Paul B. Lalande & Co. will sell at half-past 9 o'clock, at their store, pineapples. Miles Drake will sell at 10 o'clock, at his store, clothing, hats, &c.

OUR PRICES CURRENT.—We especially invite the attention of our merchants to THE NEWS Prices Current, issued this morning. Made up with the utmost care, and handsomely printed with entirely new type, it forms, with the business card of the house forwarding it, the most attractive and welcome weekly commercial circular that can be used. Price, for ten copies or more, with business cards, two and a half cents per copy; single copies five cents.

DEATH OF W. G. TRENHOLM, Esq.—This highly esteemed citizen died at the residence of his son, Mr. F. C. Trenholm, last evening, in the 67th year of his age.

TAX RETURNS.—The 20th of this month is the last day prescribed in which tax returns for property in the county should be made to the county auditor.

DESERTION.—Two sailors named Matthew M. Lanigan and George Mulligan were arrested yesterday morning charged with desertion. They had signed articles to go as seamen on a ship now lying in Bull River, and when called upon, refused to go. They are held for examination.

TO ARCHITECTS.—As will be seen by an advertisement in another column, plans and specifications are invited for a new courthouse and jail at the corner of Aiken County. Further information may be had by applying to the commissioners for public buildings at Aiken.

THE MEDICAL ASSOCIATION.—The transactions of the South Carolina Medical Association at its last annual session, held in Charleston April 6th and 6th, 1871, have been printed in neat pamphlet form by Messrs. Walker, Evans & Cogswell.

CHARMS.—The Palmetto Regatta Club have named their new race boat the "Meteor." The German Fustler Company of this city is to be reorganized shortly. The new dress will be the Prussian uniform, including the spiked helmet. A silver snuff box, inscribed "W. B. S. to M. E. S." is at the detective office, where the owner can obtain it by proving property.

REMOVAL.—Messrs. Dowle, Moise & Davis, the enterprising jobbers and wholesale dealers in drugs and medicines, finding their present store, at the southeast corner of Meeting and Hazel streets, becoming too small for their rapidly increasing business, have rented and are about to occupy the extensive warehouse on the southeast corner of the same street, lately used as a tinware factory by Mr. McDevitt Cohen.

THE FIRST BALE OF NEW FLORIDA UP- LANDS.—Messrs. W. B. Williams & Son, factors, Accommodation, who have received yesterday, per Savannah and Charleston Railroad, the first bale of new Florida uplands that has reached this market. It was raised by J. R. Hague, and shipped by P. Pinkusson from Gainesville, Fla. It weighed 400 pounds, and was sold to Messrs. M. Goldsmith & Son.

WATCH STOLEN.—Yesterday a colored man named Samuel Richardson presented a gold watch, worth $50, at a shop up town, and pawned it for the sum of $1.75. The circumstance was made known, and Constable Baker forthwith arrested the pawnbroker, and took him down to the Guardhouse. The watch was identified by a colored woman, in whose house Richardson was staying. The watch was identified, that he took the watch, and said he pawned it to get some money for a spree.

ROBBING A HOUSE.—About 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon a small house on the road, near Nettette's farm, belonging to C. Nelson, and tenanted by a large colored family, was broken into, and all of the clothing belonging to the establishment carried off. Allen Bryan, a colored man, was shortly after arrested on suspicion, and referred to Trial Justice T. J. Mackey for examination. The evidence was clear against the prisoner, and in default of bail, he was committed to jail to await his trial at the next term of the Court of General Sessions.

A MEMORIAL TO GENERAL LEE.—The annual address of Joseph W. Taylor, Esq., before the literary societies of Washington and Lee University, delivered on the occasion of the last commencement, June 22d, 1871, has been published in pamphlet form at the request of the literary societies, the Alumni Association and the board of trustees. It is entitled "The Lee Monument," and consists of a cogent and forcible plea for the conversion of Washington and Lee University into a Memorial University by the people of the South to constitute their final and crowning monument to the memory of General Robert E. Lee.

THE FUNERAL OF MR. JOHN H. DEITZ took place yesterday morning at the residence of Mr. F. Lampe, in Meeting street, one door from George. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Muller, a large number of the friends and relatives of the deceased, and of the members of the German Fire Company, the Braderclubband, and Germania Lodge K. P. being present. At the conclusion of the solemn ceremonies the body was escorted by the societies and the fire company to the place of interment, where it was committed to the earth.

A VAGRANT DISPOSED OF.—A colored youth relating in the name of Ben Gibson, but without a local habitation or visible means of support, was brought before the Mayor yesterday morning for examination. Ben was a likely looking youth, and the usual mode of disposing of culprits of his class, i. e., thirty days in the House of Correction, not having as yet produced the most desirable results, the Mayor sent him to be apprenticed to an honest trade. This mode of procedure is novel, but is well worth a trial. Should it prove a success, the police annals will afford ample material from which a perfect array of carpenters, bricklayers, shoemakers, &c. may be raised.

YOUNG MEN'S CATHOLIC ASSOCIATION.—This is the name of a society consisting of members of St. Peter's Church, which completed its organization on last Wednesday evening, and was inaugurated for the ensuing year. The officers elected for the ensuing year are: E. L. Bolton, president; George Coverly, vice-president; Alexander Nolsette, secretary; W. C. Scott, treasurer; J. C. Kennedy, librarian. The object of the association is, by gathering the young men of the congregation in a body, to interest them in the religious and moral, as well as in the material welfare of the church, co-operating with the pastor in the attainment of their mutual improvement and even innocent recreation are among the features of this society.

THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC PRIZE DRAWING.—With the approach of the season for the fruition of the hopes and labors of the planners, the lottery for the possession of tickets in the South Carolina Land and Immigration Association's enterprise is constantly increasing. The orders for tickets are now coming in with a rush, and in lots ranging from one to fifty tickets. Many of them are accompanied with the promise of doubling the order upon realizing the receipts of the cotton crop, and some planters are even now ordering tickets and giving drafts on their factors in payment. A many of the States, particularly Georgia and Alabama, people are investing in tickets from purely patriotic motives, saying that they do it to help to regenerate the South.

THE PALMETTO PIONEER CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of this association was held last evening at the Market Hall. The sale of the stock of the store and the whole business to Mr. W. E. Welch was discussed, and measures taken for the final winding up of the affairs of the association in February next, the constitution requiring six months' notice of such fact being given.

NEW RICE.—There was received yesterday by the Savannah and Charleston Railroad a carload of new rice from the plantation of Mr. John Lewis, on the Ashepo River, managed by Mr. Frank P. Lewis. It is consigned to Mr. Louis D. Desausures, and was sent to Chisholm's Mills. A sample of this rice can be seen at Messrs. Porcher & Henry's, Atlantic wharves. Mr. Lewis sent rice to Charleston last year on the 18th of August, this is, therefore, one day sooner and earlier than new rice was ever received here before.

HABEAS CORPUS.—Caleb Davis and Wiley Smith, two of the colored men committed to jail for trial on the charge of stealing a lot of machinery from the Charleston Mining and Manufacturing Company's phosphate works some weeks since, were brought before Trial Justice Schroeder and Brentan yesterday morning on a writ of Habeas corpus. After due examination, the justices decided that the prisoners should be released on their filing with the clerk of the Circuit Court bonds in the sum of $500 each, with good freehold security, for their appearance at the November term of the Court of General Sessions. In the afternoon the prisoners filed their bonds as ordered, with B. Reils as security on each, and were discharged from custody.

THE PITMAN PICNIC.—A delegation of Knights of Pythias, composed of members of all the Charleston lodges, left this city at 6 P. M. on Tuesday afternoon by the Northeastern Road, and reached Florence at 11.30 P. M. Here they were hospitably entertained by Damon Lodge, No. 2, and the next morning they left Florence at 7 A. M., and after a pleasant ride of thirteen miles, reached the Mineral Springs of Darlington County, where a delightful day was spent until 6 P. M., when the train arrived to convey the party back to Florence, all highly gratified with the day's pleasure. The Charleston delegation arrived home yesterday morning, and express themselves: delighted with their experiences among the Florentine Knights.

THE NEW CROP LOUISIANA RICE.—The New Orleans Prices Current of Saturday, the 12th inst. says: Messrs. Dupre, Reine & Co. have favored us with a sample of the first receipts of the crop of 1871—a lot of three barrels per steamer St. John, received on the 4th inst. from the plantation of Mrs. P. Soniat, St. Charles Parish. This rice is of good color, well milled and cleaned, though somewhat broken, and classes prime. Mr. James Wood has also sent us a sample of a lot of twenty-one barrels of the new crop of Louisiana rice, raised at the Empire Parish Mill, Pointe-a-la-Piche. It is bright and of good grain, and rather badly broken, and classes fair to fully fair. Last year the first of the new crop was received on the 10th of August, classed prime, and sold for eleven cents per pound.

CLUBS AND STARS.—Julia Brown, lodged for disorderly conduct and trespassing on the premises of E. Jennings, in Horbeck's alley, had a hearing and was discharged. Wm. Monroe and Mary Ann Perry, arrested for indecent behavior and trespassing upon a lot near Market street, were each sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars or spend ten days in the House of Correction.

Susan Robinson, a disreputable colored woman, lodged for lying drunk in Anson street, was sent to the House of Correction for thirty days.

James Fleming, lodged for larceny and vagrancy, was referred to a trial justice. Henry Mills, lodged for raising a disturbance and beating his wife in Cannon street, between one and two o'clock yesterday morning, was referred to a trial justice. Nine boxes of cigars and five phosphate bags, which had been recovered, were ordered to be delivered to the owners.
