New York, May 16.—Governor Brogden, of North Carolina, in a letter to the Herald in regard to the representation of North Carolina in the centennial exhibition, says he hopes a liberal display will be made by that State.

The Legislature having failed to respond to his appeal, he has appealed to the leading citizens to encourage and sustain the noble enterprise by their patronage and support.

He regards the centennial celebration of the greatest moment in the interests of peace and friendship, and thinks that it will excite a most favorable interest in promoting concord, union and harmony, and he bids it with joy, will do all in his power to secure its success.

Augusta, Ga., May 15.—Judge Gibson has refused to grant an injunction restraining the Georgia Railroad Company from paying interest on the bonds of the Western Railroad of Alabama, on the ground that the questions of facts involved should go before a jury.

John P. Branch, of Virginia, has applied for an injunction in United States Court in Savannah, to restrain the sale of the Macon and Brunswick Railroad, which is advertised to take place in June, on the ground that no provision is made for the payment of the second series of bonds endorsed by the State, and repudiated by the Legislature, a portion of said bonds being held by Branch. Arguments in the case will be heard on Monday, before Judge Bradley.

San Francisco, May 17.—A collision occurred on the 4th of April, off the coast of China, between the Chinese steamship Fu Sing and the British steamship Ocean. The Fu Sing foundered almost instantly, causing a loss of fifty lives; the Ocean was seriously injured, but succeeded in reaching Wu Sing. An investigation is proceeding.

Lexington, May 17.—The condition of Gen. Breckinridge remains unchanged. He is still cheerful, and seems to be much less concerned at his condition than those around him. He has the papers read to him, and converses with his few chosen friends, who are admitted. Some of his more hopeful friends entertain hopes of his remaining among them for some time; but experienced persons see he cannot remain much longer, and is liable to be called away any moment. His pulse is very weak. Many of his relatives and friends from abroad are here, to be with him in his last hours.

A later despatch says John C. Breckinridge is dead.

Montgomery, Ala., May 17.—The Chancellor denied and over-ruled the motion of Branch, Sons and others, to be made parties to the proceedings for the sale of the Western Railroad, and have the sale set aside. Washington, May 17.—The President, this morning, appointed Otis H. Russell Collector of Internal Revenue for the Third District of Virginia, vice Rush Bergess, resigned.

The Court of Claims to-day delivered an opinion in the case of Alexander L. P. Green, who, in 1802, was domiciled in Nashville, but just before the capture of that city went further South, taking with him a large amount of money of a firm for whom he was an endorser.

When leaving, he was possessed of certain buildings in Nashville, which in 1864 were seized by the Supervising Treasury Agents as abandoned property.

The claimant averred, in his petition, that he was always a loyal citizen, but this, the Court said, did not strengthen his case, as he voluntarily entered the enemy's lines. The act of seizure of the property was a war measure, and it made no difference whether it was seized by the enemy or by a Treasury agent.

The claimant sought to recover on the ground of an implied contract and the liability of the Government for the acts of its officers. The court says no action can be maintained on that ground, and that if the claimant was entitled to recover, he ought to have prosecuted his case under the abandoned property Act, which he failed to do. The case was dismissed. The court also decided the case of the Corlies Steam Engine Company.

The claimant had contracted with the Navy Department for the construction of steam engines; subsequently the Department decided not to complete the engines, and in accordance with a written agreement, the company delivered the boilers, engines and appurtenances at the Boston Navy Yard in their unfinished condition. The court, through Chief Justice Drake, said the agreement between the claimant and the Navy Department was singularly clear, and altogether free from taint. It was the duty of the Government to comply strictly with its obligations to the contractor. Judgment was given in behalf of the claimant to the amount of $257,688. A motion was made by the Assistant Attorney-General for a new trial in the Elgee cotton case.

It is thought Auditor Sheats' leave of absence to the 1st of July means ad infinitum. Bristow and Attorney-General Pierpont had a prolonged consultation to-day about the whiskey fiasco. It is understood the elephant has been placed upon Commissioner Pratt's shoulders.

LOTTERY SWINDLE.—The Postmaster-General issued the following order Friday: "It having been reported to me that a certain L. D. Sine, of Cincinnati, in the State of Ohio, is engaged in conducting a gift enterprise and scheme for the disposal of money and personal property by lot, chance or drawing, thereby to obtain money through the mails; and being satisfied from the evidence before me, that the said L. D. Sine is so engaged, I do hereby forbid the payment by the postmaster at Cincinnati to the said L. D. Sine of any postal money order drawn to the order of him, the said L. D. Sine; and the said postmaster is hereby directed to inform the remitters of the said postal money orders that the payment thereof has been forbidden, and that the sum of said money will be returned on the presentation of a duplicate money order applied for and obtained under the regulations of the department. And upon the same evidence, the postmaster at the city of Cincinnati is hereby instructed to return all registered letters which shall arrive at his office, directed to the said L. D. Sine, to the postmasters at the office at which they were originally mailed, with the word 'fraudulent' plainly written or stamped upon the outside of such letter."

The Rev. J. M. Dawson, a Presbyterian clergyman of San Francisco, has been dismissed from his charge by his presbytery, because he has been caught dabbling very extensively in stock gambling and flirting with the girls. Late developments of the case show that a number of other clergymen made him their agent to pursue the ignis fatuus of bonanza wealth. Invariably, the money placed in the gambling clergyman's hands failed to produce anything to the owners, and the reverend speculators are said to have "squealed" considerably. Dawson has made about $100,000 by his stock speculations.

Charles E. Lawrence, ex-Rent Collector, who was brought back from Europe the other day, charged with smuggling silks into New York, is suffering under the weight of 130 indictments, upon which he will require $500,000 to secure his release from jail. His frauds were perpetrated by entering cases of valuable silks as corsets. The cases of corsets were sent to the public stores for appraisement, and the remaining cases, which contained the silks and laces, were delivered to Lawrence and his partners. It is estimated that by their arrangements over $1,500,000 were lost to the United States Treasury.

Very probably the unwillingness of Governor Hartranft to send the military into the coal district of Pennsylvania, to suppress the lawlessness of the miners, arises from the fact that these people have all threatened to vote against him at the approaching gubernatorial election, if he runs, and it is considered certain he will. They are very much disgusted because Hartranft showed a disposition to coerce them. There are 25,000 voters among these banditti, a large number of whom are Radicals, and if they all go against Hartranft it will have a powerful effect upon the result of the election.

The free zone of Mexico extends from the mouth of the Rio Grande 600 miles up that river and about six miles inland on the Mexican side. It is the home of lawless men and free lances, and appears to owe no allegiance to any flag but that of the free-booter. Foreign goods are admitted free of customs duty and thence passed into Texas and portions of Mexico. It is by these bandits and smugglers that the recent raids into Texas for plunder have been made. It is a nest of foul birds, and if the Mexican Government will not or cannot break it up, the United States Government should do so at once and decisively.

Mr. Dandy has been arrested. Just as we expected, upon the appearance of Uncle Joe Crews in town. We saw him, and in a very few words it was discovered that he was up here for no good purpose. Wonder if he accomplished his purpose? Mr. Dandy is at large on bail, and the prosecutions against Uncle Joe for his many sins are likely to proceed, notwithstanding his procuring the arrest of Mr. Dandy. Uncle Joe has opened the fight, and we can tell him that every track he makes now, or has made, is being looked after.—Greenville News.

Col. R. S. Durys, of Charleston, died on Saturday morning last, in the 44th year of his age. He was widely known and highly respected.

Tree Planting.—It is said that when a Spaniard eats fruit he always plants the seed thereof for the benefit of posterity. As a result no country is so beautifully blessed with fruit as Spain. The Mayor of Topeka, Kansas, appears to be imbued with a similar unselfishness. One afternoon last week, at his request, all business was suspended in the town and the whole population went to work and planted in the town about 1,000 shade trees of several varieties. This is better than "spelling bees."

Wm. Russell, a widower, aged thirty years, living at Newbury, Mass., quarreled with a younger brother in his father's house, yesterday morning, and his mother, aged sixty, interfering, he seized a shoe-knife and nearly severed her head from her body, killing her instantly. He then attacked the father, and would have killed him but for the interference of the neighbors. The younger brother and father were both badly wounded—the former, it is thought, fatally.

Alas! alas! for the colored Republican of Kentucky. He can get no high seat in the temple; he can get no place on the ticket. When he tries to speak they put him down, they sit on him, they squelch him and make his life a burden to him. He is slaughtered in the house of his friends. Yet he and his colored brethren constitute five-sixths of the Republican party in Kentucky. Is there no way for the poor colored man to get his rights?—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Boston News says: President Grant has fixed his mind upon doing what no other President of the republic ever did, to wit: Getting a second endorsement of the people; and while he keeps his square jaws set, speaking no word and making no sign, he has entered upon the campaign with the same dogged pertinacity which, as a soldier, made him successful. This has a long time been apparent to those who, having eyes, made use of them.

For the first time in fifteen years religious services were held Sunday week in the Polish Church, in Fairfax County, Va. This church was built in 1773, through the personal exertion of George Washington. During the late war it was occupied by Union troops as a stable, and fell into dilapidation, until last year, some gentlemen of New York, learning the condition, had it rebuilt in handsome style.

The investigation into the construction of the Chicago Custom House building, which is partly finished, shows that the contractor, Mueller, put a quantity of rotten Cincinnati stone into the walls, which is now crumbling like brown sugar. Ex-Supervising Architect Mullet allowed this stuff to go in, and $1,000,000 worth of work will have to be demolished.

The turbulent miners in Pennsylvania seem to have plenty of means at their command, in spite of their assertions of wrongs and inequities. Last week the total amount received by the strikers from their brethren elsewhere was $50,000. This is raised by a heavy taxation on the men who are at work, and it goes to keep these brigands in bread and butter and devility.

The Harrisburg Patriot says: Grant has thrown away all chance of getting a third term endorsement in Pennsylvania. Taking another number of his Cabinet from New York, and slighting the State which was carried for him by a most extensive and elaborate fraud in 1872, is a measure of ingratitude which the profoundest loyalty cannot overlook.

Tribute of Respect.

At a special meeting of Phoenix Hook and Ladder Company, held Thursday evening, May 14, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas it is at all times sad to part with our friends when they surrender this life into the hands of its maker, it is doubly sad when those friends have been companions in the dangers and hardships incident to the life of a volunteer fireman; and whereas it has seemed best to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe to remove from our ranks, after an illness of many months, our esteemed comrade, S. E. MORRIS; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the members of Phoenix Hook and Ladder Company deeply sympathize with his family in their affliction, and join with his many friends in their expressions of regret at his removal from our midst.
