from Ward 1 we notice the name of Mr. W. R. Dillingham, formerly a citizen of Anderson.

Mr. Oscar Moore, of the firm of Moore, Acker & Co., accompanied by Mrs. Della Wilson, left last Monday for the Northern markets, where they will buy a select line of dry goods, notions, etc. Mrs. Wilson's excellent taste is well known in Anderson, and needs no comment. She and Miss Op. Moore will be connected with this firm after 1st of Sept., where they will be glad to see their friends and customers.

Mr. Scott S. Brown, the youngest son of Mr. Samuel Brown, of this city, who has been serving in the United States army for the past three years, has recently been promoted to the position of Second Lieutenant in the field corps of his Regiment, now stationed in Cuba, and will soon be sent to the Philippines. Lieut. Brown's friends here will be delighted to learn of his success in the service of "Uncle Sam."

Mr. W. R. Osborne, of the firm of Brown, Osborne & Co., left the city last week for the Northern markets. He will join Miss Helen Cater and Mrs. Forcher Winn, who preceded him several days ago. The three representing the big firm will devote several weeks in carefully selecting the most complete stock of dress goods, novelties, millinery, etc., they have ever yet had the pleasure of showing to their many friends and customers.

Senator Tillman incidentally paid his respects to the roads of Lancaster County in his speech at Heath Spring. He said if some of Lancaster's farmers were to take a trip across the country from here into Anderson county, they would be ashamed of the public roads of Lancaster in comparison with those of Anderson; but Senator Tillman has never seen the worst section of Lancaster's roads—from town to the McDow house.—Lancaster Enterprise.

At the competitive examination held in this city last July for two scholarships in the South Carolina College there were several competitors. President F. C. Woodward has just notified Mr. R. A. Gentry, of Hopewell Township, but who is now teaching school at Mountain Springs, in Bushy Creek Township, and Mr. Frank Todd, of this city, that they are the successful competitors, and has awarded them the scholarships. Both are deserving, worthy young gentlemen, and will make good use of their time at the College.

The postoffice and all its appurtenances, together with the storeroom and stock of goods of J. M. Cox, Jr., for a couple of miles east of Belton, were burned last Friday morning. The loss is estimated at $2,000, on which there was $1,300 insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to have been accidental. Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. Cox. He is an industrious young man with a family, and he has only lately started business for himself.

Mrs. Francis Griffin died at her residence in Oregita, N. C., on the 10th inst., after a short illness. Mrs. Griffin was a daughter of the late Holbert Acker, Esq., and wife of the late John C. Griffin, a man well known by many of the older inhabitants of this County. She leaves several surviving children in North Carolina, one son in Washington and one in this State, Mr. Holbert A. Griffin, of Belton. Mrs. Griffin has many relatives in this County, who will regret to hear of her death. She was about 72 years old.

"Prof." John Rogers and his wife, Mattie Rogers, both negro school teachers, who claim to be from Greenville, recently located in Corner Township and boarded with a respectable negro of that section. A few days ago, during the absence of their landlord, they entered the house and stole a lot of clothing and other things and departed. The landlord complained to Magistrate McAllister, who issued a warrant for their arrest. A search was made and the man and woman through Abbeville and Edgefield and then back to Greenwood, where he arrested them and found a lot of the stolen goods in their possession. They were brought to the court and were arraigned preliminarily, and Magistrate McAllister sent their case up to the Circuit Court, fixing their bond at $300, which they gave.

The matter of the election in reference to the transfer of part of Donalds Township from Abbeville to Anderson was heard yesterday by Commissioner Moore. General Bonham represented the Township, and Messrs. W. N. Graydon and F. B. Gary represented Abbeville County. After a hearing Commissioner Moore decided that the election was not held according to law, as no such election precinct as Burts was recognized by either the Constitution or any Statute. The Township people, we learn, are dissatisfied with the decision, and it is possible that they may appeal.—Abbeville Press and Banner, Aug. 23d.

The Sherman (Texas) Register of the 19th inst. contained the following marriage notice, which will breed with interest in Anderson County by the friends of the bride, whose father is a native of this County. "At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. D. S. White, 830 South Travis, Mr. W. E. Ledbetter, a prominent business man of Shreveport, La., and Miss Lola Pearl White were united in marriage at 10:45 o'clock, Rev. E. W. Anderson officiating. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left on the Katy train via Denison and Fort Worth for Shreveport which place they will make their future home. The Register extends congratulations and best wishes."

Married, at the home of the groom, on Greenville Street, on Tuesday, August 29, 1899, at 6 o'clock p. m., by Rev. W. T. Capers, Mr. A. Postell Cater of this city, and Miss Susie L. Cater, daughter of the late Peter J. Cater, of Charleston, S. C. The ceremony was witnessed by only a few intimate friends and relatives of the happy couple who were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents. The groom is one of Anderson's most popular and worthy young men, and is fortunate in his selection of a wife, who is a young lady of many noble virtues of both mind and heart. May Heaven's richest blessings attend them through life.

Mr. S. F. McConnell, Sr., another valuable and highly esteemed citizen of Anderson, has been called to his eternal home. His death occurred at his home in Savannah Township last Wednesday after an illness of several weeks. The deceased was born, reared and spent his life in Anderson County, 26 years of his age. He had long been a member and a ruling elder of the A. R. P. Church, and his daily walk was that of a faithful Christian. Mr. McConnell was twice married, and leaves seven children and a devoted wife to cherish his memory. On the day following his death the remains were buried at Generosee Church, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. R. C. Ligon.

The New York Times of the 17th inst. says: "Mrs. Elizabeth K. Mullally, wife of the Rev. Francis P. Mullally, of 318 West 113th street, died yesterday at the Mothers' and Infants' Hospital. She had been ill about a month. The funeral will take place from the residence Friday and burial will be at Greenwood Cemetery. Mrs. Mullally was 58 years old. She was the daughter of the Rev. John B. Adger, who was the first translator of the Bible into the Armenia language. He was a missionary to Armenia and his daughter was born there. At the age of ten she came with her father to this country, and they settled in Columbia, S. C. He was a professor in a seminary there. During the civil war she saved his life by stepping in front of a gun which was aimed at his head by a member of a Union band of raiders. She was married to the Rev. Dr. Mullally in South Carolina, and they moved to New York in 1882."

Ernest Kinard, the well known Pelzer bicycle rider, while riding for prizes in Elberton, Ga., during the big Elberton carnival on Thursday, fell from his wheel in some way and was fatally hurt. While riding at a high rate of speed he plunged forward on his chest and tore the flesh open down into his lungs. When he was picked up, with the dust made mud of by his life blood, the sight was sickening and almost cry-baby turned away their gaze. Mr. Kinard never regained consciousness. He was carried to Abbeville and died at a hotel there at 9 o'clock Thursday night. The remains were carried to Pelzer yesterday and the news cast a gloom over the busy little town. Mr. Kinard was well known in Greenville, and the news of his tragic end was received with many sincere expressions of sorrow. He became acquainted with many Greenvillians during the Fourth of July races at Pelzer, when he carried off most of the prizes.—Greenville News, 26th inst.

The last issue of the Baptist Courier speaks of one of Anderson County's best citizens as follows: "Col. Joshua Jameson, of Anderson county, called to see us Monday. He reports a pleasant meeting of the Piedmont Association, held recently at Mt. Airy church. He is the clerk of the church, and has served in the office seventeen years, and has attended every meeting since it was organized twenty-two years ago. His membership is at Pisgah church, and for more than thirty years he has served his church as clerk and treasurer. Col. Jameson is not only a useful church member, but is known all over his county as one of her most substantial and useful citizens, and his fellow-citizens have more than once shown their appreciation of his excellent qualities by calling him into the public service. Though well advanced in years, he is still active and useful. May he be spared yet many years to serve his church and State."

The stockholders of the yarn mill met yesterday at 12 o'clock to perfect its organization. A set of by-laws governing the corporation were adopted, and it was decided to name the enterprise The Cox Manufacturing Co. in honor of Mr. W. F. Cox, who has fathered it. The by-laws provide for a Board of nine Directors, seven of whom were elected at this meeting, viz.: W. F. Cox, R. Vandiver, E. P. Vandiver, F. G. Brown, G. W. Evans, J. L. Tribble and J. A. Hall. The other two Directors will be elected at some future meeting. The Board of Directors met immediately after the meeting of the stockholders and elected the following officers: President and Treasurer, W. F. Cox; Vice-President, J. R. Vandiver; Secretary and book-keeper, Charles Poore. A committee, consisting of W. F. Cox, J. R. Vandiver and F. G. Brown, was appointed to select a site for the mill. In order to secure a charter, 20 per cent. of the capital stock will be paid in by September 15th.
