The Straight Front Varsity!

Copyright 1904 by H. M. & S.

If you want to see the snappiest styles produced in Clothes for this Spring you want to see the new H. M. & S. "Straight Front Varsity."

You can get a pretty good idea of it from the illustration, but in order to see the Suit as it really is you need to put it on and stand before the glass. Then you'll see for yourself how these Clothes fit. Notice how the coat collar lies on the neck—just follows your shirt collar around without a wrinkle. How smooth the shoulders are, what a graceful hang the coat has to it—from front, back or the side. These and other good qualities of make and style you'll discover when you try this Suit on.

We believe that when you get one good look at yourself in one of these Suits you'll much rather give up the price than give up the Clothes.

STATE NEWS.

—A railroad is to be built from Barmore to Ware's Shoals.

—State constables seized fifty gallons of booze hidden in a field near Duncans, Spartanburg County.

—A salvation army post will likely be established in Columbia and several up country towns of the State.

—An Orangeburg constable shot and killed a negro, who was resisting arrest. The negro tried to kill the constable.

—In Barwell thirty-three candidates have already announced themselves as candidates for the various county offices.

—John Engelmann, aged four years, was run over by a trolley car in Charleston on Wednesday and both legs were cut off above the knees.

—The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics takes place at Rook Hill on April 26.

—Andy Benson, of Greenville, who stole four chickens in 1901 and was given five years in the penitentiary, has been pardoned by the Governor.

—On the 12th inst. Mrs. George Duckett, who lives near Walhalla, gave birth to triplets. All three are boys. The mother and children are doing well.

—The date for the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans will not be changed from the time originally set, May 17, 18 and 19. The reunion will be held in Charleston.

—William Thompson, a negro of Columbia, became involved in a quarrel with his step-daughter and finally shot her with a pistol, the ball entering the fleshy part of the leg and making an ugly wound. Thompson was captured after an exciting chase.

—The supreme court has affirmed the decision of the lower court in the case of R. A. Adams, a white man convicted in Colleton County of the killing of Henry Jacque, also white, in February, 1903, and sentenced to be hanged. The case now goes back to the lower court for sentence to be pronounced.

—J. Bunyan Gregory, a white lad of Lancaster, aged about 14 years, was arrested on a charge of assault and battery with intent to commit a worse crime on Miss Minnie Caskey, daughter of Mr. John H. Caskey, who lives a couple of miles from Lancaster. The boy, who denies the charge, was given a preliminary and released on a bond of $1,000.

—C. M. Cameron, a section foreman on the Seaboard Air Line railroad, shot and killed Isaac Thorn, a Camden negro, Sunday morning at Sheppard, a station about six miles above Camden. The negro who was armed went to Cameron's house and cursed and threatened him when Cameron secured his pistol and shot him.

—The six-year-old son of Greenwood Washington, colored, was killed on Monday evening, 11th inst., about dark, by the kick of a horse at his home in Newberry. Washington had driven the horse into the yard and was taking the harness off when the child ran up and the horse kicked him, death resulting in a few moments.

—Last Saturday, 10th inst., Nathan Oxner, of Saluda County, met with a violent death. While on his way to Batesburg with a two-horse wagon load of shingles his horses became frightened and ran down a hill. In some way the body of the wagon was thrown completely off and turned upside down. Mr. Oxner was caught under the body and shingles and was crushed to death. No one witnessed the casualty. Mr. Oxner was about 65 years of age. He was a gallant Confederate soldier.

—J. McBae Whitaker, second son of Mr. L. L. Whitaker, of Camden, was shot and killed on Saturday afternoon, 9th inst., at Boykin Station, by J. E. Gillis. The men had had some trouble before and it was renewed. Whitaker called to the proprietor of a store and told of the trouble and at the same time suggested that they turn over their pistols and fight it out fairly. It was at this juncture, while he was about to pass the pistol to a disinterested party, that the younger Gillis fired at him, the ball penetrating him just below the heart and causing death in a few minutes.

—The commencement exercises at Converse College will be held on Sunday and Monday, May 29 and 30. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached by the Rev. Dr. J. J. Tigert, of Nashville, Tenn., a distinguished and eloquent divine of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The annual address to the two literary societies will be delivered by Col. Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, Ky., a famous lawyer, noted for his eloquence and literary attainments. In the Confederate army he played a conspicuous part in the struggle of the South against the North. The graduating class numbers 41 members.

—In a shooting affair in Greenville on Tuesday night, 12th inst., Policeman Tucker received wounds from which he died, Policeman Brown was wounded and Ellis Sanders, watchman for the Southern railway, was mortally wounded. A notorious negro woman with whom Sanders had been living was arrested. She was subsequently released on bond, and when the officers met the watchman on Tuesday night he opened fire. According to the ante-mortem statement of Tucker he did not have time to use his pistol, the bullet which entered Sanders' body having been fired by Brown. Sanders died last Saturday.

GENERAL NEWS.

—A whole family was poisoned at Hoffman, N. C., last week from eating wild turkey.

—Fire at McKinney, Texas, destroyed the business property. The loss is $200,000; insurance $150,000.

—The river and harbor bill which has passed congress, appropriates only $3,000,000 for river and harbor improvements.

—The attorney general of Georgia has ruled that all Georgia dispensaries must pay the $200 tax the same as other dealers.

—J. M. A. Watson, former clerk in the auditor's office of the district of Columbia, is being tried on the charge of embezzling $73,000.

—An Arkansas circuit judge fined a bill collector for contempt of court because he presented "his honor" a bill while court was in session.

—Rev. George Solomon, rabbi, of Savannah, has gone to New York to institute plans for settling 500 Jews in Emanuel County, Georgia.

—Two white women at Wheeling, W. Va., quarreled over a man and then engaged in a fight in which one drew a pistol and killed the other.

—William Farr, of Nashville, Tenn., is held on the charge of having been at the head of a college which conferred degrees at $10 each.

—Mrs. Cordelia Botkin, a woman convicted of murder in California, has entered an appeal. It is estimated that her prosecution has cost California in the neighborhood of $80,000.

—Capt. Richmond Pearson Hobson was defeated in a close race for congress in the 6th Alabama district by John H. Bankhead. Hobson's friends may contest the election, charging fraud.

—The Daughters of the Confederacy of Athens, Ga., have written to the authorities of the University of Georgia protesting against the students being permitted to play baseball on Memorial day.

—A negro in Delhi, La., went to the house of his father-in-law, a negro preacher, and calling his wife to the door shot her dead, shot his mother-in-law fatally, and then sent a bullet through his own heart.

—Magistrate Crane of New York says that in the last six months more than 300 boys have been arraigned before him for greater or less crimes, and of that large number 98 per cent confessed to smoking cigarettes.

—A plot was discovered among five negroes to dynamite their way out of the State prison, Nashville, Tenn. Following the discovery of the plot one of the conspirators, a negro, cut his own throat, inflicting a mortal wound.

—The gold dollar of the United States is the monetary standard of Canada, British Honduras and Colombia, and it is anticipated that Mexico will attain the gold standard, with the American dollar as its unit, at an early date.

—Tuoker Pinckney, the brother of Congressman John McPherson Pinckney, of Texas, was shot and killed near Hempstead, Texas, by negroes while riding by a negro church. The incident resulted in race feeling running high and trouble was feared.

—Turner Pearson, a young man with a wife and child, committed suicide at the home of his father-in-law in Milledgeville, Ga., in the presence of his wife and others by shooting himself. He lived in Atlanta and wanted his wife to move there and live with him, and she refused.

—The famous factional fight in the Christian church, at Huntsville, Ala., has been revived. As a result two elders and three members of the church were placed under arrest on Sunday afternoon for willfully defacing and injuring the church building. Only one faction has worshipped in the church for several months past, and on Sunday the other faction posted a notice on the door warning every one away, charging that the present trustees were illegally elected.

—The Latimer Good Roads bill will be reported favorably by the senate committee early in the next session of congress. An agreement to that effect has been reached. It was decided to amend the bill by fixing at $100,000 the minimum appropriation which each State shall first receive and then share in the balance of the appropriation in proportion to its population, no city to be credited with more than 10,000 population so as to limit appropriations for States having large cities.

—Four men in Washington lost their lives by an explosion in the plant of a gas company. The death of one of the men was the result of an heroic attempt to rescue his comrades. He rushed into the engine room and catching the arm of one of them, who was buried in the debris, tried to drag him out. The flames rapidly enveloped the rescuer, but he released his hold on his companion only after the arrival of the firemen, by which time he had received injuries which resulted in his death.

—A severe windstorm in Whitesboro, Ky., last Thursday picked up a hive of bees and dashed it through a farmhouse window. The hive was demolished, and the liberated bees soon made it so uncomfortable for the human occupants of the house that they were compelled to vacate it and rush out in the storm. Lightning struck a tree in the orchard under which were several other hives, and all the bees were shocked to death and the honey in one hive melted by the heat of the electric discharge.

Latest War News.

St. Petersburg, April 13.—Official telegrams from Port Arthur state that the Russian battleship Petropavlovsk has been sunk off the entrance to the harbor.

It is estimated that eight hundred men lost their lives by the destruction of the ship.

Among those who were drowned were Vice Admiral Makaroff, the commander of the Russian naval forces in the Far East.

So far as known only four of the officers were saved, among them being the Grand Duke Cyril, who was wounded.

The Grand Duke Cyril was only saved from death by a miracle. His brother, Grand Duke Boris, witnessed the catastrophe through a marine glass.

Dispatches received here say that while going out to meet the Japanese fleet off Port Arthur, the Petropavlovsk struck a mine in the outer roadstead, heeled over, turned turtle and sank. Practically the whole of her crew were lost.

As the Japanese fleet approached, Vice Admiral Makaroff ordered his whole squadron out of the harbor to meet the attack.

St. Petersburg, April 14.—It was officially announced today that the torpedo boat destroyer, Beztrashni, was cut off from the rest of the Russian fleet at Port Arthur and sunk by the Japanese; that her crew was lost and that the battleship Pobieda accidentally struck a mine while maneuvering, but was able to return to the harbor without loss of life.

The Beztrashni was sent out during the night to reconnoiter. She separated from the rest of the fleet owing to the bad weather prevailing and was surrounded by Japanese torpedo boat destroyers and was sunk in the fight. Five men were saved.

Forty-five officers and men perished on board the destroyed Beztrashni.

St. Petersburg, April 15.—A telegram from Admiral Alexieff, from Port Arthur, to the emperor, says that from 9:15 o'clock this morning to midday, the Japanese fleet, in two divisions, bombarded the fortress and the town alternately from the Liao-Tsuan promontory, firing 185 projectiles.

The Russian squadron, including the battleship Pobieda, replied from the anchorage by a plunging fire. The batteries also participated.

The losses on land were seven Chinese killed and five soldiers, and three Chinese wounded.

The Russian warships sustained no damage and there was no loss of life on them.

London, April 16.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg reports that the battleship Sebastopol and another Russian vessel have been blown up at Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg, April 17.—Rumors were in circulation here today of a fresh engagement on the Yalu river which had resulted favorably to the Russians, but a dispatch received by the general staff tonight says that the situation is unchanged and that all is quiet on the Yalu.

According to the reports of spies, the Japanese troops in Korea have been ravaged by the various diseases. One of these diseases, called "imbion," is a kind of intermitent typhus. Another, called "souda," which has not yet been studied by European doctors, produces premature senility.

The patients lose their teeth, become extremely weak and the nails are twisted on the fingers.

Dysentery is very prevalent among the Russians at Harbin.

The Russians report that they have repulsed an attempted landing by the Japanese between Port Arthur and the Yalu river.

When the two armies meet on land a great battle is expected.

To Confederate Veterans.

The following circular letter to the Confederate veterans of the State has just been issued.

To all Camps of United Confederate Veterans in South Carolina: We beg to call the attention of veterans to the dates of the approaching reunions. Our South Carolina division will hold its annual reunion in Charleston, S. C., on May 17th, 18th and 19th, 1904. The United Sons of Confederate Veterans have been invited to hold their annual convention at the same time and place, and to participate in the same welcome ceremonies, and have accepted. The general Confederate reunion will be held in Nashville, Tenn., June 15th and 16th, 1904. You are earnestly urged to send full delegations from all your camps to both these reunions. Each camp sending delegates to these reunions should elect and send a sponsor.

It is our duty to insist upon the collection of dues in payment of our camp dues to both these bodies. The division dues of 5 cents per member should be forwarded to J. M. Jordan, Adj. Gen., Greenville, S. C. The Confederate dues of 10 cents per member should be forwarded to Gen. Wm. M. A. Mickle, 824 Common street, New Orleans, La. You are urged to make immediate payment of all dues in arrears. No camp will be allowed to vote in the convention unless all dues for the present year are paid. In case any camp is unable to pay all arrears it may pay as much as possible, together with dues for the present year, and they will be allowed to retain their present number. Unless this is done the number of the camp will be lost, and upon reorganization will have to take a lower number. This is important, as each camp should have a just pride in retaining its first number.

You are cordially urged to use your influence and efforts toward the formation of camps in towns and communities where they may not now exist. Each reunion reminds us how thin our ranks are growing at every gathering. We miss faces long familiar and each returning year numbers with the phantom hosts the forms of comrades who have bivouaced on the shores of Eternity.
