The Daily News.

MONDAY MORNING, JULY 30, 1866.

State Items.

MARLBORO'.—At a meeting held in Bennettsville on Monday last, in pursuance of Governor Orr's call, the following gentlemen were elected delegates to the Convention to be held in Columbia this week: C. W. Dudley, J. H. Hudson, and H. B. Covington.—Bennettsville Journal.

GREENVILLE.—The following are the delegates elected from Greenville to the Columbia Convention: Gov. B. F. Perry, H. P. Hammett, Esq., Alex. McBee, Esq., Col. G. F. Townes, T. Q. Donaldson, Esq., J. H. Goodwin, Esq., Dr. Jas. Harrison, J. H. Cleveland, Esq., Wm. F. Lester, Esq., J. W. Grady, Esq.—Mountaineer.

LAURENS.—From the Laurensville Herald we learn that the following gentlemen were elected delegates to the Columbia Convention, at a large meeting held in Laurensville, on Monday last:

D. M. M. Hunter, Capt. W. D. Evins, Dr. Thos. Wier, Sr., Dr. J. T. Craik, Dr. A. C. Fuller, Capt. G. W. Sullivan, Col. John Cunningham, Maj. J. R. Fuller, Capt. H. L. McGowan, Col. W. D. Simpson, Hon. C. P. Sullivan, Esq., and C. Garlington, Esq.

Weather and Crops.—For the last week or ten days the weather in this latitude has been excessively hot and rain much needed. There came a fine refreshing rain on Wednesday last, in this neighborhood, though we do not think it has yet extended generally over the District. Accounts from every quarter tell us of crops being parched up and the hopes for a corn crop blasted. Direful forebodings of pestilence and famine to follow war oppress the minds of many. We hope for the best, however.

LANCASTER.—Lancaster sends the following delegates to the Convention:

James R. McGill, N. B. Vanlandigham, John B. Erwin, B. J. Witherspoon, J. T. K. Belt, Robert M. Sims and John C. Foster.

The Ledger says:

The drought still continues in this vicinity, and is most distressing in its effects upon the crops. The most serious apprehensions are expressed for the future. We have heard of light showers in various portions of the District, but there has been no general rain for over five weeks.

UNION.—At a meeting, held on Monday last in Unionville, the following gentlemen were appointed delegates to the Columbia Convention:

Dr. John N. Herndon, B. H. Rice, J. G. McKissick and Col. F. Scaife.

BARNWELL.—The following is the delegation from Barnwell:

Johnson Hagood, J. J. Brabham, E. J. C. Wood, Alfred Aldrich.

MURDER.—We learn that Mr. Lem. Lane, of Newberry District, was brutally murdered, by unknown persons, on Friday night, and some six or eight thousand dollars in specie, which it was known was in his possession, carried off. The head of the unfortunate man was split open with an axe as he lay in his bed.—Phœnix.

THE NEW ERA.

A WEEKLY PAPER, PUBLISHED AT DARLINGTON COURT HOUSE, has recently been transferred to us by its original proprietors. Located in the same District, and only one station distant from the great railroad centre of Florence, our facilities for communication with all parts of the country, and especially with the cities of Charleston, Columbia and Wilmington from which we are nearly equi-distant, are unsurpassed. The Editor, J. H. NORWOOD, Esq., was formerly well known to the press of this State as one of the originators, and for several years Editor of the Darlington Flag, which paper was discontinued at the beginning of the war. As natives of the South we respectfully solicit a share of the advertising patronage.
