W. B. Denham, of Palatka, superintendent of the Florida Southern division of the Plant System, is in the city today.

Figures do not lie. Multiply $36 by 7 and you have $500—provided you invest seven times thirty-six with the Covenant Building and Loan association. Ask M. M. Little about it.

Our town has been filled with strangers for the last two days. There must be something in the way of attraction to draw them here.

Wanted.—A few private boarders, ladies or gentlemen. Convenient to public square. Rates reasonable. Mrs. Thos. J. Barnes, corner Main and North Third street E.

There was a total eclipse of the moon last night, beginning at 10 and passing off after 12. Being so late and cloudy, too, very few of our people noticed it.

Meeting Encampment of Populists at Orlando.—For the above occasion the F. C. & P. will sell round trip tickets, Sept. 2 and 3, good to return Sept. 5, 1895, at $3.95.

We are glad to notice that Street Commissioner Dodson is cleaning the grass and weeds from Fort King avenue. This was badly needed, and improves the looks of things very much.

BUFFALO BILL'S HISTORY

The following sketch of Buffalo Bill is attributed to a London paper, and gives a very fair idea of the knowledge most untraveled Englishmen have of this country:

The cablegrams announce that Col. Cody, who will be remembered in London, has been returned as mayor of Nebraska. No better selection could be made. Col. Cody was a friend of a man named Boone, who discovered Kentucky in 1869.

After marrying the granddaughter of a distinguished gentleman named Sitting Bull Frog, Cody was twice governor of Chicago, and at one time was made mayor of the Arkansas legislature.

He also served in the confederate army under Ben Butler, who so gallantly defended New Orleans against Gen. Longstreet.

The province of Detroit rewarded him for his military service by sending him to congress, where he introduced a bill for the relief of the citizens of Buffalo.

It was this that gave him the name of "Buffalo Bill"

While Mr. Cody has a large ranch in St. Louis, he finds time for literature, and writes for the Atlantic Monthly, a magazine edited by Mark Twain and Uncle Thomas Cabin, a gentleman who made fame by his negro dialect sketches.

OCALA FEMALE SEMINARY.

Reopens September 30, 1895.

Three departments—Primary, Preparatory and Collegiate. Languages and Music. For further information apply to

MISS M. COHEN,
Principal.

WILL GO TO NEW YORK.

Major Root and wife have returned from New York, where they have been for some time on a visit.

They will remain a short time in Ocala, and then return to New York, where the major has rented a flat.

They will keep house and Mr. Root will go into business again.

Bring your job work to the STAR office and see how cheap they will do it for you.

Rassie Ronge has just completed a nice job of lighting his father's residence with electricity, and did a very neat job. The wires are laid "out of sight," the latest and most popular method adopted in Ocala.

Cheap Excursion via F. C. & P. to Tampa.—Last chance to Tampa and return for $1. On Sunday, Sept. 8, the F. C. & P. will run a special train to Tampa, leaving Ocala 8:48 a.m., arriving in Tampa 12:45 noon; returning, leave Tampa 8 p.m. Only $1 for the round trip.

The "J. L. C." held its regular meeting at the residence of Mrs. J. R. Morehead Tuesday evening. A delightful program was rendered by those present. The rain prevented there being as large an attendance as usual.
