

The Daily News.

SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 2, 1866.

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE STATE. LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE CITY.

THE LIST OF LETTERS remaining in the Postoffice at the end of each week is published officially in THE DAILY NEWS every Friday morning.

LOCAL MATTERS.

THE PURSER of the steamer Dictator has furnished us with late Florida and Savannah papers.

CONCERT AT THE BATTERY THIS AFTERNOON.—PROGRAMME:

- 1. Overture—From Thomas' Opera Le Caid. 2. Grand Fugue Lucia. 3. Gallop—Trap. 4. Duett and Finale from Lucrezia Borgia. 5. Polka—Rebecca. 6. Cavatina—Ernani. 7. March—Army.

ARRIVAL OF GEN. D. E. STOKES.—General D. E. STOKES, Commander of the Department of the Carolinas, arrived here yesterday afternoon in the steamship Cosmopolitan, from New York. The General has been absent for some weeks on business at Washington and elsewhere, and has now come back to assume command of his department.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—An announcement will be seen in another column relative to the services to-morrow evening of this active benevolent Christian brotherhood. Three of our best speakers and most popular Divines in the city will deliver addresses. We hope ere long again to see the old Association on its old footing.

POSTOFFICE MATTERS.—As will be seen from the Postoffice notice in another column, on June the 6d, and afterwards, the mails for the Northeastern Road will close at 11 o'clock, A. M.; and in consequence of a change in time of arrival of the Northeastern mail, the Postoffice will open Sundays, commencing June 10th, at 1 P. M., and remain open for one hour.

REV. ISAAC LEBNER.—We learn that this eloquent Hebrew divine will preach in the Hasel-street synagogue this morning. Dr. L. is a distinguished Oriental scholar, and is the author of many works on Hebrew literature. No Israelitish divine in America has been long before the public, or more thoroughly appreciated by his communion.

SERENADE.—We believe it is to the Young America Fire Company we are indebted for a serenade and three rousing cheers for THE DAILY NEWS, at an early hour yesterday morning. The Fire Department of Charleston is one of the best in the country, and this Company—one of its latest additions—is a fine specimen of what our firemen really are. Success to you, boys, and we echo back three cheers for the Young America.

SALE OF SUGAR AND MOLASSES.—The following valuable list of Sugar and Molasses was disposed of yesterday, by Messrs. J. A. ENSLOW & Co., which brought the prices named: 40 hds. fair to good grocery Sugar, cargo of schr. T. J. Frazer, from Matanzas—5 hds. at 12 1/2; 27 hds. at 12 1/2; 2 hds. at 12 1/2, 2 hds. at 11 1/2. 37 boxes damaged Sugar at the following prices—20 boxes at 14; 14 boxes at 11 1/2; 27 boxes at 11 1/2; 40 hds. Muscovado Molasses at 45 1/2; 20 hds. Clayed Molasses at 41 1/2; 30 hds. Clayed Molasses at 41 1/2; 575 hds. 35 tierces and 8 bbls. Clayed Molasses at 40 1/2.

THE DAILY AMERICAN PATRIOT, published in Columbia, arrived in town last night. The Patriot is a well edited, neatly printed paper, and if it continues thus, as we have no doubt it will, we predict a brilliant future for it.

"THE SUMMER NEWS."—The first number of this new competitor for public patronage and favor has reached our office, and we extend it a cordial welcome. The proprietor, Mr. H. L. DARR, is an old and valued friend; and we think we are safe when we venture to say that he knows all about managing a newspaper. The issue is not dressed in homespun, but comes rigged out in a brand-new suit of the nicest store-bought. In other words, it is very nicely printed, having new type throughout. Our best wishes to our young namesake.

Mrs. BITCHIE (late ANNA CORA MOWATT, whose recent private theatricals in Rome and Florence have been produced with so much eclat), has found time, since the publication of "Fairy Finger" to prepare another charming novel, which Mr. CARRINGTON will publish next week, under the title of "The Mute Singer."

RECONSTRUCTION.—Among the many topics we are called on to discuss, none give us greater pleasure than those relating to the improvement of our city. The many ruins of charred brick and solitary chimneys are a constant eye-sore. We frequently feel inclined to chide the tardy Phoenix for rising so slowly from the ashes. An effort is made now and then, here goes up a house, a store there, and a shanty rather charming novel, which Mr. CARRINGTON will publish next week, under the title of "The Mute Singer."

At the last quarterly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, GEORGE A. TRENNHOLM, Esq., one of our most public-spirited citizens, spoke of the importance of this subject, and, if we mistake not, advocated a consultation with City Council in reference to it. We have heard nothing of it since. The Palais Royal block and gardens appear to "hang fire." Where the high is exactly we do not know. The "Burnt District" is, however, getting gradually cleared, the walls are being taken down, the bricks cleaned and removed, and the rubbish carted off. There will be a clean field, therefore, upon which to operate, as soon as capital and enterprise shall form a constructing partnership. We hope the summer months will not be permitted to pass by unimproved.

How different has been the fortune of Richmond! About nine hundred buildings were swept away by the disastrous fire of the 3d of April, 1865. And now we are told scarcely a trace can be seen of this vast waste, save only that the new part of the city far surpasses its former self in taste, beauty and elegance. Why this great difference in two Southern cities? But to prove to our readers that we are not altogether asleep, we must tell them of some of the improvements now in progress in our immediate vicinity. Hayne-street is wide awake. The ravages of last summer's fire are now being repaired. Mr. O. C. THUMMO, our veteran builder, has been clearing away the debris of the three stores, Nos. 28, 41 and 43, and is about to erect handsome structures on the site. The first of that old and enterprising firm, Messrs. HASTIE, CALHOUN & Co.; the other two, the property of Messrs. JOHNSTON, CHAMBERS & DRAWLEY. These buildings will be four stories high, and one hundred and twenty feet deep. The ground-floor will be fourteen feet high, which is two feet more than the old building had. The higher ceiling will be a great improvement to these new stores. There is to be a uniform handsome iron front along all three.

Mr. DAVID LOPEZ is engaged repairing No. 29 Hayne-street, the property of BENJ. MONTECAL, Esq. The store was occupied by JOHN ASSHURST & Co., before the war. In Meeting-street also the sound of the hammer and trowel are heard. The buildings, immediately south of the Southern Express Company's office (from No. 141 to No. 145, both inclusive). This property belongs to G. S. CAMERON, Esq. Messrs. EARLE & ELZE are the contractors who have the work in hand. These stores will all measure two hundred feet in depth, and have a handsome iron front.

As another change in this part of the city, we must also mention the removal of Mr. A. S. HULL from the corner of Market and Meeting streets, to the corner of Meeting and Hayne streets, under the Charleston Hotel, where Alderman Z. B. OAKES lately had his Insurance office. Mr. HULL has been on this square for many years, and claims to make as good cuts now as he did thirty years ago.

We hope ere long to have it in our power to extend our constructive chronicle. We have fine building lots, and want lots of fine buildings. There has been for many months a burnt wall, on Hayne-street, very dangerous to passers by. Very little force ab intra would precipitate it into the street. It should be removed forthwith. Why do our authorities not compel attention to such nuisances? Or is it nobody's business. In no other country in the world would such a state of things be permitted to exist for a week. The proprietors of the premises are directed to make an examination of the stones and report. If there is no danger, our citizens, ourselves among the number, will be glad to have such assurance; and if the wall is dangerous, why it should be taken down instantly.

PROVOST COURT, May 31.—United States vs. Sarah Atkinson, colored.—Disorderly conduct. M. E. EGAN, P. M., sworn, said: Last night about 12 o'clock, an altercation took place on East Bay, between defendant and a white man. She began to make a noise and halloo, when I spoke to her about it. She said it was none of my business, so I ordered her to leave the street, and she refused. I then took her to the Guard House. Some white citizens on the opposite side of the street said the defendant was a nuisance in the neighborhood. Sentenced to three days' hard labor, subject to the orders of the Post Commander.

United States vs. Dilexy Combs, colored.—Stealing.—J. GOLBY, P. M., sworn, says: Yesterday I arrested the defendant for stealing such cases from Matilda Welsh, on the orders of Mrs. WELLS. Found no clothing on her. Did not see her steal any. Mrs. WELLS, sworn, said: Nine months ago, I lost a pair of sleeve buttons, breastpin, and some articles of clothing; don't know of my own knowledge that defendant took them. Defendant found not guilty and ordered to be discharged. [Why will persons bring such cases to Court, when there is not the shadow of a chance of conviction, only gratuitous enmity is incurred by a fruitless prosecution?]

United States vs. Dilexy Combs, colored.—Fighting.—J. GOLDEN, P. M., sworn, stated that yesterday at half-past 10 o'clock, A. M. I arrested the defendant; saw her strike Matilda, and I took her to the Guard House. Matilda did not strike defendant back. Found guilty, and sentenced to ten days' hard labor, subject to the orders of the Post Commander.

United States vs. John Wilson and Wm. Boston, colored.—P. CONLEY, P. M., sworn, stated that "last night about 12 o'clock, found defendants in Archdale-street fighting and quarrelling, and making a great noise and disturbance. I arrested Boston."

R. E. ELLIOTT, sworn, stated: "The defendants were arrested by orders, on account of fighting. I am a Sergeant of Police. They were all engaged in this riot, near Magazine-street. I saw the riot from my window in the Guard House. Saw a number of colored soldiers endeavoring to rescue a prisoner before his incarceration. He had been imprisoned before. It was virtually a resistance of the police; after following them overtook them in Archdale-street, and there were also some twenty-five or thirty colored soldiers of the 128th Regiment. I and my squad pursued them. A number of shots were fired, and we arrested them as parties in the row. Sentenced to thirty days' hard labor."

United States vs. BRIDGET DOLAN, white.—Assault and Battery.—The defendant was a very hard-boiled specimen of the gin-rum Bridget. Her face was full and rubeous as any prize-peony; looked, moreover, as though she might be a veteran in the service of King Alcohol. She had an infant in her arms. The aggrieved witness was an ancient, hoary-headed lady of color, named Clara, who, on having "kissed the book," spoke, as near as we could funnygraph it, after the following fashion: "Las night dis 'oman troved brick at me, hit me right here. [Slips aside her turban and points to the vicinity of the line where the temporal meets the frontal bone.] I nobber dan nuffin to her."

Judge to prisoner. "What have you to say for yourself?" Bridget. "Please yer Honor, I'll tell yer the honest truth. I'm a very good frind to Maum Clara, an' wouldn't hart her for the world. But I had drunk some beer, and she was batin' two' my childer at the top of the stairs, an' I couldn't shtan' that; an' I took a brick and threw it at her."

Clara (sotto voce). "Beer! She was beastly drunk!" Judge. "Be still; only one of you must talk at a time." Bridget. "Now, Maum Clara, you know I'm a good frind o' yours, an' you oughtn't to have sint me here."

Judge. "You must address the Court, and not hold a conversation with the witness." Clara. "Dis ain't de frine time. She all de time gets drunk, and den is fightin' and quarrelin'."

United States vs. Mrs. John Mallory, colored.—Riotous conduct. January Mitchell, sworn, said: "On Monday evening, about half-past 7 o'clock, in the camp on the Green, at Sullivan's Island, defendant used bad language. Major WALLACE and his wife were there—she used very indecent language." Henry Walker, colored, sworn, says: "I was out looking for my cow on the green on Sullivan's Island, seven miles from the city, before roll call. On my way to my house, I met the defendant inside the guard lines. About thirty or forty men belonging to the regiment were present, and defendant was abusing my wife. I am a first-major of the 128th Regiment U. S. C. T. I said to defendant, 'This is no place for you to make a mess about my wife. I will not put up with it. She said my wife was a — and a —.' [The blanks all filled by witness with words to be found in any good dictionary.] I made for her, and she struck me over the head with a stick twice, and hurt me very much." Found guilty, and sentenced to thirty (30) days at hard labor, subject to the order of the Post Commander.

have two coops of fowls. It was yesterday about 3 P. M. He was coming down the country; left him on the care of the Northeastern Railroad. Sam. Johnson, sworn, said: "Know defendant. He came down on the N. E. R. R. I came down with him, and he stayed with me last night at Johnny Houston's; went to bed about 8 P. M., and got up at about 8 this mornin'. I awoke him; we slept together; did not change any. He sold his fowls—the young ones to Alfred Johnson. He brought thirty fowls with him, and I brought the same number. I paid the freight on all. Defendant found not guilty." United States vs. Wm. H. Lee and Maria Lee, colored.—Fighting in the street.—C. W. Blocker, police, sworn, said that about 11 o'clock this mornin' defendants were quarrelling in Calhoun street, corner St. Philip. He caught her by the head and tore her handkerchief off, and witness got there in time to stop any further trouble; and took them both to the Guard House. They were quite noisy. Defendant Wm. H. Lee found guilty and fined $5, or ten days' hard labor on the streets. The defendant Maria Lee to five days' hard labor, subject to orders of Commander.

SEAGRAMS AND TOBACCO.—Our old friend J. B. TOONI advertises choice Havana cigars and best brands of chewing tobacco. Mr. TOONI keeps the best of everything and everything of the very best. We admit that we like to puff such cigars, and that when we chew we choose good tobacco, such as can be found at No. 121 Meeting-street.

IMPORTANT NEW INVENTION.—We can conscientiously recommend to those suffering from weak or defective sight, Prof. BENNARDT's single and double vision Australian Crystal Spectacles. They afford almost instantaneous relief, and are without, the greatest aids to the eyes that we have ever heard of. In fact, we have no doubt that the Australian Crystal Spectacles are the best glasses in use, and all that their proprietor claims for them. Prof. BENNARDT can be found at the private parlor of the Mills House, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. Head his column of certificates in the News to-day.

Dr. HUMPHREYS, of No. 562 Broadway, New York, well known to the Homeopathic medical practice, has transferred his interest to a company of which he is a member, and is now ready to furnish all the varieties of Specifics the profession and people may need. No house in this department of medicine has larger facilities or a better reputation, than that of which Dr. H. is now at the head.—Newark Advertiser, March 29, 1865.

A HINT TO BOTH SEXES.—HOW TO GAIN AND RETAIN AFFECTION.—It has frequently been suggested that PLANTATION BITTERS are, in another form, the "Elixir of Love" of the Ancients. That they do much to quiet "family jars," and reconcile fratral wives to cross husbands, we verily believe. When domestic quiet is restored and conjugal felicity reigns supreme, "How great the charm, how sweet the bliss That finds expression in a kiss." A free and proper use of PLANTATION BITTERS will inspire the souls of both sexes with pure and high-toned sentiments of affection, and a capacity for rare exquisite enjoyment in each other's society. Remember there is no place like home, and no passion like love—and nothing to link the two together and you to both like the great Family Blessing, PLANTATION BITTERS. tuth3
