"What a superb face!" said one Boston girl to another as they stood before a marble head of Minerva. "Yes," said the other. "What a nose for spectacles!"—Harper's Bazar.

"Well," said Mr. Rafferty at the banquet, "bechune thim oranges and these olives, me appetite lanes till the oranges. But Oi'll shtick till me colors if it kills me."—Washington Star.

Any person desiring a nice home with one acre of land set out with bearing fruit trees, can secure one by paying a small amount of cash and easy monthly payments. Enquire at STAR office.

Grand Cheap Excursion on the F. C. & P. to Fernandina.—Special train leaves Ocala Sunday, July 14, at 7 a. m. Returning, leaves Fernandina 8:30, giving 4 to 5 hours at Amelia Beach. The finest beach and best bathing on the Atlantic coast. Go and enjoy the sea breezes. Fare for the round trip, Ocala and Citra, $1.

The sound of the saw and the hammer can again be heard in our city.

The Ocala Rifles will give a whist party tomorrow night at the armory. Members of the Rifles and of the club will be invited, also lady friends of the orders will be present.

Roberts—There's one thing I don't like about our national motto. Peters—What? E pluribus unum? What is the matter with it? Roberts—Parts its name in the middle.

A Brazilian recently saved his life by carrying a roll of $100 notes inside his vest when a bullet came that way. Yet there are people who neglect so simple a precaution.

Dr. T. D. Crawford, the efficient book-keeper in the post office drug store, will leave tomorrow for Ormond by the Sea, where he will spend a week fishing and wrestling with old Ocean's billows.

The phosphate mine owners of Florida will meet in Ocala on July 16 for the purpose of determining whether to shut down the mines or continue them during the summer. It will be an important meeting and should be well attended.

The boys of Marion hose company No. 1 will begin practice Friday night. Come out and see and encourage them with your presence. On the paved street along the South Florida railroad "Uncle George" will do some good catching.

C. H. Campbell, the live superintendent of the water works, will work for our fire department and see that they get all the assistance needed in the contest for championship at Atlanta. It is proof of the success of any undertaking to learn that Mr. Campbell is interested in it.

Baptist Young People's Union of America, at Baltimore.—For the above occasion the F. C. & P. will sell round trip tickets on July 16 and 17, good until August 5, 1895, at $27.20. If parties desire to go via Savannah and steamer, on sale July 11 and 12, at $24 round trip, limit August 5.

FAIRES City Ticket Agent, Ocala House.

Ocala's hose company will compete for the championship at the International Firemen's Tournament, to be given October 11 and 12 at the Cotton States Exposition. Marion Hose Company No. 1 and her well trained crew, under the management of Capt. George Courtney, will go into training Friday night, and with a determination to win. Twice before have they carried off the state championship, and we see no reason why they can not do the same thing in this international contest. The prize to be competed for is one worthy of their efforts, being a $1000 championship belt and $250 in cash. Let Ocala give the boys all the needed help and encouragement.
