THE NORTHERN STEAMERS AND FREIGHT .-The steamship James Adger, Captain T. J. Lockwood, left this city on Saturday afternoon for New York with a very large freight and a flattering passenger list. The amount of vegetables on boar I was in great quantities. amounting to over four thousand packages. All our steamers for Northern ports are carrying off the products of our truck farms, and that form of freight is very heavy at present, forming in many cases the larger portion of SOUTHERN LANDS WANTED .- It will be seen by the advertisement printed elsewhere, that W. C. Alden & Co., of New York, have established a special department for the purchase and sale of Southern real estate. This branch of the business will be managed by Mr. J. M. Morgan, late of this city, who refers to Messrs. G. A. Trenholm & Son. There is a market in New York for our real estate, and sellers will do well to put themselves in communication with Mr. Morgan without delay.

Row in Vanderhorst-street.—There were a thousand and one rumors affoat yesterday about a row that occurred in Vanderhorststreet on the night previous, at twelve o'clock. Our reporter put on his "seven league boots" and diligently traversed that section of the city, to ascertain the truth of the fray, and after hearing the testimony pro and con, found that the whole matter amounted to a promiscuous fight between some United States soldiers and colored men, of which a dusky wench was the moving cause. One of the boys in blue fired a pistol, which did no harm. The colored policemen "bagged" one of the "sogers," who resisted like a Trojan, but was forced to succumb and be taken to quarters at the calaboose. The matter will be ventilated this morning.

Mr. J. T. Maher, of this city, has received from Mr. E. D. The rapid and frequent striking of St. Michael's clock yesterday afternoon was caused by the weight having run down. The chimney attached to the premises of Mr. Holmes, in St. Philip-street, blazed out on Saturday, causing a slight alarm of fire. The docket of the Mayor's Court on Saturday showed a large increase in business of a trifling nature. The police made a descent on a colored gambling house in King near Queen-street, test evening, half-past nine o'clock. The decks were swept, and the participants "bagged." The premises of Mr. J. S. Westendorff. Queen-street, were robbed on Saturday night, and some "game" stock carried off. Chief Justice Chase leaves this morning for

Mr. Fay, a white wheelwright, in Churchstreet, next to St. Philip's Church, was found. hanging on the sharp pointed iron railing of the churchyard, night before last, and was relieved by some colored men. He had attempted to reach the rear of his shop by climbing on the railing, while intoxicated, and fell, one

Dr. Hicks addressed the school, and brief speeches were made by two of the pupils, Henry Lucas and Sinclair West.

The school is highly prosperous. A colored woman rode up on one of the Rutledge-street cars on Saturday evening as far as Morris-street, where she got off and sat on a door sill near by and died in a few minutes. Probable cause of death, age and debility. Among the officers of the First Brigade of South Carolina Regulars present at the last meeting was Lieutenant Scanlan, who was

THE MUNICIPAL DEAD LOCK.

The Fruitiess Errand of Governor Scott—A Brilliant Manusuvre—No Go-What the Mackeyites Propose-Let all Hands Resign, and Let us have Peace!

The municipal muddle is no nearer solution now than it was three weeks ago, and all the efforts of Governor Scott have failed to produce any effect on either the Pillsbury or the Mackey faction. The Governor talked and caucussed with his usual ease and elegance, but, to use the language of one of the irate Radicals, " He is a dead cock in the pit," and has no influence whatever with the warring chieftains of the city "rings." One flank movement Governor Scott did attempt in the shape of an amalgamation dinner, at which all the Aldermen were to be present, without regard to race, color or previous condition. But the dinner proved a brilliant failure, for the very parties who were most wanted failed to make their appearance. The entertainment, therefore, like other entertainments of a less equivocal and more successful character, ended in smoke, and the would-be peacemakers were left to their own devices. Several propositions meantime had been made, however, by the Mackey party. They say that only two of their "Ten" were candidates for office, and that one of the two has since withdrawn. They declare their willingness to introduce an ordinance providing that no member of the Board of Aldermen, and no relative of any member, shall be elected to any city office; also that no Alderman shall be allowed to take any contract for city work, or be permitted to furnish any of the city supplies. Such an ordinance they say they are willing to introduce if the Pillsbury party will vote for it. They say also that if Mayor Pillsbury will admit the right of the majority to pass any ordinances they may think proper to introduce and will put them to the vote, they will vote down all the ordinances already proposed by themselves, and will simply introduce a police bill, giving the election of the members of the force to the Council. None of these propositions, however, were entertained. The Pillsbury party, which now consists of the Mayor and Aldermen Geddings, McKinlay, colored, Howard, colored. Potter, Cunningham, Holloway, colored, and Collins, stands firm, and is not disposed to surrender. The members say that they cannot trust the other side, and are apprehensive that they would not keep their pledges. The Mackey party rejoin by declaring that they want no public office, and that the Pillsbury people crave public plunder. They say that Holloway wants his son to be a lieutenant of police, and Howard wants his son to be Street Inspector. They say, moreover, that they want to select none but Southern men, while the Pillsbury people want to run in Jenks, Taft, Willoughby and other Northerners. Jenks is bent on being City Inspector, and means to make a desperate push for the Wearied with the struggle, the Mackey party determined on a coup d'etat. This was no less than a proposition for all hands to resign. The Pillsbury party could not see it, and it is long for his seat, would give it up because his opponents in Council were willing to eject themselves from office. It was hinted that the move was all gammon, when the Mackey party at once drew up the following formal proposition, a copy of which has been sent to the Mayor: CHARLESTON, S. C., June 5, 1869.

CHARLESION, S. C., June 5, 1869.
To the Honorable Gibert Pullsbury, Mayor of Charleston; J. D. Geddings, Esq., Alderman Ward No. 1; Wm. McKinlay, Esq., Alderman Ward No. 2; Robert Howard, Esq., Alderman Ward No. 8; L. T. Potter, Esq., G. I. Cunningham, Esq., and R. H. Holoway, Esq., Alderman Ward No. 6:

GENTLEMEN—In view of the present "dead lock" in the Board of Aldermen, produced by your persistent refusal to participate in the deliberations of the same, thereby seriously obstructing the public business and injuring the credit of the city, we, the undersigned, members of the City Council of Charleston, propose as a fit and proper solution of evicting difficult as a fit and proper solution of existing difficulties:

1st. That the Mayor and all the Aldermen 1st. That the Mayor and all the Aldermen shall resign their seats, such resignation to take effect so soon as their successors shall have been duly elected and qualified.

2d. That in order to carry out the above stipulation as speedily as possible, the City Council shall forthwith order an election for Mayor and Aldermen of Charleston, such election to be held on Monday, the twenty-first day of June, A. D. 1869.

We trust that these propositions will be promptly accepted, as they but recognize, in the accustomed mode, the right of the people to sit in judgment upon the conduct of their representatives.

to sit in judgment upon the conduct of their representatives.

The people expressing their will through the ballot-box constitute the highest tribunal known to a republican government.

As depublicans, we are willing to abide their verdict, trusting that they will happily select servants who will act in harmony for the public good, and secure an honest, faithful and economical administration of the city government.

Very respectfully,

JAMES F. GREENE, Alderman Ward No. 2.

DAVID BARBOW, Alderman Ward No. 3.

T. J. MACKEY, Alderman Ward No. 3.

W. B. H. HAMPTON, Alderman Ward No. 4.

LANCELOT F. WALL, Alderman Ward No. 5.

PHILIF M. THORNE, Alderman Ward No. 5.

EDWARD P. WALL, Alderman Ward No. 7.

This paper is signed by all of "the ten" ex-This paper is signed by all of "the ten" except Brown and Small, who are understood to be willing to resign if the rest do. The question is what will the Pillsbury party do? They seem to have the power to prevent a meeting of Council, and we can do very well without one. Why should they resign? If they are in the wrong they will not be re-elected, and had better stick. If they are acting conscientiously for the good of the city, why deprive the city of their services? It seems most likely that Mayor Pillsbury will make up his mind to stay, whatever the other side may do. We pay the money and he takes his choice, but it is none of our funeral!

KEROSENE ACCIDENT.-A kerosene lamp exploded last evening over the store of Mr. D. W. Goetjen, grocer, corner of King-street and Horlbeck's alley, seriously if not fatally burning Mrs. Goetjen, who was removed to an opposite residence to receive medical aid. Mr. Goetjen was slightly burned on the arms, trying to assist his wife. The engines were out, supposing that a fire had broken out.

SOUTHERN PROGRESS .- That the Southern mills are improving rapidly the quality and texture of the fabrics which they produce is shown by the samples which are found in our stores. The newly established companies are especially energetic, and the Randleman Manufacturing Company, of Randolph County, N. C., is turning out platd goods which are said to be the best in the market. Mr. A. Stevens, commission merchant, of Augusta, Ga., has the "Randleman plaids" for sale, and speaks very highly of them.

VISIT OF CHARLESTON FIREMEN TO SAVARNAR AND BRUNSWICE, GA .- The Savannah News of Saturday has the following:

Saturday has the following:

Yesterday the steamer Planter brought to Savannah the following named firemen members of the Stonewall, Vigilant, Etna and Truck No. 2 Companies of Charleston: H. W. Wray, J. F. DeLacey, B. S. Beigs, J. C. Bipley, B. M. Butler, Jr., M. B. Brown, George E. Strohecker and B. A. Horton.

They were taken in charge by several of the firemen of this city, entertained and shown the "sights" until the afternoon, when the steamer er left for Brunswick. She will stop here on her return trip and then go to Charleston. The object of these visiting firemen is pleasure only. May they have it.

Later.—The firemen did not go off on the steamer. They will probably leave to-day.

How IT WORKS .- A lady, who advertised in THE NEWS, on Saturday, for a servant, writes us requesting particularly that her advertisement be stopped, inasmuch as she was run down by applicants within a few hours after the first publication of her "want." Instances occur almost every day, illustrating the value of our advertising columns as a means for the supply of wants of all kinds, and for the recovery of lost and stolen articles.

LARCENIES.-Amond Kittle, colored, was arrested on Saturday, charged with robbing Mr. Jas. Minais, at the South Carolina Railroad. on the evening of the 3d instant, of a double case silver watch, a lot of clothing and tobacco. His case will be heard this morning at the Mayor's court.

Robert Mickles, colored, was sent to the House of Correction, on Saturday, for ten days, for stealing two glass jars from the residence of Mrs. Patterson, St. Philip-street.

Harriet Maxwell, colored, was arrested on Saturday, for robbing a private residence in Meeting-street, of one hundred and fifty dollars in greenbacks, a number of dresses, &c. She has owned up partially, and is held for further examination.
