The radicals of Boston, it appears, cannot stand the vitriolic abuse and denunciation of Wendell Phillips, One of them employs the following language in addressing him: language in addressing him: "Thay (the radicals) will endnre no name is Wrand jury, This is refreshing. It reminds us of the old saying, that "when thier fall out, honest men are likely to get their dues." Wendell will no doubt come back at this bold fellow in a manner that would be creditable to an old mocesin of August, when those reptiles are said to bo blind from excess of venom, and strike at even a rustling these political and religious Kilkenny see cats swallowing one another, we should feel inspired with a new hope for the country; and nowhere wonld for the country; and nowhere would such symptoms be more gratefully recognized by us than in Boston and Massachusetts, for there the gangrene commenced, which has poisoned our political system. the idea; blasphemy, profanity and treason would more appropriately define the emplogrent to which Wendell Phillips & Co. are "beyond neasmre addicted." And we imagine that the threat of the irate radical will hardly avail to stop the sluices of foul abuse, because the audiences of Nor would any jary be likely to conNor would any jary be likely to convict him of libel, becanse they would regard evergthing nttere regard everything attered by him as a trauscript of the Gospel; and for the further reason that noe grand jury empaneled in that quarter could find litical, moral and religious questions, whatever conclusions the people of Boston arrive at, are genernlly reachod after passing over the prostrate form of truth. Hence, that a man like Wendell Phillins must have a powerful sympathetio hold upon the poplo hold upon the popnlar heart.
