Glory Enough for One Day.
Whether Carpenter and Butler are elected or not, the indications are that seventeen out of thirty-one Counties in the State have gone for Reform. Everywhere the radical majorities have been lessened.

On the 1st instant, the British Post Office inaugurated a new and most important addition to the manifold facilities which the people enjoy for correspondence; we allude to the half-penny post cards. The United States Post Office Department now proposes to adopt this British idea, and to give our people the advantages connected with it. The material is fine laid card paper, flexible and strong, and is intended for those multitudinous messages which require no secrecy or concealment. Their price will be $1 per 100, and it is expected that they will be used by the million. They will save envelopes, note paper, folding, stamping and all the other troubles attending the writing of short letters.

The Charleston papers record innumerable outrages at the different country precincts in that County. At Biggin Church the ballot-box was carried off by the mob. A colored Reformer—a minister in Christ Church, was badly beaten and his life threatened. Senator W. R. Hoyt, of Colleton, was seriously stabbed by one of the members of his political faith. Serious difficulties are reported at Strawberry Ferry. Horry, York and Lancaster have Reform majorities. Orangeburg is uncertain. The aggregate vote in Abbeville, with the exception of Childers' Cross Roads, Calhoun's Mills and Lowndesville, is 4,553—white 1,764, colored 2,790.

THE STRASBURG CATHEDRAL.—A correspondent writes in regard to this celebrated cathedral, that to all external appearance it has escaped uninjured by the recent bombardment. The spire is as attractive a spectacle as ever, but it has been struck in more places than one. The cross on its summit appears to have been touched by a projectile. It leans to one side. Some of the ornamental work has been carried away, and in one of the side towers a portion of the stone stairway has been destroyed. The outer roof of the nave has been burned; the windows have here and there been pierced with balls, but the famous clock has escaped destruction, and the cathedral is on the whole in excellent condition.

There is a damsel in Norfolk County, Virginia, whose hair is so red that she has to wear fly-nets over her ears to keep candle moths from straying into that part of her anatomy while she sits pensive in the summer twilight.

...the editor of the Winterset (Iowa) Sun has the proud satisfaction of knowing that he is the smallest editor, physically speaking, in the world. He is thirty six inches high and weighs thirty-six pounds.

CASTE.—The New York World disposes of the "caste" question in the following tart paragraph: "At a meeting of blacks in this city on Monday night, certain impassioned speeches were made, asserting the immense progress of the negro race towards gentility, and the clear right of said race to admission, on equal terms with whites, into the best hotels. With the customary obtuseness of the African, it does not appear to have struck orators at this meeting that it is but a poor sign of gentility for any one to seek to thrust in where he is not wanted. A certain measure of what may be termed politeness is characteristic of the negro; but, if meetings are to be held for the purpose of facilitating intrusions, Onff's reputation for civility will sink to the low estate of those carpet-bag sneaks who are perpetually whining about the social ostracism they meet South, as if any but an ingrained blackguard would seek admission where not wanted, or how about it when denied."

DEAD.—We are pained to record the death of Rev. Bryant Boroughs, a minister of the Baptist denomination, which sad event occurred at his residence in this County on Tuesday morning last, in the seventy-eighth year of his age. He had been in bad health for the last two years, and his death was not unexpected. He was a native of this County, and had served in the ministry for more than forty years, with faithfulness and zeal. Mrs. Mary McMahon was buried at Good Hope Church, in this County, on Saturday, October 8th. She was a native of Ireland, and was buried upon her ninety-eighth birthday. She had lived for many years in Anderson County, and was greatly esteemed among her neighbors. Up to a few months since, she was remarkably active for one of her advanced age.—Anderson Intelligencer.

CONFAB BETWEEN DON FLATT AND A STEAMBOAT PILOT.—"That is Black Mountain?" "Yes, sir; highest mountain about Lake George." "Any story or legend connected with that mountain?" "Lots of 'em. Two lovers went up that mountain once and never came back again." "Indeed, why; what became of them?" "Went down on the other side."

CABINET CHANGES.—It is worthy of note, says the Philadelphia Record, that with the retirement of Mr. Cox but a single one of the entire array of cabinet officers originally appointed by General Grant now remains. Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, gave way, as Secretary of State, to Mr. Fish, of New York. Mr. Stewart, of New York, gave way, as Secretary of the Treasury, to Mr. Boutwell, of Massachusetts. General Rawlins, of Illinois, gave way, as Secretary of War, to General Belknap, of Iowa. Mr. Borie, of Pennsylvania, gave way, as Secretary of the Navy, to Mr. Robeson, of New Jersey. General Cox, of Ohio, has given way, as Secretary of the Interior, probably to Mr. Delano, of the same State. Judge Hoar, of Massachusetts, gave way, as Attorney-General, to Mr. Akerman, of Georgia. Mr. Creswell, of Maryland, the Postmaster-General, is the only officer who has retained his seat in the cabinet, although only a little more than twenty months have elapsed since the original ministry was appointed.

TRUE.—Ruskin says, and well says, that "it is no man's business whether he has genius or not; work he must, whatever he is, but quietly and steadily; and the natural and unforced results of such work will be always the thing God meant him to do, and will be his best. No agonies or heart-rendings will enable him to do any better. If he is a great man, they will be great things, but always, if thus peacefully done, good and right; always, if restlessly and ambitiously done, false, hollow and despicable." Always found wanting—beggars.

Country clergyman paying a professional visit to a neighboring parson, who was very churlish and universally unpopular, put the usual question, "Are you willing to go, my friend?" "Oh, yes," said the sick man; "I am." "Well," said the simple-minded minister, "I am glad you are, for all the neighbors are."

THE STATE FAIR—SECRETARY AIKEN'S CARD.—We invite attention to the card of the Secretary on the subject of our next State Fair. It will be seen that every newspaper in the State is requested to copy the notice. Let us further request our cotemporaries to bring before their readers the State Fair for November 9th, 10th and 11th. We desire to make it a great success. Let us fly high the flag of material development and State re-union.

COLUMBIA.—The rapidity with which our city is being rebuilt attracts universal attention and general admiration. In February, 1865, all the buildings on Main and several adjacent streets were entirely destroyed. During the five years intervening the ruins have nearly all been cleared away, and substantial structures erected. Main street alone can boast of 110 brick stores—the majority of them two and three story buildings. Fully one thousand dwellings have also been erected on other streets—many of them really handsome residences; and the work is still going on rapidly. In two or three years, if the building mania continues, all the waste places will be covered, and our healthy city will rank in beauty and dimensions with the first in the South.

FATAL AFFRAY IN LAURENS.—SENSATIONAL REPORTS.—Private letters received in this city, yesterday, from Newberry, state that a difficulty occurred in Laurens, on Thursday, while members of the State Constabulary were attempting to arrest a Tennessean. Shots were exchanged, and it is rumored that the two constables were killed and other parties wounded—Joe Crews among them. There are many rumors afloat, and much excitement. Several colored persons, who had arrived in Newberry, report that four of their race had been killed.

TO THE PUBLIC.
COLUMBIA, October 21, 1870.
I will give to the bankers and business men of this State, in a few days, an exposé of the Carolina National Bank and its stock operations. This statement will be corroborated by the most reliable business men of Columbia. The public will then be enabled to determine what value or credit that institution is entitled to; also, to fix the true value of their stock. C. P. LESLIE.
Oct 22

Caution to the Public.
THE public are cautioned not to purchase the stock alluded to in the advertisement published by Mr. Leslie, as the consideration for which it was given has not been complied with, and the Carolina National Bank has been enjoined from letting it be transferred. Oct 21 JAMES G. GIBBES.

Survivor's Meeting.
A MEETING of the SURVIVOR'S ASSOCIATION of Richmond will be held on WEDNESDAY NEXT, at 12 o'clock, in the Hall of the Independent Fire Company, to elect officers for the ensuing year, and appoint Delegates to the State Association, and transact other business of importance. "It's mity curis," said Mrs. Partington to Ike, while reading about the impending war in Europe, "that the Hollerhorn creates such an ail in Yurrupe, when it's such a common disease among the sailors in Ameriky." The old lady, having gathered herself up of the above, took a dose of LIPPMAN'S GREAT GREEN MAN BITTERS to cheer her depressed spirits, and resumed her knitting.
Lippman's Bitters are for sale by all druggists and dealers. Depot in Columbia, S. C., at GREEN & MCGREGOR'S, Druggists. S 18

THE attention of the reader is respectfully invited to the advertisement of Bradford & Co., in another column. They are undoubtedly selling the best remedies out for the diseases they are recommended for. BRADFORD'S FEMALE REGULATOR and Dr. PARRETT'S OCEANIC LAYER MEDICINE, has certainly cured more afflicted persons than any two medicines of their kind. Try them, and be well, as these gentlemen guarantee satisfaction or money refunded.

A BEAUTIFUL THOUGHT.—It may be truthfully said that the greatest of all blessings is health, for without it the joys of all other things are lost. To all health is essential to the enjoyment of life. Try then, and be young and old, to the rich and poor, in search of health? Health is everywhere. Do you desire office and worldly honors? Of what avail would these be without health? The beauties of spring, the softness of the deep blue sky, the rolling ocean, all have a poetic fascination which charms only the healthy in mind and body. Do you seek what are these but mockeries? The body diseased, the mind sickly, ever with the saddest of thoughts. Oh! that I may live to appreciate the blessings of health. This rich boon is within the reach of all. The remedy at hand in HEINRICH'S GREAT REMEDY, the health panacea. Now is the time to try it. A 2
