PUBLISHED EVERY DAY IN THE WEEK EXCEPTING SUNDAY.

A WEDDING TONIGHT.

James Roach and Miss Ada O'Bannon of Homosassa will be united in the holy bonds of matrimony this evening at the residence of the bride's mother at Homosassa. Dr. J. G. Law left for that place on the 3:30 S. S. O. & G. train to perform the ceremony.

Miss O'Bannon is one of the most accomplished and beautiful of Citrus county's young ladies, and has a host of friends there and in Ocala. Mr. Roach is a most excellent young man. He is an engineer on the Plant System from High Springs to Lakeland and draws the largest salary of any engineer on that road. We wish the young couple a long life of happiness.

ANOTHER FIGHT.

Saturday evening the Acme hotel was the scene of a lively fight.

A new waiter from Tampa, with a record for fighting, jumped on another waiter and was about to finish him when he was taken off. When the man bolted, Bargannier spent most of the afternoon in trying to locate him but without success.

BEFORE THE MAYOR.

Victor Morris, the colored waiter who raised so much racket at the Acme hotel, was before his honor this morning and pleaded not guilty.

Nevertheless the mayor fined him $2 and cost.

A RUNAWAY.

Early this morning the horse attached to the milk wagon of Mr. Sparkman became frightened while standing in front of the Witness building and bolted down Fort King avenue. Striking on a corner the wagon was badly demolished.

He—Won't you let me have a kiss—now that I am going away for a day? She—If you can give any good reason why I should, I might think about it—possibly. He—I should like to establish a precedent.—Bay City Chat.

Something new and attractive to be seen in Rowell's Shoe Window—the latest and prettiest line of Shoes, Leggings, Hats, Canes and Umbrellas. It is worth your while to take a look at them.

LAST NIGHT'S LECTURE.

The church was crowded at Rev. W. E. Mumford's lecture last night, and those who had the pleasure of listening to him say he is second to none.

The house was moved to laughter or tears as the speaker moved the feelings of the audience with his eloquence, wit and pathos.

RATES TO KEY WEST.

The fare to Key West on account of the state firemen's tournament is one and one-fourth fare for the round trip on all railroads in the state, and from Port Tampa to Key West $15 for the round trip by steamer, which includes meals and berth. On sale Jan. 20 and 23
