A RISING ABTIST.—It is pleasing to note that the productions of a Southern artist are very favorably received by New York critics. The Evening Post tells us that: "At Snedecor's gallery, in Broadway, there are on exhibition tour pictures that well deserve the attention of all lovers of art. They are from the easel of the young artist. Mr. J. R. Key, who has devoted himself chiefly to landscape painting, but whose earliest considerable efforts were pictures of Fort Sumter and the entrance to Charleston harbor, taken at different periods of the memorable siege. These were so excellent as to attract the notice of Admiral Dalilgren, who at once gave the artist a commission to execute other pictures based upon the same stormy episode in our history." Many Charles- eighty-six. tonians will remember Mr. Key, who as a lieu. tenant in the Confederate service, was on duty here for a long time during the war.

The Secret of Success in Business.—This is a fact: The advertising patronage of a paper adicates not only the enterprise of the city and county where it is published, but it is also that it covers all such cases as the McKee tion of druggists in the city and throughout is a fact : The advertising patronage of a paper indicates not only the enterprise of the city an infallible proof that the business men are us a business community who don't advertise. and we'll show you a community where business is stagnated. The man who advertises in a liberal yet discrest manner, is sure to take the lead of his neighbor who don't spend a cent for printer's ink. It is also conceded that the man who advertises keeps a larger, better and more complete stock of goods, and sells them cheaper than the man who don't advertise. If you want good bargains, call on the man who advertises.

CITADEL SQUARE BAPTIST CHURCH PIONIC .-The Sunday school pupils of the above Church, with their Superintendent, Mr. John G. Milnor, teachers and friends, repaired to Payne's farm yesterday afternoon, to continue their annual celebration began in the church on last Sunday. Mr. William S. Henerey was muster of ceremonies, at the corner of Line and Meeting-streets, where he saw the little ones safe in Graham's omnibusses, in which they were comfortably conveyed to the pleasure ground. Here the committee, consisting of Messrs. William G. Whilden, chairman, Zimmerman Davis, H. B. Olney, A. J. Salinas, J. E. Burk, George W. McKeever and A. Prince and Miss Olney, Mrs. Stocker, Mrs. Steedman, Mrs. Shepherd, and Mrs E. H. Jackson, and Misses Whilden, Heriot, Shepherd and Brodie, were in attendance to arrange matters. While the preliminaries for dinner were being arranged, the children played games, rambled in the woods, &c. Several paper balloons, six, eight, and fifteen feet high. nade for the occassion by Mr. R. M. Alexander, were sent up by him, and were eagerly watched until they floated out of sight. The dinner bell rang, and the teachers and scholars assembled in front of the house and then marched to the tables well supplied with good things, of which they bountifully partook. While there, Rev. Dr. Winkler addressed them in some appropriate remarks. After surfeit ing themselves with enjoyment, they returned to the city highly delighted with the pleasant day that they had spent.

The Spring-street Church and Northern Methodist Preachers.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS. During my late absence from the city, there appeared in your journal T. W. Lewis and A. Webster, denying the statement of my circular. that their church obtained and held Spring-street Church and the McKee estate by military authority.

Their communication wears on its face the expression of injured innocence, and the holy purposes of ambassadors of peace and truth. They say they hold not by the military, but by tender to him (Lewis,) by a vote taken at a "largely attended and duly notified public meeting." Shades of Blackstone! and Mar-"largely attended and daily notined public meeting." Shades of Blackstone! and Marshall! Titles to property by "vote of public meeting!" What will our learned bar say to this mode of getting titles to property? They have usually called for "signing, sealing and delivering," by "trustees," of church property. The bayonet is the only other mode, unless sponsibility.

The above agrees with the spirit and temper of their church. The Secretary of War gives the following order of date November 30, 1883: "That all the houses of worship belonging to the M. E. Church South, in which a loyal minister, who has been appointed by a loyal bishop, does not now officiate, are hereby placed at the disposal of Rev. Bishop Ames," (Northern histor.)

the disposal of Nev. Bishop Ames," (Northern bishop.)

My Church came under that description.

Mr. Lewis says in his notice above that he held by order of the War Department.

There is now before me a military order dated November 18, 1867, refusing to give us back our church, and refers to a former act by which we were deprived of it. These men, with seeming injured innocence, should ask with Donna Julia:

with seeming injured innocence, should ask with Donna Julia:

"Antonia, where's my pecket handkerchief?"

As to the hickee estate, they denythe "bayonet" as depriving us of it by a special pleading disgusting to those who know the shifts taken before the provost court in this city, which the citizens never can forget, to deprive us of it. Our church carried the decision of the first military court, by appeal, to the higher bayonet authority, but the bayonet gave it to them. Rev. L. C. Loyal, a more truthful manthe city cangot furnish, tells me that, in purchasing back Spring-street Church from Mr. Lewis, the military trustee, Mr. Lewis required, at first besides the money, titles to the McGee estate and also to old Bethel from our church.

Our friends in the country should know that get the lessons taught them by us in their new fellowship.

I have done with these men. They attacked my circular three times, first, personally; second, in their own paper of May 19; then in yours of 29th ult. I now dismiss them. They may cry "peaco" as they stir up strife, speak of "respectability" as they degrade, profess honesty as Iago, and boast their church wealth as Butter can of trecons much as they desce E. M. J. Selvas as Butler can of spoons as much as they please for me. The above I deem due to the appeal which I made in behalf of my dilapidated J. J. M. church, that these men should not projudice the object of Christian benevolence by putting my church in a false position.
