A MOTHER ACCIDENTALLY KILLS HER BABY.—On Saturday last, Coroner Whiting held an inquest upon the body of an infant. The mother, who lives on Rutledge Avenue, testified that she had overheard it, and there being nothing to create even a suspicion that the infant had come to its death from any other cause, the jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

STEAMERS DETAINED.—A heavy northeast gale having been blowing here for several days, it has caused the detention of a number of vessels, among them the steamship Saragossa and Tillie for New York, Prometheus for Philadelphia, and Falcon for Baltimore.

ANOTHER DEAD BABY.—On Saturday last, while some children were playing in a cellar of a house on the east side of Coming, between Woutworth and Beaufain streets, they found a herring box partially buried. It was broken open and the corpse of a young babe found.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—About nine o'clock Saturday, Mrs. Miles, who is about eighty-seven years of age, met with a painful accident at the residence of her relative, H. T. Peake, Esq., on Rutledge Avenue.

THE ARSON CASE.—Mollie Blewitt, who was arrested upon the charges of beating another woman and putting a lighted torch under said woman's house, was acquitted of the last and bound over to keep the peace on the first charge.

ARMS FOR THE NEGRO MILITIA.—Deputy Constable Kenned arrived in Hamburg a few days since, with his quota of arms for the negro militia at that point.

A MATCH GAME OF BASE BALL was played Saturday afternoon between the Pacific and Charleston clubs, on the lot at the corner of Broad and Rutledge streets.

NEW SEA ISLAND COTTON.—There was received on Saturday last, by our factors, four bags of the new crop of South Carolina sea island cotton, as follows: One bag grown by Mr. George Martineau, Edisto Island, consigned to W. O. Courtney & Co.; one bag grown by Mr. Edward Whaley, Edisto, and one grown by Lancaster & Howe, Wadmalaw, both consigned to Fraser & Dill; one bag grown on James Island by George Habebeth, and consigned to Wm. O. Peo & Co.

GEORGIA RECRUITS FOR CUBA.—The American Courier, of Wednesday, says considerable hubbub was created in that city on noon on Wednesday, by the capture of three would-be defectors of the Island of Cuba.

There is needed a broom both long and strong to sweep out the stables of South Carolina Radicalism. No sooner is one crime exposed than another demands attention; no sooner is one instance of Radical ignorance in high places brought to light than a new batch requires to be put on exhibition.

WHO AND WHAT HE IS! Aaron Logan is a colored man, about twenty-eight years of age, and black as the ace of spades. There is an illness in his manner which is very taking on first acquaintance, and as he has a good memory and can spout constitutions and orations by the hour, he is a small deity among the negroes in St. Thomas' and the adjoining parishes.

WHERE HE AMUSED HIMSELF BY BROKING STONES. The why and wherefore are these: Logan arrested a gentleman named Fraser on the charge that he had prevented the negroes from voting. At night Mr. Fraser was dragged by a squad of armed negroes across the country to Charleston, being taken off the road here and there by his captors to be exhibited to the negroes on the different places near to which they passed.

TRIED BY MILITARY COMMISSION. And sentenced to two years' imprisonment, which afterward was commuted to six months. This term he passed in Fort Macon, as already stated. Logan would have been in the Legislature, but for his imprisonment. The jail and the gallows in this way reduce the supply of raw material in a very unenviable manner.

WE ARE ALSO TOLD THAT LOGAN BROUGHT A tract of land which he was to hold in trust for a colored people. But Logan was sharp. He had the titles drawn in his own name, and now this very land is soon to be sold by the sheriff for Logan's private debts. The delinquent colored people will, we fear, have no redress.

LOGAN WAS QUOT FOR A while, and being an eminently proper person, was appointed a magistrate. Then, indeed, he had the parish under his control, as soon became evident. Formerly he gathers the colored people in crowds of four hundred and five hundred, whom he entertains with his denunciation of the whites. In fact, he has had his own way in everything. Some time ago Mr. L. P. Smith, a planter in Christ Church Parish, had some trouble with a negro woman named Hannah Deveaux, which ended in Hannah being charged with assault and battery.

IN JULY LAST a colored man went to Mr. L. P. Smith, who was then on his plantation, and said he had orders to arrest him. Mr. Smith asked what his warrant was. The colored man answered that "he did not know what the warrant was," but he would go and find out. Nothing more was heard of the affair until Thursday last, when it came to a head.

FOUR NEGROES ARREST A WHITE MAN. On the previous night (Wednesday) four armed negroes arrested George Brown, a servant of Mr. Smith's, on the public highway, saying that they had orders from Magistrate Logan to arrest him. Logan was not present to ascertain the business of every one whom they saw. Brown told them where he was going, and was taken under guard to his destination. What was the purpose of these armed men, in prowling at night around Mr. Smith's plantation, can easily be guessed by the light of subsequent events. On the following morning, the same four negroes, armed to the teeth, arrested Mr. Smith and took him before Logan, who was nine miles off.

WHEN LOGAN HAD finished his breakfast, he went into the room where Mr. Smith was. LOGAN (to Mr. Smith). "Take your hat off." MR. SMITH. "You have not opened your court, and there is no necessity to do what you say."

LOGAN (savagely). "You had better!" Some time passed and Logan gave no sign of hearing the case. Mr. Smith then told Logan that he would waive an examination, and give bail to appear for trial. Logan replied that he would not take bail, and would examine the case himself. There was nothing to do but await the pleasure of this negro magistrate, and several hours later the prosecutor, Hannah Deveaux, came. Logan then opened a book, read a statement previously made by the prosecutor, and asked her whether that was what she swore to. Of course she said yes, the charge being assault and battery.

LOGAN next asked Mr. Smith if whenever the case was properly heard, so that he might know the evidence and circumstances, the witnesses, he would give his testimony. LOGAN. "Have you anything to say?" MR. SMITH. "Not until I hear the evidence against me."

LOGAN. "If you don't answer I will commit you if I see fit. Will you answer, I say? Do you decline to give evidence?" SMITH. "Yes! except under proper circumstances."

LOGAN. "Then I And you guilty of assault and battery."

IT WAS Logan's evident desire to send Mr. Smith to jail, but he promptly gave bail. When the recognisances were signed, Logan said to Mr. Smith, "I will commit you to jail for contempt of court." Logan drew up the commitment, imposing a fine of $10 and 24 hours' imprisonment. Mr. Smith asked to be allowed to get a change of clothing. This was refused, and the prisoner was brought to Charleston and carried to jail by Logan's negro guard.

MR. SMITH at once sued out a warrant against Logan for false imprisonment and official misconduct, and the case will be heard on Wednesday.

him to jail for "contempt of court." What this "contempt" was, we do not know. The only crime that Mr. Smith committed, that we see, is that he did not take off his hat until the court opened. And for this, twenty-four hours in jail and $10 fine!!! Mr. Smith is a Northern man and is highly esteemed by his neighbors.

A SHOOTING SCRAP NEAR HAMBURG.—The Augusta Chronicle of yesterday says that a shooting scrap occurred near Hamburg on Saturday afternoon between two young men, John Henry Key, Jr., and Freeman Powell, in which the former received a pistol ball in his left ankle, which passed between the bones and tendons without serious injury, the wounded man being able to walk about the streets after the occurrence. The difficulty, as we understand it, is of rather a mysterious nature, the parties having previously been friendly. Key, as we learn, had walked down the railroad and joined company with Powell, when the latter urged the former to go home with him. Key declined, when Powell proposed to shoot him if he did not. Key treated the threat with indifference, not believing it uttered in earnest; but Powell put it in execution, firing three shots, one of which took effect as above noted, and then fled, not affording Key an opportunity to recover from his surprise and retaliation. There are one or two constables in Hamburg at present, from Edgefield Courthouse, who are reported to be in pursuit of Powell for an assault made on Woolly, the tax collector, in which the latter is said to have suffered a loss of two or three lingua dentata from a blow in the mouth.

THE BOAT RACE.—By half-past five o'clock Saturday afternoon, quite a large number of ladies and gentlemen had assembled on the Battery, to witness the proposed race between the boats Oriole and Blacksnake. There was a stiff breeze blowing and a heavy sea rolling, and was generally believed that the boats would be unable to pull over the course marked out, viz: from the Water Point buoy to a point three quarters of a mile distant off the Battery, to be marked by the boat Louly. Yet the crews determined to ascertain for themselves, and little before six pulled out towards the buoy, but were soon convinced that it was also impossible to have the race as designed, and at the suggestion of the judges, concluded to have the race up the river, and accordingly rowed to Chisolm's mill. Their destination was unknown to the assemblage on the Battery, and the report being circulated that the race was postponed, the people, about half-past six o'clock, dispersed.

The boats reached the mill about six o'clock, and the judges, Captain James Fraser, starting judge for the Oriole, and Mr. L. Chisolm for the Blacksnake; Messrs. F. J. Porcher, W. G. DeSaussure and J. F. Mathews, deciding judges, agreed that the race should be from Chisolm's wharf to a point marked by the Louly, just beyond the New Bridge, the distance being about a mile. It was also decided that as the Blacksnake had only six oars, while her opponent had eight, she should be allowed six seconds.

The crews were: Mr. John W. Lewis, Jr., coxswain; D. D. Parker, stroke; William O. Webb, R. M. Means, J. A. DeSaussure, H. N. Parker, J. H. Roper, H. A. DeSaussure, J. R. Mathews, of the Oriole; William Coffin, coxswain; H. B. Bull, stroke; George Edwards, N. Simons, E. R. Simons, G. O. Gallard, W. A. Pringle, of the Blacksnake.

Shortly after six o'clock the signal to start was given by the firing of a pistol. The Oriole made a half length at the first jump, and continued to gain. When half way she was about six lengths ahead, and at the terminus was twenty-two yards in advance. The time was: Oriole, 6 minutes 15 seconds; Blacksnake, 7 minutes and 10 seconds; the Oriole winning by 48 seconds.

There were very few spectators, and consequently there was not as much excitement as at the late international race, but still there was considerable excitement and enjoyment to those who were present. We hope that the race will be repeated at an early day.

CHUMBS.—That portion of State-street, between Chalmers and Broad streets, will be paved shortly. No cases of interest were before the Mayor Saturday.

The Chamber of Commerce will meet Tuesday night in the Hibernian Hall. Charles Jones alias Lafayette, who was arrested on suspicion of creating a watch and chain from Mrs. Kinsman, proved his innocence and was discharged. A white woman stole them.

Saturday morning Octavius Nelson, colored, reported to the detective office with an old coat and a gold watch, stating that they had been dropped the night before by a colored woman. Officer Holloway worked up the case and found the owner, W. T. Mitchell, from whom the articles had been stolen.

The returns of incomes of professional men to the City Assessor was for six months instead of ten, as stated.

The Legal Debating Society will meet this evening. It is stated that the house which was pulled down to make room for the new buildings at the corner of Broad and Church streets, was the second house built in Charleston.

The White Sulphur Springs rejoice in the presence of Blague Bey, a Minister of Turkey, while the Charleston Hotel boarders rejoice in Turkey with glee, which is a hundred per cent better than the first.

A noop paper, to be published semi-occasionally, to be called "The Artful Dodger," will, it is reported, make its appearance at an early day.

Hamburg proposes to charge the Columbia and Augusta Railroad $50,000 for the privilege of going through the town.

The steamship Manhattan sailed from New York Saturday. There was such a pressure of freight that her agents had to stop receiving orders before her departure.

The steamship Saragossa, Prometheus, and the Tillie, (which put in here for coal), and the Falcon, are detained by the heavy weather.

Mr. James Mortimer, of South Carolina, received the decoration of the Legion of Honor on the 15th of last month, at the centenary celebration of the great Napoleon's birthday. Mr. Mortimer has resided in Paris for several years as a correspondent of the American press.

It has been ascertained, by a close inspection of the Savannah registry lists, that nine-tenths of the colored people who register here, are not residents of the city over five years, being residents from the up-country and South Carolina.

THE JEWISH NEW YEAR.—At sunset yesterday commenced the Jewish Civil year. The festival is called Rosh Ha Shana, and is one of the most strictly observed of all the holy days in the Jewish Calendar. The year of the Hebrews is composed of twelve and occasionally of thirteen lunar months, of thirty and twenty-nine days alternately. The year begins in autumn, as to the Civil year, and in the spring as to the Sacred year. The first month of the Sacred year, the seventh month of the Civil year, answers generally to the moon of March and April. The first of the Civil year, which is to be observed on Monday and Tuesday, includes the Feast of Trumpets, in obedience to the command—"In the Seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a Sabbath, a memorial of blowing trumpets, a holy convocation." All the synagogues will be opened during the two days of the festival, and among the Hebrews the religious duties and strict attention to the religious duties enjoined by the Rabbis. The New Year also commences the day of penitence, the last of which is called the "Yom Kipur" or day of atonement.

The Pilotage Question. TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS. We had no intention of entering into a newspaper controversy with the newly appointed pilots—our end having been answered when we gave their names to the public. The merchants and mariners of this port can readily discover the sort of merit and capacity possessed by these men if they choose further to inquire.

We saw cards from four of them in your journal of the 2d instant, which would have been noticed sooner but for more important engagements.

The first is from Edward Jenkins, a colored man, who very properly heads the list, as his race is now in the ascendant. We feel very sure of his good fortune, and have no prejudice against him on account of his color, we would rather encourage him than otherwise. He is civil, and we honestly believe is the best pilot in the port.

The next card is from Frederick Fisher. We retract nothing we said of this "young man" of twenty-two years. We still regard him as entirely incompetent to discharge the duties of a pilot. He attempts to make capital out of his youth, but we grove to say this gives no promise for the future. His communication compels us to say that, from our knowledge of his mental capacity he is not likely to improve either by age or experience.

Charles Camp comes next. As regards the degree of liability to be attached to his many statements, it is only necessary for us to ask if we can deny that it was proved in evidence before the United States Marshal to be obtained and his license by fraud and misrepresentation, and that it was subsequently taken from him? We can deny that it also came out in evidence that he had perjured himself on a witness, who has never yet been recovered from him as far as our knowledge goes?
