SAM SMALL'S paper, the Pilot, at Norfolk, Va., has assigned with liabilities of $17,000.

BABY MARION may press the outton that starts the machinery of the Cotton States and International exposition.

THE Ocala Banner comes out with a new head. Some might call it the big head. — Archer Times-Democrat.

THERE were 16,185 bales of tobacco, weighing 1,653,870 pounds, imported to Tampa the past year, against 10,073 bales, weighing 1,033,539 pounds, in 1893-4.—Ex.

THE Bank of England is still increasing its holdings of gold. It now has $19,000,000 more than it had 12 months ago. The Bank of France has added $57,000,000 to its hoard of gold in the same time.—Ex.

It is now estimated that this year's cotton crop will be about eight million bales and prices are expected to take a tumble. Of course it will fall before it is ready for the market. The price of cotton is always low when it is in the hands of the farmers.—Times-Union.

INDIANS are murdering settlers by the wholesale in Jackson's Hole, Wyo., and burning their houses. The redskins have been on a raid in that section for some time, and will only be suppressed by the United States troops, who are now on their way to the scene of the massacre.

ENGLAND holds in subjection in India between 170 and 225 million people. The exact number is not known, but it is known with certainty, maintains the New York World, that they are held as revenue producers under the same economic principle which obtained in chattel slavery. The form of subjection only has changed.

A MAN up on St. Andrews Bay owns a few acres of saw palmetto. During two years he has made 150 mattresses of fiber from the leaves and sold palmetto berries, valuable for their medicinal qualities, gathered from a sixteenth of an acre, for $26.70. "I can say the saw palmetto," he adds, "is worth more to the state of Florida than all the pine and orange trees together."—Manatee Journal.

PALMER HARDIN, editor of the Monticello Tribune, died on the 18th ult., in his 25th year. He was a native of Kentucky and a young man of great promise, but delicate health drove him to a milder climate. He had been editor of the Tribune for several years, and was very popular with all classes of people in his adopted home. To strong talents he added the gentle graces of Christian character.—Tampa Times.

THE past week was one of crime in Florida. The seven murders committed indicate a state of lawlessness which is regretted by all moral citizens. There is a cause for this wanton disregard of all law, and it can only be attributed to the negligence of the courts in punishing violators of the law. Public sentiment must be so aroused as to force the punishment of the guilty before we shall witness a change, and the sooner the better.—Pensacola Times.

HIS HEAD WAS LEVEL.

An exchange says that a county superintendent in a neighboring county recently asked every teacher in the county institute who took their local paper to hold up their hands, and out of about one hundred only six responded, at which he expressed surprise and said, "You don't spend one dollar a year with these papers, yet you expect them to print free of charge notices of institutes, insert long programs of same, and a full report of what you say and do on these occasions, and thus expect them to advertise you and your abilities in your chosen profession, thus assisting you to climb the ladder to higher positions and better salaries without a cent's postage in return." He closed by saying, "Your condition in this matter would lead me, were I an editor of these papers, to promptly throw into the waste basket any communication sent to me by the society, the members of which are too stingy to take a paper, or if I inserted it, to demand full advertising rates for every line published."

A JUDGE'S ESTIMATE OF RUMSELLERS.

(Concluded.)

"One can have no adequate conception of a cataract until he has seen Niagara, nor of the terrible fury and grandeur of a storm in mid-ocean until he has seen one. No one can know the utter depravity to which his species can be brought until he looks upon the desolate ruin caused by your hellish traffic. You are persistent, defiant law-breakers, and shamelessly boast that, in defiance of the law and moral sense of the community, you will continue in your wicked and criminal practice. It has, therefore, now become the imperative duty of the court to let the arms of the law fall upon you so heavily that you shall either be driven from your nefarious traffic or ruined in your fortunes or wicked prosperity. You have become a stench in the nostrils of the community, and all good men are praying that you be speedily reformed or summarily destroyed.

By the providence of God and the favor of this court, their prayers shall be speedily answered by signal and exact justice for your crimes. And, finally, let me entreat you, if you are not lost to every sentiment of humanity, to desist from your criminal vagabond traffic, and betake yourselves to some honest calling for a livelihood, that you may yet become virtuous, useful citizens, and entitled to the respect of a Christian community."—Christian Secretary.

The Senior Loyal Temperance Legion met in temperance hall last night at the usual hour. After the roll call and reading of minutes of last meeting the following program was carried out:

Recitation—"The Bondage of Drink".....Justin Ogle
Recitation—"The Drunkard's Child".....Miss Jennie Bull
Recitation—"Poor Little Blossom"
Miss Grace Gaffney
Reading of the L. T. L. Star....
Miss Sarah Bull

Mrs. Gaffney then made a few remarks—announcing the next medal contest two weeks off—the contestants to be four young men, all of whom are fine speakers. The program will be a very nice one, and we hope there will be a good crowd.

Young ladies' contest in six weeks.
