They restore the diseased Liver, Stomach and Kidneys, to a healthy action, while at the same time they brace and invigorate the whole system.

ROME, GA., January 11, 1871.
Dr. W. H. Tut—DEAR SIR: Having used your Liver Pills, and finding none that have done my wife or myself as much good, I would like to know if they would do as well North as here. I intend going North in March, and if they will have the same effect as in this climate, I want to take them with me. Hoping to hear from you soon, I remain your obedient servant,

WHOSE HANDSOME HOUSE IS THAT?—Such was the inquiry of a traveler as he passed an unusually well-finished country residence, not a thousand miles from here. The style of the sashes, the brightness of the glass, the beauty of the doors, the classic patterns of the moldings, the neatness of the balusters, and the staleness of the pillars around the piazza, all struck the traveler with astonishment and admiration. And no wonder, for they were all furnished by Mr. P. P. TOALE, No. 20 Hayne street, Charleston, S. C. A 27

And whereas, by concurrent resolution passed December 20, 1871, certain members of the Bar in the town of Columbia were authorized to erect a range of fire-proof brick offices, in the Court House square thereof, under the following provision: "That nothing in this resolution shall preclude the State at any time from taking possession of the land upon which the said buildings are proposed to be erected, upon paying to the person or persons interested in, or owning the same, the value of the said offices, to be estimated by six fit and proper persons, three of whom shall be chosen by the State, and the other three by the persons interested in the said offices at the time of the said valuation; and in case they differ, that they have power to call in a seventh person; and that the said estimate, when made, be final;" Now, therefore, be it known that I, ROBERT K. SCOTT, Governor of the State of South Carolina, do hereby appoint Hon. John Guinis, Esq., Commissioner to appraise the value of said offices, and meet three other appraisers to be chosen by the owners of said offices on the 20th day of May instant, and thereon, and then to determine upon the true value of the same under the provisions of the joint resolution.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the great Seal of the State to be affixed, at Columbia, S. C., this 10th day of May, A. D. 1872, and in the ninety-sixth year of the Independence of the United States of America.
