

LOCAL MATTERS.

Mr. H. P. Rugg, Market-street, has our thanks for files of New York weekly and daily papers, received by the Atlanta. We observe among the lot Harper's Weekly, The Bowler, and the Army and Navy Journal.

CORONER'S INQUESTS.—C. E. KIRKPATRICK, Magistrate and Acting Coroner, held an inquest on yesterday, at No. 28 Henrietta street, on the body of Sarah Fields, freedwoman. Verdict of the Jury—"Died from epileptic fits"—she being subject to them.

On Saturday last, at No. 11 Princess street, on the body of Delia Trilacan, freedwoman. Verdict of the Jury—"Neglect, and not procuring medical attendance."

DARING ROBBERY.—At about half-past 6 o'clock last evening, while it was raining very hard, the shoe-store of Mr. P. M. SHERIDAN, No. 74 King-street, was entered by two negroes, while he was absent for a few minutes, and cleared of all the boots and shoes which were put for show in his front store windows.

THE ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.—Mr. JOHN RUSSELL, our literary friend on King-street, has again laid us under obligation, by sending us the above-named valuable periodical. This magazine has been well known for many years, and highly prized, as it gives, in a compact form, the best articles of the ablest European periodicals.

When the first sheets of "Our Mutual Friend" appeared in Europe and America, and the name of the work alone had come through the blockade to us benighted Southerners, many a would-be critic took exception thereto, maintaining that it was ungrammatical, and that our Common Friend was what DICKEENS must have intended.

BOARD OF MANAGERS OF STATE ELECTIONS.—We would call the attention of the members of this Board to a meeting to be held at the Masonic Hall, this afternoon, at half-past 4 o'clock.

DEALERS IN HORSES should certainly pay attention to the card of Mr. C. P. SIMON, who advertises sixteen head of as fine stock as can be found in the country. Those in want of animals of the best kind had better apply early.

J. GOUDROP.—This establishment, at 420 King-street, three doors south of Calhoun, furnishes dry goods of all kinds at remarkably cheap rates, as per advertisement. The friends of Mr. JAMES RADY will be pleased to know that he is here, ready, as usual, to serve his old friends.

INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY OF CHARLESTON.—This well known and responsible company, the only local one in business now in this city, has re-opened its old office, No. 8 Broad-street, and is issuing policies as usual, on accommodating terms. See their advertisement.

WE ARE pleased to welcome to the city, after a long absence from the scene of her labors, Madame Victoria PETTIT, who is about to resume the exercises of her School for Young Ladies, at No. 79 Broad-street. Madame PETTIT is assisted by Mrs. WORTON—so well known to many of our fellow-citizens as an accomplished and successful teacher. We are glad to see such institutions again going into operation in our city.

VON SANTEN'S BAZAAR.—The re-opening of this splendid establishment, remembered with so much affection by old and young, will be hailed with great delight by all, now that the Christmas holidays are approaching, and presents are anticipated. Besides the fancy goods mentioned in the advertisement, we are happy to see articles of utility are also to be found at this store, and we would suggest an early call by those who wish either the ornamental or useful, upon Mr. VON SANTEN, at No. 299 King-street, three doors below Wentworth.

ORNAMENTAL HAIR WORK.—The Misses M. & A. ASHTON inform the ladies and gentlemen of Charleston, through our paper to-day, that they execute all kinds of ornamental and fancy Hair Work, and are prepared to furnish any and all descriptions of it that may be required. These ladies have been engaged in this peculiar branch of business in this community for a long time, and have achieved a high reputation for the nicety and beauty of their work, and have gained the esteem of the public for their industry and strict attention to the arduous profession which they are employed in. Their store is at No. 403 King-street, opposite Burns' Lane.

THE OLD ESTABLISHED BAKERY at No. 115 Church-street, which has been under the control of some of the most experienced managers, and has been one of the most prosperous concerns in the city, has lately been leased by Mr. JOHN E. SCHMID, formerly of Mount Pleasant, whose reputation as a baker is unsurpassed. He has come into the city with a determination to use the best efforts he possesses to please those of the community who patronize him, and to serve them with bread, cakes, and pastry of all kinds, of the finest description, and at greatly modified prices. He desires a call and a trial on the part of the public.

LEONARD APPLEBY'S SON.—We feel anxious to bring the attention of all dealers in tobacco to the advertisement, in our New York columns, of this celebrated concern. There is no way in which the "weed" is used, in which it is not put up by this world-renowned house in the best and purest style; and it has gained its reputation from the fact that, whatever it has promised in trade, it has always punctually fulfilled.

THE WASHINGTON IRON WORKS.—In the New York columns of advertisements, which our paper contains, will be found a card of this large and popular concern, known as one of the most extensive establishments of the kind at the North. Its business is immense, and such perfect satisfaction has it given that it is always overrun with orders, which it requires the most complete system to fill in time. It still continues Southern work as before.

HIGH APPROVAL.—Mrs. S. A. Allen lately received a letter from a lady, stating that at the suggestion of numerous friends she purchased a bottle of Mrs. S. A. Allen's World's Hair Restorer and Zytobalium, or Hair Dressing, and after using a few times, her hair, which was quite gray, was restored to its youthful color, and new hair was fast appearing. No lady's toilet is complete without these preparations. Every druggist sells them.
