The "Man and Brother" in the Southern Baptist Convention.

We take from the Macon Journal and Messenger the following report of an interesting debate upon the religious education of the negro, which occurred in the South-ern Baptist Convention, on Saturday last: Rev. Dr. Fuller, of Baltimore, from the Special Committee on Missions, to whom was re-referred the report of said committee, so far as relates to the colored people, submitted his report upon the report, which was received and taken up.

The report is embodied in the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That God has directly committed to the Baptists at the South the high and sacred duty of giving a pure Gospeland an enlightened colored ministry to our brethern and follow-citizens of African descent, the religious education of the colored peo-ple in our midst, as the exigencies of the case may require.

Rev. Dr. Fuller, on submitting the report, remarked that the South had yet a power by which she could rise to a position of higher importance than any she had ever occupied; that power was her spindles. Napoleon once said that it was not the armies of England that had conquered him, but her of England that had conquered him, but her spindles. So might the South, by her spindles, rise to great importance and power. He referred to the very profitable investments in factories made in Augusta, Ga., and in Mississippi. Some of these factories were paying twenty-five per cent. on the capital invested. The Doctor said he intended to clear his conscience. The stable prejudice in the South had not been extinguished. It had been overcome, he thought, to a greater extent in Georgia and thought, to a greater extent in Georgia and South Carolina than in some of the border States. Before the colored man could occupy the place for which the Saviour designed him, he must be made to feel that in Christ Jesus there is neither male nor female, Jew nor Gentile, African nor American. The colored churches must be admitted to representation in Baptist associations. In Maryland, this was already the case, though not the case in Virginia; and in the associations. the case in Virginia; and in the associations of Maryland, some of the very best speeches were sometimes made by colored preachers. These colored brethren had a sense of what were sometimes made by colored preserved from the association would take their places together, and not attempt social equality, which he said was a thing impossible. Would not the Burman, if he were here, be admitted into the associations? Why, then, should the African, who is scarcely a hne darker, be excluded? Not long since, in Baltimore, he admitted a Burman into his pulpit, and some thought it was a colored man with some thought it was a colored man with a turban on his head. The carpat-bagger Baal, having got what he came for, was moved to further amend by altering the road agaen, or on his journey to Congress, and contains a solution so as to read as follows:

"Rev. D. Reynolds of South Carolina, moved to further amend by altering the road again of his solutions on as to read as follows:

"Rev. D. Reynolds, of South Carolina, moved to further amend by altering the road again of his solutions on as to read as follows:

"Rev. D. Reynolds of South Carolina, moved to further amend by altering the road again of the solution of the solu a bar to the admission of colored ministers into the associations. The idea of admitinto the associations. The idea of admitting them into associations as delegates involved the idea of social equality. The Bible never intended, when it said that we are all one in Christ, to abolish social distinctions. Dr. P. did not regret that the discussion had arisen, as it would give an opportunity for a full discussion of the subject. ject. He thought that there was nothing that so protected the colored man, and gave him such great opportunity for elevation, as the bars existing to their social equality with the white man. If you would admit them as representatives in associations, you would have also to admit them to your houses, to your tables, and lay them upon your beds.

Rev. Jesse H. Campbell, Georgia, very heartily endorsed the sentiments of the brother who had just spoken. When were we ever to be done with discussious about the colored man? The report recommended that a department be opened in the Do-mestic Mission Board for the theological education of colored ministers; the Domestic Mission Board was in debt already, and a year, be more in debt than it now is. He had been a preacher for forty-six years, and during that time had preached much to the colored people, and baptized, perhaps, thousands of them, but he was not disposed, and never expected to be disposed, to be on terms of social equality with them. Some of his own color might have such a disposition, and it might be well enough for them that they had it; it was a matter of taste, but he did not believe that any of his posterity would ever have it. He did not beterity would ever have it. He did not be-lieve that God ever intended such equality. He was against the recommendation of the report. Mr. Browne, of Louisiana, rose to address the Convention.

Judge Lewis hoped that as the question of social equality was not referred to in the resolution, no allusion to it would be made, and called for the reading of the resolutions, which were accordingly read.

The President decided the point of order well taken.

Mr. Browne proceeded. It was not necessary to raise the point of order on account of anything he intended to say. He thanked God for the resolutions contained in the report, but did not believe that they went far enough to meet the exigencies of the case. It was impossible for our Board, if all the funds in its Treasury were directed to that end, to supply the wants of the colored people in Louisiana. He favored the plan of taking aid from the Northern Missionary Board, on condition that the minister. Board, on condition that the ministers preaching to the colored people should be appointed by the Southern Domestic Board, and report to that body.

Rev. Dr. Williams, of Maryland, thought that there had already been debate enough, and opposed the report on the ground that now living among us.

Resolved, 2. That a new department of the Mission Board be created, which shall be styled the "Freedmen's Board Department," which shall adopt such measures for the religious education of the colored results of the report:

Resolved, 19 and opposed the report on the ground that the more machinery the greater the loss of power. He, therefore, would offer the following resolution as a substitute to the report:

trict and State associations to pay special attention to the religious instruction and spiritual interest of the colored people in their midst.

A call was made for the previous question, which call was sustained, but the main question was not ordered.

The original report was then taken up by paragraphs. More discussion arose upon amendments proposed. The word "freedmen" was, on motion of Dr. Broadus, of Virginia, stricken from the report, and the words "colored people" inserted.

Rev. Dr. Burrows, of Virginia, moved to strike from the report the sentence which declares that "designing men have crept in among the colored people who preach Christ not of sincerity, but for filthy lucre, and for their own political ambition."

Dr. Broadus offered to amend, so that the paragraph shall read as follows:

paragraph shall read as follows:

"Preachers they will have; and we who know these people can better supply the teaching they need than those who have never lived among them."

The amendment was lost, and the motion to strike out was also lost. The report made on the recommittal was then read, as follows:

Resolved, That God has directly committed to the Baptists at the North the high

If you are not, so much the your dinner, we will say, and feel as if you had swallowed lead, instead of wholesome food. You have a sensation of tightness round the upper part of the diaphragm, as if some snake of the constrictor tribe held you in its embrace, and had knotted its coils over the pit of your stomach. You feel supremely miserable; and such is the penalty which your complaint exacts after every meal. What do you desire? Ease, of course. And exemption from the incubus that robs you of all enjoyment during the day, and disturbs your rest at night. Take, then, this piece of information:
