A NEGRO BOY STABBED.—On Tuesday afternoon last four negro boys got into a difficulty, in front of Lynch-street, during which one of them was stabbed three times with a pocket knife.

THE DEFENSE OF MASTER THOMAS TAOUPE, colored, has, we learn, recently played to full houses in Savannah, and will, in a few days, give all who desire to attend such performances an opportunity to do so.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Night before last Mr. Jacob Goetjen died very suddenly. It is believed that his death was occasioned from drinking too much water while fatigued and excessively warm.

THE NEWS IN THE COUNTRY.—Readers of THE NEWS going to the country can receive their favorite paper by mail, daily, at seven-fifty cents a month, by addressing a note, with their subscription, to our publication office.

A BALL TROUBLE.—Mrs. Saxe and Miss Fannie Saxe were arraigned before the Mayor yesterday, and fined five dollars each, for having a ball without a permit, on Calhoun-street, and bawling out profane and abusive language.

A HINT FOR DULL TIMES.—Take advantage of the cheap reduction in prices, and prepare for the approaching business season by having your job printing neatly, expeditiously and cheaply done at THE NEWS JOB OFFICE, No. 149 East Bay.

THE PHILADELPHIA LINE OF STEAMERS.—The fine steamer J. W. Everman, Captain Snyder, will resume her place on the Philadelphia line, leaving on Saturday morning, and making regular trips with the Prometheus. Messrs. J. & T. Getty are the agents of the line in this city.

RED HOT AND STILL HEATING was the mildest term that was applied to the weather yesterday morning. On accommodation wharf the mercury reached 98. At one P. M. it was 95 in THE NEWS OFFICE, and at the end of the sun soon registered 127. The thunder storm in the afternoon cooled the temperature considerably, and at three o'clock the mercury had sunk to 88 degrees.

A CHILD WHIPPED TO DEATH.—A day or two since a negro woman living at Myrtle Grove, on the Combahee River, took her child into the woods, whipped her severely and went off. Shortly after she called the child, and receiving no answer, went to the spot where she was left and found her dead. Magistrate Colcock held an inquest, and a verdict was given in accordance with the above statement.

COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS.—Up to the present writing neither Dr. Mackey nor Mr. Clark has returned to the city. The new Collector, who has the power to appoint five clerks, eight inspectors, two watchmen, two porters, and four boatmen, will make a clean sweep of the old officers. The two appraisers are appointed by the President on the recommendation of the Secretary of the Treasury. It is stated that Mr. Clark has offered to retain Alderman T. J. Mackey and Mr. Arthur Mackey, but both have refused to remain. The friends of Dr. Mackey are still confident that the appointment of Mr. Clark will not be confirmed by the Senate. Governor Geary, of Pennsylvania, is, with other prominent men, laboring zealously in the interests of Dr. M., who still declares that he has no desire for the office, but only opposes Mr. Clark because he is not acceptable in any way either to Republicans or Democrats, neither party knowing where to place him.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—The Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy return their grateful acknowledgments for the generous contributions of the following gentlemen of the City of New York, through the influence of Mr. Edward Daly, No. 224 Chambers-street, New York: D. Lane, Esq., Steeple Hotel, 110, F. Lynch, Esq., 450, J. Donahoe & Sons, Front-street, 225; B. Early, Esq., 230; H. T. Cullen, M. D., Brooklyn, 225; John Braxman, Esq., Fulton-street, 85; Olinpat & Guelday, Park Row, 25; J. Quinlan, Esq., William-street, two cases of glassware; Major J. D. Kelly, two barrels of flour; Mr. James Murphy, one box of summer hats.

NEW DRY GOODS HOUSE.—Mr. Henry Campsen, who for many years past has been connected with the firm of Ufford & Campsen, has withdrawn from it and opened a dry goods establishment at No. 228 King-street. He has purchased a valuable new stock from New York. It is a stock exactly suited for this section, and could only have been selected by a person of experience, to which title Mr. C. can most justly lay claim. In selecting, he had in view both quality and cheapness, and we venture to assert that at no place in the city are the rates more reasonable. Mr. C., in addition to his experience, is energetic, knows the wants of the people, and is determined to suit them, in which effort he cannot fail of success.

UNITED STATES COURT, July 14.—Hon. Geo. S. Bryan, Judge, presiding.—The following business was disposed of to-day: In the case of J. M. Blackler, creditor, vs. Wm. T. Farley, petition to establish lien, it was ordered that the creditor have leave within thirty days to establish his lien.

In the case of Thomas W. Harlow vs. W. W. Harlow, petition to establish lien, the report of the registrar was confirmed.

The Judge ordered that notice be published in the proceedings of court that the Admiralty Docket would be called and finally disposed of on next Friday, at 10 o'clock.

WHAT PROMISES DID.—THE NEWS learns that when Joseph H. Jenks was canvassing for the office of City Inspector he very unwisely promised work to all the colored men who applied. The result of the rash promises was shown yesterday. About five hundred negroes besieged the lower portion of the City Hall building, in which are located the detective office, sheriff and inspector's offices. The negroes, in their efforts to see the Inspector, pushed in at the front and back doors and endeavored to get through the iron gratings of the windows. If any one showed himself at a window from the inside, a hundred or more petitions were shoved at him, and he was asked if he "didn't know Pete," or "Jim," or "Sam," as the case might be, who he had promised work to.

By nine o'clock the crowd became so disorderly that a dozen policemen were detailed to prevent them from crowding around the doors and windows, which had excluded the six and nearly exhausted those within. Policemen were also stationed inside at the front and rear doors to prevent the entrance of all other and employment seekers. The crowd hung around the building until two o'clock, and then slowly dispersed. It is understood that the Inspector has employment for about one hundred men, and that he is sending a paper bill on Sprague's Canal, at Columbia, with the numberless petitions he has received.

THE TRAIL FOR AN ADVERTISING CARD.—It is known that the Trustees of the Charleston College have control of $150,000; therefore, to be trusted is to "have a good thing," and Alderman Collins wanted to be a trail for the money arranged by the Pillsbury company, held before the meeting on Friday night last, was Alderman Geddinas, Potter and Cunningham. Owing to the lateness of the hour, they were not voted for at that meeting, but then there Alderman Collins stated substantially that there was corruption among those who had promised to vote the caucus ticket arranged that day; he had promised to vote a certain way, and would do so; he would vote for any man on the ticket, no matter how repulsive he might be.

Now, as we have said, Alderman Collins wanted to be a trustee. Tuesday night the caucus ticket was put up, so was another ticket, the last by Alderman Collins. On one side there was an advertisement of the drug store of M. H. Collins (Alderman Collins) & Co., stating how their "fever and ague remedy" could "cure chills and fever," on the other; "Trustees Charleston College—T. J. Mackey, J. F. Greene, M. H. Collins." T. J. Mackey's name was put on the ticket to draw himself and friends to support M. H. Collins.

Although Alderman Collins' ticket was arranged for the "hazy," either politically or physically, it did not work, and the regular caucus ticket was elected. He proposed for Commissioners of the Alms House the following ticket, on the back of an advertising card also, which was defeated: Alderman E. W. M. Mackey; Alderman E. P. Wall, colored; Alderman Philip Thorne, colored; Alderman R. H. Hampton, colored; Alderman T. R. Small, colored; Alderman David Barrow; Alderman L. F. Wall, colored; Malcolm Brown, Jr., colored; Julius Romillat, partner of Collins; Richard Hogan; H. A. Duc, Sr.; Alderman M. H. Collins.

Alderman Collins' manner of introducing his tickets on the back of his advertising cards has occasioned considerable comment, some asserting that it was a shrewd advertising dodge, and others that he was not willing to pay the extra stamps necessary to obtain new cards. If an advertising dodge, it is something new, yet the Alderman's ticket wouldn't go down.

CAUTION.—The frozen were called out late Tuesday night, but there was no fire. The City Treasury, yesterday, was enriched to the amount of $35 by the fines imposed by the Mayor.

The new benches on the Battery are made of unseasoned yellow pine, consequently persons who have sat upon them remained longer than they intended, and besides the loss of time, ruined their clothing.

It would be a great accommodation to the ladies if the Street Railway Company would place a platform from the Battery terminus to the sidewalk.

Alderman T. J. Mackey denies the truth of the report in yesterday's Courier, that Benjamin Bail, one of the clerks on Sheriff Mackey's staff, and John O. Fremont, another clerk, has threatened to withdraw.

W. B. Mitchell, the Clerk of Council elect, has not before this taken possession of his office, because, as he says, the present incumbent has not been ready to turn over the books and papers, and will not do so until the discharge of his duties at 15 o'clock to-day.

It appears that we were in error in stating yesterday that all the Aldermen, save Small and McKinlay, ordered, were at the Jenks' entertainment on Monday evening, as we have since learned that two others, Geddinas and Potter, were not there. Ferdinand Carri, a native of Columbia, has created quite a furor among the music-loving citizens of Washington by his performance on the violin. On Friday night last he visited the White House, and entertained President Grant and family with several choice selections.

THE CATERPILLAR IN FLORIDA.—The Savannah News makes the following extracts from letters received by a factor in that city, from reliable parties in Florida, in relation to the appearance of the caterpillar in that State: Ocala, Fla., July 9, 1889.

The caterpillar has made its appearance beyond a doubt. There is scarcely a cotton weed on our place that has not one or more leaves eaten. We are no alarmist and looked upon the cry raised some weeks ago as unfounded; but we can deceive ourselves no longer; the fly can be seen in the evening in countless numbers. ELEVILLE, Fla., July 6, 1889.

The pest of Florida is commencing its work of destruction in Alachua County, and I have heard of some in Columbia, but have not seen any on my farm. The cotton crop is growing very fast, and if it were not for the worm a fair crop could be raised; but Alachua is one of our richest planting counties, and as the fly are already there the crop will necessarily be a short one.

THE DETECTIVE FORCE.—At the last meeting of Council an ordinance was introduced relative to the Detective force of Charleston. The ordinance provides that the Detective force shall be entirely independent of the Police Department. To the Detective force of Charleston the citizens have been, in a great measure, indebted for the infrequency of crime, as it is well known that when the detectives have been "put upon a case" it has been thoroughly "worked up," this of course deterring the wicked from prosecuting their nefarious designs. For this reason the Detective force should be sustained. Those who are informed assert that a Detective force to be efficient must be independent of the Police Department, and must have its own officers and its own rules and regulations. If such be the case, and there seems to be no reason to doubt it, Council should, at the next meeting, adopt the ordinance. It is essential that the city should continue to have what it has had for several months past—an industrious, competent detective force.
