Cable Despatches.

NAPLES, November 23.—Vesuvius is sending up pillars of fire and smoke from the old and new craters. Seven streams of lava are in full flow.

PARIS, November 23.—The army bill makes the term of service nine years. The Emperor of Austria agrees to the conference.

LONDON, November 23.—The Queen refuses to reprieve the Manchester rioters. An effort in the House of Commons, in their behalf, failed. The feeling against the Fenians is bitter.

MANCHESTER, November 23.—Allen, Larkin and Gault were hung today. All quiet.

Affairs in Washington.

WASHINGTON, November 23.—Gen. A. P. Howe, of the Freedman's Bureau, has gone South, to sell Bureau property, turned over to it at the close of the war, for a school fund. The first sale occurs on the 3d of December, at Augusta.

The following is Kelly's resolution: Resolved, That the welfare of the people, and the maintenance of the faith and credit of the Government, requires the repeal of the tax imposed by existing laws on cotton and the production of mechanical and manufacturing industry.

It is said the wool interests will oppose the repeal of the tax.

The feeling regarding the impeachment is feverish. The election committee will not report on the Kentucky delegation until after the impeachment reports, when, unless the interests of the impeachers require their exclusion, the delegation, except Major Young, will doubtless be admitted.

Denmark retains Santa Cruz.

Judge Wylie, in equity, in the case making Mary Bricketts' property liable for her alleged husband's debts, has decided adversely, because Mary, in law, was not Bricketts' wife. They came together during slavery; the relations of husband and wife were unknown to the slave code. Both parties deny matrimony subsequent to emancipation, and therefore in law are living together in concubinage. The bill was dismissed, with costs.

News Items.

CHARLESTON, November 23.—Arrived—schooner Carrie Webb, New York; bark Yumari, Liverpool. Sailed—steamers Champion and E. B. Souder, New York.

RICHMOND, November 23.—The Hon. Charles W. Russell, of Virginia, leader of the administration party in the late Confederate Congress, died in Baltimore last night.

The trial of Mr. Davis commences on Monday, at 11 o'clock. At that hour he will place himself in custody of the United States Marshal, and it is believed that he will be bailed from day to day on his own recognizance. About fifteen witnesses are summoned for the Government, including James A. Seddon, late Confederate Secretary of War, and Gen. Joseph E. Johnston. It is stated that Mr. Davis will be tried on a new indictment to be made by the Grand Jury here. Chief Justice Chase and Judge Underwood will arrive on Monday. Messrs. Chandler and Everts, of the prosecution, and O'Connor and Shea, of defense, will arrive to-morrow.

WILMINGTON, November 23.—Election returns thus far indicate the election of a majority of radical delegates to the Convention. There was a large radical torch-light procession last night, composed entirely of negroes. Ashley, Northern preacher, one of the radical whites elected to the Convention, made a speech, in which he said: "Every negro who voted the conservative ticket, ought to be hung as high as Haman."

NEW ORLEANS, November 22.—General Mower, this evening, issued Special Order No. 193, suspending those portions of Orders 191 and 192, of the 20th and 21st instant, removing judicial and State officers. The Times has a special, saying Gen. Grant has directed Gen. Mower to suspend his order making removals until Gen. Hancock arrived. We are informed, that although Dr. Avery, the newly-appointed sheriff, has not given the required bond, a military guard was sent to the sheriff's office this afternoon, ejecting the occupants and installing Avery.

NEW ORLEANS, November 23.—The Republican, of this morning, in an editorial headed "Who is responsible?" says: "The day will come, and perhaps it may be a bloody one, when the loyal people of Louisiana will hold the authorities of this interference, in the progress of reconstruction, to a strict account. The war of the rebellion is not yet over, the States of the South are not yet reconstructed. The grand army of the Republic—double in number the old army of the Potomac—tried soldiers, with dusky faces, still love their old profession and cherish the muskets they carried on many a battle-field. The lowly and humble have learned their rights and know how to fight, and, if needs be, to die for them. No power, save that of the almighty God, can keep the loyal people, in the end, from achieving their own liberty and trampling in the dust the minions of the old and still dominant slave power." The same article calls Andrew Johnson a traitor and assassin.

The Convention met at noon today, and elected negroes as temporary chairman and secretaries. No permanent organization arrived. Adjourned till Monday. Forty-four negroes and twenty-five whites present. It is understood that it was resolved in caucus, last night, that the first step of the Convention would be to declare all State offices vacant, and fill them with appointees acceptable to the radical party.

Dr. Avery, the newly appointed sheriff, is in quiet possession of his office.

The Alabama Convention.

MONTGOMERY, November 23.—The Convention passed an ordinance imposing an additional tax of 10 per cent. on the taxes otherwise assessed on the taxable property in this State, for the purpose of paying the expenses of the Convention. The bill of rights of the constitution provides, among other things, that all men are created equal, and that they are endowed with certain inalienable rights, and that all persons or classes of this State who are, or may be declared, citizens of the United States by the Constitution thereof, are declared citizens of Alabama, with equal civil and political rights, regardless of previous condition. The section in the bill of rights defining treason, as passed, says no one shall be convicted of treason except on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, as upon his own confession in open court. The franchise article provides that those who shall be convicted of treason shall be denied the right of suffrage.

In the evening session, an amendment to the bill of rights was offered, that common carriers shall not make any discrimination, on account of color, between persons traveling in public conveyances. After several speeches, from black and white delegates, the subject was postponed till Monday.
