

Homes for the People.

This subject, at the present time, is attracting much attention, both in Europe and this country.

How this is to be accomplished, and in what mode or manner, is to be left to those who feel an interest in the matter.

Such homes would not only accommodate our present citizens, but would induce an immigration of labor, which, at present, is one of the great means in carrying out the work of recuperation.

Practicing their vandalism at home.—The New Albany (Indiana) Ledger says:

About the most dardarly outrage we have lately heard of transpired near this city on Thursday night.

The acts complained of were committed by the same men who, during the war, desecrated and defiled the Southern churches, school-houses, court houses and private residences.

A CONVINCING ARGUMENT.—"It seems doubtful," says a writer for the New York Times, "if even great popular majorities can awaken these misguided men [rebels] to the danger of their situation."

ANOTHER PROPOSITION.—A radical writer for the Anti-Slavery Standard thinks that we shall adopt the constitutional amendment excluding all of our old leaders from office, and that, as they will then be anxious to have their disability removed, they will consent to enfranchise the negroes on condition that Congress will so relieve them.

FORNEY'S MOTIVES LAID BARE.—It is pleasant to see, as we do, that some of Forney's brother radicals do not hesitate to tell him just what "manner of man" he is.

THE POLLOCK HOUSE. This thoroughly-equipped RESTAURANT has just been completed, and the lovers of the good things of this life are informed that they can be supplied with almost everything in the "eating and drinking line."

THE NEW BALTIMORE STEAMSHIP LINE.—In our marine list of yesterday, we announced the arrival, on Sunday, of the A 1 screw steamship Kingfisher, F. M. Harris, Commander, from Baltimore, and we have since been informed that she is the pioneer of a line of three ships to ply regularly between the two ports.

THE PRINCESS CHARLOTTE—THE CRISIS IN MEXICO.—By the cable, we have a repetition of the statement respecting the ill health of the Princess Charlotte.

Efforts are making to indict Forney, the Police Commissioners of Baltimore, and the editor of the Baltimore American, for attempts to incite a riot.
