The officers of the department held a preliminary meeting on Tuesday night to arrange for the reception and entertainment of the expected guests."

McGillivray sold yesterday the plantation in St. Jehn's Darkeley known as "Old and New Farm," measuring 555 acres, and a tract adjoining known as the Elbow tract, measuring 25 acres, for $16,050. DEATH OF A WELL-KNOWN "DOCTRESS."-Mrs. Dr. Lozier, whose name was recently before the public in connection with a recent alleged scandal case in New York, died in that city on Monday. Mrs. Lozier studied medicine under her mother-in-law, Mrs. Dr. Clemence Lozier, and was regularly graduated at a medical institution of that city. Her practice was somewhat extensive, and it was, says the World, the pressure of professional duties, as well as the excitement ocned by her recent trouble, which sapped her strength at a time when she needed it most. She wrote frequently for the newspapers, and was well-known as a public speaker in the workingwomen and woman-suffrage movements. She was about thirty-six years of age.

SALE OF THE WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER RAILROAD .- The Wilmington Journal of yesterday says: "At the courthouse door, at 11 o'clock A. M. yesterday, Messrs. Croniy & Morris proceeded to sell, by order of M. Cronly and W. A. Pringle, commissioners, the Wilmington and Manchester Railroad, together with all the property of the company. W. T. Walters, Esq., of Balti more, was the only bidder, and the property was consequently knocked down to him at $525,000the sum of $250,000 being paid for the South Carlina end, and $275,000 for the North Carolina end. The sale was for cash, but certain preferred bonds will be received in payment. Of these preferred securities the purchaser holds $1,975,828 06. There is but a small amount of the whole series of preferred securities that he does not hold, and which he will have to pay.

SOUTHERN SECURITIES IN WALL STREET .-The New York Herald of Tuesday, in its money report for the previous day, says: "Southern securities were dull and steady, many of the list being quoted ex-coupon. The new South Carolinas sold at 75, ex three per cent. gold interest. The State agent in this city reports that at the close of business this afternoon he had paid $57,546 gold interest on the South Carolina bonds, The Herald also publishes the following para graph in its editorial columns:

THE GAME COCK STATE. South Carolina was the first State to secede, and the first to pitch in for a grand civil war. Like an honorable adversary, when fairly conquered, she has succumbed and been an exemplary mem-Der of the Union ever since the disputed question was settled under the Appomattox apple tree. Determined to be right in all things, she sets a geod example in the matter of her public debt, which, being contracted before the war, ought, in her opinion, to bear interest in gold. Yesterday the January coupons were paid in coin, and the agent in this city disbursed $67,546 in their redemption. ber of the Union ever since the disputed question

THE TELEGRAPH STRIKERS .- The strike among the telegraph operators of the Western Union Company still continues. Press dispatches were received at a later hour than usua last night, and were sent from Washington vial the Western offices, Atlanta and Augusta. Since the strike, dispatches have accumulated with fearful rapidity at all of the offices, and the operators on duty can only effect a clearance from their files by incessant work. It is thought that R. Recker, Lynn; E. Whitney, Boston; B. F. the company have already sustained a loss of Leighton, Haverhill; P. Jones, Newark; J. M. Rob-$50,000 by the strike, and this amount is being erts, W. L. Pastur, W. H. Betts, M. Cahn, New augmented almost hourly. Some idea of the York; E. Metcalf, C. F. Paine, Boston; J. H. Sand general character of the strike may be formed when it is stated that in New York of 300 opera- lina; D. J. Walker, Port Royal. tors only four are on duty. Philadelphia has 226, and only two or three of these are at work. Washington, Richmond and the large offices elsewhere were in the same deserted condition. O perators have been brought from the small country offices, but these are both green and slow. The ling, Columbia; G. V. Lew, Walterboro'; J. O. Wilsuperintendents and chiefs are themselves work- son, Marion; Dr. J. M. Staggers, Kingstree; J. A. ing the wires, but want practice, and are not as Jones, Suffolk, Virginia; P. R. Coburn, Summerefficient as the experts. Mistakes are frequent, and the delay in transmitting messages is very detrimental to all business circles. Thus far the offices in South Carolina, Georgia and Florida have not joined with the strikers, but these have in their employ hardly over 500 operatives, while the strikers number some 5000. The latest news from New York states that both parties are firm, mise being effected during the present week.

THE SISTERS OF THE STRANGER .- The Rev. the City of New York will indicate pretty clearly himself its character, its work and its object. In connection with this church there is an organization of Christian women-"The Sisters of the Stranwhose work is to give help of every practicable kind to those who are strangers-money help where needed and when there is anything in the treasury. The association cares for the sick, puts strangers in the way of employment, and obant room to which strangers are welcome every day, where they may read, talk or write. The first directress is Mrs. Dr. Deems, No. 20 East Ninth street, New York. The treasurer is Miss Sturtevant, No. 45 Bilde House, to whom money and packages of clothing should be sent. The association is admirable in plan and purpose, and needs only more means to make it of large

"THE LADY OF LYONS."-The versatile genius of Mr. Neil Warner achieved last night another marked success in his impersonation of Claude Melnotte, in the favorite "Lady of Lyons." Charleston has already seen Mr. Warner as the deeplywronged, dark-brooding, though wayward Dane; as the flerce, imperious, yet patriotic minister; as the crafty, vindictive, malignant Jew. She now saw him, with scarcely less delight, as the impas-FIRE AT AIKEN .-- We learn from the Augusta sioned ambitious lover, "whose honor rooted in dishonor stood," but whose love so nobly purified and redeemed all that was failing in his strangely was very successful in his portrayal of the struggle between Claude's ardent feelings and his unsettled principles, which makes the passion of and timely donation of seven or cight car loads of old cross ties to his Honor Mayor Allen, for we think, remarkably successful. She seemed thoroughly penetrated with the varying passion of a role which combines the proud, resentful UNITED STATES COURT-HON. GEO. S. BRYAN, ambitious coquette, with the tender, faithful, sorely-tried wife; and her Pauline excelled, perhaps, even her Ophelia and her Portia. It is characteristic of her acting that she never carries an echo of any other part into her different roles. Each is original and distinct, and in all of them she has the rare faculty of forgetting her real in on business as butcher without paying special her assumed identity. We see no reason why she should not attain in time to a very high place in her profession. She was called repeatedly before the curtain last evening, and had evidently completely conquered the sympathies of the crowded

The minor parts of the play were much better supported than on previous occasions. Mr. Wood's Glavis deserves especial commendation and Mr. Parker (Damas,) and Mrs. Eldridge (Madame Deschappelles,) were also very meritorious. To-night we have "A New Way to Pay Old Debts," with Mr. Warner as Sir Giles Overreach, a role which he has made especially his own It is the benefit night of the popular tragedian, and we hope that he will have a bumping house.

THE YACHT ANNA-HER CREW AND PASSEN-GERS-FURTHER ACTION OF THE AUTHORITIES .-On Wednesday evening the United States Marshai, finding that the crew of the Anna refused to leave the vessel, applied to Colonel Eddie, the commandant of the post, for assistance. A detachment of twenty-five men and two lieutenants were ordered to the wharf and the crew dispossessed. This action will have the effect of dispersing the ship's company, and renders the detention of the Anna certain, though it is deemed by the captain and others interested to be a violation of maritime law. A 'urther search was made of the vessel, but nothing in the shape of munitions of war was discovered, though the party engaged in the investigation had their nervous system shocked by the discovery of a demijohn, which it was thought might hold nitroglycerine. The coal bunkers were also visited, but they objected to having any light thrown on the subject, and left them in their original darkness. The New York papers that noticed the departure of the Anna, all state that she carried no armament, and that the facts of her sailing and the nature of her passengers were known to the authorities and to the Spanish minister. Telegrams describing the vessel and her company were sent to Havana, and photographs of Captain Somers, Colonel Ryan, Cespedes, Cesneros, Agramonte and others, forwarded by mail, with orders to have an extra vigilance placed over the fected.

Captain Somers, the commanding officer of the boat, was formerly a midshipman in the United States Navy, is a good seaman, and managed his little craft well during the gale. Colonel Ryan is not in command of the Cubans, but is simply a passenger, as the rest. Rumor hath it that the British Government has released the Cuban privateer Lilly, and an attempt will be made by the Cubans now in the city to unite with the crew at Nassau. The case will probably be heard to-day in the United States Court, and there is little doubt that the release of the Anna will soon be effected.

THE BARNWELL RAILROAD. -This company was reorganized on Wednesday, and the following directors elected: George D. Chapman, H. H. Boody, A. W. Greenleaf and Henry Budge, New York; Wm. H. Thorp, Fairfield, Conn.; John D. Mills. White Plains, N. Y.; George T. Jackson, Augusta, Ga.; Johnson Hagood, Winchester Graham A. P. Aldrich and Wm. H. Duncan, Barnwell,

A ballot was then taken for officers, which resulted in the unanimous choice of George D Chapman as president; Wm. H. Duncan as vice president; H. H. Boody, treasurer; H. M. Myers Jr., secretary; W. W. Decwart, chief engineer. The following gentlemen were then elected a the executive committee, to act with full power

SALES-DAY AT NEWBERRY .- The Herald tells this tale: "The very disagreeable weather of the ger"-aided by Christian men, the object of morning culminated before night in a lively snow storm, which covered the ground before midnight in a garment soft and white as the fleece of little Mary's historical lamb. The following sales were made: One tract of 1600 acres brought $10.865; one of 400, $3925; one of 337, $2900; one of tains legal advice when needed. CRUMBS .- It has been suggested that Mayor Pillsbury has now an ample opportunity to atone for his blunder in showing the officers of the Spanish fleet the hospitalities of the city. A similar compliment paid to the Cubans in the city would have the effect of pleasing the law-givers and "last men" at Columbia.

The ball given by the German Schutzen Gesclschaft, at the Hibernian Hall, last night, was a complete success. The repairs on Trinity church were completed yesterday, and the church turned over to the proper authorities.

expressing my sincere thanks to you for the invention of the BEST PLOUGH NOW IN USE. It is the delight of the negro. Besides doing the best work that I have ever seen any Plough do, it runs with more case to the ploughman, and the draft to the animal is lighter than any Plough I have ever used.

"Your Plough has already become a necessity to me, and I would feel ruined without it. I am satisfied we have saved, annually, thousands of dollars in mules alone. It is the Cheapest Plough I have ever used, of any kind or description, and I am anxious to bring, if I can, to the notice of my fellow-planters, this most valuable Plough."

Colonel Lockett commenced using these Ploughs in the spring of 1868, and now has more than two hundred and fifty (250) of them on his plantations. We have testimonials as emphatic from leading planters in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Texas, but this will suffice for the most incredulous.

During the present fall, this Plough has taken Premiums at Eight Fairs held in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Alabama, and received the Highest Ratings at the Great Field Trial in Pennsylvania, in August last, when more than Fifty Different Ploughs were tested.

CAREFUL E WHAT MEDICINES

When you are exhausted by overwork of head or hand, and feel the need of something invigorating, don't drink whiskey or any intoxicating thing, whether under the name of Bitters or otherwise. Such articles give just as much strength to your weary body and mind as the whip gives to the jaded horse, and no more. Alcoholic stimulants are injurious to nerve health, and are always followed by depressing reaction. ways followed by depressing reaction.

We are not recommending tectotalism in the interest of any faction; but long and extended observation teaches us that he who resorts to the bottle for rest or recuperation, will flud, as he keeps at it, that he is kindling a fire in his bones which will consume like the flames of perdition.
