

Foreign News. HAVANA, (via Key West), May 28.—Dulce is sick, and his death is daily expected. The garrison attached to one of the forts, rioted during the debarkation for Spain of the Galvanic prisoners. The volunteers tried to stop the debarkation. During the melee, loud cries of "death to Dulce!" were heard. The rioters yielded to the supplications of the governor of the fort, and the prisoners were allowed to embark. A Spanish steamer in the Bay of Nipe fired by mistake on the Spanish troops, killing forty.

Domestic News. NEW YORK, May 28.—The Old and New School Presbyterians adopted a plan of union proposed by the Committee. The New School was unanimous as to its adoption; but of the Old School there were seven dissenting. The plan of re-union involves acceptance of the church standards pure and simple. Rev. Dr. Howard, of the New School, opposing haste, hoped judicious delay would secure union with the Southern Presbyterian Church. This action of the Assembly requires endorsement by presbyteries before its consummation. A number of influential gentlemen of this city have organized themselves into a Southern Land Company, under a charter from the North Carolina Legislature, with a capital of $225,000.

NEW ORLEANS, May 28.—The Convention was called to order at 11 o'clock. The following resolution was offered by Gen. Van Dever, of Iowa, and adopted: "That the President of this Convention be requested to telegraph to the Secretary of War the request that the Government dredge boat Es-sayens, now at work at Pass a l'Ouvre, at the mouth of the Mississippi, which, in the opinion of the New Orleans Chamber of Commerce, has already deepened the channel at said pass from eleven to seventeen feet, as per report of the committee to the Convention, be permitted to still remain at work at the mouth of the river to benefit the commerce of this whole valley by effectually deepening the channel on the bar, and keeping it to this depth; and to convey to the Government the hearty thanks of this whole valley, represented by this Convention, for the aid extended to and benefits rendered it, by the work done so far; and to say that they believe that the necessities of the commerce of the whole West and South demand the continuance of the work by the Es-sayens."

THE FEELING IN ENGLAND—SUMNER AND BRIGHT.—A letter from London, of May 10, to the New York Herald, says: "The feeling in England against any further concessions in the Alabama matter grows decidedly stronger every day, and however averse and unprepared England may be for war, there is no manner of doubt that no ministry could exist a week that should accede to the propositions foreshadowed in Sumner's speech. Even the great apostle of peace, John Bright, is opposed to going much further than the Johnson-Stanley treaty contemplated. On Saturday, Mr. Bright spent two hours at the American legation, and was emphatic in his declaration that England could never yield the right she claimed to recognize the belligerency of the South at her own time. He would, however, be willing to express regret for the remissness that suffered the Alabama to escape, and for the culpable act of allowing her to pursue her piratical career, and to visit at her will the English colonial ports, and would then agree to pay all the damages she had occasioned, leaving out of the question the bogus claims of the cotton loan speculators against the United States. There is a singular statement, by the way, going the rounds in political circles, to the effect that Bright received a letter from Senator Sumner, written on the 19th and 20th of January last, in which the American Senator states if the Johnson-Stanley treaty had arrived in Washington a month or six weeks sooner than it did, it would have been almost unanimously ratified by the Senate, and expresses a wish that such a result had been arrived at. Mr. Bright makes no secret of this letter, and much curious comment is made upon the striking inconsistency between its alleged contents and the Senator's recent speech."

GREENEY ON THE FUTURE OF THE SOUTHERN RADICALS.—Hon. Greeley has written to the editor of the Wheeling Intelligencer a letter, in which he gives the Southern radicals generally a bit of advice. The letter is as follows:

NEW YORK TRIBUNE, New York, November 18, 1868. MY DEAR SIR: I have yours of the 16th. Its leading positions have long been understood and appreciated in this quarter. Now hear me.

Every year 1,000 of your rebels die, and 1,000 (or more) of their sons become of age. You can't disfranchise them. You have now 5,000 majority. Six years at furthest will convert this into a rebel majority of 1,000. Then the rebels will be enfranchised in spite of you, and the blacks will be left under foot—and you under-estimate these at 2,000. Go your own way, and see if the rebels don't have you under foot in less than six years.

I speak from a wide experience when I tell you that your house is built on the sand. It cannot stand. Every year will see the passions of the war cool and the demand for amnesty strengthened. Now you can amnesty the rebels. Soon the question will be, shall they amnesty you? Look at Kentucky and read your certain fate in theirs. Yours, HORACE GREELEY.

We can no more judge of the true value of a man by the impression which he makes on the public, than we can tell whether the seal was gold or brass by which the stamp was made.

An hours' industry will do more to produce cheerfulness, suppress evil humors, and retrieve your affairs, than a month's moaning.

No person ever got stung by hornets who kept away from where they were. It is just so with bad habits.

Sure way to turn people's heads—go late to church.

Decorating the Graves of the Federal Dead

HEADQUARTERS G. A. R. DEPT. OF S. C., COLUMBIA, S. C., May 17, 1869. (Circular No. 1.) IN view of the approaching anniversary to be held in commemoration of our lamented comrades who fell in the late war in defence of their country, the Provisional Department Commander expresses the sincere hope that the comrades of this Department will be zealous in an endeavor to institute fitting and appropriate ceremonies for this occasion, and that their exertions may result in the decoration, &c., of many of the graves of our departed comrades, whose remains now lie in church-yard, cemetery and field within this Department.

To learn that active and sympathizing friends have thus carefully remembered the fallen who lie buried around us, will awaken feelings of lively gratitude in the hearts of many throughout the country, who may have lost relatives in the late rebellion, whose remains may rest within our reach.

This anniversary will be the occasion of great solemnity and activity on the part of thousands of comrades and friends through the country, where they will not labor under the many disadvantages with which we are surrounded, and which we are unable to control; but our numbers being so few, and circumstances so unpropitious, should awaken us to greater activity, as our efforts will be the more appreciated.

As this anniversary falls upon Sunday this year, the Commander-in-Chief, by a recent order, designates either the 29th or 30th instant, as comrades may select, for a day of celebration.

By command of G. J. STOLLMEYER, Provisional Department Commander. JAS. O. LAIRD, Assistant Adjutant-General.

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 27, 1869. In accordance with the foregoing Circular, and with the orders of the Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R., Sherman Post No. 2, (Provisional,) Department of South Carolina, will, on SATURDAY, the 29th instant, decorate the graves of their comrades interred in the Elmwood Cemetery and in other places in the vicinity of this city.

The exercises will be under the charge of the Provisional Commander of the Department.

All members of the organization are expected to attend, and an invitation is extended to the public generally.

The following is announced as the order of exercises: 1. Procession to be formed at the Cemetery gate promptly at 4 o'clock P. M., to march thence to the graves, headed by the band.

2. Reading of General Orders No. 21, from the Headquarters of Grand Army of the Republic, dated Washington, D. C., April 12, 1869, relative to the decoration ceremonies in the United States.

3. Prayer by Rev. D. F. Jackson, Grand Chaplain.

4. Music, during which time the graves will be decorated.

5. Oration by John M. Morris, Esq.

6. Music.

7. Prayer.

8. Singing, by the school children.

9. Benediction.

Should the weather be unfavorable on the day appointed for the ceremonies, they will be held at Janney's Hall at the hour named.

The Committee of Arrangements will gratefully receive all offerings of flowers and other decorations that may be tendered, at the office of Hon. J. K. Jilison, opposite the Post Office, prior to 11 o'clock, on Saturday next. May 28 2
