LECTURE BY A BLIND MAN. -Mr. John W. Beahan, a blind man, a native of this city, will deliver a lecture on the Education of the Blind, at the Market Hall, to-night.

A VALUABLE COLLECTION OF PAINTINGS, -A fine collection of paintings from the easels of the most noted artists, both native and foreign, will be offered for sale on Thursday next, by Messrs Leitch & Bruns. The paintings comprise every variety of subjects, fancy sketches and scenes from nature, and are enclosed in highly orna-mented frames. The collection will be open for Inspection at the new building in Broad street, SUDDEN DEATH .- Mr. Henry Oction, an old resident of this city, died suddenly, on Saturday, from disease of the heart. He had eaten his dinner and was in apparent good health when the strok came without warning. By his industrious and frugal habits Mr. Octjen had acquired a nice property, and was among our most respected German fellow-citizens. He was fifty-six years of age, four years. He leaves a wife and four children.

AN INVOLUNTARY BATH .- Early yesterday morning, while a benighted individual was torte ously wending his way homeward, he encounter ed the Artesian Well troughs, in Wentworth street. The sight of so much water evidently made him sea sick, and a sudden lurch destroying his equilibrium, he was placed hors du cor bat at the bottom of the trough. The situation was embarrassing, but the ducking proved more officacious than the famous "hock and soda." and he resumed his homeward tramp a wetter and a wiser man, though more firmly convinced that water should be taken with moderation

ACCIDENT TO THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.-The eavy rain of Friday night caused some damage to the ceiling of the Opera-House, a portion of the fresco work having been saturated with water which caused it to fall to the ground. It appears that a skylight over the third tier had not bee proved an insufficient protection, but the damage was fortunately confined to the scroll work and jured, it would have been a much more serious matter. It is proposed, notwithstanding the accident, to have the interior scanolding removed by Tuesday night, so as to allow the upholsterers

A CONSTABLE OUTWITTED. The constable whose mishaps, in pursuit of an escaped prison er, have been already chronicled, was again made the victim of misplaced confidence. A few days since, he traced his man to the South Carolina Railroad depot, and then and there seized him The game was snared and all seemed serene, but the wily prisoner proved again to be too smart for his captor, and raising his stick he tapped the constable on the cranium. The blow was given with a vim. and the constable, wilting under its effects, relaxed his hold and the quondam prisoner measured off the ground on a lively pair of legs. The constable registered a huge oath that he won't be outwitted the next time.

PILOTAGE. The Philadelphia Ledger says "At a meeting of the vessel owners and captains' association of Philadelphia, on Wednesday, the attention of the board of directors was called to fliegal charges for pilotage in Charleston harbor S. O. It is the custom there to charge full pilotage at very high rates against all vessels, whether and a resolution passed instructing the captains of enrolled and licensed in the coasting trade not to pay pllotage on arriving at or departing from the port of Charleston unless a pilot renders service. As litigation may result, it was also resolved that the association will defend all suits arising under the foregoing resolution."

SURVIVORS' ASSOCIATION FOR RICHLAND. A meeting was held in Columbia on Saturday as ning to form this association. General Wa Hampton was called to the chair, and Mr. R. C. Shiver was appointed secretary. The meeting or-ganized itself into a Survivors' Association, adopt-ed a constitution, and elected the following officers: Wade Hampton, president: William Wal. vice-presidents; W. K. Bachman, secretary; R. C. Shiver, treasurer. Steps were taken to increase the list of members, and the following gentlemen were appointed to represent the Richland Survivors' Association in the proposed convention to form a State association, which is to meet in the City of Charleston on the 18th instant: Wade Adams, William Wallace, J. H. Kinsler, William Weston, J. P. Thomas, R. C. Shiver, Edward Per-

TO SUBSCRIBERS FOR CHINAMEN. -The Savan nah Republican says: "After a consultation with the sub-agent at this place, we feel it to be our duty to advise those who have contracted with Mr. Joseph, of San Francisco, for Chinese Inbor-ers, not to depend upon them for the crop of 1870, but to go on and hire other hands as usual. We the integrity or good faith of Mr. Joseph or his company -and he has stipulated for no particular day for their delivery, the uncertainties of the sens making it inexpedient-but we are convinced, in intervene, that the laborers cannot be got here in time to put in the coming crop. We believe they will be here during the spring or early summer dy supplied with satisfactory force, there will e no difficulty in getting either class of laborer

LECTURE OF THE RIGHT REV. BISHOP LYNCH A large and attentive audience assembled last evening, in St. Patrick's Church, to hear a lecture from Bishop Lynch on the "Liquefaction of the blood of St. Januarius." The Bishop gave his audience a vivid description of a visit to Italy, with full details of the miracle as witnessed by himself. He depicted in glowing colors the trials of the saint, and his martyrdom about fifteen centuries ago, and closed with a life-like picture of Naples and the church where the miracle oc curs. St. Januarius was killed by Dioclescan, on the 19th September, 505, and every year since, at the same date, his blood, which was carefully preserved, is said to be liquified. The Bishop kept the attention of his audience to the close of the lecture. It was given to defray the debt of the church, and will realize a handsome amount. The audience was comprised of every denomina ion, and numbers who could not obtain seats remained standing.

WALHALLA .- The Oconce Courier gives this sketch of the Village by the Ridge: "There is no need of idleness here. Work, work, is the great Work, work, is the great want. There is activity in every branch of indus try. Buildings are going up from the depot to the north end, and the saw and hammer of the carpenter are busy. Old buildings are being refitted and repainted, adding to the appearance of the place. The forge of the smith is not allowed to get cold. Everybody that wants employment is busy, and the loafer, the drone of society, finds no associates. Walhalia is growing and spread ing out her arms, inviting trade. Already in area and inhabitants, she is ahead of her sister towns of the mountains. Her business houses are mo town. A generous competition governs in every branch of trade, giving the farmer the best price for his produce and the cheapest market to sup-ply his wants. New corn opened in this place at $1 per bushel, old corn is still selling at $1 50 Cotton was sold here last week at 23% to 24 cents.'

THERAN CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL.-The exercises of this school were agreeably diversified yesterday afternoon by speeches from some of the pupils and singing by the school in concert. The church the centre aisle, the occupants of which were forced to find accommodation elsewhere. Speeche were made by the following young gentlemen, at of whom acquitted themselves handsomely: St. Clair West, "Perseverance;" Herbert Smith peal for Teachers;" Julian Smith, "The best that I can do;" Charles von Santen, "It is more blessed to give;" Christopher Tidemann, "Childhood's Home," The young speakers handled their and The young speakers handled their subjects like born orators, and only the sacredness of the place and the recollection of the day prevented their receiving their meed of applause. The ex-ercises were varied by singing, in which the little choristers showed great proficiency. An address, suitable to the occasion was delivered by Rev. Dr. Hicks. The Sunday school is under the superin endence of Mr. Robert Chisolm, and is in a flour

BOWEN AND MACKEY-ALMOST A BLOODY ENCOUNTER .- About two o'clock on Saturday afternoon, when business men were preparing to go to their dinners, an incident took place which varied, in a rather agreeable manner, the duliness that reigned around the historic corners of Broad and Meeting streets. Ex-Alderman Thomas Jefferson Mackey was standing near the guard-bouse-conversing with Officer-Nipson and Rounds-man Read, when his cagle eye espled the Honorable Christopher Columbus Bowen coming from the direction of the Fireproof building. Promptly crossing over to the Courthouse corner, Mackey confronted Bowen, whom he accosted in language decidedly more forcible than elegant. He said that having heard that he (Bowen) had expressed a desire to meet him in reference to the letter pub-lished in THE NEWS of Saturday morning, he (Mackey) had come to reassert to his face the charges that had been made in print. And this he proceeded to do in a de-liberate and not very genteel fashion. The conologue (for Bowen spoke not a word) was interspersed with spicy allusions to the Honorable panied with gestures which might fairly be set down as unmistakable symptoms of an over-do of morphine. Bowen, however, seems to have neglected to take his dose of the pugnacity-in spiring drug, and muttering something about not wishing to soil his (not over-clean) hands by outhing his assailant, made a desperate and Courthouse entrance. Once within its sheltering portals. vengeful Mackey was left out in the cold.

sault and battery on Angelo Cervetes. The affray courred on Union wharf.

Annie Adams, for stealing ninety dollars in money and two coats, was arrested by Office Lovett and committed for investigation. A little son of Wm. Hanley's was run over by an express wagon in King street last Friday even-ing. Though seriously injured, no bones were broken. The three hundred dollar music box railled a Von Santen's, was won by Miss Emily C. Ravenel. Mr. Peabody's death was announced to the teachers of the public schools on Saturday, and the exercises of their schools closed from respect to his memory. by Officer Lovett on the schooner N. W. Smith. The captain stated that it had been picked up

A fracas was threatened on Saturday evening etween some of the employees at the South Carolina Railroad shops and the police were sent for, but the crowd dispersed without my disturbance. It is rumored that a cocklight will soon take place between two "stags" from Georgetown au Charleston, at one hundred dollars a side. Hugh Craig has been appointed by Governo Scott judge of probate for Chesterfield County. Charles Edmondston, magistrate for Barnwell County, has been removed. The respective chiefs of the rival Radical clanare evidently on the alert to concillate the men of the "rich Irish brogne." Pillsbury and Mackey were attentive and conspicuous listeners to the lecture of Bishop Lynch at St. Patrick's Church last evening. Nutf ced.

Tribute of Respect.

wood, pine, &c., much of it vory fine cotton land, finely watered and offering aburdant, winterpasturage:

First. BELLE-MONT. a.very choica  Pantiation of over eight hundred acres, on wateree River, three miles from Camden, with a large settlement on it; will produce, without manures, a bale of cotton or seventy-live bushels of corn to the acre. This is regarded as the best body of land on the Wateree River.

Second. TOWN CREEK PLANTATION, adjoining the above, consists of four thousand live hundred acres, recently held as one large plantation; comprising swamp, second bottom, and uplands, heavily timbered and finely watered, having two fine streams running through it. The South Carolina Railroad and two public highways run through these lands and render them accessible at all points. They are very convenient to Camden; the uplands are perfectly healthful and present rare advantages.

This place is subdivided into and will be sold as twenty-one farms of one hundred to four hundred acres, offering a rare opportunity to settlers seeking homes. Adjoining plantations have been divided into small farms and are taken by our best people.

Terms—One-fifth cash; balance on a credit of one, two and three years, in equal annual instalments, with interest from date, payable annually at seven per cent., secared by bond, sureties and a morigage of the premises, with the privilege to purchasers to pay cash. Purchasers to pay for stamps and papers.

An agent on the bace will show the lands, and the plats can be seen at the office of Wm. M. Shannon, Esq., Camden, S. C.

CHARLESTON, May 16, 1868 Mr. J. B. RUSSELI, one of our careful and intel-ligent Pharmaceutists and Apothecaries, has sub-mitted to my examination the formula for the preparation of a Soothing Cordial prepared and rended by him.
It affords me pleasure to express a favorable opinion of its are and efficient adaptation to the particular cases of the diseases of children, which

Charleston, S. C., 1868,
I certify that I have most successfully used Russell.'s Soothing Cordial in the Summer Complaints of infants. He has fully exhibited the ingredients of his remedy, and the tedions method of preparation. I recognize the prescription—containing no anodyne whatever—as a most safe and efficacions one in bowel affections of children.
When much pain or resilesspees attents the effect containing no anonyne whatever as a line water and cilicacious one in bowel affections of children. When much pain or restlessness attends the affection, doses of Paregoric can be added to the prescribed doses of the Cordial according to the age of the patient. The compound, though more often, acts in an efficient manner without any addition of the patients. of the patient. The component without any addition of anodyne.

Mr. J. B. Russell:

Dhan She—I have used your Soothing Cordial for children extensively in my practice, and most cheerfully testify to its merits. I have found it, without an exception, to accomplish an analysis of the state of the sta without an exception, to accomplish all it claims, and consider it superior to anything in uso for children.

Its freedom from anodyne of any kind recommends it as a perfectly safe preparation in the hands of mothers and inexperienced nurses.

particular cases of the distribution of the designed to relieve.

E. GEDDINGS, M. D.

Having had occasion to prescribe Russell's Soothing Core'ial in severe cases of Bowel Complaints in children and delicate females, I have been much pleased with its effects. I consider it a valuable medicine in all cases, in which it may be advisable to avoid the use of anodyne, and particularly for family use, as it is perfectly safe.

W. T. WRAGG, M. D.

CHARLESTON, S. C., 1869.

Dear Sir—I have used your Soothing Cordial for Diarrhea in teething children, and find it a very excellent preparation. It has a great advantage over most preparations of the kind in containing no Opium or Narcotle.

When these are required they can be added in proportions applicable to the case.

I therefore can recommend its use in the affections for which it is designed.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

T. L. OGIER, M. D.
