

LOCAL MATTERS.

WE ARE under obligations to our Agents at Augusta, Messrs. M. M. QUINN & BROS., for late files of Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia papers.

A CHERRISH sign of the times, and of the advancement of the work of reconstruction, may be noticed in this fact: We were yesterday in receipt of the Yorkville (S. C.) Enquirer of the 12th inst., and of the Chicago (Ill.) Republican of the 13th inst.

CORONER WHITING held an inquest on last Wednesday, at the Lower Market, on the body of Jeffrey Erwin, a colored man, who was killed by the falling of the wall in Hayne-street on that morning.

THE ACCIDENT OF WEDNESDAY.—It will be perceived that the Coroner reports holding an inquest over but one body who was killed by the falling of the wall on the 18th, which we are in hopes was the only unfortunate victim.

A PUBLIC LOSS.—Gen. JAMES JONES, long one of South Carolina's faithful servants, and always identified with her either in prosperity or affliction, died at Greenville on the 19th inst., of apoplexy.

South Carolina has never lost a son who loved her with more affection, or who was more devoted to her in the severe trials through which she has passed.

ATTEMPTED ESCAPE.—A corporal of the 33d Colored Regiment, while walking in Broad-street, near King, on yesterday afternoon, with one of the United States Police, who had him under arrest, attempted to escape, and while running past the Guard House was intercepted and taken by some of the members of the 4th Pennsylvania, who are stationed there.

THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENT has been handed to us by a friend, with a request that we would publish it for general information:

$20,000 in City of Charleston change bills are wanted by GEO. W. WILLIAMS & CO., as can be seen by their advertisement.

WE WOULD call attention to the card of Messrs. JAMES M. CALDWELL & SONS, Factors, at No. 5 Cordes-street, between East Bay and Kerr's Wharf.

WE DRAW attention to the business card of AUSTIN, ANDRUS & CO., at No. 136 Meeting-street, whose stock of Groceries, &c., cannot be excelled by any establishment in the city.

RAVENEL & BARNWELL.—These gentlemen have entered into business as general commission merchants and dealers in groceries, &c., at No. 177 East Bay, will attend to the buying and selling of cotton, rice, naval stores, and all kinds of produce, as per card.

ATKINS, NOYES & JOHNSTON.—The superior establishment of which these gentlemen are the proprietors contains as fine an assortment of goods, both Dry and Fancy, as can be exhibited at any house in the city, and we would suggest to dealers an early visit to it.

THE FIRM of WILLIAM B. HENKOT & CO., Bankers and General Agents, is so well known to the business people of the city for their promptness and the facilities they possess, that it is sufficient merely to say that they are to be found at No. 249 King-street, as per advertisement.

BROKER and AUCTIONEER.—Among the familiar names which is to be found in our paper, our patrons will notice that of B. McCALL, who is again pursuing his old business, at No. 61 Broad-street, of broker, auctioneer, commission and general collecting agent. His attention and faithfulness in former times will, we trust, guarantee success to him now.

MERCHANTS, planters and dealers in cotton, naval stores and produce generally, will find it to their interest to consult the card of Messrs. T. J. MOISE & CO., which appears in another column. These gentlemen are now permanently established in New York city, in the General Commission business, and are prepared to make liberal advances on consignments. Mr. T. J. Moise is well known in our mercantile community as an energetic, enterprising member of the late firm of T. J. & O. H. MOISE, in Hayne-street. A thorough acquaintance with the New York market, attained by many years' experience, and a happy and peculiar facility for the prompt and satisfactory attention to all orders for purchase entrusted to his care.
