CHARLESTON, October 22.—Off the port-ship Scotswood, from Liverpool. Sailed steamer Monterey, New York; schooner C. L. Baylis, Baltimore.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 22.—There was a heavy earthquake here at 8 o'clock this morning. The motion was East and West. The damage was confined to the lower part of the city, below Montgomery street. Among the old buildings on made ground, was the Custom House, which was badly shattered by the earthquake of 1865, and is now considered unsafe. The officials have removed to the Internal Revenue Building. Business in the lower part of the city is suspended, and the streets are thronged. The parapet walls and chimneys of many buildings fell, causing some loss of life. The damage will not exceed $1,000,000. The shock was severe at Oakland, damaging many buildings. The earth opened in several places, smelling sulphurously. The Court House at San Leandro was demolished, killing one man. The shock was also very severe at San Jose.

WASHINGTON, October 22.—Internal revenue, to-day, $299,000. The King of Prussia, and not the Emperor of Russia, is the arbitrator in the Alabama claims.

Customs receipts, from the 12th to the 17th, inclusive, $2,922,000.

NEW YORK, October 22.—The steamer Rising Star, with $250,000 in specie, and Panama dates to the 14th, has arrived. A provisional government has been established in Churuqui. A military expedition against it is preparing in Panama.

The great tidal wave which started from Peru, on the 13th of August, reached Australia, the next day, with a simultaneous earthquake. No serious damage.

Private despatches from San Francisco say the earthquake damages will not exceed $300,000.

MOBILE, October 22.—A white woman, sixty years of age, was assaulted and ravished by three negroes, in the outskirts of the city, yesterday, in broad day-light. Her life is in serious danger, from the injuries inflicted. The citizens are in pursuit of the negroes. A market man was assaulted, by negroes, yesterday morning, a short distance from the city, and was mortally wounded by a musket-shot. While insensible, he was robbed of everything—even his shoes.

Capt. Mitchell, commander of the United States steamer Saginaw, was murdered and robbed in Center City.

NEWARK, N. J., October 22.—The Old and New School Presbytery Synods are in session here. They held a "Union prayer meeting," and the Old School adopted a resolution looking to union.

NEW YORK, October 22.—The Court of Appeals of this State decides that the test oath cannot, under the Constitution of the United States, be required by legislation as a condition of the right of suffrage, and that the Legislature of the State of New York has no power to establish by law any qualification whatever for electors in this State.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency ROBERT K. SCOTT, Governor of South Carolina.

WHEREAS, information has been received at this Department that a wilful and deliberate murder was committed in the town of Newberry, on MONDAY MORNING, the 19th instant, on the body of LEE A. NANCE, late a member of the Constitutional Convention, by SAMUEL MURTISHAW and WILLIAM FITZGERALD, who have fled from justice. Now, know ye that I, ROBERT K. SCOTT, Governor of the State of South Carolina, in order that the murderers may be brought to condign punishment, do hereby offer a reward of TWENTY-FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS each, for the apprehension of said Murtishaw and Fitzgerald, upon their delivery, in any jail of this State, with proof to convict.

Fitzgerald is slender-built, dark complexion, black hair, curling a little at the edges, and whiskers, about 26 or 27 years of age. Murtishaw is short in stature, round face, light hair, with brisk and active movements. He is about 22 or 23 years of age. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed, at Columbia, this twenty-second day [O. S.] of October, in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and in the ninety-third year of the Independence of the United States of America.

(Signed) ROBERT K. SCOTT, Governor of South Carolina. F. L. CARDOZO, Secretary of State. Abbeville Banner and Newberry Herald copy one time. October 23 '68

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency ROBERT K. SCOTT, Governor of South Carolina.

WHEREAS, reports are being daily received at this Department, and particularly from the Counties of Abbeville, Anderson, Edgefield, Lexington, Newberry, Chester, Laurens, Union, York and Darlington, that the laws are being violated, and the officers and prosecuting citizens are murdered in cold blood, and the murderers not only permitted to flee to escape from justice; that families have been forced to abandon their homes and property by fear of violence; that the authority of the State Government is openly derided and denied; that threats of violence, and even of death, are uttered against prominent members of the Republican party, if they shall attempt to visit their Districts, for the purpose of discussing the political questions of the day; that declarations are openly made by persons calling themselves and mobocrats, of their determination not to permit their political opponents to vote at the ensuing election; and, to enable them to effect their purposes, and to overawe the people, large quantities of fire-arms, of the most improved description, have been brought into the State and secretly distributed; that the public highways are picketed and patrolled by armed men, who stop and interrogate passengers, frequently abusing and assaulting those who differ with them in political opinion; and especially is there apparent a systematic effort, by abuse and intimidation, to deter colored persons from the exercise of the elective franchise, and all this in transgression of law, in derogation of the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth, and in violation of the rights of the citizens.

The right of suffrage belongs equally to the white and colored race, and all must be protected in its free and peaceful exercise. Fraud or violence may vitiate the returns of any poll where they may be perpetrated, and I call upon all good citizens to aid the officers of the law in their efforts to maintain the peace and preserve the independence and purity of the ballot-box.

The State Government, of which I am the Executive head, is not only de facto but de jure, and commands the allegiance of all within its territorial limits. It is independent of Federal legislation and of the Federal Judiciary, whose powers are defined by the Constitution, to be "judicial" and not "political." Its sovereignty and its honor are in its own keeping; and the rights granted and conferred by it can only be affected or subverted by a change in the organic law, in obedience to the wishes of the people of the State acting in their sovereign capacity in a Convention called for the purpose. To resist the laws of the State, represented by its legally constituted officers, is an offense of the gravest character; and armed resistance is treason.

Now therefore, I, ROBERT K. SCOTT, Governor of the State of South Carolina, do hereby issue this my proclamation, enjoining and commanding all Magistrates, Sheriffs, and other officers of the peace in their respective Counties, to be faithful, vigilant, and active in the discharge of their duties, and to report promptly to this department every case where they are obstructed or resisted in doing so; and, in the event of resistance, or assault, they are directed to apply to the nearest military post of United States troops for aid and co-operation in enforcing the laws and maintaining the public peace. In case of failure on the part of Magistrates, Sheriffs and officers of the peace to perform these duties promptly and efficiently, either from neglect or sympathy with the wrong-doers, they will be promptly removed and their places filled by men loyal to the State and faithful in the discharge of their obligations to the community.

And I do earnestly appeal to the law-abiding people of the State, to those who are interested in their own protection and prosperity, to all who are opposed to violence and bloodshed, and to a condition of riot and anarchy, in which life and property are alike insecure, that they will aid me in my efforts to maintain the supremacy of the law and the rights of the people, by discountenancing and denouncing all violence and outrage, and by assisting the Magistrates and peace officers in arresting the perpetrators thereof, so that they may be brought to condign punishment.

In the eye of the law, the rights of every citizen, white and colored, are equally sacred and equally entitled to protection and vindication; and it is my duty and my termination to use all the powers at my disposal for that purpose. And if my efforts to accomplish this by peaceable means are frustrated, by turbulent and lawless men resisting the Executive authority, in the persons of its officers, I shall be compelled, however reluctantly, to arm and organize a sufficient force of loyal citizens to overcome that resistance; and the responsibility of the consequences, however disastrous and deplorable, must rest upon the heads of those who provoke them.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed, at Columbia, this twentieth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and in the ninety-third year of the Independence of the United States of America.
