Now is the time to buy your Christmas goods.

The Alliance Store calls attention to its big stock of Christmas toys.

Country produce generally and eggs especially are in demand in the city.

The first ice of the season was seen in the city last Monday morning.

The city butchers are supplying their patrons with some very fine fresh meats.

Farmers from various parts of the County report the grain crop in fine condition.

The County Auditor has an important notice in another column to the taxpayers.

Miss Annie McAdams, of Due West, is in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. L. L. Hatcher.

Mrs. M. A. Avery, of Baltimore, is in the city visiting her daughter, Mr. R. C. Laughlin.

Mr. E. B. Benson, one of the leading citizens of Hartwell, Ga., was in the city last week.

C. F. Jones & Co. are prepared to supply you with Christmas goods. Read their advertisement.

Nearly every farmer will have his own meat at home. The Fall has been splendid for fattening hogs.

Congress convened yesterday. Congressman Lattimer and family left for Washington a few days ago.

In their new advertisement Brown, Osborne & Co. say they can supply you with useful Christmas presents.

Mr. J. C. C. Allen, of Greenville, spent a few days in the city last week visiting his son, Mr. R. E. Allen.

Up to 1st inst. Anderson's cotton receipts for this season were 11,825 bales; same time last year, 21,822 bales.

If you contemplate buying a stove or Christmas toys, the new advertisement of John T. Burriss will interest you.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Wagener, of Charleston, have been spending a few days in the city with friends and relatives.

Rev. R. C. Ligon will preach at Deans next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. All are invited to attend the services.

Mr. J. L. Ramsey representing the Bobbitt Drug Co., Raleigh, N. C., spent last Saturday in the city and favored us with a call.

Hog killing time is now the order of the day. The weather is fine, and quite a number of farmers have taken advantage of the opportunity.

Mr. J. F. Graham, one of the best farmers and one of the best citizens in Fork Township, was in the city last Saturday and gave us a call.

Mrs. J. H. Everett and Mrs. Evie Bryson, of Bryson, N. C., are in the city visiting their brother, Mr. W. H. Simpson, and other relatives.

There is an unusual demand in the City for small cottages. Our population is increasing, and houses should be erected to meet the demand.

Rev. C. Wardlaw, who has recently located at Seneca, has been called to the pastorate of South Union Baptist Church, in Oconee County, for 1900.

Miss May Hutchinson has returned home after spending five weeks very pleasantly with friends and relatives in Elberton, Ga., and Charleston, S. C.

The hunting season is on, and the newspapers are full of warning notices to trespassers. Verily, the hunter is not in clover in South Carolina this season.

Chiquola Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will meet to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock. It will be an important meeting, and all the members are urged to be present.

Mr. M. L. Willis has moved his stock of pianos and organs to the second floor of the Alliance Store, where he will be pleased to have his friends call and see him.

Messrs. Tom Davis, Zimmie Sharpe and Gus Bowie, of this city, spent Thanksgiving Day with their friend, Mr. Rufus Wright, at his home in Rock Mills Township.

Mayor John K. Hood will go to Charleston next Monday to attend the annual session of the Grand Lodge of Masons, as the representative of Hiram Lodge of this city.

Your attention is directed to the new advertisement of McCully Bros., who are offering some rare bargains in shoes, hats, etc. Read what they say and give them a call.

Pay your taxes promptly. There will be no extension this year, as everybody has enjoyed a measure of prosperity, and should have the money to settle with the treasurer.

A number of delinquent subscribers have called in and settled their accounts during the past week. To them we return many thanks. Reader, if you owe us a dollar come and pay it.

Mr. A. M. Law, late of Anderson, S. C., has decided to cast his fortunes here, where he has many friends and is known to all as a rising young man of sterling talent.—Spartanburg Telegram.

Married, on Thursday, Nov. 29, 1899, at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Samuel Sheriff, by Rev. J. E. Rushon, Mr. Bailey B. Pepper and Mr. Pinkie Sheriff, all of Brushy Creek Township.

The ladies of the Woman's Missionary Society at Belton will serve an oyster supper in the Academy building next Friday evening, Dec. 8th, beginning at half-past seven o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Our venerable friend, Mr. M. Melton, of the Five Forks section, gave us a call a few days ago. Mr. Melton is perhaps the oldest native citizen of Anderson County, being in his 91st year, and is holding his own remarkably well.

There was a most enjoyable reunion of the Sitten family at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sitten at Autun on the 28th ult. All of the brothers and sisters with their husbands and wives were present. A royal feast was served and much enjoyed. The anniversary of the birth of their father afforded the occasion for this pleasant day.

Mr. Jacob Alewine, of Anderson, sold his farm in that County and has bought land here. Mr. Alewine says that when he moves to this County he will bring his land level with him and go to terracing his land.—Greenwood Journal.

There will be an exhibit of the Common Sense Smoothing Harrow, manufactured at Rock Hill, S. C., at Brown Brothers store the latter part of this week and they invite all the farmers and others interested to come and inspect same.

Lewis Edwards, a worthy and highly respected negro, died at his home in this city last Wednesday night, after several weeks' illness. He was more than 60 years of age, and for a number of years was the sexton of the Episcopal Church.

J. B. Wright, who claims Abbeville County as his home, was arrested in Louisiana last week by a warrant from Mr. J. S. Fowler, of this city. He is charged with selling mortgaged property. Mr. A. M. Bailey went after the prisoner, brought him back and lodged him in jail.

Last Monday being Salesday a large crowd came to the city, and business was good. Considerable real estate was sold by the Judge of Probate, and all of it brought good prices. Judging from the number of drunken men on the streets, the State barroom was liberally patronized.

Thanksgiving Day was generally observed at this section. The city had a Sunday appearance, and many of our people spent the day in the country. The sportsmen took to the woods and fields in quest of the feathered tribe, with the result of a greatly increased mortality among the birds.

Our young friend and former townsmen, Walter T. McFall, who has been conducting the McGee Hotel at Belton the past year, has leased the Riley House in Greenwood and will take charge of it the 1st of January. Mr. McFall is an experienced hotel man, and we predict big success for him in Greenwood.

Rev. W. W. Daniel, D. D., finished his first year's work in Anderson last Sunday as pastor of the First Methodist Church, and is now in Orangeburg attending the annual Conference. Dr. Daniel has every reason to feel gratified with his year's work, as many friends would be more than pleased to have him returned to Anderson.

We appreciate the following complimentary from the Greenville and Anderson papers published in this State. Large, well-edited and always full of first-class news matter. It is a worthy representative of a worthy County.

John Laughlin, boss weaver at Mill No. 1, has accepted the position as Superintendent of the new Cotton Mill at Anderson. Mr. Laughlin has the name of being an excellent mill man and manager. He understands his business and is well liked by those under him. The Deben mill will lose a good man; the Orr mill will gain a good one.—Peter Sun-Herald.

Ex-Gov. Robt. L. Taylor, the sublime song-bird of Nature, delighted a representative audience of Andersonians at the Opera House last Monday night with his brand-new lecture, "Love, Laughter and Song." Owing to extreme cold and wind there was a disappointing small attendance, but those who braved these unfavorable conditions, felt amply repaid for their pains.

At a regular meeting of Hiram Lodge, No. 68, A. F. M., last Monday evening, the following officers were elected to serve the ensuing year: Worshipful Master, J. L. Farmer; Senior Warden, J. B. Watson; Junior Warden, M. M. Mattison; Treasurer, F. Wilhite; Secretary, G. N. C. Coleman; Senior Deacon, E. W. Taylor; Junior Deacon, C. J. Brock; Stewards, A. M. Sharpe and W. G. McGee; Tyler, D. M. Stephens.

The Greenwood Index gets off the following good one on our clever friend, J. D. Campbell: "A gentleman from Cooper Township pointed to Stepanographer Campbell in the court room the other day and asked: 'Who is that durn little lawyer that sets at the table and writes all the time? I've been in court every day and I ain't heard him make a speech nor say nary word yet. Guess he aint much of a lawyer, fur he don't git many cases.'"

A special telegram to the Atlanta Constitution from Knoxville, Tenn., dated the 4th inst., says: "The stockholders of the Knoxville, Tidewater and Ohio River branch of the Black Diamond Railroad, have been called to meet here December 29th. The promoter, Albert Boone, and English architect's agent, Colonel W. H. Kirby, of Cincinnati, will be here. The meeting will be to settle differences between Boone and Kirby with respect to rights of way of the Black Diamond route in Tennessee. This settlement is the construction of the road will begin."

The Baptist State Convention met in Gadsden last Wednesday night. The attendance was quite large, especially from the surrounding counties and from sections of the low country. The reports of the various boards showed the financial condition of the interests committed to the body in a very healthy condition. There was a debt of $2,000 on the State Mission Board, but a collection was taken amounting to over $1,200, which gives assurance that the balance will be raised in a short time. Farming, it is reported to be in a more prosperous condition than it has been in any period of its history.

Due West Lodge, No. 103, Knights of Pythias was organized in that classic town last Thursday night by Grand Chancellor Neuffer, of Abbeville. There were about seventy Knights present, nearly all the Lodges in the upper section of the State being represented. It was the State's good fortune and pleasure to be one of the five representatives from Chiquola Lodge of this City. The visiting Knights were treated royally by the charter members of the Lodge. It was organized with some good material, and we hope it will have a successful career. Pythianism is one of the most noble fraternal organizations existing, and is growing very rapidly. The good people of Due West will find it worthy of their confidence and support.

Mr. B. F. Tribble died at his home in the Crayton section on Wednesday, 29th ult. He had been sick about three weeks with typhoid fever, and the announcement of his death was a great shock to his friends, many of whom had heard of his illness. Mr. Tribble was a son of the late John Tribble, and was 48 years of age. He was born and reared and spent his life in the Crayton section, and was a most excellent and upright citizen, whose memory will long be cherished by a wide circle of friends. He had long been a devoted member of Bethany Baptist Church, and for a number of years had served as a deacon in that church. A wife and six children survive him, and in their sorrow they have the consolation of knowing that their loved one is at rest with the blessed Saviour, whom he served so faithfully in this life. On Wednesday his remains were buried in the Bethany Churchyard, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. Mike McGee and Rev. Joseph Martin.

Mr. John Lewis Williams died Thursday at the home of his son, E. A. Williams, on Mebee Terrace, after a long illness, in which cancer was the main trouble. Mr. Williams was sixty-eight years old and was a native of the Williamston section of Anderson County. In early life he was a resident of Greenville, being a popular clerk at the Hovey & Townes dry goods store. Later he was in business at Williamston, but twenty years ago he moved to Morristown, Tenn., where he was in business until two years ago. For the last year he and his wife have made their home with their son here. His surviving family are: E. A. Williams, Greenville; J. W. and L. J. Williams, Pelzer; L. P. Williams, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. J. C. Carter, Princeton; Mrs. O. P. Anderson, Anderson; Misses Julia and Alice Williams, Greenville. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock, near Williamston. Mr. Williams was a consistent member of the Methodist Church and a devout Christian. He was a man of lovable disposition and was highly esteemed when ever known.—South Mountain, Advertiser.

Mr. Oswald F. Brezeale died suddenly at his home in this City last Saturday morning, about 10 o'clock. Last summer the deceased had an attack of fever, and since then had been quite feeble, though he had resumed his work as book-keeper for Mrs. Minn, and was apparently regaining his health, and had started on Monday, Thursday and Friday he died at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. J. Fleet Clinkscales, and appeared hearty and cheerful. On Friday evening he worked till 8 o'clock, and after reaching home, retired at his usual hour. About 10 o'clock he awoke with a severe cough, which was followed by a hemorrhage. Mrs. Brezeale arose to give him some medicine which he had been taking for his cough. In the meantime Mr. Brezeale got out of the bed and fell on the floor with another severe hemorrhage. She called several of her nearest neighbors, and the first to reach the home was Policeman King, who assisted the deceased man to the bed, when he gasped a few breaths and expired. Mr. Brezeale was about 29 years of age, and the eldest son of Hon. J. E. Brezeale, of this City. He was a consistent member of the Baptist Church, and by his courteous manners, upright character and gentle disposition, was highly esteemed by his many friends. Three years ago Mr. Brezeale married Miss Carrie Clinkscales, who survives him, and in her sorrow she has the sympathy of a wide circle of friends and relatives. On Sunday morning at 10 o'clock the funeral services were conducted at home by Rev. J. N. H. Summerell, after which the remains were interred at Silver Brook Cemetery.

Julia Marlowe Shoes.

THEY ARE LEADERS.
There is only one "Julia Marlowe," the accomplished and popular actress known by that name. There is likewise only one house in Anderson that enjoys the distinction of selling "Julia Marlowe" Shoes. Numberless styles of Women's Shoes have come, gone, and will come again; but the famous "Julia Marlowe" has come to stay, is here, and will ever remain the same. Do you ask why? Simply because it is the only "Specialty Shoe" to-day that contains a special feature, "Hub Gore Elastic Instep," which properly adjusts all parts of the shoe to the lines of the wearer's foot, thus insuring comfort, though a snug fit at the same time.
The Genuine "Julia Marlowe" Shoes, in either high or low cuts, are sold exclusively by—
COBB & CRAYTON,
The Shoe People.

WE HAVE MORE GOODS THAN DOLLARS,
