

PARIS, May 20.—At noon, yesterday, the Versailles, attacked the gate of St. Cloud. At 1.30, the combat raged at Neuilly, and at 2 o'clock a line extended from Bois de Boulogne to the gate of Châtigny. All the troops were engaged. There was no decisive result.

FRANKFORT, May 20.—Bismarck, Pouter, Queretier and Favre arrived to-day, for the purpose of exchanging ratifications of the treaty of peace. All public buildings and a great many private residences are decorated with flags, in honor of the occasion.

PARIS, Sunday night, May 21.—This afternoon, three squadrons of cavalry were reviewed, amid tremendous excitement. Generals Hanier and Fournier presented them with standards, and they shouted, "We will defend them till death!" Soon afterwards, Petit Vanvers, by order of the Commune, was evacuated, in order to shelter Montrouge. At 6 o'clock, to-night, the Versailles entered La Muette gate, and sharp fighting ensued. Extraordinary rumors are afloat. It is reported that the Versailles have been repulsed. Mounted orderlies have just arrived at the War Office, with news: Col. Lisbonne, commanding the Franco-Germans, stated that he would immediately attack the Versailles in the Park.

LONDON, May 22.—The Committee of the Reichsrath have agreed to present an address to the throne, pronouncing the ministerial plan for concessions to the nationalities a failure; encouraging to malcontents, and demanding a strong State organization. Thiers' circular announces that General Douai rushed into Paris, through the gate of St. Cloud.

Later advices state that Douai holds his position inside the walls, while the flag has been hoisted at Auteuil gate, where two regiments entered. The Malakoff and Fort Mont once have been abandoned by the insurgents. It is stated that Fyatt, Cronson and other Commune leaders have disappeared. The only Commune Generals now outside the walls are Dombrowski, in the Bois de Boulogne, and Wroblewski, at Châtigny. Later advices report that the Arc de Triomphe has been reached by the Versailles. The guns on the ramparts have been turned on the insurgents. 20,000 men, under Lamy, and 40,000 under another general are moving on the open gates.

VERSAILLES, May 22.—Gen. Dombrowski, reported taken prisoner by the Versailles troops, is said to have been recaptured by our own men; and since made an attempt to escape from Paris. It is now stated that he and his command were surrounded near Saint Quentin, and probably will be captured.

LONDON, May 22.—Communication with Paris has been suspended. The Prussians have cut the Northern Railroad. Dombrowski's capture is reported. The bombardment of the portion of the Paris fortifications held by the insurgents continues. A Versailles despatch, this morning, says the Versailles hold the gates at St. Cloud, Hossy, Auteuil, Trocadero and Meette, with half of the Versailles army, are within the walls. Heavy firing has been heard in the Champs Elysees.

PARIS, May 22.—P. M.—The Versailles army has occupied Paris. The headquarters of Marshal McMahon are established in the new opera house. The headquarters of General Clissey, whose forces entered the city from the South, are in the Ecole Militaire, which fronts the Champs de Mars. There was a great explosion near Esplanade des Invalides.

LONDON, May 22.—The steamer Paraguay, bound for New York, returned damaged by running down the screw steamer Webb. The Webb sunk immediately. Thirteen lives were lost.

AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE.

NIAGARA FALLS, May 13.—A boat containing three young men went over Horse Shoe falls this afternoon. Their names and residences are unknown.

DAYTON, O., May 13.—The Montgomery County Democratic Convention met to-day. Mr. Vallandigham, from the Committee on Resolutions, reported a new Democratic departure platform, intended for the ground-work of a national platform. The resolutions, which were prepared by Mr. Vallandigham, declare that they unite upon the living issues of the day; accept the legitimate results of the war, so far as waged for its ostensible purposes, and fully concur in the three several amendments to the Constitution recently adopted, and acquiesce in the same as no longer issues before the country; declare that the Democratic party pledges itself to the faithful and absolute execution and enforcement of the Constitution as it now is, so as to secure equal rights to all persons, without distinction of race, color or condition; demand absolute equality for each and every State in the Union; oppose centralization and consolidation of power in the General Government; demand general amnesty; favor the payment of the public debt as early as practicable and consistent with moderate taxation, and call for strict economy and honesty in all departments of the Government; call for reform in the internal revenue system and civil service; favor a strictly revenue tariff, and declare taxation should be based on wealth, not population; demand a speedy return to specie payment as possible; sympathize with the laboring class, and state there is no necessary war between labor and capital; oppose the granting of public lands to railroads; oppose the acquisition of San Domingo; denounce the bills passed by Congress, known as the bayonet bill and the Klux bill, and claim that the Republican party is no longer a Union party, but the administration party. Mr. Vallandigham made a speech in support of the resolutions, which were adopted by acclamation.

ANNAPOLIS, May 21.—The work-shops and engineers' building at the Naval Academy are partially destroyed. Loss $50,000.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The Foreign Relations Committee have spent twenty hours considering the treaty. It was considered yesterday as in committee of the whole, and on Monday will be reported to the Senate without amendment, when several amendments will be offered, but, it is thought, will be rejected; and, as a whole, it will be adopted probably on Tuesday. The court preacher this morning, in the presence of Grant and several Senators, prayed for the ratification of the treaty. Earl DeGray informed several uninformed Senators that the ratification of the treaty in England was an affair of the Crown, and was only submitted to Parliament for the information of that body.

NEW YORK, May 22.—The Foster jury has been completed.

NEWARK, N. J., May 22.—Dr. James Cutler has been convicted of three abortions.

NEW YORK, May 22.—The Directors of the Central Bank of Brooklyn are liable to deposition.

The United States Marshal, supported by a file of soldiers for the mines, took possession of the steamer Wm. Tapscott, over which Morgan Shes and J. T. Tapscott have been contending.

A policeman killed a youth.

A citizen fatally stabbed a soldier in Chicago, yesterday.

A World cable, dated Paris, 22d, A. M., says: All is over. 70,000 Versailles have entered the city, and more are now coming. They marched in all night, coming through six gates, and met but slight resistance. The barricades were not defended. No mines were exploded. The Versailles are now moving on the Hotel de Ville, where the Communists have made their last stand. The Versailles behaved splendidly, committing no excesses.

Bonner denies the report that he will not fight at Chicago.

The Foster trial is progressing. No new facts elicited.

TORONTO, May 22.—Two distinct earthquakes, on Sunday morning, were felt here, at Quebec, Ottawa, and other places. No damage.

BALTIMORE, May 22.—Numbers 21, 23 and 25 Sharp street, were burned to-day. An engine exploded, killing J. Harry Weaver, a member of Council.

NEW ORLEANS, May 22.—Archbishop Porche received, yesterday, a formal demonstration of welcome upon his return from Rome, from a procession of military and civil societies. An immense concourse took part.

CINCINNATI, May 22.—Bishop Clarke is very low, being scarcely able to recognize his friends.

CHICAGO, May 22.—The Presbyterian General Assembly adopted resolutions of fraternal greeting, and transmitted them to the Baptist Assembly.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Colfax fainted during the session to-day. Corcoran continues to improve.

In the Senate, Sumner made a personal explanation, saying that the speech attributed to him in the New York Herald was bogus. Edmunds denied having abused the press in secret session. Motions discharging the contumacious reporters were made, which go over, under the rule.

It is proposed to force a vote on the treaty by the night session to-morrow night.

Baron Gerolt, who has represented Prussia here for twenty years, departs this week.

Colfax, as required by law, has certified to the District Attorney the contents of the Tribune correspondents, which will bring the matter to the cognizance of the grand jury. The Senate will hold them prisoners.

Nominations—Bird W. Gray, Judge of the Eastern District of Texas; Samuel Wakefield, postmaster, New Iberia, La.

Probabilities—Partially cloudy and clear weather is probable for Tuesday in the interior. No serious disturbance is indicated for the Southern and the lake coasts. Rising barometer and clearing weather are probable for the Eastern States.

CHARLESTON, May 22.—Arrived—steamer Virginia, Philadelphia.

A despatch from Ringgold Barracks, Texas, reports that 100 armed Mexicans have crossed the border upon a cattle raid; that smaller bands are constantly crossing for the same purpose, and extend their depredations nearly to Corpus Christi. If encountered, they fight. Thousands of cattle are thus stolen every month, and the Mexican officials throw every obstacle in the way of their recovery.

FIRE AT WHITE HALL STATION.—A fire occurred at White Hall Station, on the Savannah and Charleston Railroad, yesterday morning, at 8 o'clock, destroying the store, stable and granary of J. Stern & Co., and involving a loss of near $10,000. Insurance not known. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

A spent cyclone struck Auckland, N. Z., the other day, and tore up several trees, unroofed lots of houses, and totally destroyed a church and a number of vessels in the harbor. Query—If a "spent" cyclone will do this amount of damage, what would a regular healthy one achieve?

Sixteen brave young women of Monroe, Mich., recently put a boat of tar and feathers on a respectable married lady, simply because a man who worked the farm boarded in her house during the absence of her husband. Evil those who evil think.

A New York painter, named John Foster, while engaged in painting the Knickerbocker block, in Memphis, Tenn., recently fell from an insecure ladder and was instantly killed.

Scientifically, the florid brunette is the most perfect type of beauty.

Shiriff Mackey, of Charleston, is in trouble. The County officers being eight months in arrears, he is compelled to refuse receiving prisoners after the 25th.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The cotton movement exhibits no new feature. Receipts fall off slightly, while exports continue largely in excess of last year. Receipts at all points 45,067 bales, against 46,849 last year, 51,422 previous year and 56,635 three weeks since. Receipts since September 3,715,454, against 2,719,023 for the corresponding time last year. Exports from all points 77,384, against 45,787 corresponding week last year. Exports for expired portion of year 2,840,625, against 1,884,938 last year. Stock at all ports 335,702, against 317,549 last year. Stock in interior 260,000, against 122,000 last year. Indian cotton afloat 335,388, against 197,000 last year. Great changes have taken place in the weather South during the week. Rain is now exception and not the rule. Later advices confirm the impression that less cotton and more grain will be planted this year.

ANOTHER GALLANT PALMETTO GONE.

The Charleston News thus alludes to the death of Mr. John Campsen:

"It becomes our sad duty to chronicle the death of Mr. John Campsen, one of the most prominent of our German fellow-citizens. Mr. C. was born in North Germany, in the vicinity of Bremen, and came to this country when quite a youth. When the Palmetto Regiment was organized to take the field in Mexico, he became a member of that gallant band. He took part in several battles, and in one was severely wounded. After his recovery, he commenced business in this city—first in a humble way, but by dint of industry, economy, energy and business tact, he gradually enlarged his field, till he became one of the prominent merchants of Charleston. He was a public-spirited citizen, and brought the same energy and industry to bear upon any public enterprise entrusted to his care that he habitually did to his private affairs. He was a member of many of the German societies, and at different times had held many offices. He was a strong friend, large-hearted and generous, and his loss will be seriously felt. Mr. Campsen was about forty-two years of age, and leaves a wife and several children to deplore their irreparable loss."

THE CONCLUSION OF THE TOURNAMENT.

It will be recollected that on Wednesday afternoon, the day of the tournament, and after the time tests had been completed, four steamers—the German, Palmetto, Independent, (of Columbia,) and Stonewall, entered for the prize, a beautiful silver pitcher, for distance-playing. The German tried her powers, and after meeting with mishaps in the bursting of her hose twice, threw a stream 253 feet 6 inches. The Palmetto, after encountering untoward circumstances, played 258 feet, and was thought by all to be the victor, as it was currently rumored that the others had withdrawn; but it seems not, as the Stonewall repaired to the corner of Broad and King streets—the place where her rivals had measured their strength—Saturday afternoon last, and exceeded them all, by throwing 262 feet 5 inches. This settled the question for distance playing, and Messrs. J. C. Lacoste, E. R. White and A. B. Jarvis, the judges, declared in favor of the Stonewall, to the satisfaction of all, and particularly the Palmettoes, who, like brave fellows, manured the drags of the victor, and hauled her to her house, George street, where cheer was enjoyed, after which President G. L. Buist, of the Stonewall, presented to the Palmettoes, in behalf of his company, a beautiful silver goblet, which was received by Captain James Armstrong for the Palmettoes.—Charleston Courier.

FIGHTING THE INDIANS.—Advices from

Thoson state that the Pima Indians routed a camp of hostile Apaches on the 3d of May, fifty miles North of the Pima reservation, in the Pinal Mountains, Arizona, killing twenty-eight and capturing four prisoners. The Apaches admitted they were on the war path, and had been drawing rations from Camp Grant. The United States troops at Fort Bacon, New Mexico, a day or two ago surprised and captured twenty-two hostile Indians, with 700 cattle and ponies.

SCHOONER SUNK—TWO MEN DROWNED.

The schooner Rebecca Secor, from Havre du Grace, bound to Richmond, on the night of May 13, while off Smith's Point, sprung a leak and sunk immediately. Two of her crew, both colored men, were drowned. The captain and mate were in the rigging from 12 o'clock on Saturday night, until 7 o'clock on Sunday morning, and the wind at that time was blowing a gale.

The National Lincoln Monument now erecting at Oak Ridge Cemetery, near Springfield, Illinois, will be completed about the first of July. The Monument Association has decided to celebrate the occasion with appropriate services. Besides the unveiling and inauguration of the bronze statue of Mr. Lincoln, just cast from the model by Mr. Meade, the celebrated sculptor, the remains of the late President will be transferred to the new vault in the base of the monument.

Some days ago, it will be remembered, the Free Masons of Paris planted their banners on the outward walls of the city, for the purpose of conciliating the Versailles. A Paris correspondent, writing from that city, says that these Free Masons, with the exception of one or two lodges, are the very dregs of the city, and in no sense representative of that great organization.—Washington Patriot.

A man by the name of McCormick, a resident of Robeson County, N. C., was driving the streets in a cart, when his horse suddenly became frightened at something and ran away, throwing Mr. McCormick from his cart, by which he was so badly injured about the head that he expired about 4 o'clock the same afternoon. A brother of the unfortunate gentleman was drowned not long since.

A Philadelphia paper says: Georgetown, S. C., offers the complete road-bed of a route thence to the North-east Railroad at Cadiz, which, if continued to Charlotte, N. C., will be the nearest approach from Cincinnati, by tide-water, by seventy-five miles, to any company who will iron and ruin it. The local freight will sustain the road, and great business will come in at Columbia.

The Chicago Common Council has thought better of it, and concluded not to sell the ground in which the remains of Senator Douglas lie, but to pay the tax out of the general fund.

PIANO FORTES,

BALTIMORE, MD.

THESE instruments have been before the public for nearly thirty years, and upon their excellence alone attained an unsurpassed pre-eminence, which pronounces them unequalled. Their

TOBE

Combines great power, sweetness and fine slugging quality, as well as great purity of intonation, and sweetness throughout the entire scale. Their

TOUCH

Is pliant and elastic, and entirely free from the stiffness found in so many pianos.

IN WORKMANSHIP

They are unequalled, using none but the very best seasoned material, the large capital employed in our business enabling us to keep continually an immense stock of lumber, &c., on hand.

All our square pianos have our new improved OVERHAULING SCALE and the Agraffe Treble.

We would call special attention to our late improvements in GRAND PIANOS and SQUARE GRANDS, patented August 14, 1860, which bring the piano nearer perfection than has yet been attained.</
