ATTEMPTED ROBBERY .- Several attempts ave been made lately to rob the fowl house of . John Campsen, at No. 37 Hasel-street, nd on Friday night the knob of the gate of e private entrance was broken off. Similar empts to rob have, we believe, been made at e house of Mr. Hewell. Householders must on their guard; and for house robbers we have but two words-cave canem

ARRESTS ON SATURDAY. - Abraham Edev. colored, by Officer Coates, on suspicion of larceny of clothing from J. C. H. Claussen, Market-James and John Stoker, colored, by Officer keys from M1. S. H. Oppenheim. H. C. Gerkin, by Officer Coates, for larceny of $10 in currency from Lydia Dunham, colored.

Joe Brown's PIRES,-When Joe Brown was Governor of Georgia and a good Confederate, as well as a respectable man, he had made several thousand pikes with which the State militia were to whip the horrid Yankees. These pikes were never used, and were sold a few weeks ago in Augusta. It is rumored that these are the "arms of the most improved pattern" of which Governor Scott spoke so feelingly, and that a large number of them have been bought up for the use of the South Carolina "melish." A friend has lent us one of these pikes, which may be seen at our office. It is at once a relic of the "has been," and a suggestion of the "may be."

FREIGHTS RAISED .- The Savannah News of Friday, the 7th inst., says: "We learn that freights to New York on vegetables and fruits have been raised one hundred per cent. and upwards; green peas from twenty-five to fifty cents, and peaches from twenty-five to eighty cents per bushel. These increased rates will have a tendency to so increase the prices of early vegetables in New York that there will be no demand, and consequently fruits and vegetabels will lie and rot where they are produced. as the demand in this vicinity is not by any means as great as the supply. This action upon the part of the companies has caused a great deal of discontentment among truck growers."

PERSONAL .- The following South Carolinians graduated at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary on Saturday week last: George N. Askew, W. H. Leavelle, Thomas P. Lide, in the woods. Jr., B. F. Miller, D. T. Smith.

Mr. Gabriel Manigault and family, who had been living in Yorkville since Sherman's raid. left that place, on Tuesday last, for Canada. which will be their future home. The En-

Mr. Manigault is a descendant of the old Hu-Mr. Manigault is a descendant of the old Huguenot colonists of South Carolina, and his family have been identified with our State history for a long period of years. He was for several sessions a member of the Legislature from Charleston, where he resided until the commencement of the war. The genial and elevated character of himself and family, and the pleasant associations connected with their memory, will long by cherished by our people. He purposes to locate in New London, Canada, under the protection of the British Crown, and we congratulate the subjects of her Majesty in that locality upon their valuable acquisition.

The to-day must be fulfilled the solemn duty of decorating the graves of the Confederate dead, whether in the public or private cemeteries. A large number of floral and evergreen wreaths and decorations are required, and it is hoped that they will be supplied to the wagens as they pass along the route prescribed. The ladies of the Garland Committee will assemble at Marien's store at half-past 9 o'clock this morning precisely.

The wagons will start at 12 o'clock M., and

THE WIN YARS AND SALAMANDERS. -The Georgetown Times gives the following account of the return home of the Winyahs and Salamanders. Our firemen thank their visiting friends for their expressions of kind feeling. and assure them that they are not forgotten by the Charleston Fire Department:

Many anxious eyes looked for the arrival of the steamer Emilie. on Friday last, and our firemen were in full uniform to receive their brethren. But disappointment was visible on the features of all at the non-arrival of the steamer. On Saturday morning, however, the Emilie steamed up to the wharf with her colors flying and quite a crewd are whell a because the steamer. Emilie steamed up to the wharf with her colors flying, and quite a crowd assembled to hear what the Winyahs had to say. The conduct of our boys on the occasion of the late parade in Charleston meets the hearty approval of all, and from what we can learn, their efforts were highly appreciated. It is conceded that they were second on the list, and have no reason to be ashamed of their place in the picture. We hear continued encomiums bestowed upon the warm reception and cordial hospitality they received by their brethren, the Stonewalls; and it will be many a long day before their visit to the good old "City by the Saa" fades from the memory of the Winyahs and Sılamanders. On Saturday evening an entertainment was given by the Salamanders that carried us back to the good old days of the past, and the only wonder is, in these days when the us back to the good old days of the past, and the only wonder is, in these days when the housekeepers find it so hard to provide, how so many choice viands were got at. The evening passed off in mirth, sentiment and song, until the noon of night reminded the assembly that Sunday was near at hand. We understand the Winyahs are to give an entertainment next week, at which they expect some of their Stonewall friends to be present. THE VISITING SCHUETZEN .- After the festivities of the Schuetzenfest closed on Friday night, the celebrants returned to the city and enjoyed a ball, given at Lindstedt's hall, which was kept up with unabated zest until the small hours of morning. On Saturday, the visitors were entertained by their friends here, by showing them around the city in vehicles and on foot. Champagne and lager were liberally poured out in the private residences to which they were invited. In the afternoon the visitors were escorted to the steamship Champion with Muller's brass band at their head. Aboard of the vessel, parting sentiments were drank, and champagne and lager mercilessly punished. Speeches were made by Professor Meier, Captains Melchers of the Charleston Club, and Gerdes of the New York Club, and others, and a jolly time had generally. The Charleston Schuetzen gave the New Yorkers and New Jersevians barrels of lager as parting tokens, and in turn received a barrel from the recipients. "All aboard" was sounded, the decks were cleared, and the good ship and visiting Schuetzen passed out of the pier amidst cheering and hearty hurrahing and other demonstrations of "God-speed."

The Fest has been an immense success, pecuniarily and otherwise, and satisfaction is experienced on all sides. The Augustians returned on Friday and Saturday, in "broken
