

Mid-Summer NEEDS!

We wish to inform the Public that our

SUMMER STOCK

Is still well assorted. We have plenty of such articles as are needed right now. We have a splendid variety of—

White Goods.

Our Stock of—

Laces

AND

Embroideries

IS COMPLETE.

We have a beautiful line of—

Summer Ribbons,

Summer Belts,

Summer Gloves,

Summer Neckwear,

Summer Hosiery,

Summer Underwear,

Summer Notions.

TOILET ARTICLES FOR SUMMER.

Choice Soaps,
Talcum Powders, Etc.

DOMESTICS FOR NOW.

Bleachings,
Cambrics,
Sheeting.

Ready-To-Wear.

Good Assortment,
Popular Styles and Popular Priced
Summer Waists.

Good Line

Muslin Underwear.

Some Skirts,

To Close Out.

We strive to have such Goods as the people want, at the time they want them and at reasonable prices.

Yours truly,

OSBORNE & PEARSON.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in

General Merchandise

ANDERSON, S. C.

Local News.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 7, 1904.

Miss Kate Crayton is visiting friends in Blackville.

Will Gordon has gone to Decatur, Alabama, for a short visit.

Mrs. C. A. Reese is visiting relatives at her old home in East Tennessee.

Miss Bessie Tolly has returned from a visit to relatives in Elberton, Ga.

Miss Mary Parker is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. J. Wylie, at Honea Path.

Miss Lucy Brown is visiting friends and relatives in Edgefield and Ninety-Six.

Mrs. Janie F. Todd has been spending a few days with relatives at Pendleton.

How does seven dollar flour strike you farmers that have no time to fool with wheat.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Simpson have returned from a visit to relatives in Milledgeville, Ga.

Mrs. W. Frank Pearson, of Greenville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Riley.

Bring your cotton and grain to Anderson if you want the highest cash market price for it.

Prof. T. C. Walton and wife have returned from the mountains, where they spent the summer.

Davis & Daniel are now occupying their new quarters on North Main street, near the postoffice.

Miss Nelle Harris, of Calhoun, has come to the city to take charge of the school at the Riverside mill.

Monday was Labor Day, a national holiday, but it was not observed in the city except at the postoffice.

The second primary will be held on next Tuesday. Prepare your ballots and go to the polls and vote.

Mr. Sol Lesser has returned from New York, where he purchased a large stock of goods for Lesser & Co.

Miss Eva Gentry, of Greenville, has been spending several days with the family of Judge R. Y. H. Nance.

W. G. Templeton, one of Abbeville's popular citizens, has been spending a few days in the city the past week.

The County Farmers' Institute will meet in the Court House next Wednesday, 14th inst., at 10.30 o'clock a. m.

E. W. Stewart and wife, of Central, have been spending a few days in this section visiting relatives and friends.

The record of the weather for the month of August as kept by R. B. Dean showed a fall of 11 inches of rain.

J. E. Hanks, of Rock Run, Ala., is visiting his brother, Monroe Hanks, in the city, and other relatives in the county.

Rev. H. B. Fant, of this city, offers a good farm, located near Dalton, Ga., for sale. See advertisement in another column.

A number of Andersonians who have been off on vacations are returning home to get ready for the fall and winter work.

The city graded schools will open next Monday, 12th inst. Parents should have their children on hand promptly.

A local weather prophet says this section will have no rain until after the fall equinox, which is two weeks off.

Miss Bessie McWhorter has gone to Georgetown, where she is going to position as stenographer with a large lumber company.

Mrs. Annah M. Evans, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Annie, is in the city visiting her brother, Capt. E. G. Evans, and family.

Last Thursday Fred McLeakey, a carder in the Orr cotton mill, got his hand caught in the machine and lost three of his fingers.

Brown A. Wilson, of Belton, and H. P. Russell, of this city, have accepted positions with the Blue Ridge Railway Company in this city.

O. P. Knight, who formerly lived in Anderson but who has been in the west for two or three years, has returned to make his home here.

Money will be flush with the dardies from now until Christmas—the cotton patches being white—and cooks and washerwomen will be hard to find.

R. M. Burris has let the contract for the erection of a two-story brick building on South McDuffie street, in the rear of the store of B. O. Evans & Co.

The managers of the primary election next Tuesday are requested to call at the Court House and get the boxes and tickets for their respective clubs.

The price of cotton during the past week has advanced and the probability is that it will go higher yet before it passes out of the hands of the producer.

The farmers report that the cotton bolls are opening very rapidly, and so there are going to be a good many find it difficult to get laborers to pick the crop.

The candidates who failed to pull through in the late primary have the consolation of being largely in the majority over them that did pull through.

Col. H. H. Watkins, as a member of Gov. Heyward's staff, has gone to Manassas, Va., with the Governor to witness the maneuvers of the troops encamped there.

Dr. J. C. Harris has a fine patch of corn on his lot on South Main street. He will have to provide his laborer with a step-ladder when he gets ready to pull the fodder.

Married, on Sunday, August 7, 1904, at the home of Mr. Arnold, near Providence Church, by Rev. T. C. Ligon, Mr. Paul Morris and Miss Lela Skelton, both of Anderson County.

J. E. Wington, of Edmont, has been chosen manager of the new company store at the Orr mill. He has been publishing The Piedmont Observer which recently suspended publication.

J. J. Norris and family, who have been spending some time at Victoria, N. C., where the former has been superintending the establishing of a cotton manufacturing plant, have returned home.

Rev. M. B. Kelly, pastor of St. John's Methodist Church in this city, who has been spending a few weeks in the mountains, returned home last week and occupied his pulpit as usual on Sunday.

Capt. Robinson, one of the most popular and accommodating conductors on the C. & W. C. R. R., who has been resting and recuperating at his home in this city.

The Anderson Traction Company has bought from Maj. B. F. Wheeler a lot of land on the creek near his premises on which a plant will be established to furnish electric power for the new street railway.

G. E. Marchbanks will move in a few days to Anderson, where he will open a jewelry store. We regret to lose this good family from our citizenship, but wish them well in their new home.—Williamston News.

Everybody in the county should feel and take an interest in the County Fair Association, whose first exhibition is just on hand. Call on Secretary F. B. Clayton at his drug store and get a copy of the premium list.

The first Monday in October is the last day before the general election for the closing of the books of registration. Every young man who has attained his majority, and who has not registered, should do so on that day.

Miss Belle Beck, of Anderson, S. C., spent several days this week with Miss Annie Reese, on Oliver street. She has been on a visit to Atlanta and stopped over on her way home. She returned here this afternoon.—Elberton (Ga.) Star.

Our young friend, Wm. Archer, who has held the position of car accountant for the Blue Ridge at Rockwell, Ga., has resigned and gone to Charlotte, N. C., where he has accepted a position with the Western Union Telegraph Company.

Rev. J. W. Wolling, who was once pastor of the Methodist Church in this city, but who has been a missionary to Brazil for a number of years, will take a special course at Harvard University this fall and winter preparatory to college work in Brazil.

Rev. and Mrs. S. B. Harper returned Saturday from a ten days' visit to Anderson. While at McCormick Mr. Harper assisted Rev. S. T. Blackburn in a series of meetings, which resulted in twenty-six additions to the Church. Spartanburg Herald.

The Intelligencer is indebted to L. E. Abercrombie, of Centerville Township, for a fine watermelon, which was greatly enjoyed. Mr. Abercrombie is an industrious, successful farmer, and has raised a big crop of melons and other produce this year.

Annie, the little daughter of A. B. Blakeley, died last Wednesday afternoon at the home of her parents at the Riverside mill after a brief illness, aged 14 months. The child was carried to Sandy Springs and interred in the churchyard there.

A meeting will be held at Townville next Saturday morning, 10th inst., at 10 o'clock for the purpose of organizing a Farmers' Institute. All the farmers in that section who desire to join are cordially invited to attend promptly at the hour named.

Kenneth, the infant son of Rev. Hugh R. Murchison, formerly of this city, but now editor of The Southern Home in Columbia, died last Wednesday at Batesburg, S. C. Mr. Murchison's many friends in Anderson deeply sympathize with him in his bereavement.

M. C. Dickson, Jr., came over from Spartanburg last Sunday and spent the day with his parents, Col. and Mrs. M. C. Dickson, at Pendleton. He is private secretary of ex-Gov. John Gary Evans. On Friday his brother, T. P. Dickson, a young lawyer of this city, went up to be with him.

J. L. Steinhuis and wife, of Pineville, Ky., has come to Anderson to meet their home. They have purchased a lot on West Market street and will at once build a cottage upon it. Mrs. Steinhuis is a sister of Mrs. W. M. Webb, of this city. Mr. Steinhuis will engage in business here.

Maj. Theo. Dehon, the clever and energetic traveling representative of the News and Courier, spent last Saturday in Anderson and was a welcome visitor to our office. Maj. Dehon has been connected with the News and Courier for many years, but this was his first visit to this section in a long while.

The Palmetto Rifles, carrying 38 enlisted men and three officers, left Saturday morning for Manassas. They were joined at Charlotte by the other companies from South Carolina. The drill which was to have taken place the afternoon before their departure was postponed until their return from Virginia.

The Ashley family will have a big reunion at the home of Hon. Joshua W. Ashley, near Honea Path, next Friday, 9th inst., and Mr. Ashley invites all of his friends to attend. All of the Ashley kin will attend and carry with them well-filled dinner baskets, and there will be an abundance of good things to eat.

Everybody will be anxious to know the result of the second primary election next Tuesday night, and we hope the managers at the precincts in this county will do their best to send in their tabulated statements as early as possible that night to the Court House, so the papers can give the vote of each candidate next day.

E. B. Donald and family left yesterday for Williamston, where Mr. Donald secured an important position with a drug firm of that town. He is a skilled pharmacist and a courteous, accommodating business man. The friends of Mr. Donald here wish him all success in his new field of work.—Spartanburg Herald, 2nd inst.

At a meeting of the representatives from the Confederate Veterans of all the Townships in the County in the Court House on Monday, the following gentlemen were elected members of the County Pension Board: J. J. Gilmer, W. T. McGill, J. H. McConnell and J. T. Green. Dr. W. H. Nardin, Sr., was elected physician.

The State Board of Education met in Columbia last Friday night to pass upon the recommendations of the County Board as to the appointment of beneficiaries at Clemson College. There are 134 young men who will be helped by the State to get an education, five of whom are from Anderson County, viz: W. B. Aull, Eugene Broyles, J. B. Burtis, T. S. Banister and Raymond Clardy.

Last Thursday three young negroes, Walter Hunter, John Neal and Isaac Bigby, were arrested on a charge of housebreaking and larceny. It is alleged that they broke into the tailor shop of John Jones and stole some clothing. Jones' place was broken into about two months ago and some clothing taken by all efforts to catch the thieves were unsuccessful. One of the negroes placed in the exp. office a dress suit case addressed to himself in Greenville. This was seized under a search warrant and a part of the missing clothing found. The negroes are now in jail.

The new City Council held its first meeting last night. All of the old city employers were re-elected. Officers Stewart and Mayfield, of the police force declined re-election, and J. O. Sanders and S. J. Shealey were elected their successors.

The early morning passenger train on the C. & W. C. R. R. now leaves the city at 7 o'clock instead of 7.25 as formerly. The through freight train between Anderson and McCormick has been restored, which will be a great accommodation to the people along the line desiring to come into the city for a few hours' business. It reaches the city at 10 a. m. and leaves at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Amanda Sassard, who conducts a boarding house on South Main street, fell from her piazza Saturday afternoon breaking her shoulder blade and one of the small bones between the ankle and knee. She was leaning upon the railing, which gave way and let her fall several feet to the ground. Her injuries are very painful, but no permanent effects will result from them.

The following candidates are announced in the Intelligencer for the primary election next Tuesday: House of Representatives—J. C. Milford and J. A. Hall; Clerk of Court—J. C. Watkins and L. P. Smith; Coroner—J. J. Dodd, W. Y. Miller, A. B. Sullivan and P. C. Pruitt. All of them are good men, and you will have no trouble in making out your ticket.

In the recent primary election J. P. Anderson was runner-up to N. Martin in Rock Mills Township and L. N. Martin to the same position in Martin Township. In the Corner there were three candidates for Magistrate, Jas. Young, J. M. McAllister and J. L. Bray, and the two first named will have to make the second race next Tuesday.

At the regular convention of Chiquola Lodge, Knights of Pythias, last Thursday night, it was unanimously agreed to appropriate $500 to the proposed city hospital. A committee was also appointed to arrange for the meeting of the District Lodge which convenes in the city on the 22d inst. C. C. Langston, A. H. Dagnall and R. C. Mattison were appointed delegates from the Lodge to the District Lodge meeting.

George M. Wilcox left this morning for Locust Dale, Va. He goes to accept a professorship in the Locust Dale Academy. He will teach chemistry and physics and will also have charge of the athletic department of the college.—Elberton (Ga.) Star. Prof. Wilcox is the oldest son of our former townman, W. M. Wilcox, and a grandson of Hon. G. F. Tolly, and is a young man of many noble virtues of both heart and mind.

Mrs. Bennett Haynes died last Sunday morning at her home two miles south of this place. She had been in bed for several months. Mrs. Haynes was a daughter of Mr. Marshall Phillips and was married to Mr. Haynes about two years ago. She was a member of the Methodist Church and was a consecrated Christian lady. She was buried in the cemetery at this place on Monday morning, Rev. Peter Stokes conducting the funeral services.—Honea Path Chronicle.

Miss Annie Magruder died at her home in this city last Sunday morning, after a long and painful illness, having been confined to her bed and room for several months. She was 57 years of age and a sister of our townman, W. B. Magruder. She was the daughter of the late Wm. Magruder, of Mississippi, but had spent nearly all of her life in Anderson and Abbeville Counties. Miss Magruder was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends, and since her death had been a devoted and active member of the Methodist Church. On Monday morning at 10 o'clock the remains were interred in Silver Brook cemetery, the funeral services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. M. B. Kelly.

Miss Ella Beatty died at the home of her mother in Hall Township at an early hour Monday morning. For many years she had been an invalid, and all through her long illness she bore her suffering with a splendid patience and a true Christian spirit. She was a daughter of the late James Beatty, and leaves a widowed mother, two brothers and three sisters to cherish her memory. The remains were laid to rest in Good Hope cemetery yesterday. Miss Beatty was a young woman of the highest Christian character and a devoted member of the Church. The family have the sympathy of a large number of friends throughout the county in their bereavement.

The following petit jurors have been drawn to serve at the Court of General Sessions, which convenes in this city on the fourth Monday in September: W. W. Robinson, Anderson; A. H. Green and J. T. Rice, Belton; M. M. Campbell, J. F. McFall and W. H. Geer, Broadway; E. W. Pickett and Jas. H. Bryant, Bryans Creek; A. H. McLees, Dr. C. Holland, Jas. C. Bolt and J. N. Erskine, Centerville; E. E. Harris and J. H. Ozmint, Corner; G. M. Bolt, J. M. Richardson and Jno. M. Jolly, Fork; W. H. Vaden and B. Stagger, Hopewell; J. M. Dunlap, S. E. Latimer, R. A. Monroe and J. K. Clement, Honea Path; C. M. Gray, J. J. McMahan and H. M. Tate, Hall; Jno. T. Hanks and J. P. Martin, March; H. C. Graham, Pendleton; H. S. Strickland, P. R. Earle and W. F. Stewart, Savannah; W. R. Garrett, W. J. Hembré, C. E. Pilgrim and C. J. Murphy, Williamston.

Five of the employees of the executive department of the Anderson Traction Company have resigned their positions on account of some friction that has existed between them and Dr. Geo. E. Coughlin, the manager of the system. For some time there have been differences, and the relations between employer and employe were dissolved by mutual consent. The men who tender their resignations are S. H. Knight, chief engineer, Stephen Green, draftsman, G. L. Philbrooks and Ed. and Gus. Baker. These gentlemen have made friends in the city and their departure from the city will be regretted. Other men will be placed in charge of their work and the delay incident to the change will be of short duration. Jos. E. Shirrine, of Greenville, a well known civil engineer, has taken charge of the engineering department temporarily. The work of construction is progressing satisfactorily. The material is here, and the track, unballasted as yet, has been laid from the Orr mills to the corner of South Main and River streets.

A Card of Thanks.

Mr. Editor: Please allow me a small space in your valuable paper to thank the people for the vote they gave me on the 30th ult., and to assure them that I will give them my best service for the next two years. Let the good citizens block out such legislation as will be good for the whole people, and let a petition behind it, and I will take hold of it and do the best I can.—Yours truly, Joshua W. Ashley.

LOST—Between N. O. Farmer's and Townville, one half-grown tan setter bitch. Reward if returned to Frank Grayson or O. C. Freston. 12-1

Facts Worthy of Your ATTENTION!

Our Summer business has been good, for which we wish to thank the public. Now, to those who have not yet bought all the Summer Goods they might need, we will give you more value for your dollar than you ever imagined of getting.

Low Cut Shoes,
Straw Hats,
Two and Three-Piece
Summer Suits,
Shirts,
Underwear,
GREATLY REDUCED.

Our Fall Stock will be not only the largest but best selected shown in Anderson this or any other season. Hence we need the room.

Remember, we do as we advertise.

Chas. B. Hall Co.

CUT PRICE CLOTHIERS.
Agents for Stein-Bloch Clothing.

A LUCKY DEAL!

I beg to announce to my friends and customers that I have been fortunate in securing a position as Manager of the

Stove, Kitchen,
and House Furnishing Department

Of the well-known and popular Firm, the—

SULLIVAN HARDWARE CO.

The Store that does business the year round.
The Store where you get Quality, Low Prices and Polite Treatment.

I wish to thank my friends who have been so loyal to me during the past three years, and ask that you call on me whenever you are in town. Make this Store your headquarters, and in every way feel that you are at home. We want to make this your Store, and you are welcome, whether you come to buy or not. I am here to serve you, and am sure that once you get in the habit of trading with the Sullivan boys you will not go elsewhere for your HARDWARE needs. When you set up housekeeping let me show you the celebrated—

Buck Stove,

And many other little things for the house. If you buy a Buck Stove you'll be sure to start right, for it is dependable in quality and desirable in make-up and finish in every particular. Every Fire Back bears a fifteen year bona fide guarantee. This is a good long time.

I extend to you a further invitation to come to see me.

Yours always truly,
JOHN A. AUSTIN,
Manager Stove Department.

Sullivan Hardware Co.

New Rooms South Main St., Formerly Alliance Store.