

Temperance Column.

By the Ocala Temperance Reform Club.

Rev. J. P. Hilburn and Isaac Stevens, Editors

The Club meets every Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Temperance Hall. The Public are invited.

"If it were not for drunkenness there would be no crime in Ireland at all. As it is there is no crime which does not arise out of that evil," says Archbishop Croke of that country.

The state agricultural society of Wisconsin has an appropriation of $3000 from the state on condition that intoxicants shall not be sold on the ground. The brewers have offered $600 to the society to decline the state's appropriation and grant them the privilege of selling liquors.

Mr. Guly, a great lawyer and the new speaker of the house of commons, states that although he has always been very abstemious, since becoming speaker he has never tasted intoxicating liquor, and finds that total abstinence has done him much good. All he drinks is a glass of Apollinaris water at lunch.

Three converted African chiefs who recently visited London were asked about the effects of the liquor traffic. One replied: "I am glad you ask me about the drink, for I call it destruction. It is the destruction of my people. They lose their good standing and food and speech because of it. The white man's drink is a worse foe to my people than the weapons of Lobengula." Another said: "English liquor maddens; it destroys even our little children. All kinds of evil come out of the beer-pot. I have put it down."

The man who has so much business that he can't find time to read the STAR must have been advertising in the STAR.
