Whe Spirit Mother．

Ari thournear me，spirit mother，when ip the twilight hour
a holy husb pervades my heart with a myste－ rioue power
Whide oyes of dréamy tendernces are gaying into tmine．
And stir the fountain of my heart sweet mo－ ther，are they thiad

Is thine the blessed influence that $0^{3} e r$ my spirit flings
A sense of rest；as though＇twere wrapped within en angel＇s wings－
A deep ebiding trustfulnees，that seems an ear nest given
Of future happiness and bliss to those who dwell in Heavon．

And oft times when my footsteps stray in error＇s shining track，
There comes a soft restraining voice that seems to call me back；
I hear it not withe outwerd ears，but with a power divine，
Its whieper thrills my inmost heart－sweet mother，is：it thine？

It well may be，for know we not thrat beings all unseen
Are over hovering o＇er our paths，the earth and sky between：
They are with us in our daily walks，and tire less vigils krep．
To weave those happy fantasies that blesa our hours of eleep．
Ohl conld we feel that spirit eyes forever on us gaze，
And mark each idle thought that threads the heart＇s be wildering maze；
Should we not guari eachenreless aot，all sin－ ful feelings quell，
Lest we should grieve those cherished ones wo loved on earth so wells

Sweet spirit mothel！bless thy child，and with it holy love
Inspire my feeble enargies and lift my soul above：
And when the long imprisoned soul these earth． ly bonda have riven，
Be thine the wing to bear it up and waft it on to Heaven

Crnts in Abundance．－For the first time since the auspension of specie pay－ ascits the supply of cents at the Mint exce ds the demand．Though the coinage of them went on unceasingly，and though tnis cent pieees were made in large unm－ Lers，the demand，until now，exceeded the supply，and at times the rearcity was such that articles never dreamed of as currency were oft：n used in our markets．It was no urusual thing for carrots，onions，turnips and apples to be used in making change． The s－areity no doubt arose in part from hoarding and speculating in cents；for the premium on them was often as high as ten， and even twelve per cent．The scarcity gave rise to the use of tickets or cheeks by slop－keepers，and－in some parts of the city they are yet given as substitutes． This need no longer be，for we learn from at official source that centis can now be ob－ tained at the Minf by any person who wats them in exchange for treasury bills． The three ardt coinage（new）will be ready for distribution in a few rays．
