MR. GEORGE D. CONNOR HAS ENTERED INTO THE GENERAL BROKERAGE BUSINESS.

MR. GEORGE D. CONNOR has entered into the general brokerage business, and can be found at No. 11 Broad-street. Special attention is called to his advertisement, which appears in another column of this morning's paper.

LANGASTER NEWS.

Langaster, N. C. The Herald, was sold by the sheriff on last Monday. A large number of people were in town. The usual quiet prevailed. The sales made by the sheriff on last Thursday and Friday, of personal property, brought fair prices. Cotton 21 cents. Corn 51 per bushel.

PERSONAL.—HON. THURLOW WEED, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR OF THE NEW YORK COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER.

HON. THURLOW WEED, editor and proprietor of the New York Commercial Advertiser, intends to spend the winter at the South. He was to have left New York on Thursday last, but was prevented by sickness from a starting until Saturday, when he left on board the steamer Champion, accompanied by his daughter. They will probably arrive here to-day on their way to Aiken.

THE EUROPEAN MAILS.—OWING TO THE NON-ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER EIRA.

THE EUROPEAN MAILS, owing to the non-arrival of the steamer EIRA, the European mails which were to have been dispatched from New York on Saturday, were detained until to-day, when they will go forward by the Hamburg-American steamer Allemania. In no previous season has had weather on the Atlantic so seriously interrupted mail communication.

BRAZILIAN SILK COTTON.—THREE BALES OF A NEW DESCRIPTION OF COTTON.

BRAZILIAN SILK COTTON.—Three bales of a new description of cotton, grown from the seed of the Brazilian silk cotton, were received by W. M. Lawton, Esq., factor, Boyce & Co.'s wharves, on Monday last. The cotton is of a fine, soft, and by whom it was cultivated. The staple is good, with a slight yellow tinge, and with a remarkably soft and silky feeling. We are informed that cotton of this description is in demand in France for the use of silk manufacturers.

THE HOMESTEAD ACT.—IT HAS BEEN HELD BY T. J. K. DARGAN, ESQ., ONE OF THE MAGISTRATES FOR WILLIAMSBURG COUNTY.

THE HOMESTEAD ACT.—It has been held by T. J. K. Dargan, Esq., one of the magistrates for Williamsburg County, that the recent act of the Legislature, commonly known as the Homestead Act, is in conflict with the Constitution of the United States, so far as it attempts to operate upon contracts entered into prior to the date of the Constitution of South Carolina, and of the act itself, and therefore as to such contracts void.

THE CASE IN WHICH THE DECISION WAS RENDERED UNDER THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S OFFICE.

THE CASE IN WHICH THE DECISION WAS RENDERED UNDER THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S OFFICE, and we understand that an appeal has been taken in the case.

A HINT TO VICTIMS.—IF YOU ARE ROBBED OF GOODS, CLOTHING, &c., THE ONLY VALUE THESE HAVE TO THE THIEF IS HIS ABILITY TO SELL THEM.

A HINT TO VICTIMS.—If you are robbed of goods, clothing, &c., the only value these have to the thief is his ability to sell them. If he finds he cannot sell them he will send them home on unrecognizable terms. Do not sell them if you make it sufficiently known that they are stolen, and that can be done by constant advertising in THE NEWS. These points are developed in the story of a stolen diamond ring, published in a New York paper the other day. The owner of the ring persistently advertised his loss, with a minute description of the jewel, and after four years the thief returned it with the message: "You made such a blow about it that everybody knows of it."

REAL ESTATE SALES.—MESSRS. LEITCH & BRUNS.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—MESSRS. LEITCH & BRUNS sold yesterday at auction, in their salesroom, Broad-street, the plantations known as Reserve Grove, one hundred and fifty acres; the Hazehs, one hundred and fifty acres; and the Clarke, five hundred acres, all on Combahee River, for $2800; one-third cash, balance in one and two years.

Plantation on Lady's Island, one hundred and forty acres, and two hundred acres of plant land, on Royal Island, for $3000; one-third cash, balance in one, two and three years.

Plantation known as Fox Farm, eleven hundred and sixty-five acres, in Colleton District, for $7300; one-third cash, balance in one and two years.

Tract of land in Prince Williams' parish, known as Rosefield, five hundred and ninety acres, for $1800; one-third cash, balance in one and two years.

THE THEATRE.—THERE WAS A VERY ANTIMERICAN display at the theatre last evening, to witness the third repetition of "Fool Play," which was somewhat defectively rendered as far as the scenery was concerned. The acting was capital on the part of every one concerned, and especially by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Watkins. It is a wonder that the Gibberite who have the management of the theatre, considering the scenery that they have at the stock of the Hibernal Hall. They deserve credit, and should be better patronized. To-night they give the four act drama, "Water Dark," with a fine cast.

MESSRS. CAMERON, BARKLEY & CO.—RAILROAD, STEAMBOAT AND MILL SUPPLIES.—THIS HOUSE, NOW WELL KNOWN IN BUSINESS CIRCLES IN CHARLESTON, AND WHEREVER CHARLESTON RAILROAD AND STEAMBOAT communication extends, was first established in July, 1868, shortly after the close of the war. The senior partner of the firm, Mr. Archibald Cameron, is an experienced and skillful mechanic, who has fought his way up from the ranks of trade to one of its most honorable positions. Mr. Rufus C. Barkley, the other partner, was for a long time connected with the South Carolina Railroad, and is thoroughly acquainted with the material required on railroads and steamboats. The establishment of the firm was first opened at the southeast corner of Meeting and Wentworth streets, where it continued to be kept until the increasing demands of their business compelled the proprietors to erect a new building at the northeast corner of Meeting and Cumberland streets, into which they moved in November last. The new building has a front of forty feet on Meeting-street, and extends one hundred and forty feet on Cumberland-street. The first or ground floor is divided into two stores, one with the entrance on Meeting-street, and the other with the entrance on Cumberland-street, which is used as a warehouse for steam engines, machinery of all other heavy stock. The firm of Cameron, Barkley & Co. is the only one that makes railroad, steamboat and mill supplies a specialty, and their business is consequently very extensive and their stock very large. On their iron rack alone they have two hundred and fifty tons of bar iron and steel on hand. They keep always on hand steam engines, circular saw and grist mills, and also sperm, lard and coal oil, and keep machinery belting, and all other articles needed to keep machinery running and in good order. The phosphate companies, now multiplying so fast in our city, can find here everything in the way of machinery and machine supplies that is necessary to put their mines and manufactories in writing order; and planters, millers, and all others requiring machinery, will find it to their advantage to send their orders to Messrs. Cameron, Barkley & Co. The firm desire to extend their business in every way, and expect and are prepared to do so. The buildings are erected with a view to enlargement, and the walls are sufficiently thick and strong to stand the weight of several additional stories. When Charleston shall become the metropolis of the Southern States, as it must before many years, Messrs. Cameron, Barkley & Co. will be among her mainstays, such as are now supported by the immense railroad and steamboat companies of the North, assisted in no small degree by the custom and patronage of Southern railroad and steamboat men.

CATHOLIC INSTITUTE.—THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE Society was celebrated last evening, at the Catholic Institute Hall, No. 263 King-street. There was a full attendance of members present, and the interest manifested by all augurs well for the future prosperity of the institution. We were pleased to notice the presence of Rt. Rev. Bishops Lynch and Pars, and several of the clergy.

AFTER THE REGULAR BUSINESS WAS TRANSACTED, THE president, Bernard O'Neill, Esq., invited Rt. Rev. Dr. Lynch to address the meeting.

IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE REQUESTS OF THE CATHOLIC INSTITUTE, AND IN ANSWER TO THE ADVANTAGES WHICH IT AFFORDED ITS MEMBERS IN GIVING THEM a healthy and pure literature, whereby those grand principles of Catholic conservatism would instill themselves into their minds, surrounded as they were with the fanaticism prevalent at the present day, which is sapping the foundation of social order.
