Cable Despatches.

PARIS, December 23.—Carlisle disturbances have occurred in Navarre, and fourteen persons have been arrested for participation in them.

LONDON, December 25.—The judicial committee of the House of Lords are divided in regard to the case of Martin vs. Mackonochie, which has been brought up by appeal from the Court of Arches.

PARIS, December 25.—Le Temps says that England and France have little sympathy with the conference.

BERLIN, December 23.—The Provincial Correspondent (semi-official) says the great powers have united in an effort to dissuade the Sublime Porte from expelling the Greeks from Turkey.

PARIS, December 23.—The Monitor of to-day, in a leading article, says that active movements of the great powers give hope that diplomacy, by the exercise of moderation, will ally the Eastern troubles.

CONSTANTINOPLE, December 23.—It is semi-officially announced that the Turkish Admiral Hobart Pasha had informed the authorities in the Island of Syria that his instructions from Constantinople are peaceful.

MADRID, December 23.—The country is entirely tranquil. The Government proposes to make material changes in the Colonial magistracy.

LONDON, December 26.—It is definitely settled that the conference of the great powers meets in Paris early in January.

PARIS, December 26.—A despatch from Vienna states that the Austrian Ambassadors at Constantinople and Athens will be represented by persons unobjectionable to both Turkey and Greece.

A despatch from Athens says the Turkish Government placed two war ships on the coast, to prevent the departure of volunteers for Crete.

PARIS newspapers say Russia urges the United States to take part in the Eastern question.

Advices from Rio Janeiro state that after the failure to take Wallita by land, the iron-clads attempted it, with no better success.

NEW YORK, December 26.—Sailed—Steamer Manhattan, New York.

AUGUSTA, December 26.—Gabriel Martin and two maiden sisters, residing in Columbia County, were murdered and robbed, on Thursday night, their house set on fire and their bodies consumed.

LYNN, MASS., December 26.—Nearly the entire city was burned to-night. Loss many millions. The suffering is indescribable. The fire originated in Lyceum Hall.

CHICAGO, December 26.—Mrs. Augustus N. Dickens, Charles Dickens' brother's wife, committed suicide today.

RICHMOND, December 26.—The distillery of J. R. Sedgewick, the plaster mill of Allen & Magstring, and seven small dwelling houses, on Thirty-sixth street, were destroyed by fire to-day. Loss $40,000.

NEW YORK, December 25.—Trumbull, Slade & Co., dry goods merchants, have failed. Their liabilities are $1,600,000, but the books show a surplus of $250,000, and it is probable that an early settlement will be made, and the business resumed.

The late Thomas C. Moore, an old resident of Williamsburg, New York, in his will, revokes a devise of his personal estate to his sister—Martha Jane—comprising bonds, mortgages, scrips, certificates of bank stock, money, &c., for the reason that he desires to set apart a portion of the funds for the relief of suffering and destitute widows and children of Southern soldiers, who died or were killed in the late war, in the Eastern part of South Carolina, North Carolina and Georgia. He, therefore, bequeathes to James Hall and Francis J. Porcher, Louis DeSaussure and E. Henry Frost, of Charleston, and Rev. John Rumley, tonds in trust for that purpose, amounting to $21,600. The portion to be distributed in South Carolina is to be more than one-fifth of the whole amount, with interest, and is to be distributed in the course of seven years. All the residue of the bonds and mortgages, with few exceptions, to be set aside for the rebuilding or repairing of churches, without regard to sect or denomination, injured by the late war, within the districts of the Southern States.

The President's amnesty proclamation seems to give very general satisfaction.

A fire in an insane asylum in Amherst, Canada, suffocated one of the female inmates.

HAVANA, December 25.—There is no late news from the insurrectionary districts. Prisoners continue to arrive, and the prisons are full. Five coasters, with supplies for the Haytien rebels, have been captured by a gun-boat. The customs officials of Jamaica have been charged with gross corruption. Cholera and yellow fever are reported at Guadaloupe. The rains have destroyed a great deal of Turk's Island salt.

Office of Udolpho Wolfe, Sole Importer of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps.

22 BEAVER STREET, NEW YORK, NOV. 3, '68. To the People of the Southern States.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as WOLFE'S SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS, was introduced into the world, under the endorsement of 4,000 leading members of the medical profession, some twenty years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness.

It might be supposed, by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants, by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have precluded the introduction and sale of counterfeits.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States, of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets, and travelers who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary.

stations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets, and travelers who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary.

I feel bound to say, that I regard your Schnapps as being, in every respect, pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage.

Udolpho Wolfe, Esq., Present.

DEAR SIR: I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your Schiedam Schnapps, with the intent of determining its purity for medicinal purposes.

Wishing you success in your new enterprise, we remain your obedient servants. VALENTINE MOTT, M. D., Professor of Surgery, University Medical College, New York.

NEW YORK, 53 CEDAR STREET, November 26, 1867. Udolpho Wolfe, Esq., Present.

DEAR SIR: I have submitted to chemical analysis two bottles of Schiedam Schnapps, which I took from a fresh package in your bonded warehouse, and find, as before, that the spirituous liquor is free from injurious ingredients or falsification; that it has the marks of being aged and not recently prepared by mechanical admixture of alcohol and aromatics.
