Special Notices.

The Career of a Great Remedy.—Twenty summers have elapsed since it was briefly announced that a new vegetable tonic and alternative, bearing the name of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, had been added to the list of preventive and restorative medicines. The modest advertisement which invited attention to the preparation stated that it had been used with great success, in private practice, as a cure for dyspepsia, bilious complaints, constipation and intermittent fever. It was soon discovered that the article possessed extraordinary properties. The people, of every class, tested its merits as a tonic, stimulant, corrective and restorative, and found that its effects more than fulfilled their hopes and expectations. From that time to the present, its course has been upward and onward, and it stands today at the head of all medicines of its class, American or imported, in the magnitude of its sales and its reputation as a safe, agreeable and potent agent for the cure of appetite and gastric disturbances, so common during the summer months, it is absolutely infallible. Indigestion, bilious disorders, constipation, nervousness, periodical fevers, and all the ordinary complaints generated by a vitiated and humid atmosphere, vanish under its renovating and regulating influence. This is its record, vouchsafed by the volumes of intelligent testimony, extending over a period of a fifth of a century, and comprehending the names of thousands of well-known citizens belonging to every class and calling. In Europe, it is thought a great thing to obtain the patronage of royalty for a "patent medicine," but HOSTETTER'S BITTERS has been spontaneously approved by millions of independent sovereigns, and its patent consists in their endorsement.

Plain Questions for Invalids.—Have the routine medicines of the profession done you no good? Are you discouraged and miserable? If so, to the properties of the new Vegetable Specific, Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS, already famous as the finest invigorant, corrective and alternative, that has ever seen the light. Dyspepsia and persons of bilious habit should keep it within reach. If they value health and ease. What Every Invalid Wants—A good, cheap and reliable Laxative. Such an article is Dr. Tobias' Venetian Horse Liniment. Pint bottles at one dollar. For Lameness, Cuts, Galls, Colic, Sprains, &c., warranted better than any other. Sold by the Druggists. Depot, 10 Park Place, New York.

Burnett's Cocaine.—A compound of Cocaine Oil, &c., for the Hair, has established a world-wide reputation. Its natural adaptation, agreeableness, and effectiveness, together with its cheapness in respect to durability and size of bottle, render it unequalled by any other preparation in the world. For sale by all Druggists.

Pratt's Astral Oil.—More accidents occur from using unsafe oils than from steamboats and railroads combined. Over 200,000 families continue to burn Pratt's Astral Oil, and no accidents, directly or indirectly, have occurred from burning, using or handling it. Oil House of Charles Pratt, established 1770, New York.

A Beautiful White.—Soft, smooth and clear skin is produced by using G. W. Laird's "Bloom of Youth." It removes tan, freckles, sun-burns, and all other discolorations from the skin, leaving the complexion brilliant and beautiful. Sold at all druggists. This preparation is entirely free from any material detrimental to health.

Just the Remedy Needed.—Thanks to Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, we have, for years, been relieved from sleepless nights of painful watching with poor, suffering, teething children.

Water, according to the original formula of Prevost, Paris, so long and favorably known to the customers of Haviland, Hazzell, Kiesel, and their branches, for its permanent fragrance, is now made by H. W. Bismley and the trade supplied by his successors, Morgan & Risley, Wholesale Druggists, New York.

Christie's Hair Dye.—This magnificent compound is beyond controversy, the safest and most reliable dye in existence; never failing to impart to the hair uniformity of color, nourishment and elasticity. Manufactured by 63 Maiden Lane, New York.

Sveppia is Opium purified of its sickening and poisonous qualities. It is a perfect anodyne, not producing headache or constipation of bowels, as is the case with other preparations of opium. John Farr, Chemist, New York. July 3 11mo

SECOND GRAND GIFT CONCERT.

IN AID OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY, AT LOUISVILLE, KY.

BY authority in the Act of the Legislature, incorporating the Public Library of Kentucky, the trustees will give their SECOND GRAND GIFT CONCERT, in the great hall of the Public Library Building, in Louisville, Ky., on Saturday, September 28, 1872. This magnificent hall, known as Weisiger Hall, is the largest, most centrally located, and best arranged for large and fashionable audiences of any in Louisville, and is fitted up in superb style. The building has a front of 183 feet on Fourth street by a depth of 200 feet, four stories in height, and was recently purchased for the Public Library at a cost of $210,000. Three large rooms are now fitted up for a library, and contain about 20,000 volumes, and a museum of 102,000 specimens, now open and free to the gratuitous use and enjoyment of all citizens of every State in the Union. It is the purpose of the Trustees, by the Grand Gift Concert now announced, to raise the money with which to pay the balance of the purchase money due upon the Public Library Building, to enlarge the library, and to so endow the institution as to make it self-sustaining and forever beyond the necessity of calling upon any individual who uses the books for the contribution of a single cent toward its support.

100,000 Tickets of Admission will be issued, at 10 each; half tickets $5; quarter tickets $2.50; 11 whole tickets for $100; 23 for $255; 56 for $500; 113 for $1,000; 225 for $2,500; 575 for $5,000. No discount on less than $100 worth of tickets at a time.

Tickets will be sent, when requested, by registered letter. The money for them may be sent by Adams Express Company and its connections, or in the form of money order, registered letter or bank draft.

The holder of each ticket, or fraction of a ticket, (a half or a quarter), is entitled to admission to the Concert and to the Gift awarded to it. During the Concert the sum of $300,000 in Currency will be given to the holders of tickets by distribution by lot of ONE THOUSAND GIFTS, as follows:

The Farmers' and Drivers' Bank as Treasurer, and the Contractors and Supervisors are all representative men, and are among the most respectable and distinguished citizens of the State.

Should any tickets be left unsold on the day of drawing, they will be destroyed, and the 1,000 gifts offered will all be drawn and paid, but diminished in value in proportion to the percentage of unsold tickets. For instance, if only three-fourths of the tickets are sold, the capital gift will be reduced to $75,000, and all the others in proportion.

The Hon. THOS. E. BRAMLETTE, late Governor of Kentucky, has consented to represent the Trustees in the management of this second Grand Gift Concert, and he will personally see that money from the sale of tickets is fairly conducted, and the gifts justly awarded and promptly paid.

The drawing will take place in public, in full view of the audience, and under the immediate supervision and direction of the officers and Trustees of the Public Library of Kentucky and the following named eminent and disinterested citizens, who have consented to be present and see that all is fairly done:

Irish Champagne!

YES, IRISH CHAMPAGNE! Why not? Was not the great Apostle of Temperance, Father Mathew, an Irishman? Still, were he alive to-day, he would quaff a cup of this beverage, and, smacking his lips, bless the man who invented "Irish Champagne." This can be drank with perfect safety by the Knights of Pythias, Good Templars, or Bad Templars, Sons of Malta, Sons of Temperance, or anybody else's sons or daughters, masons, brick-layers, chimney-sweeps—in fact, anybody, particularly those who wear Grant hats and Greeley hats, or their own hats, are invited, fraternally to imbibe (at their own expense, mind!) this superlatively delicious beverage.

This notice would have been further extended, but a man borrowed our dictionary, and several big words we intended to use are necessarily omitted; but when that man returns that Dictionary, the public may expect to hear from us again.

Notice.

COLUMBIA, S. C., JUNE 1, 1872. THE undersigned has associated with him in business, Mr. JOHN E. GYLES. The general Grocery business will hereafter be conducted by the firm of HOPE & GYLES. June 2 EDWARD HOPE.

There is no State in the Union to-day in which the Grant policy of "addition, division, and silence" is so thoroughly established as in South Carolina. The Radicals in that State have so completely carried out the Kemble doctrine, that the Trustees of the Peabody Fund found it necessary to decline making any appropriation for South Carolina, as knowing that whatever they appropriated would be only made an excuse for State appropriations to be stolen by the State functionaries. This, Grant, in his capacity as a trustee of the Peabody Fund, had the pleasure of learning this other day, in Boston, at a meeting of the Trustees of the Fund. And now comes the Commercial Advertiser, one of his own household, and reiterates the dose as follows, in the guise of comments upon the establishment of public schools at the South:

The system came at last, and to the State appropriation is added a reinforcement from a wisely administered fund. It appears, too, that the old settlers of the South have been faithful among the faithless. Virginia, with her Government controlled by the Conservative element, has secured a school system better and stronger than in any of the negro and carpet-bag States. This is not to be wondered at. Virginia white men generally know what to do and how to do it, and it is not strange that they can build up a school system superior to one erected by South Carolina blacks.

The Commercial Advertiser, however, does the blacks of South Carolina injustice. The blacks are the tools. The thieves who control them do the work, and are supported in doing it by President Grant.—New York World.

SINGULAR CASE OF SUSPENDED ANIMATION.—We obtained yesterday, (says the St. Louis Times, of the 21st ult.) from a reliable source, the following facts respecting a very remarkable and recent occurrence in Florissant: One evening, about two and one-half months since, a strong and healthy young man, named William Mattingly, returned to his home from a day's work, complaining of not feeling well. Before morning he became seriously ill, and when medical help was called in the disease was pronounced spotted fever, or cerebro spinal meningitis. Within forty-eight hours after the first severe attack the patient relapsed into a comatose state, and was thought by his friends to be dead. The barber was summoned from the village to shave the corpse and to assist in properly preparing it for burial. Upon commencing his work he was astonished to find the flesh soft and elastic. He called the attention of others to this unusual circumstance, and it was determined to make a closer examination. As the result of their experiments they came to the conclusion that their friend was still alive. Restoratives were procured and speedily administered. Although consciousness never returned yet the man was kept alive for sixty-two days, stimulants and nourishments having been introduced into his system by artificial means. It is believed that all of these statements can be fully substantiated.

REPUBLICAN REASONS WHY GRANT SHOULD NOT BE PRESIDENT.—Here are a few testimonials, compiled by the Philadelphia Age, which the people would do well to consult before supporting Gen. Grant. They are short, but to the point: "Grant has no more capability than a horse," said Fighting Joe Hooker a month since. "He is not fit to govern this country," were Stanton's dying words. "There are sixteen weighty reasons why Grant should never be President," wrote Colfax in 1868. "He has no more roil than a dog," said Ben. Butler less than a year ago. "He is not controlled by constitutional law, but by political rings," says Trumbull. "His San Domingo business stamps him as a first class conspirator," says Governor Palmer. "He is making money out of his position, and that's all he cares about it," said Senator Carpenter to a New York Herald correspondent. "He is a man without sufficient knowledge to pre- side over a caucus," said Logan in 1868.

Donn Piatt says "there are two seasons in which our Administration seeks repose from its gigantic labors—one is that which precedes the holidays, and the other that which follows."
