LACK of pride is usually nothing but laziness.

AN industrious man has no respect for dirt or weeds.

LAZINESS and weeds thrive together on the same plantation.

PERSISTENT advertising is essential to success. A business, a city or a state thrives by advertising. An exposition of resources is a masterpiece in advertising and produces enduring impressions.

BUY goods from those you have a right to expect will buy from you and give internants and non-residents a wide berth. Your neighbor is not apt to swindle you, while on the contrary, strangers are, if they get a chance.

THE Herald acknowledges the receipt of a copy of the Ocala EVENING STAR, a neat newsy daily recently launched on the sea of Journalism by Porter & Harding, Ocala, Fla. The latter of the above firm is our old friend, Link Harding, of Appleton City. We are pleased to note such evidence of his prosperity.—Urich (Mo.) Herald.

YOUNG man, you should remember that as you grow older and become a man you will want to engage in business on your own account. This will take money. It's not every young man that inherits a fortune and has money to engage in business when he becomes a man. The majority of the boys have to work and make a start in life for themselves. This is honorable. Save a few dollars each month and you will always feel more independent. The spend-thrift is a disgrace to himself.

R. R. Carroll, the STAR reporter, is quite sick today, and is confined to his room, therefore you will find the local matter in today's issue rather scarce. We hope he will be able to be out tomorrow.
